THE broken-hearted mother of Waldo H. Coffman, the young Socialist soldier, informs the Appeal that her son has just been sentenced by court-martial to a year's imprisonment in a military bastile. His only crime is that of being a Socialist. This outrageous sentence is a direct challenge to the Socialists of America. The gage of battle has been flung down. What shall your answer be? Will you submit to this dastardly outrage? Has an American citizen, in uniform or out, no right to believe in whatever political principles he chooses? Is freedom of thought to be stamped out in this "free" land of ours? Is militarism, the mailed fist of the master-class, to crush American manhood? The Appeal has snatched up the battle-gage and stands forth for conflict. Its answer is instantaneous. It has dispatched John Kenneth Turner to the scene of this war on liberty and to other army posts, and has secured from him a series of articles dealing with militarism in all its various phases, stripped of glamour and glory, nakedly revealed for what it is, barbaric, cruel, hideous. The first of these articles appears in this issue. Others will follow, week by week. No liberty-loving American can afford to miss a single word of this great series. Turner's revelations, widely circulated, will shake this nation. The call to action is urgent. Let all respond!

This horrible outrage must not and shall not continue. For God's sake, save my boy! I speak not only for my son, I plead for the salvation of every other woman—save them, too!"
