STRIKE SPREADS DESPITE MURDER OF PICKETS

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1931

Answer the Murderous Attack On the Striking Miners

STATEMENT OF THE NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE TRADE UNION UNITY LEAGUE

NOTE:-The statement of the T. U. L. was written before the new murderous attack at Arnold. "Mass murder," "shoot to kill" is the policy of the operators, the government and the UMWA to break the strike which is spreading despite all terror.

THE attack on the picket line of the miners at the Wildwood Mine which resulted in one dead and more than a dozen seriously wounded, is an attack not only upon the miners but upon every worker and every workers' organization. This, though the most brutal attack, was not the first one. Those shot in the course of the strike now number over 20. The workers throughout the country must answer this attack of the coal operators, their government and the United Mine Workers officials, who are equally responsible for this brutal murder.

From the very beginning of the strike, the miners have faced the combined assault of the coal operators, the government and the UMWA officialdom. Previous to this murderous attack at the Wildwood Mine eight strikers had been shot by the Pinchot state troopers and the deputy sheriffs. Scores of miners, their wives and children, were clubbed, gassed and brutally attacked. Many more score of arrests have taken place in Pennsylvania and Ohio. In Ohio more than a dozen strikers are now held under the vicious criminal syndicalist law. But despite this terror and intimidation, despite the application of the criminal syndicalist law to workers who dare fight against wage cuts, despite the threat of deportation of the foreign born miners, the strike is constantly spreading and already involves nearly 40,000 miners fighting under the leadership of the National Miners Union. Neither the terror of the armed thugs of the government, nor the open strike-breaking activity of the UMWA, could prevent the spread of the strike and its growing militancy. Neither the starvation and eviction program of the operators nor the arbitration schemes of Governor Pinchot could stop the determination of the miners to win better conditions

The miners of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia are carrying on a militant struggle against starvation conditions. They have resorted to the weapon of strike in an effort to stop the repeated attacks upon their living standards that have reduced the working miners to the stage of semi-starvation. In this struggle the miners are taking the lead in the fight against wage cuts that are now being carried through in every industry. The striking miners led by the National Miners Union, an affiliated organization of the Trade Union Unity League, are showing to the rest of the workers what steps they must take to defend their interests.

The miners fighting under the leadership of the National Miners Union, are showing how to carry on the fight. They have elected their rank and file committee in every mine and a large representative strike committee for the entire strike. They have mobilized the active support of the memployed miners. Tens of thousands of striking and unemployed miners marched last week on the Washington County seat demanding relief. Thus the struggle of the strikers and unemployed has become a joint struggle against starvation. Similar marches are being organized in all sections of the strike area. They have organized militant mass picketing. They have exposed every attempt of the strike-breaking UMWA to disrupt their strike. They have exposed every attempt to force them back to work under the starvation conditions through arbitration They know that only the organization of their forces, rank and file participation and control of the strike, can bring victory to the miners.

The coal operators, unable to break the strike thus far through all schemes, have resorted to the injunction. But the miners determined to win the strike, would not allow the injunction to break their strike. They are determined to carry on their fight despite any boss government injunctions. The bosses and their government, assisted by the U.M.W.A., resorted to the most brutal attack on the miners in their efforts to enforce their injunction. They are determined to force the present starvation conditions upon the miners. They are ready to kill the miners, their wives and children, in order to maintain their profits.

This latest attack shows that the coal operators, supported by the Hoover Government, the state government of the liberal Pinchot, the U.M.W.A. officials, are determined to break the strike through force and violence, having failed to break the strike through other means. They are bringing in all their forces against the strike. All workers must now see the danger and the necessity to rally all the possible forces of the working class in support of the miners, for the winning of the strike. Not only the interests of the miners, but the interests of all workers is involved in this struggle. This outrage on the miners must be a signal to all workers to rally more firmly behind the miners' strike. Workers: We must act quickly:

Protest against these murderous attacks on the striking miners. Every possible form of protest must be organized. Protest meetings and demonstrations must take place in every city, town and village. Resolutions of protest should be adopted in all unions, workers' organizations, mass meetings and factories.

We must multiply a hundredfold the immediate collection of relief. Send food, clothing and money to help carry on the struggle to victory. Demand the immediate withdrawal of all armed forces that are mur-

Receipts Drop, Daily' in ARNOLD CITY DEPUTIES KILL MAN Danger; Out Tag Days!

Saturday only $318.06 was received in the campaign to save the Daily Worker.

Sunday and Monday (two days) $573.91 was received. Yesterday—$212.67.

