

SWEDISH STRIKE IS TO LAST ALL WINTER; MORE HELP ASKED

Workers Are Determined to Hold Out Till the Capitalists Give In

CABLEGRAM IS RECEIVED

Committee Has New Plan to Raise Funds in the United States

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 9, 1909.
C. E. Tholin, 2517 Ems street, Chicago, Ill.
No agreement in sight. The struggle may last all winter. Much help is needed. Do all you can.
LINDQUIST.

This is the cablegram received in Chicago from Herman Lindquist, national secretary of the Swedish Labor Federation, which shows that the strike in Sweden is being fought to a bitter finish. It is now over two months since the general strike was declared. That the men threaten to remain out all winter only shows the fortitude with which they are conducting their struggle against the capitalists of their country.

Will Organize Clubs

Recognizing the fact that this great struggle in Sweden may continue for months before a settlement is reached, the Swedish strike relief committee at its last meeting adopted new plans for toilers.

The plan is to organize sympathizers all over the country into clubs. All members of these clubs are to pay contributions each week, agreed upon by themselves, and all money thus realized will be used for the support of the Swedish strikers. Toilers throughout the country who will aid the relief committee to carry out this plan should immediately communicate with N. Juhl Christenson, the secretary, at 2517 Ems street, Chicago, Ill. for further information.

Labor unions throughout the country are beginning to respond to the call sent out by the Swedish strike relief committee. Among them are: Painters' union, No. 261, New York, 4500; Terry Peak Miners' union, No. 5, Western Federation of Miners, Terry, S. D., 425; Aldridge Miners' union, No. 57, W. F. of M., Aldridge, Mont., 490; Greenwood Miners' union, No. 26, W. F. of M., Greenwood, S. C., 490; Chemists' union, No. 249, York, Pa., 410. A collection was taken up for the striking Swedish workers at the mass meeting held last night at Bowen hall, Hull house, to stir up enthusiasm for the women's ten-hour law in Illinois.

Tholin Is in Minnesota

C. E. Tholin, the strike delegate from Sweden, who was in Chicago recently, is now holding enthusiastic meetings in Minnesota. His first meeting was in Minneapolis, where the hall was overcrowded. Many could not get within hearing distance of the speaker at all. When Mr. Tholin has completed his tour of Minnesota he intends going to Iowa to hold a few meetings before attending the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Toronto, Canada, next month.

DAILY SOCIALIST REPORTER IS VERY ILL IN HOSPITAL

E. Jerome Beyer, reporter and translator on the Daily Socialist editorial staff, is in a Chicago hospital suffering from pleurisy and a general breakdown. His condition today is reported to be very serious.

Beyer went home sick two weeks ago and has not left his bed since. He was removed to the hospital last Monday, when it was found that his illness was serious.

FOUR SOCIALIST SPEAKERS MADE POLICE VICTIMS; TO TRY TWO

Four Socialist "soap bosses" proved the victims of attacks by the police at Saturday night's open air meetings. Sam Goldfarb and Andy Laffin were the objects of the police ire at Orchard and North avenue, while Anton Novotny and Mirafay Skranek, members of the Bakers' union, suffered from the anti-free speech tactics at Lawlance avenue and Twenty-sixth street.

Linnemann Knew His Duty

Goldfarb and Laffin were the chief actors in a police farce that ended in the arrest of Linnemann, a member of the Thirty-ninth ward committee, who was speaking at the time. Goldfarb had spoken on the streets of Chicago for forty-five years and that he did not intend to stop them at this late day.

Goldfarb opened fire in a "soap boss" speech at the corner of Orchard and North avenue at 8 o'clock. About a crowd of 100 people gathered. Linnemann, who was speaking at the time, was being

THOUSANDS OF JEWS PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO POET

New York, Oct. 11.—The east side Monday buried its beloved poet, Naphthal Herz Imber, minstrel of hope of the Jewish race. The funeral they gave him accorded in every way with the wishes he had expressed as to the manner of his burial. Thousands turned out in their best to pay their last tribute to the penniless wandering singer: men of the foremost rank in the Hebrew religion and literature in this city united to praise his virtues and excuse his faults, and to impress on the lowliest of his people the debt they owed to the man who had done so much to revive in their hearts the hope of a brighter future—a restored national life.

Imber, as he was their "poet of hope," died on the day on which he had always wished to die—the Sabbath Torah; or day of "the joy of the law," when all orthodox Jews are expected to make merry.

"All the Jewish poets have been poets of lamentations like Jeremiah," he was accustomed to say. "I want to be a poet of joy, of hope, of brightness, a belief in a future for my people more brilliant than any state they have enjoyed in the times of the kings and of a restoration of the majesty of Jerusalem."

Imber, as he was their "poet of hope," died on the day on which he had always wished to die—the Sabbath Torah; or day of "the joy of the law," when all orthodox Jews are expected to make merry.

HEAR LECTURE DESPITE RAIN

In spite of the wet morning the Garrick audience assembled promptly between 10:15 and 10:45 a. m. Sunday. The program commenced at 10:45 and Lewis began his lecture a few minutes after 11:00. The meeting closed at 12:30.

