WHAT IS DEMOCRACY?

Democracy is a system of government where the people are the rulers. The democratic party is not in favor of any particular group of people, but is in favor of the country as a whole. It is a system of government where the people are the rulers.

THE MICHEIGON COPPER STRIKE

The Michigan Copper strike was one of the greatest labor struggles in American history. The miners were demanding a raise in wages, and the company was offering to raise them. The miners went on strike, and the company offered to lower them. The strike lasted for several months, and it was eventually settled in favor of the miners.

THE BULGARIAN REVOLUTION

The Bulgarian Revolution was a popular uprising in Bulgaria in 1876. It was a struggle for national independence and liberty against Turkish rule. The revolution was suppressed by the Turkish forces, but it marked the beginning of the modern Bulgarian state.

THE PROGRESSIVE ERA

The Progressive Era was a period of social and political reform in the United States from the late 19th century to the early 20th century. It was characterized by a desire for change and a focus on social justice, civil rights, and economic regulation.

THE WAVE OF SOCIALISM

The wave of socialism was a period of social and political upheaval in the early 20th century. It was characterized by a desire for change and a focus on social justice, civil rights, and economic regulation.

WHAT IS COMRADE?

Comrade is a term of address used in the Soviet Union and other socialist countries to indicate an equalitarian relationship. It is similar to the term "同志" (zhong ti) in Chinese.

THE REVOLUTIONARY AIR PLANE

The revolutionary airplane was a type of aircraft that was designed and built by the American aviator and engineer William A. W. T. Green. It was a single-seat, single-engine, biplane that was powered by a 125-horsepower engine.

THE AMERICAN PEST CONTROL

The American Pest Control is a company that provides pest control services in the United States. It offers a range of services, including pest control for homes, businesses, and industries.

THE WAVE OF SOCIALISM

The wave of socialism was a period of social and political upheaval in the early 20th century. It was characterized by a desire for change and a focus on social justice, civil rights, and economic regulation.

THE AMERICAN PEST CONTROL

The American Pest Control is a company that provides pest control services in the United States. It offers a range of services, including pest control for homes, businesses, and industries.
Four Years for $1.00

The United States Army, in all its activities, is the one institution of the Government that is not only a bulwark of the nation's defense, but a great producer of national wealth, as well. It employs the services of over one million men, and spends over a billion dollars a year. It is the largest employer of labor in the country, and it is the greatest source of national wealth. It is, therefore, a great public service, and it is a great public duty, to support the Army, and to give it the best possible service. The Army is a great source of national wealth, and it is a great public service, to support it, and to give it the best possible service.
The Appeal Army
The Army of

Significant News

Get a Free Arsenal

Clarence Meyers of Toledo, Ohio, has designed an "Arsenal of Facts" for his Free

Answers to Questions

Stories from History

Lands Condemned in England

The Brief Story of Bill Brown

by E. W. WORSLEY

Life Subscription, $5

F. E. W. WORSLEY

by F. E. WORSLEY

Agents

Agents

Agents

De Laval Separator

You need a new De Laval Separator NOW

1st If you are still using some gravity or setting process of creaming

2nd If you have a very old De Laval or an inferior separator whether new or old

The Key to the Mystery

by Lewyn Work

25 cents

Dr. L. W. Ewell makes it plain that...
Prisons Won't Solve Unemployment, Kelley Writes Article

"General" of California Jobless Army Sends Cheering Message to Workers from His Cell.

In a letter to a newspaper, the "General" of the California Jobless Army, a group that has been organizing unemployed workers, writes:

"I am the general of a large army of unemployed workers in California. We have fought many battles and won many victories. But our war is far from over. We must continue to fight until every man and woman in America has a job.

The workers of this country have been ignored and exploited by the rich men who control the economy. They have been forced to work long hours for low wages, while the rich men grow richer and richer. But we will not be defeated. We will continue to fight until victory is ours.

I urge all workers to join us in our fight. Together, we can overcome the capitalist system and建立 a society where all people have access to work and the means to live a decent life."

Henry Dobb, Autocrat of the Breakfast Table, Is Much Pleased by the Socialistic Suggestions of His Upstart Youngster

Henry Dobb, the head of the Breakfast Table, was delighted by the socialistic suggestions of his upstart youngster.

"I'm glad to hear you wanting to change the system," he said. "But you must understand that it's not as easy as it sounds. It's not just a matter of changing the laws. You have to change the minds of the people."

"But isn't that what we're doing now?" asked the youngster. "We're spreading the word about socialism and trying to get people to think about it.

"Yes, but you can't do that just by talking," replied Dobb. "You have to show people what socialism would be like. You have to give them a vision of what the world could be like under a socialist society.

And that's what we're doing. We're not just trying to convince people of the theory of socialism. We're trying to show them what a socialist world would be like."

"I see," said the youngster. "And what do you think a socialist world would be like?"

"Well," said Dobb, "in a socialist world, everyone would have a job. And they would be paid a living wage. And they would have access to health care and education. And they would be able to live in a world that was free from exploitation and greed."