Here is the story of the last four days, typical of the general slump in contributions during the past two weeks. EVERY DISTRICT WITHOUT EXCEPTION HAS FALLEN OFF BADLY.

You have read the appeals of Comrades William Z. Foster. Earl Browder, Robert Minor and Max Bedacht. They are calls to action. Pictures and stories of the miners' battles are being left out because we must give space to our appeal in order to print the Daily at all. The mine strike, the Scottsboro case, the fight against the Michigan alien registration bill—every struggle of the working class is a call to action to save the Daily.

Workers, the Tag Days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. June 26, 27 and 28, will decide the fate of your fighting paper. We have fallen so far behind in the drive that success or failure in the Tag Days will mean life or death for the Daily Worker. See to it that they mean LIFE!

Mass participation in the Tag Days in every city of the country, mass collection of funds on the streets, in homes, inside and outside shops and factories, will save the Daily Worker. All out for the Tag Days!

But-

While the Daily is waiting for the receipts of the Tag Days it must live. The situation is critical. SPEED EVERY CENT TO-DAY TO THE DAILY WORKER, 50 E. 13th St., New York City.

Judge Denies New Trials For 9 Boys; Fight Goes On; N.Y. Workers Protest Sat.

The eight Scottsboro Negro boys railroaded to the electric chair by the Alabama bosses have been denied new trials by Judge A. E. Hawkins, according to a United Press despatch. The attorneys of the International Labor Defense immediately filed notice of an appeal to the Alabama Supreme Court.

NEW YORK .- The mass fight to free the nine Scottsboro Negro boys continues to spread throughout the country shattering the last hope of the Alabama bosses that by delaying the decision in their courts on the motions filed by the International Labor Defense for new trials for the boys they would undermine the vigilance of the® Street and Lenox Avenue, marching

Scabbing Efforts at Chio Mine Town. at Provident, Ohio

BRIDGEPORT, Ohio, June 23. An attempted meeting of the United Mine Workers of America at Provident to break the strike was smashed up by enraged miners under the leadership of the National Miners Union last night. The UMWA officials were driven out of town. The U. M. W. A. claimed to have 400 men signed up in the Piney Fork Mine No. 1 to go back to work on Monday morning. The National Miners Union mass picket line of 1,200 kept all but 14 men out of the mine and smashed the United Mine Workers influence, despite the desperate attempts of the sheriffs to stop the pickets. PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 23 .- The coal operators and the state government of Pennsylvania, fighting to drive the striking miners back to staryation, launched a massacre yesterday at Wildwood. Deputy sheriffs, mine guards and office men of the Butler Consolidated Coal Co. defended their injunction against picketing by ambushing and killing Peter Zigaric, and wounding nine others so severely that they are in the hospital. How many more are wounded less severely, is not known because forty-one including the National Miners' Union section organizer, Tom Myerscough, were arrested.

It is known that one woman in the picket line was wounded.

The Butler Consolidated Coal Co. got an injunction last week from the aged Judge Rowand in Pittsburgh, which prohibits not only picketing, but any attempt to request men to strike. The Central Rank and File Strike Committee at its meeting Wednesday last week answered that in this fight against starvation, the miners can not recognize the claim of a court to any right to tell them not to strike, any more than it could they should cease to live.

UMWA Scab Policy Is Part of Murder Program

More Mines Close Up Hope to Break Strike By Mass Murder

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 23.-The general policy of terror by coal company gunmen and agents of the operators, on the one hand, while the United Mine Workers of America proceeds to make strike-breaking agreements, on the other hand, is all combined in one program.

The terror which started with beatings, gassings, evictions, injunctions and now is increased by "shoot to kill" orders issued by conferences

On the same day that the Wildwood shootings took place, the United Mine Workers announced a tentative agreement with the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Co. Today, simultaneous with the shooting of miners in Arnold City, Pa., the United Mine Workers announces its scale and orders men back to work tomorrow. The scale is not for 45 cents a ton, as the capitalist papers say, but for "the standard rate," 45 cents was the scale before the strike, against which the strikers demand 55 cents.

Food Union Member Is Taken for Ride

AFL GANGSTERS

Harry Davidson, a member of the Food Workers Industrial Union, has been "taken for a ride" for the third time by gangsters hired by Local 338, Hungarian Workers Home, 350 E. A. F. of L. Davidson was threatened with death if he didn't resign from the revolutionary union, where he is

After Davidson was kidnapped the first time, at the point of guns, he was transferred by the union to another establishment. He was trailed Pitkin Ave., 764 40th St., 61 Graham from his home, however, and kidnapped again.

