PARTY FIGHTS FOR
GIVES DEMANDS OF COMMUNISTS

By KARL REIVE
(Staff Correspondent of the DAILY WORKER)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Workers (Communist) Party, which fights at all times in the interests of the working class, will have the support of all the militant sections of the workers, and of all the rank and file and progressive elements in the trade unions in the municipal election campaign, Benjamin Gitlow, Communist candidate for mayor of New York City, declares.

"The trade union bureaucrats who oppose the unification of the bureaucrats on the political field in the labor party," Gitlow said, "will support either the Tammany hall politician, James Walker, the millionaire republican candidate, Frank Waterman, or the rich, liberal petty bourgeois politician, running on the socialist ticket, Norman Thomas."

The Workers (Communist) Party is the only party taking part in the coming election campaign which represents the interests of the working class in its program of action. It is the only party which is actually running a program of action in the city of New York which is owned by the exploiting class.

SAKLATVALA ISSUE RAISED TO UNPRECEDENTED LEVEL DESPITE OFFICIAL BAN

(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4—Despite the efforts made by the council in charge of the union Congress to keep the exclusion of Shapurj Saklatvala, Communist member of the British house of commons, from the floor of the congress, Ben Riley, labor leader, insisted that the speaker should use his method of handling the Saklatvala incident.

His speech followed the transmission of the following letter of protest by Shapurj Saklatvala to the congress of his exclusion. Saklatvala Protest.

I submit for the special and emergency consideration of the conference the question of the exclusion of the United States government upon the rights and prerogatives of our conference, and also of the revelation of the timorous usage resorted to by the hosts for all international assemblages.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4—The workers of Washington protested against the exclusion of Shapurj Saklatvala, Communist member of the British house of commons, from the floor of the congress of the United States government after his speech. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

200,000 ANTHRACITE STRIKERS' LEAFLETS TO BE DISTRIBUTED

THE anthracite coal miners are on strike. They are using their strength as weapons at their disposal at this time, to enforce their demands for increased pay, better working conditions. They are fighting a hard struggle.

The American workers class must be able to do this work. The miners' struggle is the struggle of the miners, the struggle of the craft laborer, the need for a militant leadership; the need for a labor party; the need for trade union activity nationally and internationally, to the attainment of the workers of the country.

A. L. Sullivan, leader of the Workers Party, has just returned from a speaking tour in the anthracite mines. This has been a long and arduous trip, but he says that the miners are in a better mood than he has seen for a long time.

It's true, 200,000 of these leaflets have been distributed. Many more must be distributed. This is a long and arduous task, but it must be done.

Coolidge-Mellon War Debt Settling Plans Will Aid Only Capitalists

TODAY, Joseph Caillaux, French finance minister, is on his way back to Paris to report on his debt negotiations with Washington with the American secretary of the treasury "Andy" Mellon, the chief opponent of the Coolidge-Mellon plan.

The results of these negotiations may be summarized from information at hand, as follows: First, since Caillaux did not secure what he wanted, the French are, of course, disgruntled. They wanted easy terms, feeling that the rich American would willingly grant them.

The international bankers would be happy if the government at Washington would forgive the belligerent nations of Europe and the United States their war debts. They would like to negotiate new loans with these same international bankers who are offering us a loan with a 5% interest rate.

The anti-labor attack is most vicious in the textile industry of Massachusetts and in the Pittsburgh steel industry, where the Mellon interests have a controlling influence. The Coolidge-Mellon war debt settling policies are 100 per cent in the name of capitalism.

American workers cannot suffer through repudiation by the French working class and the debt owing by France to both the United States government and Wall Street's international banking syndicate. The United States government is the enemy of the French worker.

SARKISYAN AND BRAM RESENTED BY THE CHICAGO UNIONS

The British of Shapurj Saklatvala, the Communist member of parliament from entry to the United States in the first session of the interparliamentary union, was resented by the Chicago Federation of Labor, headed by Andrew Overgard of the United Washington party, in protesting to the Communist "Sarkisyan" Union, who passed up a gift from "Mr. Overgard" for the world-wide appeal for action.

The American capitalist government has no intention, he pointed out, in assisting without the slightest notion all sort of enemies of the working class. He pointed out that the Communist government is the enemy of the American worker.

Anton Johansen made a striking attack on the United States government, which marked Kellom as "the most servile tool of capitalism in the American government." He said that the U.S. government was the enemy of the American worker.

