

JUROR IN BORAH TRIAL MENTALLY UNBALANCED?

Unusual Interruption of the Case Against the Senator—Effect on Miners' Trials Will Be to Assist Moyer and Pettibone

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 30.—Driven insane by the mental strain and the excitement of the trial of United States Senator Borah for timber land frauds, Peter Neff, one of the jurors, is under the care of two physicians and they have to be removed to a sanitarium. The trial is delayed indefinitely and may be stopped altogether, unless the juror recovers his mental equilibrium.

TRIED TO CONCEAL. At first an attempt was made to keep the nature of Neff's announced illness secret, but last evening District Attorney Burke of Wyoming, who is conducting the prosecution as a special prosecutor, declared that Neff was mentally deranged.

GRAND JURY REPORT. No report from the grand jury is expected until the trial of Senator Borah is concluded. It will be known then whether or not the indictment of Senator Borah was justified, and the effect of the trial may have material effect on the finding of the grand jury. So far the government, while producing

REITMAN'S FEED WAS DUPLICATED

It Suggested to a St. Petersburg Beggar a Scheme of Celebration

The fate of Dr. Reitman's tramp dinner, which opened the eyes of the country as to the possibilities of tramp exploitation and how easy it is to make them suffer the tortures of a full stomach, has invaded new spheres. Ivan Stavov, the king of the beggars in St. Petersburg, has arranged for the thirty-fifth anniversary of his kingship a few days ago by taking 300 of the principal tramps, beggars and thieves in St. Petersburg a rare old dinner in one of the leading hotels of the city.

REITMAN DINNER OCCURS. The period was propitious for the St. Petersburg beggar, for about that time the Reitman dinner was pulled out of the limbo of oblivion. Some one translated a story published in the Daily Socialist and gave the St. Petersburg man information which induced him to do it.

Information to the effect that the St. Petersburg affair had been modeled after his own "feed" came to Dr. Reitman through an acquaintance. The dinner is said to have been a real feast of reason and flow of bowl. It took place in a swell hotel and the costumes of the guests were in strange contrast with the rich surroundings, the ceremony and the hauteur of the waiters, who were not accustomed to serving the beggars of the street.

GROSSMANN IN GERMAN TAIL

(United Press Associations Cable.) Berlin, Sept. 30.—Arrested for preaching anarchistic doctrines here, Rudolph Grossmann is protesting vigorously that his imprisonment is in violation of his rights as an American citizen, that he has committed no overt act against the German government, and that the United States is bound to protect him.

plenty of evidence to show that a conspiracy existed for the purpose of procuring government lands, has failed to convict Senator Borah in any way, owing to the opportune objections of counsel and the ready "sustained" of the court.

W. U. CHIEF HIDES IN CHICAGO VISIT

Asst. General Manager Here and Speculation Keen as to Object

Leaders of the striking telegraphers have been told that John C. Barclay, assistant general manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, is in Chicago.

It is said that he has registered under an assumed name, and that he has good reasons for not wishing it to become known that he is here. He usually stays at the Auditorium or Annex.

