WEST VIRGINIA FOR SOCIALISM!

That the Socialists of the state are alive is proved by the fact that immediately following the announcement, made two months ago, that the Appeal would send its staff representative into the coal regions, readers of this paper volunteered financial help for the purpose of founding West Virginia with literature. That literature is needed in that field is evident by the sums contributed by the West Virginia comrades themselves to the fund for this purpose. One local contributed $600.00. This was in the early stages of the fight. One hundred thousand copies of the Appeal were sent broadcast over the state and distributed from house to house of every Socialist club in West Virginia. Altogether more than $2,000 has been sent to the Appeal by the Socialists of that state alone. These comrades are thoroughly aroused to the demand for literature, and they recognize that the Appeal with its splendid printing plant and corps of special writers and investigators is equipped to do this work.

The Appeal is the silent messenger of Socialism that can go into the remote and isolated districts where the socialist cannot yet go. The Appeal paves the way, making the path of the organizer easier. It is not necessary for me to tell you the value of the Appeal as a pioneer agitator. I count you, YOU, and what it did for you it will do for others. If every Socialist who traces his conversion to Socialism through the Appeal will contribute $1.00 to the "Carry West Virginia Fund," it will enable the Appeal to cover every hamlet, village, town and city in that state from now until the 1914 election. What would it be worth to you to capture that state for Socialism to the end that the political machinery of West Virginia might be used in the interest of the struggling miners as it has been used in the past for the selfish interest of the coal barons? If so let the Appeal have the dollar and the aggregative work will be continued along the lines already laid down.

Committee Report on West Virginia

BY EUGENE V. DEBS

The National office of the Socialist party has determined upon an aggressive campaign of organization in West Virginia to follow up and climax the recent splendid agitation in that state. This shows commendable determination and support of the national organization, and the Appeal urges the comrades everywhere to back the plan outlined by National Secretary Lanterski to the fullest extent.

The conditions are ripe. The Appeal is ready. The people are ready. It only remains for us to act. This is the time to act. This is the time to make our effects known.

Report on West Virginia

When the economy of the state of West Virginia was discussed, it was noted that there were several factors that contributed to the state's economic situation. One of these factors was the high cost of living, which was caused by the presence of coal mining in the state. Another factor was the presence of industrial workers, who were paid very low wages. The state's economy was also affected by the presence of a large number of small farms, which were unable to compete with the large corporations. The state's economy was also affected by the presence of a large number of unemployed workers, who were unable to find work in the state.

In conclusion, the economic situation in West Virginia was caused by a variety of factors, including the high cost of living, the presence of industrial workers, the presence of small farms, and the presence of unemployed workers. These factors, combined with other factors, contributed to the state's economic situation, which is characterized by a high level of poverty and unemployment.

He was also known for his role in the labor movement during the Great Depression, when he led a strike of the Pullman Palace Car Company.

Socialized Land

A great many people say that all the foreign lands are socialized. This is from a foreign land, which states that the country is socialized. It is not the case, however, that the land is socialized. The country is not socialized, but the land is.

Owning and Renting Books

In the past, it was common for individuals to own books as a way of preserving their culture and history. Today, many people rent books in order to save money and to avoid the cost of ownership.

LAW AND ORDER

A Letter Showing Spies' Methods

A letter was written to the editor of the Appeal to Reason, a newspaper, by a person who claimed to be a spy. The letter was written in response to a previous article that had been published in the newspaper, which had accused the spy of being a criminal. The letter was written to show that the spy was not a criminal, but rather, a patriot.

Retiring Message

I am retired from the helm of this ship. I have served the ship and the crew well, and I am proud of the work that has been done. I am leaving the ship in good hands, and I have no doubt that the ship will continue to sail smoothly.

The Appeals Representative

The appeal to reason is a powerful tool. It can be used to influence people's beliefs, and it can be used to bring about social change. It is important to remember that the appeal to reason is not always effective, and that it may take time for people to accept new ideas.

The Reaper of Death

Two scenes of death were presented to us the other day. A man lost his life in his home, and another in the street. The first view was a man walking up the street, apparently healthy. Suddenly he collapsed and died in the street. The second scene was a man lying on the ground, apparently dying. He was carried to the hospital, but died later.

Modern Minute Man

A modern man is a man of action. He is always on the move, always busy. He is a doer, not a dreamer. He is a man of the present, not the past.

An Appeal From W. Va.

I am writing to tell of the conditions in the coal mines of West Virginia. The workers are hungry and cold. They are treated with contempt and brutality. The mine owners are ruthless and greedy. They want to make as much money as possible. The government does not do enough to protect the workers. I urge you to support the union and make the mine owners pay for their crimes.

The Power of an Idea

An idea is a powerful thing. It can change the world. It can make people do things they never thought possible. It can create new industries and new ways of life. It can even change the course of history.

Life as It Really Is

Life is not always what it seems. Sometimes it is hard and full of trials. Sometimes it is easy and full of joy. But one thing is certain: life is full of surprises.

Preparing for War

The United States is preparing for war. The government is building up its military forces. The factories are producing weapons and ammunition. The people are being called up for military service. It is a time of great uncertainty.

A Paper for Socialists

Socialism is a system of social organization. It advocates the collective ownership of the means of production. It is a system that seeks to eliminate class distinctions and to provide for the social welfare of all.

Stories From History

History is full of amazing stories. There are stories of heroes and villains, of triumphs and defeats, of love and betrayal. It is a fascinating subject.
