Labor Conspiracy Trial Shows Workers Have No Right to Give Evidence to Show Honorable Intent.

Judge Bell, voting away all of the evidence tending to show that the trusts have been in the habit of making a special effort to afford a possible sentiment for breaking the strikes, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, without even appealing it to the people. The workers will now have to face the same conditions that they have been accustomed to in the past. The strike has been a complete failure.

DEATH IN THE WRECK

The 12 year old daughter of Henry B. Thomas, 12 years old, was killed yesterday in the wreck of the street railway in Chicago. She was on the roof of the car when it derailed, and was caught by the tire. The child was thrown into the air and landed on the tracks. She was taken to the hospital, where she lingered for two hours, and then died.

The Old Year and the New RISING OUT THE OLD, RISING IN THE NEW Twelve months have been added to the years of already existing civilization. These twelve months have been piled with emotion and excitement, with success and failure, with progress and stagnation, with millions of ever-larger, with the growing at every second speed of treacherous capitalism. The old year has brought us men, with greater weakness in the forces of capitalism, as with increasing eminence in the forces of socialism, and with a clearer definition of the class struggle, with growing certainty of the triumph of the proletariat.
We are looking ahead a long distance.

SOME THINGS THE DEPARTING OLD YEAR LEAVES BEHIND GLADLY.

U P AND DOWNS

The following story is told by one of the characters from Chicago, IL. Playing at the Carnegie Library, Boston, Mass., during Christmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, both so well known to the neighborhood, decided that they would have a lovely party on Christmas Eve. The idea was to have a dance and a nice Christmas dinner on the top story room. As the idea was so last minute, there was no time to advertise. So no one knew about the party except the couple. When the time came, they decided to invite a few friends to join them.

When the time came, they decided to invite a few friends to join them.

The party was a huge success. The guests enjoyed themselves and left with great stories.

The Brown's enjoyed themselves and invited several more friends to join them for next year's party.

What Some of Our Friends Say

One or two ideas which have been discussed and the opinions of our readers who have expressed their views on the matter, are as follows:

Objections to Socialism

One of the chief objections which is offered is that socialism would lead to the abolition of individualism and the destruction of Western civilization. Western society today is based on individualism and the freedom to pursue one's own interests. Socialism would lead to the end of this freedom and the destruction of Western civilization.
