Socialist Vote Trebles in Maine

Woodford, Me., Sept. 19.—Official returns from the Secretary of State for the State of Maine show that the Socialists polled a total of 1,568 votes, which is a gain of 308 votes over the returns made by the election officers for the last election. This increase is said to be due to the agitation by the Maine Socialists, who have been active in the cities and towns throughout the state. The Socialist vote trebled in the last election, and the increase is attributed to the active campaigning of the state committee, which is said to have been more effective than in previous years.

Increase in Vote Indicated from All Parts

Oregon and Maine are always watched in the West as indicators of the possible increase in Socialist strength. As their State and Congressional elections are held in the same year, the results are looked upon as indicating what the results of the Presidential election will be. Oregon and Maine are both considered as being on the left wing of the party in the nation, and the Socialist vote in these states is expected to be above average. In this election, both states voted for the Socialist ticket, and the results are expected to show an increase in the Socialist vote.

In Oregon, the Socialist vote trebled from 1,823 in 1908 to 5,469 in 1912. In Maine, the vote increased from 2,322 in 1908 to 1,568 in 1912. The increase in the Socialist vote in these two states this year may therefore be considered as forecasting an increased Socialist strength throughout the country.

In Oregon, the Socialist vote increased from 1,823 in 1908 to 5,469 in 1912, an increase of 3,646 votes. The Socialist vote in Maine increased from 2,322 in 1908 to 1,568 in 1912, an increase of 1,044 votes. The Socialist vote in Oregon and Maine is expected to increase in the next election, and it is believed that the Socialist strength in the country will be greater than ever before.

Spread the Glad Tidings

GIDEON 8. BROWN has arrived in San Francisco, where he will continue his campaign for the Socialist nomination for governor of California. The Socialist Party is one of the most active and powerful parties in the state, and Brown is expected to receive a warm welcome from the party faithful.

Campaign Headquarters

The Campaign Committee has opened headquarters at 28th street and Market, and the campaign is in full swing. The committee is doing a great deal of work and is expected to make a strong showing in the upcoming election.

Sees Dimly

The Rev. tree has never been a Socialist pa- triot. But he is not likely to use the name or tactics of the Socialists is right. It is the naked doctrine of Jesus Christ, as preached in the New Testament, which must be applied to the functions of government. It cannot be practiced in the United States. A certain limit has been applied in this country to the concept of public utility, and the Socialist cry for the nationalization of all forms of industry is not likely to find a sympathetic ear in this country.

Socialist Vote in St. Louis

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—The Socialist vote in St. Louis is expected to treble from the 1,000 votes received in 1908 to 3,000 votes in 1912. The Socialist vote in St. Louis is expected to increase in the next election, and it is believed that the Socialist strength in the city will be greater than ever before.

IN ADVANCE

Two hundred and thirty-three delegates from the various departments, convention of the American Federation of Labor, last Saturday, by a vote of 120 to 55, decided not to issue a ticket in the field. Aside from this one point their report at the convention, is, I believe, a copy of the full text of the report, as it will be printed in our next issue.