THE PARTY MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

BOSTON DISTRICT ENDORSES CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND PARTY'S BOLSHIEVI ATION

By JOHN J. BALLAM.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—The membership meeting was held at Paine Memorial Hall, 3 Appleton St., Boston, was one of the most instructive and important party meetings in this district. There were 200 party and 150 non-party members in attendance. The meeting was presided over by the C. E. C. report of the fourth national convention proceeded with the district's endorsement of our party on the basis of the shop and street union in the shortest possible time.

Analysis of Party.

Comrade Jay Lovestone, head of the organization department of the Central Executive Committee analyzed the present party situation and the party's immediate tasks. Comrade Lovestone pointed out that there were five principal stages in the growth and development of our party: 1. The formation of the Communist party in 1919 with over 40,000 members; 2. The results in the 1920 campaign; 3. The formation of the Communist party in 1921 with over 100,000 members; 4. The formation of the Communist party in 1922 with over 150,000 members; 5. The formation of the Communist party in 1923 with over 200,000 members. He pointed out that the party's growth was not linear, but that it had experienced several periods of rapid growth and decline. He stressed the importance of the party's ability to attract new members and to maintain the loyalty of its existing members.

Comrade Lovestone went on to discuss the party's organizational structure and the need for a more centralized and disciplined party. He criticized the current state of the party's organization, which he felt was too decentralized and too prone to factionalism. He called for a more unified party structure, with a strong central committee and a clear line of authority. He also discussed the party's political program and the need for a more consistent and revolutionary line.

Comrade Lovestone concluded his report by calling for a more active and militant party. He urged the party to focus on the shop and street union, and to work for the overthrow of the capitalist system. He called for a more disciplined and organized party, one that is capable of leading the working class to victory. The meeting ended with a vote of confidence in the Central Executive Committee and the party's Bolshevik program.

Fourth Stage.

Comrade Lovestone went on to discuss the party's organizational structure and the need for a more centralized and disciplined party. He criticized the current state of the party's organization, which he felt was too decentralized and too prone to factionalism. He called for a more unified party structure, with a strong central committee and a clear line of authority. Ask All New York to Be at International Labor Defense Ball

NEW YORK CITY, Oct. 4.—International Labor Defense, New York City, announces that a large ball will be held on Saturday, Oct. 17, at the Grand, 6th Street and Third Ave., New York City.

This ball is the beginning of a series of activities to be conducted by the I. L. D. in their campaign to help the Soviet prisoners and their families. At the present time of blackest reaction, with the courts taking independent action against the workers and the police chocking the streets at the sight of the workers, it is necessary for a strongly centralized fight for the civil rights of the workers. The I. L. D. is trying to do this, but it can do nothing without the concerted support of all elements of labor behind it. Every sympathizer must work to his utmost to make this work effective.

The committee in charge of the ball announces many novelties for the ball. Prizes will be given for the best and most original costumes. The committee in charge of the ball announces many novelties for the ball. Prizes will be given for the best and most original costumes.

WARSAW, (By Malin).—The trial of Wloszynski, Szkolni and Happonka, a woman, indicted for participating in the Communist Party, has ended in acquittal in the Warsaw district court. Dear Comrade:

Every militant working man and woman is mightily concerned about the danger which faces THE DAILY WORKER. A great many of them gave immediate response to the danger signal and thereby helped to overcome an emergency which without their support would have ended in disaster. The impending catastrophe was averted, but THE DAILY WORKER is very far from being safe.

There is only one way in which THE DAILY WORKER can be made safe and that is through the support of each one of the thousands of workers who depend on THE DAILY WORKER for leadership, inspiration and information in the struggle against capitalism.

SAVE THE DAILY WORKER.

Around this slogan every fighting, class conscious worker must rally. We said that only by the united efforts of all militants could THE DAILY WORKER be saved. That is true, but there are several ways in which each one may do his share:

By donating money to help THE DAILY WORKER in its work. Perhaps you have already done so. If you possibly can do it again and get some other worker to help, too.

By securing new subscribers to THE DAILY WORKER and The Workers Monthly. This is a task that everyone can perform with a little effort and by doing so you not only help to solve the financial problem, but also you strengthen the whole labor movement by increasing the size of its army and strengthening its ranks.

By buying and reading some of the Communist literature published and sold by The Daily Worker Publishing Co. In this way you help THE DAILY WORKER financially and in addition you can with pleasure and profit to yourself, make yourself more effective a fighter in the labor struggle.

That you are willing to exert every effort to help save THE DAILY WORKER. We have suggested three ways in which this can be done.

Whatever way you can. Every way if you can. Act now to save The Daily Worker.

