Things As I See Them
BY FRED D. WARTH
WILL someone send me the correct answer to this question: "If the state government had not been settled to it, who is it?" Answers will be given preference in the columns of the APPEAL, and especially if they come from the state government.

WILL I was in Topeka a few days ago. Among other things, I examined the Statehouse, and was surprised to find the building in a state of repair that was not commensurate with the amount of money spent on it. The state government, I was told, had been putting aside a sum of money for the purpose of repairing the statehouse, and that the money had been spent in a manner that did not meet with general approval. I was told that the state government had been accused of not spending the money as it was intended to be spent.

I was pleased to see that the state government was taking steps to correct this situation. I understand that a special commission has been appointed to investigate the matter, and that the commission's report will be made public. I hope that the state government will take immediate steps to remedy this situation and to make sure that the money is spent as it was intended to be spent.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.

The state government is doing a great deal of good for the state, and I hope that it will continue to do so. It is important that the state government be efficient and effective, and I believe that it is doing its best to achieve these goals. I hope that the state government will continue to work hard to make Kansas a better place to live.
A Voice From Prison

Will Investigate Strikes.

Congress will investigate the strike among the miners in Michigan. The question of the Socialist and the other friends of the strikers is for the immediate remedy of the situation. The movement is to make the strikers accepted in good standing, and the interest of the Public will be served by an investigation of the causes of the strike.

In Lawless Michigan.

The strike among the copper miners of the Copper Region of Michigan has been in progress since last July, and the strike for the improvement of the social and economic conditions of the miners is in the same way.

The miners have been driven to desperation by the conditions which exist on the mine. The miners are not getting a decent living, and they are not getting the wages which are necessary for their support.

The miners have taken the matter into their own hands, and they have decided to strike for the improvement of their conditions. The strike is now in progress, and the miners are determined to continue it until they get the wages which are necessary for their support.

Supposing Free Speech.

Hastings, Minn.—(Rison Minn.)—The strikers have been granted the right to free speech.

The strikers have the right to free speech, and they are determined to use it to the fullest extent. They are determined to use it to make their views known, and they are determined to use it to make their demands heard.

Surely, Mr. H. T. McFarland, the strike leader, has been granted the right to free speech.

Surely, Mr. H. T. McFarland, the strike leader, has been granted the right to free speech. He has the right to publish his views, and he has the right to express his opinions.

Pretend All Unions.

Dallas, Tex.—(Rison Minn.)—The strikers have been granted the right to unionize.

The strikers have the right to unionize, and they are determined to use it to the fullest extent. They are determined to use it to make their views known, and they are determined to use it to make their demands heard.

Surely, Mr. H. T. McFarland, the strike leader, has been granted the right to unionize.

Surely, Mr. H. T. McFarland, the strike leader, has been granted the right to unionize. He has the right to organize a union, and he has the right to express his opinions.

Paint Without Cost.

Remarkable Discovery That Cuts the Cost of Paint 99 Per Cent.

A new process for the manufacture of paint has been discovered that cuts the cost of paint 99 per cent.

The process is simple. The paint is made from a mixture of water and a small amount of a chemical. The paint is then applied to the surface, and it dries in a few hours.

This process cuts the cost of paint 99 per cent. It is a great advantage to the public, and it is a great advantage to the manufacturers of paint.

The process is simple. The paint is made from a mixture of water and a small amount of a chemical. The paint is then applied to the surface, and it dries in a few hours.

This process cuts the cost of paint 99 per cent. It is a great advantage to the public, and it is a great advantage to the manufacturers of paint.

The process is simple. The paint is made from a mixture of water and a small amount of a chemical. The paint is then applied to the surface, and it dries in a few hours.

This process cuts the cost of paint 99 per cent. It is a great advantage to the public, and it is a great advantage to the manufacturers of paint.

The process is simple. The paint is made from a mixture of water and a small amount of a chemical. The paint is then applied to the surface, and it dries in a few hours.

This process cuts the cost of paint 99 per cent. It is a great advantage to the public, and it is a great advantage to the manufacturers of paint.
Little Stories of Real People.

By G. E. MONROE.

Uncle Sam is deportee of St. Not the motley of them. When in America, July 8,

The old story, the one who had set to his task, "Hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights..." and the rest. It was written 200 years ago.

As the storms of every issue of the North, South and both, east and west, and the world seems to be turning the Yankees into backwoodsmen, it is shown by the story of August Krupey.

August Krupey was born 200 years ago in a little mountain village of Switzerland. A village so far from the nearest hamlet it is a long, long way to the next nearest hamlet. A village so far from the nearest town it is a long, long way to the next nearest town. A village so far from the nearest city it is a long, long way to the next nearest city. A village so far from the nearest country it is a long, long way to the next nearest country. A village so far from the nearest continent it is a long, long way to the next nearest continent. A village so far from the nearest galaxy it is a long, long way to the next nearest galaxy. A village so far from the nearest universe it is a long, long way to the next nearest universe.

And yet, as we think back to that time, we find that many of them were penniless emigrants who sought refuge under adverse conditions. They came to America seeking opportunity and freedom. They were determined to make a better life for themselves and their families. And so it was.

As the storms of every issue of the North, South and both, east and west, and the world seems to be turning the Yankees into backwoodsmen, it is shown by the story of August Krupey.

