NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 17 .- The new Madison Square Gariden will revive the memory of notable labor demonstrations held in the old structure now gone when every labor organization in Greater New York will participate next Tuesday at 5:30 p. m. in a mass meeting called by 40,000 striking cloakmakers in protest against the temporary injunction issued to cloak manufacturers by Supreme Court Justice Charles L. Guy.

While individual pickets are disregarding service of these injunctions on the picket line in the garment zone as an abrogation of their constitutional guarantees of peaceful assemblage, labor leaders in the city are priming themselves for a contest both in the courts and on the picket line with their traditional

THE league of nations, organized ostensibly to enforce peace, is the theater of a struggle between England and France for control. The league can be of use to the winner in the diplomatic war that is being waged between the two countries. All this jockeying for permanent seats and non-permanent seats on the council has to do with this rivalry between the former allies.

. . . WITH Poland, Roumania, Belgium and Czecho-Slovakia on the council, France can outvote England. But New York Central Trades and Labor England, no doubt, will drag in some other puppets and the game will continue until diplomacy can no longer solve the problem and England will find some convenient slogan to give the world as her reason for waging war against France.

State Senator William Sneed, of Herrin, has withdrawn from the contest and agreed to accept the position of vice-president so that the reaction ary front may not be broken when the ballots are cast next December.

Szeed was the candidate of John L Lewis against Farrington before the Lewis "got the goods" on Farrington and forced his deposition as district president Fishwick announced his can didacy. Fishwick is a Farrington man.

Clean-Cut Issue.

As the situation stands now, there is a clean-cut issue between the read tionaries led by Fishwick and the progressives led by Joseph Tumulty of the Springfield sub-district. The exposure of Farrington in the role of retainer of the Peabody Coal Company puts the reactionaries on the de fensive. So far none of them, outside of John L. Lewis, commented publicly on the matter. To all appear ances they do not consider the sellout a question that should interest the coal diggers of Illinois. To Refresh Memories.

The reactionaries hope that the miners will forget all about Farrington in the coming campaign. But the coal diggers know that Fishwick and Sneed and Lewis and the whole bureaucratic district machine are tarred with the Excitement Reigns as same Peabody brush and that Fish. wick in particular was Farrington's loyal lieutenant in all the dirty work the deposed official was guilty of dur ing his official life in the Illinois Miners' Union.

The supporters of The DAILY WORKER are responding to the need of the $50,000 "Keep the Daily Worker" fund. Subscriptions for the "Keep the Daily Worker" certificates are being received in every mail in a considerable number.

This Issue Consists of Two Sections.

SECTION ONE.

Price 5 Cents

The $50,000 "Keep the Daily Worker" fund is being raised to insure the publication of The DAILY WORKER for another year. If this amount is raised during the next three month campaign The DAILY WORKER will be on a sound footing. It will be able to clear off its pressing debts and prepare the ground for latter's contract with the Peabody | a subscription drive which will increase the number of its read-Coal Company came to light. When ers and supporters. This fund will insure to the revolutionary working class movement its daily English fighting organ to voice its program of class struggle.

The raising of this $50,000 fund in the next three months can be accomplished. The past record of the supporters of The DAILY WORKER shows that with an intensive campaign among the friends of The DAILY WORKER, with organized support from the nuclei of the Workers (Communist) Party, with mass meetings, entertainments, celebrations such a fund to "KEEP THE DAILY WORKER" will be contributed.

The achieving of this goal will be easier this year than in the past because of the broader support which the Workers (Communist) Party has won in the past year thru such campaigns in the interest of the workers as the campaign for protection of the foreign-born workers, thru the successful furriers' strike in New York, thru its achievements in organization of the unorganized workers in he Passaic strike, which represents the biggest advance in the American labor movement in recent years.

We Must Meet the Immediate Crisis!

There is, however, an immediate crisis which The DAILY WORKER must overcome. The DAILY WORKER has now to meet the accumulated obligations of the past year with the added difficulties resulting from the low income of the summer months.

