Governments

That something BIG must be done by the world on behalf of all people, I am not a prophet. But you can call me the prophet of plowshares. I know of no other way to make the world safe for democracy than by peaceful means, with plowshares and swords, with plowshares and plowshares.

Big Victory in Butte

In Butte, Montana, the victory was decisive. The miners, organized and supported by the miners' union, had won their demand for a raise in wages. This was a significant victory for the miners and a setback for the employers. It was a clear example of how团结的力量 can overcome the power of the ruling class.

Send Election Returns

Election returns are crucial to the democratic process. They ensure that the voices of the people are heard, that the elected officials represent the will of the electorate. Without accurate and timely returns, democracy loses its strength.

Mother Jones and John Kenneth Turner

In the early 20th century, Mother Jones and John Kenneth Turner were leaders in the labor movement. Their struggle for workers' rights and social justice continues to inspire us today.