"A Real Education and How to Get It" provided a theme for one of the most interesting and absorbing lectures that has been heard from the Garrick lecturer. The collection was $75.00 and the book sales went over $40.00. The main floor was packed solid, but the wet morning was responsible for about seventy-five vacant seats on the back rows of the balcony. Next Sunday's subject is of unusual interest, and the Garrick auditors are looking forward to it as a special treat. The title is "The Problem of the Ages—What Is the Truth?" Many people Sunday morning appeared to be under the impression that there is a charged admission to the lectures. This is not the case. Admission is free to all parts of the theater.

MORSE PRISON TERM UPHeld

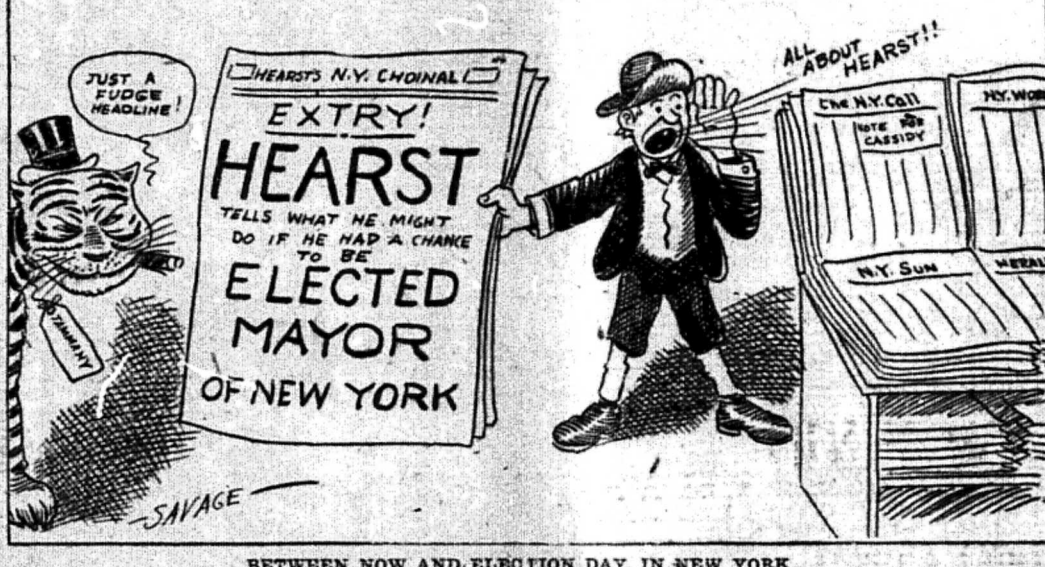

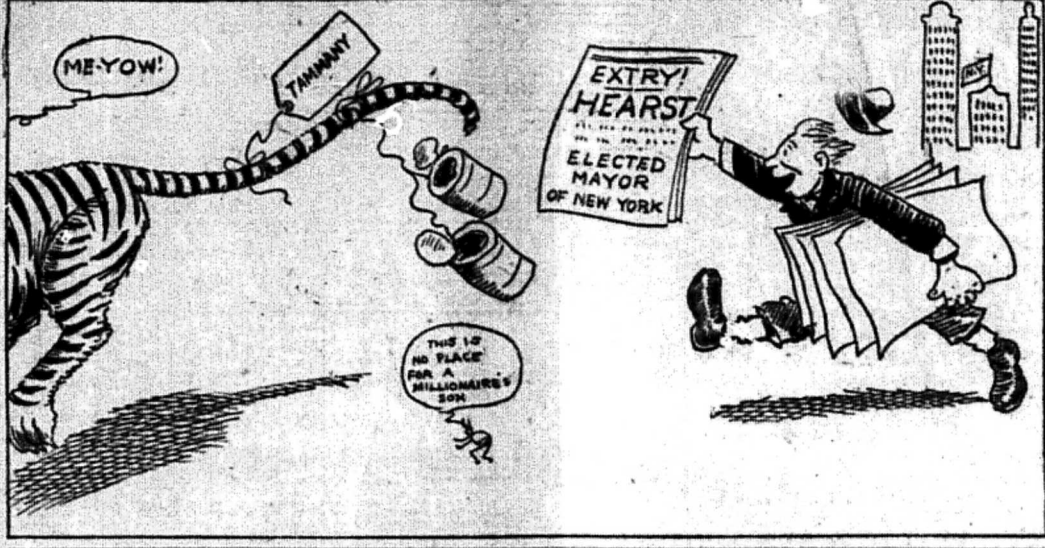

New York, Oct. 12.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today affirmed the decision of the lower federal court sentencing Charles W. Morse, the former banker and steamship owner, to fifteen years imprisonment in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

The decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals is final so far as direct appeal is concerned, but it was said today that counsel for Morse may apply to the Supreme court of the United States for a writ of certiorari in order to bring about a review of the entire proceedings by that court.

CHILD POURS OIL ON STOVE; TWO PERISH IN EXPLOSION

Two children are dead and another is in a serious condition as the result of an accident in the home of Angelo Christopher, West 76th street and South 56th avenue, Chicago Lawn, yesterday. They were burned in an explosion of kerosene. Shortly after noon Mr. and Mrs. Christopher went into the garden at the rear of their home to pick tomatoes, leaving the children alone in the house. Mrs. Christopher on leaving the house told her eldest daughter, Frances, not to let the fire in the kitchen range burn low.