To meet this crisis, which is endangering The DAILY WORKER, the readers of The DAILY WORKER have been appealed to for immediate contributions to the "Keep the Daily Worker" fund. The organized campaign of the Workers (Communist) Party brganizations will take some time to get under way. Help must be secured immediately thru the raising of $10,000 thru individual contributions.

We ask the readers of The DAILY WORKER to rally to its support and carry it thru the financial crisis represented by the need of this $10,000. The money is needed to meet pressing obligations for our paper supply and plant payroll and accumulated debts. The raising of this $10,000 in ten days will leave the road clear for the main campaign and make certain that the revolutionary working class movement will retain its fighting organ.

Millstein Loses Out by Blocking Union

The election for officers of Local 45 of the Fur Workers' Union of Chicago was delayed Thursday night by the maneuvers of Jack Millstein, right wing business agent who at the last moment usurped the authority of the union, declared the meeting scheduled to be held at the Capital Building "illegal" and managed to stall off his finish until Monday, when a vote is to be taken in a hall not yet announced.

Millstein Usurps Union Authority.

When the furriers gathered at the Capital Building, the hall agent told them Millstein had been there and informed him that the meeting was "illegal," a "bunch of Bolsheviks" and "gunmen," and altho called by Sam Goldberg, president of Local 45, who had paid for the hall, the agent was fearful of some trouble and forced the union to hire another hall at 30 North Wells. ## JERSEY STREET CARMEN RENEW WAGE CONTRAC Defeat Wage Cut But

THE DAILY WORKER

Give Up Any Raise

By IRVING FREEMAN, Fed. Press. NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 17. - By a vote of 2,574 to 1,263 the trolleymen in Newark, Jersey City, Elizabeth and six other cities in the northern half of New Jersey voted to accept the proposal of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, their employer, for a three-year renewal of the present wage contract on a 65-cent an hour wage basis. Slight improvement in working conditions include heated cars.

Company Tried Wage Cut. The company's earlier demand for a 10-cent an hour cut was met with a strike vote. The men countered with a demand for a 15-cent wage increase. A strike loomed; all efforts to get company officials in conference failed till early September, when executives of the Amalgamated Association of Electric and Street Railway Employes JOBS ON SOUTH TEXAS COTTON FIELDS met with the local workers' committee and an officer of the company. Compromise Demands.

The compromise by which each side waived its wage demands-the company giving up the demand for a reduction and the workers their's for an increase-was put thru at last. The men had been protesting that their 65cent an hour wage was lower than the average scale in the large cities of the country, but Thomas Fitzgerald, William Werner and other members of the union executive board argued that the company was in poor financial condition and this was the best the men could get. Newark men favored a

By S. D. LEVINE. (Special to The Dally Worker) BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 17 .- Boston police have established a proscribed

Socialist Party Let Alone.

All the time Alfred Baker Lewis, the New England organizer of the socialist party, was holding a meeting unmolested only a short distance from where the Communist meeting was planned.

When approached by Organizer Miller, who asked that he protest against the breaking up of the Communist meeting, Lewis announced Vicam, and the retreat of the Indians | what had happened, denounced the police action and then continued his address.

Not to be outdone by the police, Organizer Miller announced the holding of a meeting at Scollay Square, Eschavarria, " the diocese of Saltil- in another police district. At this meeting both Miller, acting as chairman, and Engdahl stressed the revecharged by federal authorities to have lations brought out in the hearing for a new trial in the Sacco-Vanzetti case. The first rain of the season was falling, and Bunny got in fairly late and found that Eunice was at home, and had not carried out her threat to get another lover. No, she was trying an experiment she had read about in a book of her mother's, a thing called "mental telepathy," you sat and shut your eyes and "con-

"Mother, bunk!" said Eunice. "Mother has a lover and I our 500,000 war dead fell, has been know it, and she knows I know it. If she don't know about you for years the most hospitable land for and me, it's time she was making a guess. So you come up to my room.'

