MISERY IN KINDLY OLD PHILADELPHIA

Scrapes and Crusts among the Workers' Home Being Brought by Many.

By Charles D. Chicago, Ill.

The workers in Philadelphia are being driven to despair by the conditions prevailing in the city. Many of them are working long hours for low wages, while others are unemployed. The city is filled with misery and suffering. The workers are pressing for better wages and conditions, but they are met with opposition from the employers.

The conditions in Philadelphia are a dire reflection on the social system. The city is a living example of the degradation of labor. The workers are being exploited and oppressed by the capitalist class.

The Socialist Party of the United States is working for the betterment of the working class in Philadelphia. The party is pressing for better wages and conditions, and for the establishment of a socialist society.

UNIONS WILL RUN SOUTHS'S MILLS
Child Destroyers and Slave Drivers Fined 1000 by Jury—Work—Unrest—Profits.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 8—Special.

The half of all the profit which is left after the work of the workers has been paid out, the remainder going to the employers, has been based by the jury on the theory that if the workers were not in the place of business, the business would have to stop. All wages for that time will be withheld from the workers, who are to be paid out of the business profits.

OREGON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Oregon schools are now in session. The state of Oregon has been divided into three districts, each with a superintendent of public instruction. The districts are:

1. Portland District
2. Salem District
3. Eugene District

In each district, there is a superintendent who is responsible for the management of the schools. The superintendent of each district reports to the state superintendent of public instruction, who is responsible for the overall management of the schools.

POLITICAL NEWS

In the recent election, the Republican Party won a majority of the seats in the state legislature. The Governor, a Republican, signed the bill into law.

POLITICALESSES

The political parties are preparing for the upcoming election. The Democratic Party is expected to challenge the Republican Party for control of the legislature. The Democratic Party has been critical of the Governor's policies and has promised to work for the benefit of the people.

In the meantime, the Governor has been working on legislation that would benefit the state. The Governor has announced that a bill will be introduced that would increase the minimum wage to $15 per hour and provide paid sick leave for all workers.
Legalized Kidnapping

A few days ago the Supreme court of the United States handed down a decision in the case which wipes out once and for all legal protection for the rights of the kidnapped.

The court, in a 4 to 1 decision, held that the present law is unconstitutional and that it is beyond the power of the Congress to enact any law that will prevent the Supreme court to overrule the actions of the state courts.