WAYMAN KNOWS TWO MEN WHO COLLECTED $227,000 FROM LEVEE

In the First ward of Chicago, where Aldermen Michael Kenna (Hinky Dink) and John J. Coughlin (Bathhouse John) are absolute rulers, $227,000 in blood money is being collected annually for two men whose names are known to State's Attorney Wayman. The system has gone on for years. Its details were even made notorious by George Kibbe Turner in McClure's Magazine two years ago, but legal evidence is now at hand to fill the penitentiary with men who have attained wealth from the misery and degradation of men and women.

BAKERS TO URGE GOMPERS' FALL

Chicago Local Passes Some Strong Resolutions Opposing His Re-Election

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will probably be opposed for re-election at the coming convention at Toronto, Can., by the International Association of Bakers, as a result of a resolution passed by Local No. 2 of the Chicago Bakers' union.

The resolutions were adopted after a speech delivered by Heinrich Bartel, editor of the Arbeiter Zeitung on "Gompers' Tactics in the Labor Movement."

Text of Bakers' Resolutions

The resolutions are as follows: "Whereas, The Bakers' union, Local No. 2, declares that Gompers had no right to speak in the name of all organized labor in the United States and Canada, as he did in Europe; and

"Whereas, It is not true, as Mr. Gompers asserts, that the American toiler does not desire to learn anything concerning Socialism, for, on the contrary, Socialism is steadily increasing in power in the great unions of America; and

"Whereas, The idea of the class struggle is a growing factor in the ranks of the workmen, and we, the Bakers' union, Local No. 2, accept this growth with pleasure; and

"Whereas, It is our desire that the workers of the United States take trade unions of Germany and other European countries as examples; and

Further Advanced in Germany

"Whereas, If Mr. Gompers is an honest representative of the interests of the workers, then he must admit after what he saw in Germany and other European countries in the labor movement that our brothers on the other side of the ocean are further advanced than we are, and he must drop the tactics he has pursued up to the present time, because through these tactics the working class of this country has been greatly injured, and was hindered in its progress; and

"Whereas, Since Mr. Gompers does not seem to desist from his tactics of the past, but, on the contrary, in his report from Europe he immediately praises his own methods in the highest terms; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the Bakers' union, Local No. 2, That the general executive board of the International Association of Bakers of America hereby request to instruct our delegates to the convention of the A. F. of L. to work and vote against the re-election of Mr. Gompers as president of the A. F. of L.; and also be it further

Universal Brotherhood

"Resolved, That the general executive board of our International union instructs the delegates to the convention of the A. F. of L. to work for the admission of the A. F. of L. to the International Trade Union congress in order to advance the universal brotherhood of the workmen of the world."

Local Clubs' Same Message

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 11.—The police raised three "clubs" arrested thirty-three members and seized a sack of dynamite. All of the clubs were within a short distance of police headquarters. The raid was the result of a complaint to the police shop building destroyed last night was sold secretly in the of advantage just before he went to West Baden on his "vacation." The story goes that Wheeler went a large suit case with the "bellow" variety of English make, belonging to Ike Roderick, henchman of Kenna and a straw bossman at the Harrison street station. When this suit case was returned at a pawnshop, in which Ike Roderick has a financial interest, it was opened. The man who opened it, according to good information, found a scattered paper or two therein and exclaiming, "they think they are wise, but they're damn fools," tore it up.

In the McCann trial there were disclosed certain private memoranda dealing with transactions between McCann and the Frank brothers. In the South Side levee district where $227,000 is handled annually, there must be some accounting; but that as it may, on the day of the McCann conviction, according to reliable information, Detective Egan of Wheeler's personal staff borrowed the "English made" suit case from Ike Roderick, who had recently returned from Europe, and brought it to the station. Wheeler is said to have put it into an automobile and taken it to West Baden a few days later.

Get Records Out of Way

Such records as the private memoranda possessed by the Frank brothers would not be allowed by any man of sense to fall into the hands of a prosecuting attorney if the men were forewarned of a possible prosecution. The man who stormed over the rescue of Dolly Jones, a white slave taken from "Bob" Gray's dive, the man who swore and raged in the presence of Judge Newcomb, is a man of discrimination and plenty of judgment, and that man is Inspector John Wheeler.

More than 300 workers are involved in the South Side vice trust. Panders, his proposed sailing across the Pacific to assume the duties of his office, to which he recently was appointed.

Crane, who is a capitalist, is accused of talking out of school concerning what American capitalism proposes to do in the far east. His methods, being those of plain, brow-beating business, were too coarse for the diplomatic game.

Crane May Be "Bounced"

Many indications support the belief that the situation in which Mr. Crane stands is exceedingly serious, and in quarters presumably well informed the belief strengthened with the passage of the hours that Minister Crane's connection with the diplomatic service was in a very precarious condition.

It was thought that the matter would not be closed up, but might, in fact, require several days for final adjustment. From the air of intense expectancy which prevailed at the state department, however, it was evident that any hour might bring the situation to a crisis.

Mr. Crane arrived from San Francisco late and was closeted until far into the night with Secretary Knox and his special counsel, former Solicitor-General William M. Hoyt, but nothing authentic was obtainable as to the nature or results of that conference.

