Just Aheaf

The Appeal has been one of the few bright spots during its years of existence, a sign of the times plain and simply. It has been a challenge, a test of our ability to see and understand things as they are, to make them right.

LITTLE FARM

You are not alone in feeling that this is the right way to live. Many others share your views, and they, too, are voiceless in the face of those who would destroy them. We are not alone.

LITTLE FARM

The Appeal's mission is not just to fight for the little farmer, but to fight for the little person, the little thing, the little world. We are all little, and we must stand together.