When he was kidnapped for the Striking Miners' Relief Committee, third time on Wednesday he was told 799 Broadway, New York City, Room by the gunmen that they were hired by Rothberg, the "socialist" labor faker who is head of the A. F. of L. Local 338, but that they would change their allegiance to the Food Workers Industrial Union of the revlutionary union would put them on the payroll. Davidson took some time off to tell the gunmen the difference between a revolutionary trade union and one in the A. F. of L.

The food worker says he will re double his activity in the Food Workers Industrial Union as a result of his kidnappings.

STOP EVICTION OF NEGRO TENANTS

NEW YORK .- Cases of wholesale evictions have been found out by the Madison Square Branch of the Unemployed Council. At 527 West 48th St., the landlord has given all the tenants notice to move. The tenants are Negro workers. The excuse the landlord gives is that he intends to install a hot water system. Members of the Unemployed Council who canvassed the house found out that most of the tenants are out of work or work two days a week, and are not able to pay the righ rents. The landlord wants to get them out so he can get tenants in at a higher rental.

$3,716.80—an average of $531 a day—being contributed. This brings the totals to only a 10 per cent increase over the previous week. Every district fell down, but particularly Districts 3 (Philadelphia), 6 (Cleveland), 7 (Detroit) and 8 (Chicago) among the larger districts, with Chicago and Detroit especially bad. These districts will have to do a great deal of speeding up and exert themselves especially on the Tag Days if the Daily Worker is to be saved.

Cleveland is now in second place with 55 per cent of its quota of $2,250 raised, or more actual money than Detroit which has a quota of $3,250. District 2 (New York) is on

When will District 9 (Minneapolis), which has a quota of $1,500, get on the job? It has raised only tom with only 12 per cent each.

The district that made the largest increase is 18 (Butte), jumping from 19 per cent a week ago to 44 per cent. Next comes 15, with 49 per cent as compared with 31 per cent a week ago. But practically all the other districts have done very poor work. With the Tag Days this week, there is an opportunity for a big improvement. Put some life into the drive!

With the campaign to save the spectively. The circulation of the Daily is growing, but not fast enough! There are still hundreds of thousands of workers who have never heard of the Daily. These must be found and made acquainted with the paper. Thousands of unemployed workers should be selling the Daily this summer. Every worker who wants to sell the paper should immediately get in touch with the Circulation Dept. N. Y. C. Daily Worker clubs should emphasize the importance of selling the Daily, at meetings, factory gates, etc. The circulation as well as the financial side of the Daily must be built up.

Hoover Debt Action Will Not Solve Crisis Of Capitalism; Push Drive on Soviet Union sawed-off shot guns, rifles and pistack on Mine," shrieks a headline in the capitalist press place

NEW YORK .- A feverish effort is being made by the leading imperialist bankers throughout the world to give the impression that the Hoover war debt postponement plan will be a lever to end hte economic crisis. Yet despite the rich harvest made by stock gamblers and other bankers who were informed by Hoover before the announcement was made so they could make some quick coin, all the factors show that basically the crisis is getting worse. More are thrown out of work. Production in the steel, automobile and building construction industries is on the rapid downgrade. Wage cuts go on apace throughout the world.

Why I Believe the Daily Worker Should Live

By THEODORE DREISER.

WILL outline briefly the fundamental political movements in this country, tell what doctrines the Daily Worker represents, and why I believe that these political views for which it, in the large, stands, are the only economic solution for

The millions of workers cast out of work, and hence out of any financial support in most cases, those barely existing by living off their friends or relatives and those enduring a standard of living absolutely injurious to health and life are surface evidences which everyone can observe in every city, town and rural section of America. The underlying cause of this is that the great officials of business are out for their own interest and theirs alone.

These executives have so strengthened their position by centralized organization and by taking enormous profits for themselves and giving the mass of common people just enough and in most cases less than enough upon which to live on decently, that now a small class of Americans control the banks, the railroads, the industries, the utilities-in short, every necessity of life for these masses. All this, I have learned in great detail from an involved study I have made of the economic situation in America.

Banks Control Everything.

