THE RECORDING ANGEL
CHICAGO DAILY SOCIALIST
By EDWIN ARNOLD BRENNHOLTZ

CHAPTER III

"The quality of mercy is not strain'd,
It being by no means diff'rent from that of justice;
Beneath that name I stow the edge of heart
That every mouth doth take upon his part."

Charles Aurburg writes from his prison cell at the State Penitentiary of the eminently wise saying, "If a man does not know how to forgive, it is not because he has no power to forgive; it is because he has no will to forgive."

"If a man does not know how to forgive, it is not because he has no power to forgive; it is because he has no will to forgive."}

Soldiers and Peas Not Only CIF Members, But Business Men, Too

The People, as Ula.

"In the heat of the moment, when the passion of the people is in full swing, it is impossible to contain it in any other way than by the use of force."

The general impression is that the situation is now under control, but that is not so.

"The situation is under control, but that is not so."
GILLETTE DESPARES: TRIAL NEARS END

Gillette despare, who was held yesterday morning at an inquest into murder was convicted of the stabbing to death of his wife, Maude, last night. Those Confessions of Guilt

An INFIDEL'S SERMON
By ISAAC A. POOL

"Wish shall not buy the bread of the poor..." eight months after he was deposed from the throne of the kingdom. The idea of claiming the throne of a great nation is so much in the air that we forget to ask ourselves what it means. The idea of claiming the throne of a great nation is so much in the air that we forget to ask ourselves what it means. The idea of claiming the throne of a great nation is so much in the air that we forget to ask ourselves what it means.
