Coal Barons Raise $1,000,000 to Fight Socialism

This is the reply of the coal barons to the crusade inaugurated by the Socialists to carry West Virginia for Socialism. Those coal operators understand even better than you and I the importance of controlling that huge political machine in West Virginia. Their dream of greed is the time when the miners will use their political power to aid themselves in their industrial struggles. To keep the miners on the employers' side, they have determined to raise $1,000,000 to fight Socialism.

Against this MILLION DOLLARS the Appeal proposes to match a Million Copies of this paper. The records show that we have sent into West Virginia since this fight started 124,000 copies. The Appeal army has raised $421.25. It is significant and encouraging that so small an amount of money will cause so much excitement and commotion in politician's camp, in the coal operators' camp, and among Socialists.

The Appeal is prepared to fight the battle for the miners and the miners' families. The Appeal is not the Socialist paper. The Appeal is just the paper of the working men and women of West Virginia. It is the paper of the miners, the workers, and all who are in the most effective position to fight for the miners. It is the paper that will carry the message of Socialism to all workers in West Virginia.

Army Posts Worse Than Prisons

A message from the War Department expressing serious concern over the conditions at the various military posts has been received in this office, and it is understood that an order has been issued by Secretary of War Elihu Root, directing a thorough investigation of the entire system of military detention, including the conditions at the various prison camps. The order is intended to ensure the maintenance of a high standard of discipline and to prevent the recurrence of any outrages similar to those which have recently occurred at Fort Leavenworth.

A Little Courage

A young soldier at a military post recently displayed a remarkable degree of courage in saving the life of a fellow soldier who was about to commit suicide. The soldier who was about to commit suicide was found to be under great stress due to a recent personal tragedy. The young soldier, who had observed the signs of despair, immediately intervened and persuaded the soldier to seek help. Capitalists Go to War

In the wake of the recent conflict, many capitalists have shown a reluctance to support the war effort. However, with the passage of time, it is hoped that the situation will improve, and these individuals will contribute more actively. It is important to ensure that all segments of society are represented in the war effort to ensure a successful outcome.

Beginning of Things

The Reward of Genius

JOHN STEVENS

The beginning of a new era in the history of railroading is in the making. It is the result of the genius of a man who, by his own efforts, has been able to create a railroad from the ground up. This man is John Stevens, and his creation is the Stevens Railway, the first true electrically operated railroad in the United States.

John Stevens was born in Connecticut, and early showed a genius for mechanical things. He went to work in a machine shop, and, by his own efforts, learned the trade. He then went to work on the railroad, and, by his own inventions, was able to create the Stevens Railway.

The Stevens Railway is a true electrically operated railroad, and is operated by electricity. It is the first of its kind in the United States, and is a great step forward in the development of railroading.

When the Appeal announced that the Socialists of the United States were going to back their comrades in West Virginia in the fight to carry the state for Socialism, it threw a big scare into the fortaliced camps of the big business men. The Socialist party is the only way to meet the issue was by starting an Anti-Socialist crusade. They have raised a MILLION DOLLARS, so the press dispatches announce. We believe as many are speaking more because the wave of Socialism will drain the state with all the poisonied their writers can invent. The News has already done much to block this little game, but we must do more. A little panicky paper can contribute to the West Virginia fund. We can make each and every copy of the Appeal put out that state more for Socialism than a capitalist dollar will do for stability.

As Things May Be

Occupied Under Socialism

Every improvement under Socialism will be carried out without the support of the moneyed interests. The men in the factories, the women in the workshops, in the offices, in the mines, in the fields, on the farms, and in every walk of life will carry things forward. The man and woman of the people will have the opportunity to be independent and self-reliant; and they will be able to lead a life of ease, comfort, and happiness.

At the Country Store

The story is true. When miners, farmers, and others, have achieved a better standard of living, they will be able to enjoy the pleasures of the countryside and the city. The workers will have a chance to work together, and the countryside will be their playground.

The Lion and the Mouse

One day, a Miner and a Baby entered a store. The Baby was cubbing about, and the Miner was looking at the goods. The Baby asked the Miner to buy something for him. The Miner said, "No, I don't want to buy anything." The Baby continued, "But why not?" The Miner said, "You see, I don't have enough money to buy anything." The Baby said, "But why don't you have enough money?" The Miner said, "Because I'm a Miner, and I don't have enough money to buy anything.
