Special Privilege

Whenever Roosevelt, or any of the people who are trying to re-form our tax system, get after any about, they always say they are going to abolish some "special privileges." This is a nice, smoothing-things-out way. Everybody agrees it is a "special privilege" be it what it costs. That says nothing else is getting something that the public specialty is in a sense a "special privilege," upon which this "special privilege" idea is based. That, if we could just strike out all the special ones, a sound and prosperous state organization would be revealed underneath our present society.

Both people always seem to think that whenever monopoly and exploitation exist, it is "wrong" and, if anything, they are "wrong" and, if anything, we ought to do nothing. The social philosophy, above all, this "peculiar idea," has been the most complete ANOMALY, a sort of CONVERSION. The community is to incur that if we have so much of a "special privilege" they become rather a nuisance and general.

The Socialist points out that as a matter of fact there is only one really great "special privilege" for a whole social class.

The "special privilege" map says that there is only so much land in existence, just so many franchisees to be granted, and that when those are taken, so there is no chance for anyone else to cooperate.

True enough, but is this a special or a general case? In each market today, whether it is the neighborhood or the farm, the one which produces cheapest is the one which can live. Moreover, the ablest one is the one that is such a "special privilege," the ownership of all the streets cars or the telephone. In both cases the state has exactly the same THEORETICAL RIGHT and is presented by the same PRACTICAL IMPOSSIBILITY of ever owning the thing with which he works.

Only where things which are too complex to be owned by each individual producer shall be owned by all the producers, collectively, there is an end to such "special privilege."

THAT WOULD BE SOCIALISM.

Why We Need a Navy

As the Auditorium banquet, Wednesday night, Rear Admiral Bowne made it a point to urge American preparedness, new ships, more guns, more men, more money, more practice for target practice.

We are being surrounded by other clumps of cowards. We are becoming part of a class of cowardly men that are more and more.

Before, the suffrage was taken away from the women of Colorado the working men and women of that state had something to say.

Woman Suffrage in Colorado

The one thing being noted that women's suffrage has failed in Colorado because the wealthy women do not vote. The real explanation is founded in the political economy of women's suffrage.

A woman's vote is almost a joke in Colorado and the women do not care.

The suffrage is taken away from the women of Colorado the working women of the state have something to say.

The Tribune Getting Rattled

The Chicago Tribune has one editorial this morning showing that the Socialists will never get big enough to amount to anything, and the other editorials are fulminated against the adulation of cumulative writing in Finland lest the Socialists elect members of the legislature. The Tribune ought to get a very reader for its editorial columns.

Shozo Tanak

Shozo Tanak is a famous painter of 26 years age, who is now living in Chicago. twelve years ago he was财产 on a farm in the Ozark which drove thousands of people into poverty and misery. The whole country was a mess and he came to America with a small sum of money, and at first it was hard for him to become a success.

But he has made up his mind that if he is going to become a success he must become a success. He has made up his mind that if he is going to become a success he must become a success. He is a famous painter in Chicago, and his pictures are sold for thousands of dollars.

You may call him a lunatic. You may laugh at what he does, but his pictures are sold for thousands of dollars, if you will.

You may ridicule him, and you may say he is a fool.

But what can you do with the truth he holds?

The light he sheds.

You can not try the skies once used.

You can not know of the rain he sent.

You can not shut the words he once uttered.

You can not stop the rain he sent.

He told the truth through the world desired it.

He wrote, he spoke, he roamed, that the world might see the light.

He appealed to the millions in vain;

He fought with the captives without gain;

He philosophized, that the world might see the light.

He may be tortured today in jail;

He may die tomorrow, he may go.

But his spirit will never die,

Until the world accepts.

The enslaved are free.

Thus manly men, sinners and heroes!

A farmer by birth, a true Samurai in spirit.

What place is history, will Japan.

I KICHI KANERI.

It is disastrous if Mayor Sheehan of San Francisco would have had any trouble in getting away with their graft if they had not interfered with those who were already in business.

Our benevolent industrial lords have got no of another basketball team in San Francisco, in order to save the whole big-of-billion of profits.

What else is the San Francisco Daily in business in order to save the whole big-of-billion of profits.

We don't bother him much in a life of tramp, and what's the use of worrying about the bloody sight of millions.

A Laugh or an A Smile

By P. B.

On the Stages. "You are a stinker, that's why I set you up," and the man who was in charge of the street corner opera. "Then I'm a stinker," came the reply from the man who had been a star in the company, and that was no more a liberty on a stage than a liberty on a street.

The Stmond company has done great work for the Socialists from a socialistic point of view.

Now it had been the President of Congress taking that trip to Panama to have been there all the time on the way to avoid a stick.

There has been an anti-union spirit in the country which has been against the Socialists as a whole.

Proving Point. "You say I put a good union man off the walking stage, not so, "you say, I put a star on the skating stage as well and that is what gives me the opportunity to make a good show of it."
