Jewish residents of the West Side are arranging to hold mass meetings on the B. & O. wreck, which killed 12 people.

Agents of the Pullman corporation have already been in the hospital, and, according to hundreds of stories, are trying to see workers but are being refused service by doctors.

Admitted to Hospital.

Considers the deaths the result of the strike, and that the strikers may be held responsible.

The Jewish residents have also called for a mass meeting, and have made arrangements to have a large crowd assembled.

The B. & O. railroad company has refused to allow the agents access to the hospital, and the company is suspected of having fixed the time of the meeting.

Several doctors have been sent to the hospital by the railroad company.

The Pullman strike has been called off.

As the authorities have ordered the strike to be called off, it is expected that all workers will return to their jobs.

Morgan's way, however, is to be repeated.

He has made a number of offers to the workers, but they have refused to accept them.

The strike has been called off, but Morgan is expected to try to repeat his trick in the near future.

Creditor Can Find No Trace of Farmer Western Union Pensioner.

(Morgan-McCann Press Association.)

Creditor can find no trace of farmer who is in receipt of $25 a month from the Farmer Western Union Pension Program.

The creditor has been unable to locate the farmer, who is said to have left the country.

President Truman has expressed the belief that the farmer's reward is due to the acceptability of the thing he has done.
"AN EYE FOR AN EYE" BY C. S. DARROW

The Story of a Condemned Man's Last Night on Earth.

"I don't know what to do with you," the judge said. "I know you're guilty of murder, but I can't put you to death."

"Then why are you going to put me in jail?"

"Well, you've been caught, and there's evidence against you."

"But I didn't do it."

"The evidence is against you."

"But I didn't do it."

"And you know it."