The banks and corporations have gained such power that everything goes with them-everything carries out their wishes-all of the great newspapers, the large publicity bureaus and even the government. Both political parties in America are aligned with the owners of wealth whose motive is to enrich themselves and to make their own profits despite all suffering. This is done by increasing rates which the common people are to pay. Witness the recent drives and victories of the telephone companies, of the New York Edison, the New York Central, the Lackawanna, and now all the railroads are asking a 15 percent rate increase. It seems to me there is also graphic proof that the corporations are out for their own interests when they lay off men at will, with no planning of employment and with no protection, and then give enormous surpluses in dividends to themselves, the owners.

To mitigate this whole situation, sweeping waves of reform have gone over this country time and again. Forty years ago a movement was instigated among so many of the masses that the Sherman Anti-Trust Act was passed to check the size of corporations. Then in 1920 the railroads by the Transportation Act were subjected, supposedly, to regulation by the government-also the utilities. But I ask what good has any of these reforms done the American laborer? None. The prosecutions under the Anti-Trust Act were for the most part evaded by maneuvers of the great trusts. The railroads now have just as staunch a grip on the massesand more so-than they had in 1920. The centralization of their control is appalling. And with them they carry the great industries, many of which they own and direct. The same with utilities which strike out and get what they want. Corporate reform has been absolutely useless in quelling the great trust movement.

Marx Showed the Way.

Yet thousands upon thousands now march to this convention and that to reform an America which is so powerfully in the hands of these few thousand rich men that no reform of any value can possibly be made without a fundamental change. The fate of these laws and of political movements like the non-partisan league, twelve years ago in Dakota, ruined by financial and political manipulation of capitalists, has made me certain that nothing in the way of superficial or local reform can be of any deep value at

Karl Marx, the great German economist and philosopher, saw this a hundred years ago; Russia saw it and is building another system, the motive and basis of which is to manage every activity and industry of the country for the benefit of the masses of people instead of, as here, for the super-enrichment of those few who own by inheritance or direct or both. This political analysis, in the large, is what the Daily Worker stands for. It is the only daily paper in the English language in America which adheres to this economic doctrine that a change in the treatment of property is necessary. This solution I claim is the only real one to restore the balance of power which has so rapidly favored the wealthy few at great loss and expense to the masses.

DO WE HEAR AN ANGEL SINGING?

I COLLECT FOR THE DAILY

By RAY FAUST

CATURDAY, June 6, I went out to buy a Daily Worker, but was unable to get the Daily at the stand as usual. I went to other stands, but they told me that the Daily Worker "has gone out of business." My heart fell, but I answered: "The Daily Worker is not a 'business paper' and so it can't go out of business." To myself, I said: "It is possible that we have lost the Daily Worker? No, it cannot be! Now we're going to get on the job and work as never before!"

But I felt sad! We must not be without our Daily even for a few hours. I could hardly wait until three o'clock, when the demonstration to free the nine Scottsboro boys started at Washington Ave. and Claremont Parkway, the Bronx. I noticed that some women comrades were selling the Daily Worker. Overjoyed, I ran to buy a copy. So there still is hope and the Daily can

On the Job for the "Daily."

I decided that I must do my share for the my coupon book. The next day I went to Crotona Park, where workers always gather, and I started asking for contributions. Several workers contributed, but they couldn't give much. I go over to another group, and when I come back to the first group I am told that somebody who wanted to contribute had been looking for the Daily Worker agent (meaning me). I am pleased at this new title, I feel proud to be called a Daily Worker agent, but what pleases me most is that somebody wants to help the Daily. The worker who had been looking for me gave me 50 cents. I now have collected $3 and I feel encouraged.

I go over to another worker and am pleasantly surprised-he wants to buy a dollar coupon! But here I strike a snag: no change for the $10 bill he hands out. But the unknown worker gives me the $10 and tells me to change it "Aren't you afraid to trust me?" I ask. He answers that a person who collects money for the Daily Worker can be trusted. That makes me feel good: it inspires me with new deter-

By this time it is already dark. My fouryear-old child, who is with me, wants to go home to eat. I go home. On the way I meet a comrade; in a voice loud enough for others to hear I tell him of my success in collecting funds for the Daily Worker and also about the man who trusted me for $10 merely because I was collecting for the Daily.

Follow This Example!

