Soviet Recognition Will Come Before Congress that Is Now in Session

By J. LOUIS ENCOAHL.

TODAY, Congress convenes. One of the problems that will come before it will be the recognition of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics. Ever since the Bolshevik revolution, in November, 1917.

Ever since the Bolabawik revolution, in Nevember, 1917, more than eight years ago, million tworkers have held this bitter and organized hostility of the official regime of the American Federation of Labor, that receives its policies on international questions ready made from the United States have penned a more vindicitive and malicious alader against the Swite Union than that adopted by the last convention of the American Federation of Labor.