August Krupey was born 200 years ago in a little mountain village of Switzerland. A village so far from the nearest hamlet it is a long, long way to the next nearest hamlet. A village so far from the nearest town it is a long, long way to the next nearest town. A village so far from the nearest city it is a long, long way to the next nearest city. A village so far from the nearest country it is a long, long way to the next nearest country. A village so far from the nearest continent it is a long, long way to the next nearest continent. A village so far from the nearest galaxy it is a long, long way to the next nearest galaxy. A village so far from the nearest universe it is a long, long way to the next nearest universe.

And yet, as we think back to that time, we find that many of them were penniless emigrants who sought refuge under adverse conditions. They came to America seeking opportunity and freedom. They were determined to make a better life for themselves and their families. And so it was.

As the storms of every issue of the North, South and both, east and west, and the world seems to be turning the Yankees into backwoodsmen, it is shown by the story of August Krupey.

August Krupey was born 200 years ago in a little mountain village of Switzerland. A village so far from the nearest hamlet it is a long, long way to the next nearest hamlet. A village so far from the nearest town it is a long, long way to the next nearest town. A village so far from the nearest city it is a long, long way to the next nearest city. A village so far from the nearest country it is a long, long way to the next nearest country. A village so far from the nearest continent it is a long, long way to the next nearest continent. A village so far from the nearest galaxy it is a long, long way to the next nearest galaxy. A village so far from the nearest universe it is a long, long way to the next nearest universe.

And yet, as we think back to that time, we find that many of them were penniless emigrants who sought refuge under adverse conditions. They came to America seeking opportunity and freedom. They were determined to make a better life for themselves and their families. And so it was.

As the storms of every issue of the North, South and both, east and west, and the world seems to be turning the Yankees into backwoodsmen, it is shown by the story of August Krupey.

August Krupey was born 200 years ago in a little mountain village of Switzerland. A village so far from the nearest hamlet it is a long, long way to the next nearest hamlet. A village so far from the nearest town it is a long, long way to the next nearest town. A village so far from the nearest city it is a long, long way to the next nearest city. A village so far from the nearest country it is a long, long way to the next nearest country. A village so far from the nearest continent it is a long, long way to the next nearest continent. A village so far from the nearest galaxy it is a long, long way to the next nearest galaxy. A village so far from the nearest universe it is a long, long way to the next nearest universe.

And yet, as we think back to that time, we find that many of them were penniless emigrants who sought refuge under adverse conditions. They came to America seeking opportunity and freedom. They were determined to make a better life for themselves and their families. And so it was.

As the storms of every issue of the North, South and both, east and west, and the world seems to be turning the Yankees into backwoodsmen, it is shown by the story of August Krupey.

August Krupey was born 200 years ago in a little mountain village of Switzerland. A village so far from the nearest hamlet it is a long, long way to the next nearest hamlet. A village so far from the nearest town it is a long, long way to the next nearest town. A village so far from the nearest city it is a long, long way to the next nearest city. A village so far from the nearest country it is a long, long way to the next nearest country. A village so far from the nearest continent it is a long, long way to the next nearest continent. A village so far from the nearest galaxy it is a long, long way to the next nearest galaxy. A village so far from the nearest universe it is a long, long way to the next nearest universe.

And yet, as we think back to that time, we find that many of them were penniless emigrants who sought refuge under adverse conditions. They came to America seeking opportunity and freedom. They were determined to make a better life for themselves and their families. And so it was.

As the storms of every issue of the North, South and both, east and west, and the world seems to be turning the Yankees into backwoodsmen, it is shown by the story of August Krupey.

August Krupey was born 200 years ago in a little mountain village of Switzerland. A village so far from the nearest hamlet it is a long, long way to the next nearest hamlet. A village so far from the nearest town it is a long, long way to the next nearest town. A village so far from the nearest city it is a long, long way to the next nearest city. A village so far from the nearest country it is a long, long way to the next nearest country. A village so far from the nearest continent it is a long, long way to the next nearest continent. A village so far from the nearest galaxy it is a long, long way to the next nearest galaxy. A village so far from the nearest universe it is a long, long way to the next nearest universe.

And yet, as we think back to that time, we find that many of them were penniless emigrants who sought refuge under adverse conditions. They came to America seeking opportunity and freedom. They were determined to make a better life for themselves and their families. And so it was.
The Socialist Party.
Several correspondents, who stated they were members of the Socialist Party, wrote in to say that they were aware of the allegations against them, but they believed the party was organized in a way that prevented the spread of such behavior. They maintained that the party members were not the perpetrators of the behavior described, and that the organization was focused on spreading socialist principles and ideas.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.

The Appeal to Reason.
In an article titled "We Are All Responsible," the Appeal to Reason argued that "we are all responsible for our actions, and it is not the fault of the Socialist Party that evil events occur. The responsibility lies with each individual, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our actions and work towards a better society." The article emphasized the importance of individual responsibility in creating a socialist society.

The Right Spirit.
In an article titled "The Right Spirit," the author argued that "the right spirit is necessary for the success of a socialist society. It is not enough to simply organize and demand change; we must also have the right spirit to make the changes happen. This means working together, supporting each other, and having a positive attitude in the face of adversity. With the right spirit, we can create a world that is fair and just for all." The article emphasized the importance of having the right spirit in the fight for socialism.