President Quinlan was in the chair and members, who called or those desiribs to appear before the committee were called on one by one and entered the committee room.

There was no excitement. Commit tee members, as they bassed to and fro, joked and talked with each other and with the newspaper reporters.

"I work 10½ hours a day and when pay day comes on the 1st and 15th of each month. I wait ten days before, the actual money is paid. It's lots of fun standing off the butcher and grocer. If we don't stand firm this time they'll cut our wages. That's what they'll do. The new cars are making faster trips than the old ones and there are fewer hours' actual work. What good is the IT cents an hour when work is shorter so that I earn 15 or 20 cents a day less? Let the company pay 20 cents an hour—that won't cost it much."

WHAT BUCKLEY SAYS

"I haven't met a single, solitary quitater as yet, and I hope that I won't. All of the men without exception believe that their demands are entirely just. If their grievances are not granted they are ready to go out on strike in a body."

The beauty of the trick which Way man and the whole grafting bunch seem to be trying to play upon the pub man and the whole gratting to play upon the public was given as a definite reason for the mayor's choice. He believed that the police, under Mullaney, could be used to defeat the men.

Another reason assigned is that a man of Mullaney's type could do much to thwart the promised expose of victous conditions within the police department. As secretary, Mullaney has done much to shield Inspector Men. Grant of the selection of the grand jury and the indicted inspector and his attorneys. In the morning former Judge Charles G. The whole proceeding looks very much as if Wayman were trying to let go of a tartar for fear that McCann will blow the whole city hall sky-high if he is forced to trial. McCann's threat to peach has evidently scared somebody and the motion to quash the indictments on account of the "fliegality" of the grand jury will undoubtedly receive the "utmost consideration."

24 Chicago Stations

There are twenty-four recruiting sta-tions in Chicago like the one at 198 Fifth avenue, which does an average amount of business. This means that about 200 men leave this city monthly to go to Jefferson barracks at St. Louis. Mo., where Uncle Sam turns them into soldiers.

INITIALS ON COINS RAISES STORM: IS NOTHING UNUSUAL

New York, Aug. 6.-Justification for placing of Sculptor Victor D. Brenner's initials on the new Lincoln penny is found by the subtreasury officials here in the fact that many coins of United States bear their designers initials. One man, Christian Gobrecht, placed his whole name on a silver dollar he designed in 1836. Every half-dol iar, quarter-dollar and dime that is minted bears the tiny letter "B" under the bust of liberty. This stands for the chief engraver of the mint at Philadelphia, Charles E. Barber, who exe cuted all the designs which first ap peared for circulation in 1892. The silver dollars minted 1878 and 1904 bore the initial of their designer, George L. Morgan, once on each side. The $5 and $10 gold coins bear the initial of Pala L. Pratt, the Boston artist who designed them. And most of the other coins bear the designer's initials.

Mr. Brenner declares that President Roosevelt and George B. Cortelyou, then secretary of the treasury, agreed to permit his whole name to be used on the new Lincoln penny and he is much disappointed that only his initials were used

There is reason to believe that this is untrue, but that Japan is bringing great pressure to bear on the govern ment at Peking to prevent such ac tion as would necessitate the form of an ultimatum in dealing with the problems involved.

Immediate commencement of work on the reconstruction of the road without China's consent would precipitate a crisis. Northwest Side Socialists, Attention!

Last week a Socialist party member did what EVERY well wisher of the Daily Socialist SHOULD DO. He went after the business men most patronized by Socialists in Jefferson Park and sent me their names as possible advertisers. West Side Socialists have been doing this for some time, and the result is evident. One glimpse at the Business Directory will show the result of their fuithful work. COMPARE the space occupied by West Side business with that of the others and then do some QUICK THINKING.

There is NO reasonable excuse for the LACK of advertisers on the NOETH-WEST SIDE. It's a big territory and the Socialists are even MORE numerous there than is any other part of the city.

The NOETHWEST SIDE starts at Lake street, and such big business streets as North avenue, Chicago avenue, Division street, Milwankee avenue, Eiston avenue and others offer a BIG advertising field.

