What Socialist Administrations Have Accomplished

Schenechaty, N. Y.

Socialist administration provides unemployment and relief during depression. When an inquiry was made of those in Schenectady, N.Y., about how administration provided relief, the majority of the people, 671, said that it was the socialists who were in power. They said that they were hard hit by the depression and that the socialist administration provided relief through the operation of the city's labor exchange. The administration established an honest and efficient labor exchange, which provided work for many people during the depression. The exchange operated on a organized basis and the workers were paid a fair wage. The administration also provided food券 to those who were in need.