Two Meetings Held in Chicago Addressed by Miss Mary MacArthur

Two meetings were held to aid the women's ten hour law, enjoyed by Judge Tutthill, and about to be reviewed by the state supreme court. At the afternoon meeting, held under the auspices of the Women's Trade Union league, Mary MacArthur spoke on the minimum wage law as a safeguard to women, supplementing laws regulating the hours of their toil and seeking to better living conditions. At the evening meeting, held at Hull house, under the direction of the Socialist party, Seymour Stedman gave at length the legal aspects of the law, showing how the judges of the United States Supreme court were at sea on economic problems. Mary MacArthur spoke on the ten hour law and presented a strong argument in its favor from all points of view.

Resolutions Are Passed

After her speech the following resolutions were passed:

"Whereas, The legislature of this state, in the interest of life, health and public morals has enacted a law providing that the hours of all females in mechanical establishments or factories or laundries shall be limited to ten hours daily; and

"Whereas, This law has been temporarily destroyed and permanently threatened by an injunction of the Circuit court of Cook county, from which an appeal will be taken to the higher courts of this state; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we in the interest of childhood, motherhood, public health, morals and civilization, urge the working class to hold meetings protesting against the nullifying of this law and send resolutions adopted at such meetings to the Supreme court of this state."

Wood-Simons presided at the meeting, and in introducing Miss MacArthur welcomed her as a "Socialist comrade from England." Both meetings were well attended. They mark the beginning of a campaign for womanhood and against greed. At the night meeting a collection was taken for the Swedish strikers.

Intelligence Is Needed

"Let us hope that when women have been given the ballot they will use it with intelligence gained from their experience, and if men would today vote with similar intelligence there would be no need for appealing to courts to sustain a law protecting women," said Attorney Stedman, at the Hull house meeting in the evening. This remark was made at the close of a decision during which he had reviewed the action of the Supreme court of the United States in upholding the Oregon law for women, while it had rejected the New York ten hour law for bakers. In the latter case one of the famous five-to-four decisions of the Supreme court had been rendered. In such decisions any one judge who may be taken as being the fifth man on the side of a decision has a power as autocratic as the czar. Stedman read extracts showing that the dissenting judges had held very different views as to the right of freedom of contract. In the dissenting opinions it was shown that laws against lottery, usury and other things had been sustained. These laws had restricted the right of "freedom of contract" and established the principle that such right could be restricted.

In "Class Legislation"

"It will be contended," said Stedman, "that the woman's law is class legislation, and as the law stands today it will have much opposition from the side and support from the other. For whether it will be sustained, there are two main points to be considered, legal precedent and economic necessity. It is class legislation, and as such there are many precedents for its defeat, though the United States Supreme court has held that it is within the power of the state to grant special legal protection to women, because of their position in regard to the life of the race.

"On the economic side, while it can not be shown that factory workers suffer the highest mortality, the distinction here is to prevent girls, still the impaired vitality of the women and girls working long hours in factories endangering the race. There are in Illinois 12,000 women engaged in the industrial pursuits. Of these 45 per cent are between the ages of 15 and 24 and the death rate is 5.3 per 1,000. Among women not engaged in industry the rate is

News Story Objectable

It is known now that the immediate reason for the recall of Minister Crane was an article in the Chicago Record-Herald of Sept. 27, under a Washington date, "extending a somewhat minute acquaintance with confidential matters supposed to be known only by responsible officials" at the state department and presumably by Minister Crane, relative to the attitude of the United States government toward the two treaties recently concluded between China and Japan.

That publication was highly objectionable to the department of state, in that it disclosed the possibility of a protest on the part of the United States against the consummation of those treaties, and it is known that Secretary Knox and his associates in the department have held Minister Crane responsible for these disclosures.

Gives Japs Monopoly

These treaties, which would practically confer upon the Japanese a monopoly of mineral development of Manchuria and would also make the Japanese the virtual dictators of Chinese railway extension in Manchuria, are regarded by the state department, it is said, as destructive of the principle of the "open door" enunciated by the late Secretary Hay and subscribed to by Japan in a formal agreement with Mr. Root when the New York senator was secretary of state.

The Chicago publication was regarded as particularly unfortunate at this time because of the purpose of the state department to have Mr. Crane take careful soundings of the feeling entertained among the other foreign ministers and ambassadors resident in Pekin before any representations were made to the Japanese government.

Handicaps the Diplomats

Such a course is essential in order to escape the humiliating consequences that might be expected to follow a protest directed by the state department to Japan which would not command the support of at least a majority of great powers other than America which had accepted Mr. Hay's "open-door" policy as binding upon them.

The publication of the Chicago statement has deprived the American minister who is to represent this country at Pekin of considerable advantage in the game of diplomacy, and it may now be possible for a power to set in motion machinery which may defeat the whole project.

CRANE MAY LOSE ORIENTAL POST Government, Angry at His "Coarse" Methods, May Dismiss Him

Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.—Whether or not Charles R. Crane shall proceed to Pekin in the capacity of American minister to China seems now to depend upon the outcome of conferences between Mr. Crane and Secretary Knox, who unexpectedly and rather mysteriously summoned Mr. Crane from San Francisco to Washington on the eve of

ETHER WAVES FROM T. R. BOOM HUNTING

The mental telepathy converts in Chicago are in a gleeful mood. Theodore Roosevelt, they say, has proved their theory correct. This is the manner of it:

While "Bwana Twambo" is slaughtering big game (monkeys, wildbeasts, etc.) in the wilds of Africa and having the time of his life an unprecedented number of local hunters are taking out licenses to hunt the ferocious rabbit and the man eating quail in the jungles of Cook county. The statistics show that four hundred more hunters have applied for licenses this year than last.