Fraternally yours,

Samuel Block

ANDERSON TO TAKE APPEAL TO MEMBERS

Scores Johnston at His Hearing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(The Daily Worker.)—F. Anderson, former vice-president and recent candidate against Wm. H. Johnston for the presidency of the United Auto Workers, announced on Sept. 30 that he would appeal to the membership against the action of the general executive council which nominated Johnston's opponent, the late Anderson's membership. This was in the context of a vote on the appeal to the active lodge members of the appeal to the membership against the action of the general executive council at Washington headquarters in response to a formal resolution, Anderson said.

A pungent statement appearing before the council at Washington bid Anderson to respond to a general ballot for reelection to the membership a pungent statement which he denounces as "an attempt against himself as tyrant and as a lack of the will of the rank and file of the membership."

He reviewed the history of the union's struggle to establish democracy in its own affairs, and demanded that any change against him be approved by his own fellow-members in his own district, and not by the council which he denounces.

Membership Roll Issue.

He declared that the disclosure of recent months concerning the steering board in 1930 and 1931 had been disclosed to the membership as their own concern.

Johnston's demand that Anderson be added as a "responsible person for the union's losses" and "admission to membership."

electic monopolies—such as a public utility, a telephone company, or a street car company, but very often having interlocking directorates.

Trusts or Realty.

One of the contradictions inherent in the capitalist democracy is that it was to the interest of the great majority of the people to have a government that was not controlled by trusts or realty. It was on the other hand of the great majority of the people to have a government that was controlled by trusts or realty. It was on the other hand of the great majority of the people to have a government that was controlled by trusts or realty.

Who is Smith?

Alfred D. Smith is a director of the electric monopolies which has been interlocking directorates with the other trusts and realty interests. He is a director of the Morris Plan Company, a director of the National Building Loan Association, and is also the shareholder and chairman of the National Building Loan Association.

Hyman on the other hand is closely linked up with the realty interests. He is not a director of any of the electric monopolies, but he is himself engaged in business. Atarounn Peasant Trial On

The Romanians who seized the bulletin of the Atarounn Peasant Trial on the morning of September 15th, are now on their way to the trial.

These crimes are mentioned in the indictment. Officially, the rebels will be tried and without doubt, be sentenced for rebellion, robbery, murder and high treason.

Importance of Trial.

But he who probes deeper into the conditions today existing in Romania, and especially in Bessarabia, will have to agree with the following fact: that in reality this trial will decide the fate of the agrarian reform of the national question and of the relations with the Soviet Union.

The national question has been decided. The present trial has been held in order that, by means of a verdict against the prisoners, the government should be able to justify its policy towards the peasants.

The A. F. of L. and American Imperialism

The delegates to the American Federation of Labor convention in Atlantic City, consisting for the most part of officials of the affiliated unions, and true to their character as the agents of imperialism...

The departmental meetings held previous to the convention itself, such as those of the building and metal trades, have engaged in an orgy of red baiting. Working always in precedent in the best lawyer fashion...

War on the Communists by the officials of the American Federation of Labor is war on the only section of the American working class that is fully conscious of the dangerous path American labor is treading...

China Gets a Trojan Horse: The powers, so dispatches state, have sent a note to the Peking government declaring their profound desire to "settle the Shanghai incident"...

Just as the imperialists powers have been striving in the west to unite the nations of western Europe against the Soviet Union, so in China the imperialists powers have a policy of pretended consideration for the political independence of China...

Imperialism goes to Peking with a lie on its lips, an olive branch in one hand and a dagger in the other. It would be well for Chinese to recall the old saying about suspicion attaching to enemies who come bearing gifts.

Doctor Berger Ventures a Diagnosis

Victor Berger, returning home from Europe, makes the remarkable discovery that "all Europe is sick." We hesitate to say that this is so solely because Vic has been there and because Europe has in its social intimacies the feverish mass known as the Second International...

Also, we think that Vic missed something. He didn't visit Soviet Russia, the only country in the world which has engaged his time and interest there. So when he says "all Europe is ailing," we remind him that he did not get out of the safe guardianship of the capitalist propaganda machine...

But if "Doc Berger" is going to feel like pulses-and-taking-temperatures, we would recommend that he do a little diagnostic work at home. We ask you, Doc, what sort of purgatives, surgery or physiotherapy you prescribe for the illness of America's proletariat...

We were going to say to you, Doc, what sort of surgical operation you recommended, but second that we recall that we don't believe in surgery, preferring homoeopathy and christian "science" along with Ramsey Macdonald's "rawling, sniveling gradualism"...

The Rightists have been "crushed" every day for the last three weeks in the capitalist press but the war is still on