Young workers, hear what I say. I go over and ask them to help the Daily. One of them tears out a 50-cent coupon and says to another: "I challenge you to buy a 50-cent coupon, too." The other also takes one, and so I have another dollar! All told, $5 for the Daily Worker. And there are still plenty of coupon books to collect

I am writing this so that others who may read it will be inspired to collect funds in order that our Daily may appear, not only with four pages, but with six. The Daily Worker must

the coming imperialist war and for the defense

Some of the comrades may say: "Well, we have the 'Young Worker.' We cannot help the Daily Worker. We must spend all our time in building up our youth press." Such an attitude is wrong. We must build up our youth press, we must widen the influence of the "Young Worker," but this does not mean that we are to do nothing to help the Daily Worker in its present campaign. We must understand that by building up the Daily Worker we are not only helping the revolutionary movement in a general way, but that we are helping to build

The Daily Worker reaches thousands of young readers who have no contact with our movement as yet. Every member of the Young Communist League and every young worker must help put the Daily Worker drive over the Workers, You Are Deciding the Fate of the Daily Worker!

Worker is doing its most effective work it is threatened with suspension for lack of money The financial crisis of the Daily Worker is not caused by a decline in its influence or its circulation. Quite the contrary. Because the Daily Worker circulation has doubled, and because the issues of the class struggle are becoming so sharp, those timid parlor radicals, who used to enjoy donating on the quiet to the Daily Worker, have fled away from us and are rapidly going over openly into the enemy camp.

Worker except the workers. These workers are forced to give smaller amounts than ever before because the vast majority of them are on the verge of starvation.

Therefore we have a situation in which it is no longer possible for the large contributions of a few thousand people to meet the deficit of the Daily Worker. Now it is necessary that we get the small contributions of tens of thousands

It is necessary, in addition to these things, that the Daily Worker readers shall begin to organize themselves into Daily Worker Clubs which shall not only help to collect money for the Daily Worker but even more important, will begin to participate in the editing of the Daily Worker, in the collection of news for the Daily Worker, in the discussion of the faults and strong points of the Daily Worker, and in helping the editorial staff

And yet, only a small part of the wide circle of workers which our paper reaches, have reacted to the financial crisis of the Daily Worker. Many of them evidently do not yet understand how serious it is.

Suppose we had no Daily Worker at all! Would you be interested in starting such a paper? With just one tenth of the effort and sacrifice which would be necessary to start a daily paper anew, it is possible to save the Daily Worker and put it solidly on its feet!

The tremendous role now being played by the in Pennsylvania: in the famous Scottsboro case in Alabama; in the fight for unemployment insurance and relief: in every issue affecting the life of the working class, has proved and is proving that it is absolutely essential for the workers' movement.

Let every worker, therefore, do his part in carrying through the $35,000 campaign to completion in the shortest possible time. Clear the decks for larger and greater actions of the er's "twenty year plan" is going to "build for 20,000,000 more people"? with 20 percent more 'farm products" to feed them?

Well, the Baltimore Post of June 3, gives just a little example of what the millions of workers already alive, or yet alive-without looking for those to come-have to endure:

"In a three-room clapboard and tar-paper shack, William Hartman, the wife and three children are facing starvation. Two loaves of bread, doled out daily by the police . . . Out of work more than a year . . . The rent behind more than a year. Charles, who is ten years, no shoes to go to school. Louise, who is five, without carefare to go to the hospital for treatments for anemia . . . Three year old Marie sick; had no milk for months . . . Mrs. Hartman 'cold all the time' and hungry . . . No clothes, no food,

This is what Hoover boasts of-the result of his refusal of Unemployment Insurance, because that, oh, that would be a "dole," and would "undermine the morale and ruin the proud individual independence" of the workers!

But he has billions for war!

All O. K. in Alabama

Are wages high in Alabama? They must be. Are there no workers unemployed in Alabama, Apparently not. Is there anything at all which Southern workers have to complain about, or have they been emancipated from capitalism without letting the rest of us in on it?

It seems so. Because the "Southern Labor Review" of June 10, which says it is "devoted to the interests of organized labor" lies before me. with its entire front page "devoted" to two

Skimming Thru the News

The Houston, Texas, "Press" has a headline: "State Prison Farm Cannery Goes to Work; 23 Gallons of Beans Canned Each Minute by Convicts." Who's using convict labor?

From Manchester, England, by the Associated Press of June 18, comes the news that Poland is dumping tweed suits into England at a price of $2.26 each. Who's dumping now!

Remember reading, back about May 6, of the big fire which destroyed the armory at Buffalo? The police blamed it on the "reds," raided the Communist offices and made a great fuss. Fish, wired an "opinion" from somewhere that "no doubt it was the reds."

Well, a military board had ten hearings to determine the cause of the fire, and has decided it was accidental. And, do you know, it hints that the fire probably was caused by the American Legion, which was using the armory that night as a drill and evidently got careless with lighted cigarette butts.