Thought Waves Responsible

And for want of any better explanation, the mental telepathy people are advancing the explanation that thought waves, originating in the brain of the mighty Nimrod now hunting in Africa, have ridden the waves of ether, zigzagging all the way across the Atlantic and half way across the American continent, until finally they reached Chicago and excited sympathetic currents in the brains of those residents who are in the least susceptible to influence of this variety.

400 More Licenses Issued

The number of Cook county hunting licenses issued so far this year is in excess of 2,200. Last year at this time there were only 1,800.

It may be of course, that the mere reading of Roosevelt's exploits in the daily papers has, through the law of suggestion, something to do with the increase in local hunters, but such an explanation would hardly be courteous to the mental telepathists, so the original explanation will have to stand.

McKEES ROCKS MEN ASK AID

Steel Workers Solicit Defense Fund for Comrades Imprisoned in Strike

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST.) McKees Rocks, Pa., Oct. 10.—An appeal is being sent out to the toilers of America by the steel workers at the Pressed Steel Car plant, where the recent strike took place against the barbarous conditions existing there, asking funds to engage legal aid for the steel workers sent to prison during the strike.

Should Not Forget Victims

"We, the workers of America, should not forget the victims of this struggle," says the appeal, which continues as follows: "After the 'Bloody Sunday' of Aug. 22, many of the most active men, several still bleeding from the wounds inflicted by the Cossacks, were thrown into the dungeons. Some of them are still held under charges before the grand jury. Heavy bail had to be paid for four of these militants, as it was feared they would succumb to the tortures they had to suffer, but fourteen more are held in the battle of the master class of Pennsylvania.

Must Have Defense League

"Men and women of America, arise in all your might to the new occasion! These men languishing in prison had no paid position in a labor organization. They are of the rank and file, with no exception. Deprived of their liberty while fighting for the rights of themselves and their fellow workers.

An Official Invitation

"As this appeal will be sent to the papers for publication, it is hoped that in order to bring it to the attention and consideration of progressive labor and Socialist organizations, the members interested will use this as an official invitation for help from their organizations."

Hatters' Strike TO BE SETTLED

New York, Oct. 12.—The nine months' strike by the United Hatters of North America, in conjunction with the Women's Hat Trimmers' association, against the Associated Hat Manufacturers will end within a fortnight, it was announced yesterday. The fight, which has cost probably $4,000,000 to the opposing forces, is settled by an agreement to recognize the unions and to place their labels in the shops.

150,000 ANGRY PARISIANS IN RIOT WHEN TRAINS ARE LATE

Paris, Oct. 12.—Rioting at the Juvisy and Savigny railway stations Sunday formed the culmination of the fortnight of disappointments which had attended the "grand" aviation meet. Thousands who wished to see the flying machine competition and who were infuriated at the utterly inadequate transportation facilities smashed car windows, stormed the stations, wrecked the waiting rooms, threatened the officials and fought the soldiers who undertook to suppress the outbreak.

3,800 MASONS COMING HERE TO ATTEND ANNUAL MEETING

Between 1,500 and 2,000 of the most representative business men and professional men of Illinois will gather in Chicago today to attend the annual communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Illinois. The communication opens at 10 o'clock and will continue through Thursday with single sessions each day.

BOYS BURN JAIL DOOR OFF WITH HOT POKER AND FLEE

Use of a red-hot poker enabled two boys, held on a charge of burglary, to break jail at Mokena, Ill., early this morning. The boys, who gave the names of Edward Clark and William Rhodes, were arrested early Sunday morning, after, it is said, they had broken into the store of John Hatch at Mokena and stolen a number of pipes, packages of tobacco and chewing gum. They were arrested by Village Marshal Schenkle and locked up in the town calaboose.

HAVANA IS HIT BY HURRICANE

Havana, Cuba, Oct. 12.—A storm of hurricane proportions struck the city early today and raged with unabated fury for several hours. No fatalities had been reported up to this time, but the property losses from wind and rain probably will be enormous. Many lighters and other small craft in the harbor have been sunk or driven ashore. All telegraph wires in the city are down, the electric power service is crippled and scarcely a tree is left standing in Havana.

Storm Off Coast of Florida

Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.—A destructive hurricane which probably will pass northward over Florida is indicated in advices to the weather bureau today. The storm is blowing fiercely off the Florida coast, shipping has been warned all the way from Mobile, Ala., to Charleston, S. C., and hourly observations have been ordered in the hurricane territory.

Duluth Has a Snowstorm

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 12.—Following a long period of balmy weather and ushered in with a sixty-mile northwester, accompanied by snow, sleet and hail, Duluth and vicinity is today and since last night at 9 o'clock wrapped in the dulcheta of the first snowstorm of the season. Much damage to minor nature has been done at the head of the lakes and is surrounding territory is yet to be heard from.