Daughters of Rosenthal Are Sent Away From St. . Mary's Academy

When Abraham Rosenthal, the modern Jean Valjean, decided on the fight to clear his name by seeking to put well street station behind the bars, I was more the thought of the future of his four little girls than anything else that caused him to go into the un equal struggle.
The four girls are Eather, aged 13

The darkest cloud of all descended ipon the children when the following etter was received by the mother:

Part of McShane's Career

The record of McShane's arrest or charge of larceny as reported by At-torney Louis J. Delson is as follows: "I have examined the records of 'no bills' at the office of the cierk of the criminal court of Cook county, as well as the records of the Old Police Magistrates' courts at Harrison street sta tion, in the fnatter of Charles McShane; and from such examination I find that Charles McShane was arrested during the month of September, 1903, by of-ficers Kane and Sheehan, of the second precinct police station, on a charge precinct police station, on a charge of larceny, preferred by one John Miller, of 101 Wade street, Chicago. On Sep-tember 28, 1903, a hearing in the case was had before Police Magistrate John K. Prindiville, and the defendant was held to the grand jury under bond, with Andrew Craig as bondsman. At the October, 1903, term of the crimi court the grand jury returned a bill' in the case."

How Charge Was Dropped

The charge was made against Mc-Shane for picking the pocket of John Miller of a gold watch at the California House, in the red light district, at Cus was a married man, would not appear against him, fearing the unsavory no-toriety that would result.

Attempts are now being made to learn of McShane's record in other parts of the country.

Politics and the Chief of Police

Lorimer and Wayman won the first move in the graft investigation. They succeeded in gaining momentary control of the entire Republican and Democratic machine in Illinois.

At once it was rumored that the prosecution of McCann would be dropped and that the entire graft investigation would be dismissed. All this was to be done on condition of Busse's elimination from

Then came Shippy's resignation. The Daily Socialist called for this resignation shortly after the chief shot Jeremiah Averbuch. At the same time this paper also called for an investigation of the circumstances of that death. The Chicago Tribune announced that "there would be no investigation," and also sneered at the idea of Shippy resigning from the position of chief of police. Well, there was an investigation, and now Shippy has resigned his position.

So much for Shippy. So far as the Daily Socialist is concerned we have no more interest in him. He has become but an insignificant pawn in a bigger game. He has been sacrificed in a vain hope to save King Busse.

In this fight for power between Lorimer and Busse the immediate object is Roger Sullivan. BOTH REPUBLICAN MACHINES ARE STRUGGLING TO SECURE CONTROL OF THE DEMO-

Busse secured that favor long enough to elect him mayor. Lorimer captured it to gain a senatorial toga much besmirched with mud.

Now Busse proposes to get back the smiles of this harlot of Illinois politics by appointing "Barney" J. Mullaney as chief of police. Barney is entitled to fame principally on the reputation of having been the author of Ogden Armour's books. No one ever accused him of knowing anything about the management of the police force of a great city, except in so far as that force is used for private profit of politicians and great capitalists.

That he will make the force an even more effective agent for the collection of graft than at present is the inevitable conclusion from his previous political affiliations. He was placed in the position of secretary to the mayor by Busse as part payment to Roger Sullivan for assistance in the mayoralty election. It was generally understood in political circles that Mullaney was to be the real mayor whenever Busse was incapacitated for that position, and that he was to be the power next the throne at all time. In fact, Chicago was to have a bi-partisan mayor composed of Busse and Mullaney.

Mullaney's personal affiliations with J. Ogden Armour make it certain that the police force will be used as the private army of the great capitalists of Chicago. He is to be called to the helm at this time when Armour's interests in the street railway are being threatened. His appointment is a notification that the police are at the disposal of the street car companies.

Barney Mullaney at the head of the police force is a sign that the black flag of graft and exploitation is to be hoisted to the masthead of the Chicago political ship and that the workers of Chicago will get exactly what they voted for.

Divide and Conquer

The street car companies are playing a game as old as human tyranny. They are seeking to divide the forces of the workers in the face of the enemy. The employes of the elevated roads have already these ried up with a contract granting some trilling concessions.

That says he heard Jerome called of Trusts," says a heading in the crazy, too. Very likely, he certainly carltallst dallies. But by what right has richomania and poorophobia, two dangerous symptoms.

ployers at this time. Any trifling gain that might be secured now would be offset a hundred times in the future through the disintegrartion of the organization that would follow.

"sail into Higgins." The answer is.
Higgins is not worth while. Higgins has been writing his brawling acrimonious, uncomradely communications to the New York Call and the following appeared in the editorial columns of that paper.

The editor of the Call, it my estimation, covered the ground so completely there is no need for the addition of anything else. Any "reply" from me would only prolong the agony.

SOCIALISM

£300,000 is spent by the Socialists yearly in propagating their pernicious and fallacious doctrines. A large part of this is collected in small coins at street corner meetings.

