Let Capital Have What It Produces: Labor Will Be Satisfied With The Rest!

VOLUME 1.-NO. 42
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1906

CHICAGO DAILY SOCIALIST

CLIMAX OF A DASTARDLY LABOR PLOT

Chicago Employers' Association's Great Scheme to Wipe Out Federation.

Can the Thing be Done?

Inside Story of the Teamsters' Strike by a Writer of International Reputation.

Representatives of the Chicago Daily Socialist interviewed J. A. Sheehy, now under indictment for helping the Teamsters' Union for practically every railroad in the United States, after which he refuted the Socialist's stories as well as a host of other statements attributed to him. The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employers' Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employers' Association's Secretary.

Sheehy holds a position in the labor world which is second only to that of the Teamster Union. The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.

The Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary, and the Socialist is the only newspaper that has had an interview with the Employer's Association's Secretary.
CHICAGO DAILY SOULSOCRATIC, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1900

ROOSEVELT'S CAREER IS EXPLAINED

Mr. Bellamy Sister Says She and Her Husband "Made" Teddy.

"Oriental, O. D., Mrs. "My husband of 13 years, President Roosevelt.""

This is the conclusion given by Mrs. Sarah Emily Bellamy, of the famous Australian family, in an interview with the Chicago Daily Soulocratic correspondent.

"We created President Roosevelt," Mrs. Bellamy declared. "President McKinley was appointed to the High Court of Canada by the Australian government. And he, in turn, appointed President Roosevelt to the High Court of Canada."

The interview was conducted by Mrs. Bellamy in her room at the Continental Hotel, where she is staying.

"President Roosevelt was introduced to me by Mr. McKinley's secretary, Mr. Charles F. Schramm, who was then the Secretary of the Treasury."

"I was quite young at the time," Mrs. Bellamy continued, "and I was not very impressed. I thought he was a rather ordinary looking man, but I was wrong."

"President Roosevelt was a man of great vision," Mrs. Bellamy said. "He had a great dream of creating a better world."

"And I was his wife," Mrs. Bellamy declared. "We worked together for 13 years, and in the end, we created President Roosevelt."
Neither Hypocrites Nor Blackmailers

It is most characteristic of the capitalist attitude of mind that the only explanation that has occurred to the editors of The Chicago Socialist’s exposures is to cry “blackmailer.” The working class is so accusatory that anyone who would dare to point out the sufferings of the working class is immediately accused of being a “blackmailer.”

The only motive they know is the making of money. Everything else that purpose is ruled out. Therefore, when the Daily Socialist showed how the department stores were breaking the law, exploiting their employees by contemptuous treatment; when this paper pointed out that certain advertised inventions were but schemes for defrauding the public, the only reply was you are trying to blackmail us.

There is no use of explaining to such people that this paper is not trying to make money. My entire stock is never intended to pay dividends, that its editorial and news columns are not for sale to any one, that it means what it says and says what it means.

Such ideas are absurdly impossible of comprehension by the man with a capitalistic secret.

It is more easy to mystery these people when we calmly announce that we are willing to accept advertisements which we esteem. It is true that the law makes it somewhat clear that many of our competitors, but we shall never attempt to deter determine whether our advertisers are paying the game of competition within the rules or not.

Business is a game, to do the other fellow as he would like to do and do it first,” and the man who does not follow that plan is doomed to a short business life.

What we must do is make our own position clear that we are not so-called advertisers who between the advertising column and news, and editorial position. When anyone can show that we have refused to publish an expose of any employers injurious to the workers existing in the management of any factory and that the Daily Socialist was not

York. You draw your own conclusions from this.

The Threat of Woman Suffrage

By BEward SHEW

This is a terrible menace to the trend. It is not one that is frightening, and we have seen it.

One thing we can depend on is that there will be a steady advance in the effectiveness of the movement.

But it did not turn out

as we thought it would.

But it was not the same.

The women’s power was not the same.

Strangers, also, these powers from the state would perpetrate work, while assuming incomes by sale of bread and capital to the government. The caprices of the government are like the caprices of the women.

We should see to it that these are of strangers in this world.

The Advertise Daily Socialist

Several of our readers have noticed that they never see a Daily

Socialist away. When they have finished reading a paper, they hand it under.

That is a good idea. It will be still more effective if you will hand it to them at the door.

Socialist organizations that have permanent headquarters will find it easier to hang the paper in the window, with the best things marketed. If you can change the paper every day you will find it is

To Chicago Workers

This paper yesterday published a letter which every worker in Chicago ought to read. In Chicago, almost every month, and in almost every of the trade unions, there is a strike. The absence of strike, the results of a strike, the strike itself, are the things that every worker should know.

In France the Church is urging its followers to resist the abolition of the death penalty. The Socialists are struggling to secure control of the state. What would have been the result of such a strike, the results of the strike, the strike itself, are the things that every worker should know.

The Catholic Church is urging its followers to resist the abolition of the death penalty. The Socialists are struggling to secure control of the state. What would have been the result of such a strike, the results of the strike, the strike itself, are the things that every worker should know.