CURTIS COMING HERE TO PREPARE FOR THREE FLIGHTS

Glenn H. Curtiss will come to Chicago from St. Louis tomorrow morning to prepare for three flights in his aeroplane at the Hawthorne race track next Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons. He will be accompanied by Captain Thomas S. Baldwin, U. S. A., who will also fly in dirigible balloons. Mr. Curtiss recently won the Gordon Bennett International cup at Rheims with a flight of twenty miles in less than sixteen minutes in a heavier than air machine. He has been devoting his practice time lately to the negotiation of sharp turns on an elliptical race track course.

NEW YORK WASHERWOMAN GIVES $60 TO AID MISSIONS

New York, Oct. 12.—Although she ekes out a living by washing, Mrs. Sophia Lichtenfeld, contributed $60 at the annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which is being held at the Gospel tabernacle in this city. Urged by Rev. A. B. Simpson, famous as a collector of funds for the church work, the crowd in the tabernacle pledged a total of $46,775 for the annual missionary offering, $4,588 of which was in cash.

OTIS COMPANY DISOBEYS JUDGE

The Otis Elevator company, despite the fact that it is pledged to abide by the decision handed down by Judge Grosscup, has so far failed to take the elevator constructors back to work after their strike. Under the decision of Judge Grosscup the elevator constructors were given jurisdiction over the installation of elevators, a portion of which work is claimed by the International Association of Machinists. The Grosscup decision was with a view to settling the dispute, finally doing so in favor of the elevator constructors. Business Agent John Lally of that organization is expecting a call from the Otis Elevator company today and hopes for a settlement.

HUSBAND AWAKENS WIFE THEN KILLS HER AND SELF

Eric, Pa., Oct. 12.—Fred E. Link of the Link Manufacturing Company of this city aroused his wife from her slumber yesterday morning and a quarrel ensued, during which, it is said, Link announced that he had decided to end both his own life and that of his wife. He shot the woman four times, one bullet penetrating her heart. Link fled the remaining bullet through his chest, striking instantly. Link had suffered serious business reverses.

2nd session of your session meetings at the Daily Socialist

THE HUSTLERS' COLUMN Conducted by H. G. Creel

SOCIALIST PARTY PROGRAM

As measures calculated to strengthen the working class in its fight for the realization of this ultimate aim, and to increase its power of resistance against capitalist oppression, we advocate and pledge ourselves and our elected officers to the following program:

GENERAL DEMANDS

- 1. The immediate government relief for the unemployed workers by building schools, by reforesting of cut-over and waste lands, by reclamation of arid tracts, and the building of canals, and by extending all other useful public works. All persons employed on such works shall be employed directly by the government under an eight-hour work-day and at the prevailing union wages. The government shall contribute to the funds of the labor organizations for the purpose of assisting their unemployed members, and shall take such other measures within its power as will lessen the widespread misery of the workers caused by the misrule of the capitalist class.

INDUSTRIAL DEMANDS

- 7. The improvement of the industrial condition of the workers. (a) By shortening the work-day in keeping with the increased productivity of machinery. (b) By securing to every worker a rest period of not less than a day and a half in each week. (c) By securing a more effective inspection of work shops and factories. (d) By forbidding the employment of children under sixteen years of age. (e) By forbidding the interstate transportation of the products of child labor, of convict labor and of all unregulated factories. (f) By abolishing official charity and substituting in its place compulsory insurance against unemployment, illness, accidents, invalidism, old age and death.

POLITICAL DEMANDS

- 8. The extension of inheritance taxes, graduated in proportion to the amount of the bequests and to the nearness of kin. 9. A graduated income tax. 10. Unrestricted and equal suffrage for men and women, and we pledge ourselves to engage in an active campaign in this direction. 11. The initiative and referendum, proportional representation and the right of recall. 12. The abolition of the senate. 13. The abolition of the power usurped by the Supreme Court of the United States to pass upon the constitutionality of the legislation enacted by Congress. National laws to be repealed or abrogated only by act of Congress or by a referendum of the whole people. 14. That the constitution be made amendable by majority vote. 15. The enactment of further measures for general education and for the conservation of health. The Bureau of Education to be made a department. The creation of a department of public health. 16. The separation of the present bureau of labor from the department of commerce and labor, and the establishment of a department of labor. 17. That all judges be elected by the people for short terms, and that the power to issue injunctions shall be curbed by immediate legislation. 18. The free administration of justice. Such measures of relief as we may be able to force from capitalism are but a preparation of the workers to seize the whole powers of government, in order that they may thereby lay hold of the whole system of industry and thus come to their rightful inheritance.

MILLS EATS UP SOCIALIST FOE

Debate at Waterloo, Iowa, Results in Many Invitations to Speak

Invitations from all parts of Iowa have come to Walter Thomas Mills as the result of his successful debate at Waterloo, Iowa, when he met S. H. Basher, a former democratic candidate for congress. Basher brought forward all the stock arguments against Socialism in arguing the negative of the question: "Resolved, That the Socialist Party is the Solution of the Industrial and Governmental Problems in the United States." The mayor and leading business men attended.

Points in Mills' Speech

Mills had thirty minutes to make his statement in opening the debate. He brought out the following points: The most pressing industrial problem is monopoly. The most pressing political problem is the political power of industrial monopoly. The solution of this is the public ownership of industrial management proposed by the socialist party. Basher brought out the following points: The platforms of the Socialist party do not contain the real doctrine. To find these doctrines Socialist literature must be read. That literature advocates the overthrow of present institutions. That literature denounces "honest business" as dishonest. It would destroy the church and the family.