JOHN R. MCLEAN IS A REPUBLICAN

A Democrat in Ohio and an Ardent Roosevelt votary in Washington

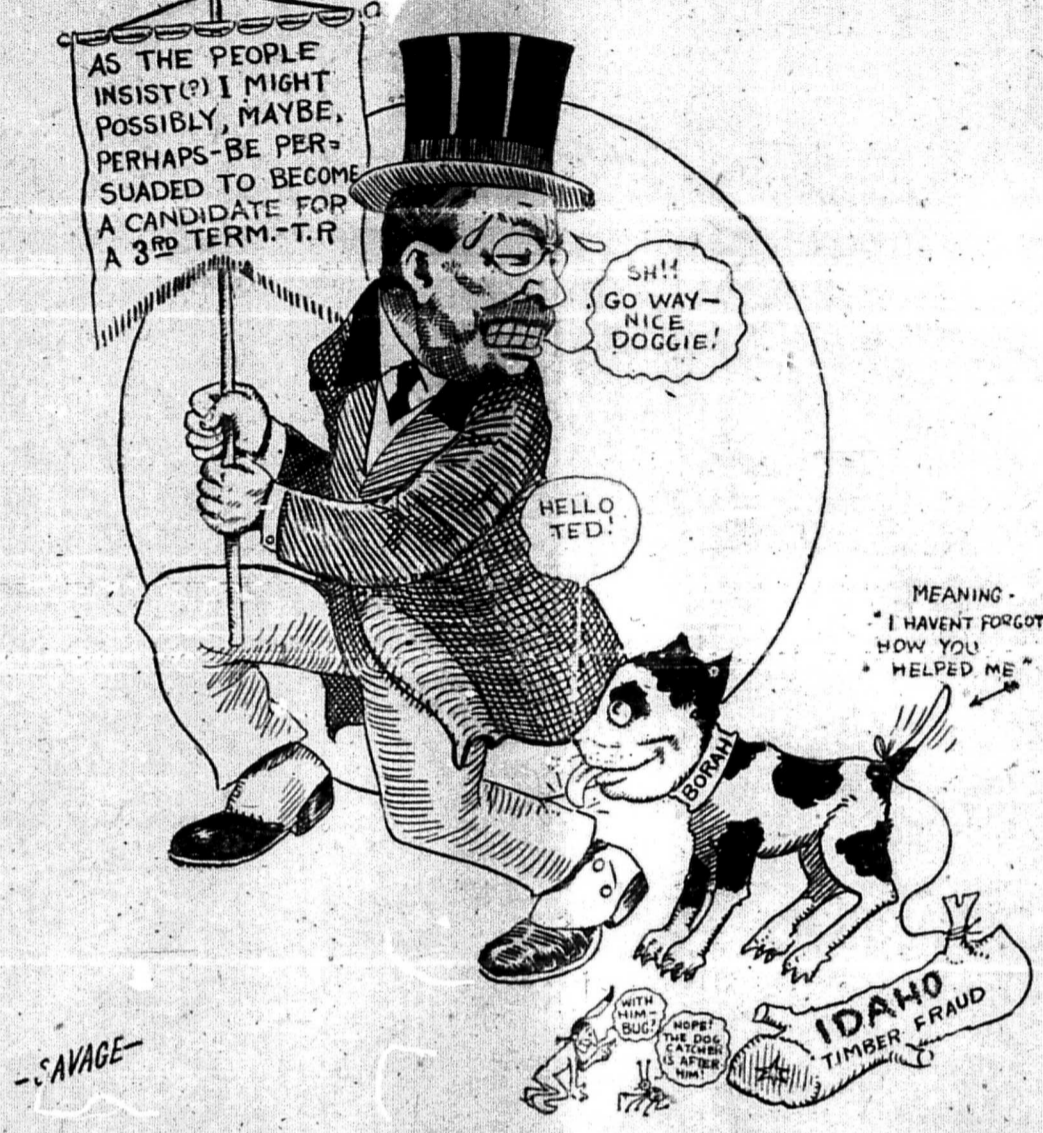

(By United Press Associations.) Washington, Sept. 30.—Has John R. McLean turned Republican? The Cincinnati and Washington newspaper proprietor has greatly astonished his Democratic friends by advocating in the Washington Post the renomination and re-election of President Roosevelt.

INDORSE HIM. "In view of the overwhelming popularity of Roosevelt and the well-nigh universal clamor for his re-election, the Post believes that it will be remiss not to indicate the position that would arise if the next convention should respond to the popular will and renominate Roosevelt and adjourn. There would be no alternative for him. He would be compelled to run for the presidency. And, if he should run, it is the opinion of the Post that he would be re-elected by an unprecedented vote."

MORE OF IT. To-day's Post contains a two-column news story with an editorial flavor showing the growth of third-term sentiment throughout the country.

When McLean does the bear walking-like-a-man-act it is time to look out. Perhaps a secretary of some Washington gas, electric light or trolley proposition will reveal why the former Ohio Democrat now Washington gas and real estate magnate, seeks to attract the benevolent rays of administration favor.

The Grateful Pup!

WHAT BRYAN DOES NOT KNOW ABOUT SOCIALISM

BY WM. B. GARVER. Chillicothe, Mo., Sept. 25.—While sitting in front of the hotel in the evening, I was speaking at the McLeanville Chautauque I engaged in conversation with William J. Bryan upon the subject of Socialism and the remarks he made are of interest as showing how deep the "great man" of today are.

YOUNG GUARDS CUT HIGH JINKS

The Young People's Socialist League, "The Young Guards," added another splendid page to their history Saturday night when they gave their harvest party and ball at Brand's hall.

At 8 o'clock a stream of "hayseds" began to pour in the door. And in some cases "pour" aptly expresses their condition. Saturday night the clements were at play themselves and the rain kept at home, many who would have otherwise attended.

SOLDIERS ON GUARD. Two thousand soldiers of the regular army and 2,000 of the Ohio militia, presided by President Roosevelt and other notables here, and kept the crowd from breaking through the ropes that lined all the downtown streets.

THE DEDICATION. The dedication opened with invocation by Rev. Frank M. Bristol, of Washington. Governor Harris of Ohio, was president of the day. He made the opening address and Justice Day followed in an address that told of the building of the memorial.

EVERYBODY BE GOOD. Wrong-doing is confined to no class. Good and evil are to be found among both rich and poor, and in drawing the line among our fellows we must draw it on conduct and not on worldly possessions.

country to permit ourselves to adopt an attitude of hatred and envy toward success worthy won, toward wealth honestly acquired. Let us in this respect profit by the example of the republics of the south of us. Some of these republics have prospered greatly, but there are certain ones that have lagged far behind, that still continue in a condition of material poverty, of social and political unrest and confusion.

From the standpoint of our material prosperity there is only one other thing as important as the discouragement of an spirit of envy and hostility toward honest business men, toward honest men of means, this is the discouragement of dishonesty, of the man who war upon the chimney and wrong-doing which are peculiarly repulsive, peculiarly noxious, when exhibited by men who have some excuse of want, of poverty, of ignorance, of the man of means, and above all men of great wealth, can exist in safety under the peaceful protection of the state.

TRUST "BUSTING" KINDERGARTEN. (By United Press Associations.) St. Louis, Sept. 30.—Attorney generals from over twenty states began telling each other here today how to curb the trusts and railroads. They responded to a recent call of Attorney General Hadley of Missouri.

B. OF E. PAGE; WHOLL GET IT? Council meets to-night, and there is a possibility that Mayor Busse may have found a man willing to accept the vacant place on the board of education.

Small sees the chief executive. It is said that President S. J. Small of the Telegraphers' Union is in Washington, and that he placed in the hands of President Roosevelt documentary evidence against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies.