"Bunny, you talk like your grandmother!"

"But what about the servants, dear?"

"Servants, hell!" said Eunice. "You can run your home to please the servants, but that's not our way-at least not tonight!" And to save Bunny any embarrassment, she kept him in her room in the morning while she broke the news to her mother; and if there were any mental agonies Bunny never knew it, because the patroness of the Serbian orphans breakfasted in bed, reading in Bazzi, Guiseppe Grimalni and Massi- the morning paper the account of her fashionable philanthropies.

The rainy season continued, making outdoor petting parties uncomfortable, so whenever he was commanded, Bunny would stay in Eunice's home, and it was all quite domestic and regular according to advanced modern standards. In fact, there was only one small detail left, and Bunny suggested that: 'Eunice, why shouldn't we go and get married, and have it over with?"

> He was surprised by the vehemence of the girl's reaction. "Oh, Bunny, we're having such a happy time, and why do you want to ruin it?"

'But why would that ruin it?"

"All married people are miserable. I know, because I've watched them. French Force Turks to Turn Over Lotus Case to World Court

PARIS, Sept. 17 .- The "Lotus af fair" has been submitted to the world court by Turkey for its adjudication. Lieutenant Desmons of the ship Lotus. held by Turkey on charges of manslaughter, has been released.

Th case arose when the French steamer Lotus in Greek waters off Mytilene ran down a Turkish coaster, the Bozkurt, drowning eight Turks. The French denied jurisdiction to Turkish courts, but Desmons was held as the second officer of the Lotus in command of the bridge at the time. Premier Poincare practically had given the Turks an ultimatum, when Turkey gave in and turned over the affair to the world court. The French contend the affair took place on the high sea and should not be the subject of Turkish jurisdiction. Turkey is not a member of the league or the League of Nations in Talk of Disarmament: But Not One Disarms

GENEVA, Sept. 17 .- The "Third Committeee," which is dealing with disarmament matters in a painfully slow fashion, has taken up the matter of limiting the private manufacture of arms. France and England surprised the committee by saying that a gen eral disarmament conference could be called before autumn of next year. Such "haste" astonished the committee, which pointed out that the armament experts, including those of the United States, have been working for several months without arriving at any agreement on even the definition of armament.

Mr. Boncour of France held out that the matter of private manufacture could be taken up at a general conference, which need not wait until a year from now, and a compromise was reached that if a general disarmament conference could be held before the eighth league assembly, private manufacturers would be dealt with there. but if not the question would be taken up at a special conference.

Count Bernstorff of Germany warned against too many disarmament confernces.

The Walker-Olander leadership of the Illinois Federation of dertakings of the poor peasantry, and was held among the private under method in which Comrade Dzerzhinsky Labor never displayed its lack of character to better advantage than in its refusal to take a stand for its favorite candidate for the United States senate at the Streator convention, lest the apple of discord be hurled into the gathering.

The candidate of the Walker-Olander machine is Frank L Smith. Another section of the officialdom favors the other gold must inquire into the comparative ever this may be, Kulter's investiga- tion is placed in the hands of private dust twin of Samuel Insull, George E. Brennan. The Brennan supporters wield considerable influence and pay considerable per capita so Walker and Olander play mum and the happy family party of labor fakers remains unruffled by an unseemly scrap.

The third senatorial candidate, Parley Parker Christensen has a small group of supporters in the convention. It is likely that the Walker-Olander machine would not hesitate to endorse Frank point in our state. L. Smith, if they only had the Christensen supporters to consider. But Simon O'Donnell got the flat janitors to back Brennan, perhaps with the promise that Brennan's election would relieve the janitors of the duty of producing home brew for the tenants.

The policy of supporting capitalist candidates for office on the ground that they are friendly to labor works out very well-for the leaders. But for the rank and file it is utter folly. It should not be hard to convince the most simple-minded worker that there is something radically wrong with a policy that can find common ground on which to stand, with Samuel Insull or any other cap italist or group of capitalists.