Mills' Pointed Answer

Mills replied: "I can not see that receiving the full product of his toil would make the worker irreligious, or that the purchase of oil and coal and other necessities at low prices would make a worker desert his wife." Basher then brought forward the statement that Karl Marx said that the final coming of Socialism might be attended by war. Basher then referred to a recent editorial of Victor Berger's. He then had a spasm over "Socialism and violence."

Use Force to Uphold Law

Mills answered: "When we beat you on the platform and then beat you at the ballot box, you will obey us—just the same as we obey you people when you make the laws now. If necessary troops are used today to enforce law. So when we win the law will be obeyed. Such enforcement will be a matter not of our choice, but of those who resist the result of the ballot."

THE CHICAGO DAILY SOCIALIST

Entered as second-class matter, Dec. 21, 1904, at P. O. Chicago, Ill., under act of March 3, 1879.

Owned by the Workers Publishing Society, 150-152 Washington St., Chicago, Ill. NEW TELEPHONE NUMBER (ALL DEPARTMENTS) FRANKLIN 1168

Following "Illiction Returns"

One of the wisest things ever said by that humorist-philosopher, Mr. Dooley, was that the Supreme court always followed the "illiction returns." Of course this is contrary to all the traditions of the law.

If this were true it would be a very sorry thing. It would mean that institutions are more powerful than life, and therefore that life would soon be strangled.

Fortunately it is nothing but clap-trap. Law, like everything else, changes. Like every other social institution it expresses the interest of the ruling class.

Whenever any ruling class has found its interests threatened by the attitude of any court that court always finds plenty of "precedents" for an opposite decision.

So it is with regard to labor legislation. When the ruling class thought itself strong enough to maintain the position, labor unions were conspiracies in restraint of trade, and all legislation for the protection of children restricted the "freedom of contract."

This is the situation that confronts the Supreme court of Illinois in reference to the ten-hour law. If that court is convinced that the defeat of the law will mean the sending of a body of men to the next legislature pledged to the defense of working-class interests at every point, then the law will be declared unconstitutional.

The fate of that law rests far more with the workers of Illinois than it does with the Supreme court.

If they want that law bad enough to make a fight for it they will get it.

If they keep quiet and show by their lack of action that they will not present an adverse decision, then that is the sort of a decision they will get.

"Putting on the Lid"

Chief Steward has sent out word to the levee rulers that it will be necessary to "lie low" for a few months. He has given what the small boy calls the "jiggers" to the gang.

Those orders speak louder than anything yet published concerning conditions in these districts. There is an order forbidding the use of bars and other instruments of restraint—an open confession that these have existed in the past in spite of a whole string of official acts, court decisions, constitutional amendments and statute laws for the emancipation proclamation to the latest writ of habeas corpus, all forbidding slavery.

The new orders direct that no person shall be retained in any resort through a claim of debt. This has been the law for many years. The new order is again a confession that this law has not been enforced.

So it would be possible to go through almost the whole list of regulations that have been at last forced from the police department.

Again, if the Daily Socialist was like any other paper, here is the point at which we would stop and boast of our success in achieving a reform. The fact would be that more has been accomplished than by any "crusade" ever carried on in Chicago.

But the Daily Socialist is not here simply to have the "lid" put on for a few weeks in order to protect those who derive profit from crime. For, in the last analysis, everyone knows that this is what is taking place in Chicago today.

So long as a mighty army of young men are denied by economic necessity the right to marry and have homes, and so long as department stores and factories employ great masses of young women at starvation wages, and so long as the rulers of our present society derive profits from the rents of red light resorts, just so long there will be "levees" in every great city.

There will be times when the "lid" will be put on for the purpose of deceiving the shallow reformer. But the "lid" only remains until the storm has blown over. Then all begins as before.

The Socialist alone is striking at the root. Therefore he will not stop digging until the roots are torn out. For every forward step he rejoices, but he never permits his rejoicing to interfere with the onward march toward greater things.

A Slight Chance... Coxy Comforters... Dude—Does this train carry animals? Fair—No, but if you get into a seat and keep your mouth shut, O! don't think any one will suspect yer identity.—Bohemian

MR. TAFT ON LABOR BOYCOTTS

BY ROBERT HUNTER

Mr. Taft the other day spoke about labor and farmers' unions.

It appears that the anti-trust law has been used to knock out the boycott. When trade unionists found that out there was a great cry. Mr. Gompers and other leaders decided therefore to try to get the anti-trust law amended.

They claimed they were acting in the interests of labor. They got together the leaders of labor, and altogether, multi-millionaires, politicians and labor leaders, hurried to Washington to have the bill introduced.

application to conspiracies seeking to suppress competition and monopolize trade. He believes this change would help the unions, as the anti-trust law would not then interfere with a labor boycott.

THE LIGHTS ALONG THE "L"

By George E. Bowen

I've spelled them in the twilight, in darker hours read Their signals to the homeward, the welcomes they have said.

A million lights a-twinkle, each in the self-same way. Sure lights, whose fellow welcome goes never once astray.

The night may touch with silence the mills that daily grind, The love no trade can trouble its lighted home shall find.

THE PROBLEM OF PROPAGANDA

Unhappily, however, locals and individual comrades throughout the country are expending the maximum of effort with the minimum of results.

