Things As I See Them

By Fred D. Waters.

Appeal to Reconcile

No. 955

FIFTY CENTS A YEAR

Politicians Say Peace.

What's the answer to the question: Why don't all politicians try to find a solution to the problem of world peace?

Because they are politicians. They do not want to adopt a position that might alienate their supporters. They prefer to remain neutral so that they can continue to campaign for re-election. It is a safe political strategy, but it is not effective in solving the world's problems.

Why the hell are we supporting the war?

Well, because we have to. The United States is committed to both sides of the conflict, and we cannot simply withdraw our support. We have a moral obligation to uphold the principles of freedom and democracy.

Who's behind all this?

The real power brokers are the wealthy bankers and industrialists. They control the government and use it to further their own interests.

Man's best friend.

Life would be much simpler if we could just communicate with our pets. They would understand us and we wouldn't have to deal with all the hassle of schedules and appointments.

Personal favor.

I recently received a letter from a friend who lives in another state. He mentioned that he had visited a new restaurant and thought I might enjoy it. I'm definitely going to try it out.

Can we trust the government?

I think so, but it's always good to keep an eye on what they're doing. It's important to stay informed and be aware of the issues that affect us.

A new dawn.

With the election of a new president, it's time to hope for a fresh start. Let's see what the future holds.

Do we need a new constitution?

The Constitution is a cornerstone of our democracy. While it has its flaws, it has served us well for a long time. I think it's important to keep it as it is and make changes when necessary.
IMPORANT! April 1, 14, is positively the last date upon which you can enroll an Appeal in the Arsenal for October of for only 14-week subscriptions. After that date the price will increase to 25 cents a week. Get up that club and sell it once and meet April 11.

A 1914 Primer

See that the man you got to is hand on his money. The man has a little red covered book called "The New Appeal" in the Appeal's New Arrest of Fact. I'm not sure. But it is true. The man is afraid of the little book he is holding. He is afraid of the little book he is holding. He is afraid of the little book he is holding. He is afraid of the little book he is holding.

Who are the timid men?

They are not afraid of the man that is afraid of the little book. They are not afraid of the man that is afraid of the little book. They are not afraid of the man that is afraid of the little book. They are not afraid of the man that is afraid of the little book.

How can I get one of those books?

You can get one free by sending the Appeal 20 cents. I send twenty cents and you get one for 20 cents. I send twenty cents and you get one for 20 cents. I send twenty cents and you get one for 20 cents. I send twenty cents and you get one for 20 cents.

...Will Collins Put Up...

The following letter was mailed to Peter Collins, Lake Charles, La., by rep. M. P. Morgan, from Morgan, April 1st. The letter was written by Mr. Morgan, April 1st. The letter was written by Mr. Morgan, April 1st. The letter was written by Mr. Morgan, April 1st.

Great Depression: 1914

Robert M. Calhoun, a Southern writer, has said: "The Great Depression of 1914 is the most important event of the 20th century. It was a turning point in American history.

...Another Fight is Won...

The free speech fight has been won in Kansas City, Mo., after a battle lasting six months. It began by the city's mayor calling the demonstration and then formally closing the city's public streets. The city's mayor called the demonstration and then formally closing the city's public streets. The city's mayor called the demonstration and then formally closing the city's public streets.

...Heinlein's Bravest Act...

The Appeal's Heinlein's Bravest Act... made it known in this week's Newsstand Edition of the Appeal. Heinlein's Bravest Act... made it known in this week's Newsstand Edition of the Appeal. Heinlein's Bravest Act... made it known in this week's Newsstand Edition of the Appeal. Heinlein's Bravest Act... made it known in this week's Newsstand Edition of the Appeal.

...The Origin of Benny Durburg...

The following fiction stories are published in the Newsstand Edition of "The Origin of Benny Durburg," a short story by the late Ben Durburg, a former Appeal writer and editor.

...You Can't Write a Book...

You can't write a book. You can't write a book. You can't write a book. You can't write a book. You can't write a book.

...The Gangs are Taught to Stump...

The Appeal is sending out a special edition of "The Gangs are Taught to Stump," a story by the late Ben Durburg, a former Appeal writer and editor.

...Dynamite Bomb...in cozy little town...

A New York professor of chemistry was killed by an explosion. He is a good professor of chemistry, but he is not a very good political organizer.

...Why it is a worker's industrial revolution...

It is a worker's industrial revolution. It is a worker's industrial revolution. It is a worker's industrial revolution. It is a worker's industrial revolution.