At the same time the workers must not fall into the error of expecting any worth while results from a campaign in favor of a candidate who does not base his message on a program of class struggle. A candidate without a working class program and with out the support of a working class organization of which he is the servant and not the master may be a choice of evils, but if the working class have one lesson to learn above all others it is that they must accomplish their own salvation thru their own organized efforts. They must learn to act collectively. They must learn that devices diplomacy of the kind favored by the get-elected-quick politician will never get them anywhere. They must quit depending on "good" men to gather their harvests.

THE DAILY WORKER is committed to the policy of a Labor Party for the workers in alliance with the farmers. This is a necessary step for the workers to take in the march to freedom from the toils of the capitalist system.

The workers of Illinois never had a better opportunity than is presented to them in the coming congressional elections to expose the puppets of the democrat and republican parties and their sponsors in the ranks of labor officialdom.

The workers and farmers must raise the farmer-labor banner in the elections and lay the base for a farmer-labor organization that will outlive the campaign and thru which the workers and farmers can function during elections and in between.

An article with this title from the pen of George Harvey appears in the current number of The North American Review and severely castigates the executives of American railroads for their refusal to install an automatic train-control system that would save the lives of thousands who are killed yearly on the railroads in preventable accidents.

On last Labor Day several passengers were killed in a rail road accident within the city limits of Chicago. As usual the rail road fastened the blame on the engineer. But an investigation into the accident proved that had the cars been made of steel instead of wood, the loss of life would be avoided.

The railroads will take a chance on getting their passengers killed rather than introduce safety devices, or substitute steel for wood in car construction because those improvements cost money and investors must have their dividends. This is one of the greatest indictments that could be drawn against the private ownership of what is essential to the life of the people at large. Profits must be had even at the cost of human life.

THE FREIHEIT ISSUES CALL TO ALL CHICAGO JEWISH WORKERS

After 5 years of bitter struggle and strenuous efforts, we are on the verge of putting into life our beautiful dream of enlarging the Freiheit in size and secondly, of having a DAILY CHICAGO EDITION-thus fulfilling the desire of all the progressive Jewish workers in Chicago.

The glorious day for the Jewish working masses in Chicago will be Saturday, Oct. 9, when the appearance of the first Chicago Daily Edition will sible should be drawn into these be celebrated by a huge mass meeting and concert arranged for that occasion circles. by the Chicago Freiheit management, where such speakers as Charles E

Ruthenberg, national secretary of the+ Workers (Communist) Party, M. Epstein, editor of the Freiheit, and Ben Gold, manager of the New York Joint Board of the Furiers' Union, will address the audience, at the Ashland Auditorium, Ashland and Van Buren streets.

We do not doubt for a moment that the comrades fully appreciate the tremendous significance of the Chicago Daily Edition of the Freiheit for the Chicago labor movement, the fact that the Freiheit will be able to re flect on its pages the struggles, and achievements in the unions, Workmen's Circle branches, clubs, etc.

We urge every progressive Jewish worker to rally to the Freiheit, help us conduct the campaign successfully, in spite of our enemies of various colors: yellow, black and many others.

You must come to the Freiheit office immediately, get tickets and certifleates and spread the campaign among your fellow workers in the shops, workmen's circle, clubs, and in general wherever you can find Jewish send a sample copy of The DAILY esting forum of the freest nature is workers.

One of the unusual features of the evening will be a shop bulletin display. Shop bulletins from all parts of the country will be exhibited in an attractively creditable showing in the collection of this assessment for support of the party work.

The burden of supporting the party activities should not be placed on the shoulders of only part of the membership. Every member of the party who is employed should consider it a matter of party duty to place the United Labor Ticket Assessment in his dues book. With a little increased activity the total at the end of September can be driven up to the 7,000 mark. That will mean a big boost to the party activities.

WE ASK THOSE MEMBERS AND NUCLEI SECRETARIES WHO ARE STILL DELINQUENT TO ACT.