All propaganda ideas should be put through the sieve of experiment and investigation. It is not necessary, however, that this be always done locally.

That is because they have not made a careful study of propaganda and organization methods.

I am of the opinion that too much attention cannot be paid to this department of our work. Socialist papers should devote considerable space to it.

On the Firing Line

BY MONOSABIO

So long as you allow the exploiters to hand you out a job, as a favor, you will remain a slave.

John F. Carroll, former head of Tammany Hall, has been made a "Knight of the Order of St. Gregory by the Pope."

Arthur L. Chapman, of Watertown, N. Y., is agitating the passage of a law making voting compulsory. Fine idea, and be sure to make them, as far as possible, vote the capitalist ticket.

James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, declares that the average American laborer of today lives better than Elizabeth did in her time. He probably means such horny-handed sons of toil as J. Pierpont Morgan, John D. Rockefeller and Andy Carnegie.

THE POVERTY PROBLEM

BY JOHN SPARGO

A powerful factor in the movement toward Socialism is the growing recognition of the fact that, in spite of all our wealth, as a nation, we are the victims of a terrible, menacing poverty problem.

many were hurrying throngs pass and repress in the great city.

We have been so accustomed to look with pity upon the old world, struggling, like some Old Man of the Sea, beneath the too heavy load of pauperism and privation, that we have neglected the ominous signs that similar conditions have developed in our very midst.

Besides the thousands of babies who die before they reach their second year from poverty—the babies whom the chittie, maramic forms proclaim that they die of hunger, though the death certificates say bronchitis or dyspepsia—sixty or seventy thousand more in the schools of one city being starved in mind and body!

Robert Hunter's recent book is a powerful missionary for Socialism, its very conservatism increasing its power. When he tells us that there are not less than ten million persons in poverty in the United States in normal times, and probably nearer twelve millions, we would fain disbelieve it, if we could. But he is inescapable in his logic.

Teachers and principals told me of children fainting over their lessons, and of others backward, dull and unable to learn because of physical weakness due to lack of proper food.

The figures of pauperism, the figures of unemployment, the figures of sickness and accident, the figures of low wages. The figures of government reports which are not open to the charge of being colored to suit the Socialist agitator. He sets down all the figures and bids us reckon the sum. We reckon the sum and prove it. We are convinced that his picture is not overdrawn. Ten millions in poverty! Ten millions with not enough to eat, without proper clothing, with poor, miserable homes and these not their own.

I spent weeks in the schools witnessing this civilized brutality till I could stand it no longer, then turned away with a curse in my heart and on my lips for the ghoulish greed and the brutal ignorance of this Mammonite system; turned away with shame for the wrongs inflicted upon the helpless little ones and with their cries ringing in my ears.

Who shall interpret for us these terrible figures? Who is there can tell what they mean in hunger, tears, ignorance, crime, disease and death?

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

ON THE SUFFRAGE

BY LIDA PARCE

The young women of the bourgeoisie women suffrage movement are said to be signing a pledge not to marry any man unless he will promise to work for the woman's suffrage cause.

get certain laws passed, in which their social organization is interested.

Out in Colorado the women got the suffrage by organization on the social field. The women's clubs in that state created a certain enthusiasm, on the swell of which the women rode into the political haven.

To have secured good social legislation is good so far as it goes. But it cannot go far. When the children of Colorado go out from their schools and homes into the economic activities of the world they must either fall in these activities or yield to the corruption, of the economic world.

The political atmosphere is quite as murky as before. Doubtless the Colorado women are opposed to political corruption; then why have they not cleaned things up out there? For the simple reason that the women are not organized on the economic field; and politics is the servant of economics.

Practical experience in the economic world is necessary to the making of an intelligent voter on economic questions. It is customary to ascribe to all women the harmless quality of being "good," and to assume that this is all that is needed to make her a good voter.

If the Colorado women had got the suffrage through economic organization they would be able to effect economic conditions and make politics their servant. Instead of which their ballot is, without their consent, made the servant of corrupt economic interests.

Men have always voted in response to appeals made to their emotions. But that game is played out now to the bitter end. Nothing short of downright intelligent thinking, followed up by organized action, will enable a man or a woman to vote in such a way as to help solve his or her problem.

The economic interests nominate the candidates, pay the expenses of election and dictate the acts of the men in office. All the unorganized women have to do is to cast the vote. You see, it doesn't make the least difference whether the women vote or not, excepting that they have been able to

In view of these facts it looks rather pitiful for the bourgeoisie women to be trying to buy votes for their cause with their sex.—Progressive Woman.

TO THE EDITOR

Disapproves of the Daily's Article on "Gypsy" Smith

I have been buying and reading the Daily Socialist for some months past very regularly, and have also been advising my friends to do the same.

Let the Light In

Your attack in yesterday's paper upon "Gypsy" Smith and his meeting was, in my opinion, ill advised from every standpoint.

"Gypsy" Smith, in his daily sermon, printed in an evening paper, says: "If 5,000 women of Chicago were to march to the places where vice is rampant, demanding that they be closed, insisting upon it, those places would be closed."

Your attack in yesterday's paper upon "Gypsy" Smith and his meeting was, in my opinion, ill advised from every standpoint.

Let the Light In. No city administration would dare to ignore such a demonstration by the mothers of Chicago against white slavery as I have outlined.
