ENTOMOLOGIST MAY NOT BE SAVED

Buried Alive, Hearing His Rescuers Kneel and Pray for His Life.

But Bahreidhel, Cal., Dec. 19—

In a small Florida town, an entomologist was buried alive, with the hope of saving his life. The incident occurred in a nearby rural area, where a sinkhole opened up and the entomologist, aged 42, was buried.

The rescuers, who had been searching for the man, heard his cries and rushed to the site. They began digging immediately, using equipment and their hands, until they finally reached the entomologist, who had survived the ordeal for several hours. He was rushed to the hospital, where he underwent surgery for minor injuries. The entomologist's family was overjoyed and thanked the rescuers for saving their loved one.

LITTLE CASTLES WITH BIG HOLES ORNED

FAC'TS TO REMEMBER: Are Your Lessons on the Stock Exchange?

Small manufacturers of steel ingots are facing a serious problem: their employees have reported cases of going to picket lines, which will cripple their operations. The strike is affecting over 1,000 workers, who are demanding better wages and working conditions.

The company's management has offered to negotiate with the union, but the workers have rejected the offer, insisting on their demands. The situation has escalated into a full-scale strike, with workers blocking company entrances, causing delays and disruptions.

The management has threatened to lock out the workers if they do not return to work by the end of the week. However, the workers have vowed to continue their strike until their demands are met.

Polish Towed By STEAMER Towed By

The Polish steamer, which was leaving for the Baltic sea, was knocked aground by a large wave. The ship's captain immediately notified the harbor authorities, who dispatched a tugboat to assist in towing the vessel back to port.

The towing operation was successful, and the steamer was able to reach the harbor without further incidents. The crew of the steamer was unharmed, and the ship was undamaged.

The incident highlights the importance of regular maintenance and inspection of ships, to ensure their safe and reliable operation.

Irony in coal mining.

In an ironic twist, the death of a miner who was working underground, caused a power outage in the mine. The miner, who was a skilled electrician, was working on the mine's electrical system when the power failed, causing the mine to be filled with smoke. The miner, who was trapped underground, was unable to escape and died.

The incident serves as a reminder of the dangers faced by miners, and the importance of having skilled workers to handle electrical issues in mines.

CHICAGO PATRONISES ANARCHIST DOGER

Great Corporation Probability Will Demand Their Pay.

On the heels of the recent strikes, a major corporation has announced plans to demand increased pay for its workers. The company, which employs over 10,000 workers, has faced growing pressure from union organizers, who are demanding a fair wage and better working conditions.

The corporation's management has rejected the demands, stating that the company cannot afford to raise pay. However, the union organizers remain committed to their demands, and have threatened to strike if their demands are not met.

The situation has escalated into a full-scale dispute, with both sides preparing for a long and difficult battle.
The Teachers' Union

For years the teachers of Chicago have been asking for better pay and more humane conditions of work. Delegates have visited the city hall; petitions have been circulated, "sell" exercised, but all in vain.

Then, having tried of asking other people to help them, they decided to help themselves. THEY ORGANIZED A UNION.

To be sure it was still a small organization, but it had all the possibilities of growth.

The first result of this was to bring upon their heads the wrath of all the powers that be.

The capitalist press pointed out the horrible possibilities of a strike of teachers. Cartoons appeared depicting the working delinquent, calling the reformers in this matter a confusion, a wages inspector, refusing to rescue a fellow teacher because he was not a member of the union.

Still the union kept on growing.

Then came a ten per cent increase in wages.

Thus more was accomplished, the beginnings of organization.

Ten years by belonging.

The teachers adopted the plantation system, with provisions such as will enable them to live like human beings and get acquainted with other human beings. They have just as much as they so make up their minds that they really want.

The men who are guarding the millions of dollars of property in Chicago at constant risk at the tips are entitled to the rest of the working conditions.

The teachers want these things they must show that they propose to TAKE THEM.

Your Branch Can Do This

There is no branch in the city of Chicago that cannot add a hundred men to the subscription list of the Daily Socialist in the interest of the working class.

ALL THAT IS NECESSARY IS A LITTLE SYSTEMATIC WORK.

Divide up the precincts so that every house will be visited.

Go around the first night with the cards advertising the paper.

Then follow up with subscriptions, taking a little bit of a benefit of the paper so that you can have a sample at each house.

The work is not a hard one. The money you earn will be paid you until the paper is delivered.

The system is the only no better method of propaganda than this.

The "Ten of branches, with the number of subscribers, sent in the following report:".

THEY ARE NOT ASHAMED OF YOUR BRANCH AT THAT TIME.

Lest We Forget

Do not forget, as the Christmas time comes round, that it is almost certain there men who are blackened by the thought that they have lost their fellow men and fought to make them free.

It is possible you have heard of the large number of thegers charged with and some of them are in jail.

It is possible you have heard of the large number of thegers charged with and some of them are in jail.

Professional Sluggers in Uniform

A tremendous wave of righteous indignation is being carefully moved around the country by the hot air of capitalist newspapers writing concerning the agitation by union laborers during the Steel strike.

It is said that the thousands of professional union laborers were kept constantly employed under the name of policemen by the city.

This is a list of the irresponsible bodies, hired to beat anyone who may be picked out as a "scab" by these masters.

In a city of ten million people, these men have been able to maintain in a police force of over 30,000 men.

Just Like Finding Money

If you had a farm that had practically expired, and a lot of old buildings, and a hotel or a store, and a lot of property, and you could make it bring in you a few dollars a year for a generation to come - you'd sell it.

This is the good idea to municipalize the police force.

Dictators and Stikies

Thomas Hart, the Chicago Post, has the following to say about the laws of the state of Illinois, which are in favor of the "strikers":

"There is another phase of the problem that is almost as important as the law itself. The most obvious of these is the large number of citizens who have been sent to the penitentiary for breaking the law. This is a matter of special importance at the present time, when the state is in a financial crisis.

"The law which has been enacted by the legislature is supposed to be a just and equitable one, but it is not. The law is full of loopholes, and it is easy to evade the provisions of the law. It is not the intention of the state to do anything to help the poor man. The state is only interested in the interests of the rich men.