In the opinion of the Society it is absolutely essential that an adequate fighting fund should be raised to fight Socialism throughout the country. Will you become a Member, or send a Donation to the Secretary of the Anti-Socialist Union, 58 & 60, Victoria St., Westminster, S. W.? CLAUDE LOWTHER, WILFRED ASHLEY, M. P.,

A few weeks ago Belmont issued a call for $50,000 to fight Socialism in this ountry. Throughout the world the capitalist class is being made to take notice of the fact that Socialism is a movement that must be reckoned with. The period of ridicule, the time when it could be ignored, has passed, and the capitalist class now has decided to make a systematic effort to fight against the rise of this new force that is destined to end its rule.

Not long ago the London Financial Review, a leading financial paper of England, published an article in which it pointed out that Socialism had come to England to stay and that the time was not far ahead when English capitalists would be obliged to take their capital to other countries where Socialist thought had not reached the point it has in England if they would realize a large enough

UNION LABOR AND THE PRESS

BY A. W. MANCE

I have lately visited and addressed several Chicago unions in the interest of the Chicago Daily Socialist and endeavored, with some success, to get them to purchase some of the refunding and improvement bonds. Below I have set forth just a few of the reasons I point out to the men in the unions why they individually and as unions should support it morally and financially:

The office is strictly union, and is not ashamed to print the label on its

It refuses to print ads for scabs or boycotted goods, and we believe it is the only English daily paper in the city which lives up to this rule.

The existence of the Chicago Daily Socialist has been of great value, morally and financially, to union labor and the working class in general.

The most notable instance which evidences this fact was the publicity it gave to the conditions which prevailed in the slave pens at Argo a few months ago. So glaring was the light thrown on that slave pen by the Daily Socialist that the United States government started an investigation, which resulted in the complete unionization of the plant. The actual cash benefit to unionism 'n this case alone amounted to hundreds of thousand of dollars

Here is what the Union Labor Advocate of February, 1909, the official organ of the Chicago Federation of Labor, had to say as to the service of the Daily Socialist in that case:

"When a high wall was built around the operations at Argo, where the when they speak of Miss Gingles case as "puzzling." for every reporter and corn Products company was preparing to erect a ten million dollar plant, or every editor in Chicago knows the ganized labor began to take notice. Having had much experience with matters truth, which fear of the glided clique of this sort, it know that in addition to a closed shop, common humanity would be outraged within this inclosure. Those who undertake building operations along these lines carefully plan to constitute themselves a law unto themselves, and woe betide the poor, unfortunate victim of our present deplorable industrial situation who finds himself in their clutches. No worse conditions of peonage obtained anywhere in the South, in those places prosecuted recently by the government, than was shown to exist within the twelve foot high inclosure at Argo. Bad food, insanitary surroundings, chain gang methods there were shown by the Chicago Daily Socialist to be the conditions under which the soab vorking man toiled at Argo. Largely through the efforts of that paper the government was prevailed upon to open up an investigation which resulted in the demolition of the Chinese wall erected by these exploiters of human misery, and decent conditions succeeded. The work will now be completed under union conditions.'

At a recent meeting of the Allied Printing Trades Council a standing vote of thanks and appreciation was voted to the Chicago Daily Socialist by the delegates for the publicity it gave to the letter issued by the council exposing the action of Milton J. Foreman in giving the city printing to a non-union house when there were more advantageous bids from printing houses that are fair to union labor.

There are now some twenty unions in Ohicago which are stock and bond along these lines carefully plan to constitute themselves a law unto the union labor.

There are now some twenty unions in Ohicago which are stock and bond holders in the Daily Socialist company to the amount of about $2,000. The Painters' Local No. 194 holds about $700 worth of stock.

At one time an offer was made by the Daily Socialist management—and still stands—to give the use of its plant to Typographical Union No. 16 of Chicago in case of any strike in which they need the use of a daily paper. The existence of this plant and paper in Chicago is of inestimable value to any union in carrying on negotiations with the smployers.

From the standpoint of organized labor in general we do not believe any union can make a better money investment than to support the Ohicago Daily Socialist. The spendid work it has accomplished in the past can be continued and greatly enhanced by an increased support of the paper by the unions of Ohicago.

In the larger movement for more humane conditions for the workers who are yet unorganized and at the mercy of the money power, the Ohicago Daily Socialist has and always will be a fighter in the front ranks. It took an important part in the fight which saved Moyer, Haywood, and Petitions from being railreaded to the gallows by the Mins Owners' association of the west. It took the initiative in saving Budowitz from being sent back to Bussia and rendered splendid service in preserving American traditions as to political prisoners. We might add indefinitely to this list of services the Ohicago Daily Socialst has rendered to the workers and union labor.

There are some 600 labor unions in Ohicago, and the Chicago Daily Socialist makes its appeal to each of them for financial support for the good and sufficient reason that the paper and its staff are at their service any time they desire to make use of it, and especially at times when there is a strike or open ruptures with the employers.
