Marseilles Conference of the Socialist International Exposes Its Character

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

TODAY, the delegates to the world congress of the Second Sociality International are back in their capitalist homelands. They were not completed to travel fer. Of the 37 parties stillisted to this international of betrayers, only eight are located in countries coatied western or central eight are coated in countries coatied western or central Americas, the United States, the Argentine and British Gulans.

Americas, the United States, the Argentine and British Guilean. Builty Prior reports in Landbury's Labor Westly (London) that to of the remainder are "parties on the threa-boil of Asia." But this does not state all of the truth. They may have one foot in Asia, but the other is firmly planted in some counter-revolutionary center in Europe. This is notably true of the menaheylk socialist parties of Georgia and Armenia, two Soviet Republics. Then there are the parties shevik party will cookin its plots in Parts. What an aggregation!

The "socialist" perties may thus he said to have the confidence of West Europe angulation, where they show confidence of West Europe angulation, where they show confidence of the Communists. But in addition to localize in the war on the Communists. ## Here and in Britain

Here and in Britain

While William Green and the principal labor lieutenants of capitalism on the A. P. of L. payroll were reading the Communists out of the American trade usion movement the leading officials of the British labor movement were presenting a petition to the British Trade Union Congress in session at Secubrough protesting against the exclusion of the Communists from the British labor party. This document calls attention to the need for the closest solidar-That enemy is capitalism. Those who do not recognize capitalism as their enemy are in deadly opposition to Communist participation in the labor movement, because the Communist insist that the only way the workers can free themselves from the ceils which surround them at present is to fight and overthrow the capitalist system. The right wing dements in the labor party, but by the yellow socialists had a resolution passed which made Communists inslightle to membership in the labor party. Owing to the strong opposition that developed in the ranks of the labor party and in the trade unions, the yellow socialist excludion against the Communists unions, the yellow socialist excludion against the Communists.

unts twe-copied in the relates on the intoo' party shar me trate-numous, the yellow socialist exclusion against the Communists was little better than a deal elette. Each succeeding year saw the strength of the Communists increasing. The number of those who supported the reschading of the resolution became greater and greater as the class struggie grey in intensity and the more class conscious workers learned from experience that the program of the Communists was constructive and not destructive, in fact that if was the only program that showed them a way out of the present im

Passe.

Thus it has come to pass that attached to the appeal demanding the rescinding of the Communist exclusion resolution from the labor party, were the names of the best known and most militant non-Communist fighters in the British trade union movement. Their records shine in comparison with those of the capitalist like-splitties who do the dirty work of the bosses in the American Federation of Labor. The names of A. B. Swales, A. Precil, A. J. Cook, leaders of millions of workers, are known through the world as friends of Sorder Rassia and enemies of capitalism. The Community sacers or millions or workers, are known thrubout the world as riends of Soriet Russia and enemies of capitalism. The Commun its are as happy in the support of such men as they are in the undy age amity of Green, Woll, Berry, Lynch and the thousands of bther nion strikebreakers that infest the American labor movement.