Daily Worker in the historical coal miners' strike Improving Party's Language Work

By H. P. (Greek Buro).

SOME of our language buros are completely iso-lated from the District Committees of the Party and no connections exist between these bodies whatsoever. As a result, many elements who have turned against the Party, and consequently been expelled, are continually agitating against the Party in the respective language field. The workers who cannot learn through other sources (but could learn through their language buros) fall into a trap and are misled, many times drifting away from the Party. I believe that this state of affairs is harmful to the Party and must not be continued. It underestimates the role of the language buros and of the language press. It gives a chance to all anti-Party elements to agitate freely against the Party in the respective language field without danger of being exposed. Furthermore, it underestimates the importance of the language buros of the Central Committee.

I do not know whether this situation exists in any other language field, but it does in the Greek Fraction. The District Committee, through the language department of the Central Committee, must be in constant touch with all problems having language importance. This will also help to a great extent to check the growing underestimation of the role of our language press.

In the trade union field, the Party's Greek organ carries too little material. This is due to the fact that the Trade Union Unity League looks upon the language press as something not important enough to be considered in building the T. U. U. L. unions and leagues. In the food industry there are many thousands of Greek workers and particularly in the Food Workers' Industrial unions and leagues, but in spite of this the Empros does not carry any articles on the policies, activities or any other phase of union work-although the Empros bases itself mainly upon the food workers. The paper, of course, is also to be blamed; but mainly the blame must go on the shoulders of the Greek comrades (and there are many) in the Food Workers' Union, second to the Party fractions as a whole, and to the T. U. L. which takes no measures whatever to change this situation in spite of the fact that it has been repeatedly notified by the Empros and also

Such a practice does not help in building the T. U. U. L. unions when the basic "Transmission Belts to the Masses" are left out of considera-

(The next Party Life Column will carry an article on the work of the Unemployed Council at Council Bluffs, Iowa.)

This miner told me he had three children he was trying to raise alone, as he'd lost his woman last winter. "As I understand it, this here strike is to win something for our kids. Ain't that right? We can't let 'em starve any longer. We gotta do something, that's all. I tell you, a man's a coward that'll stand by and see children

The next we saw of him was two days later, when he led the Diamond miners straight from the pits over the mountain to the mass meeting of Vesta Mine No. 6. Vesta 6 men, women and children had just ended their three-hour picket duty and were gathering in a grassy field still wet with morning dew, for it was barely 7:30. The Diamond miners, in their pit clothes and caps, were spied coming down the valley. As soon as them came within calling distance they shouted: "We pulled Diamond 100 per cent." "Ninety men all out." They were the happiest men I've seen in a long time, and Vesta 6 gave them the reception they de-

The Washington hunger march has not only enthused the miners to pull down many new mines. It has also given the unemployed fresh hope and a strong desire to organize. New Unemployed Councils are being built up. Likewise, the steel workers are becoming aroused, and not only are undertaking to give the miners active support, but are asking among themselves: "If the miners can do it, why not us, also?" An old-time miner, veteran of many struggles and now busy in various sections with N. M. U. organizing, remarked in conversation: "If even one big steel mill comes out! When the miners see that, it'll mean a general strike in the coal industry."

So it goes. Conditions throughout the coal and steel state are so unbearable, the ferment among the men is so great that each stride forward lets loose immense forces for strike struggle and the building of mass revolutionary unions and unemployed councils. Hunger marches are a powerful factor in giving this ferment organized direction and fighting spirit.

The gigantic demonstration called for June 30 in Pittsburgh will witness many tens of thousands of striking and unemployed miners, steel workers and other jobless and starving, marching on Mellon's home town from every section of the state. The difficulties in the way are great. The coal and steel barons and their puppet governor will do everything within their power to cripple and terrorize the march. The marchers have many miles of mountainous counery to cover, with little or no means of transportation. Many of them even have no shoes. Nevertheless they will come, men, women and children. For it is a march against actual starvation. June 30 will be a day that Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania working class will never forget. For the streets will resound with the march of those who have mined the coal and wrought the steel, crying their defiance of their rulers and exploiters, throwing their demands into the teeth of the Mellons. Schwabs and Rockefellers, who have waxed ever richer while their wage-slaves have sweated and starved.

Young Workers, 'Daily' Is Yours Too

By ART STEIN.

TVERY class-conscious young worker, and especially every member of the Young Communist League, must support the campaign of the "Daily Worker" for $35,000.

Every young worker can understand the importance of our fighting Daily Worker at this time. Of the thousands of miners now on strike in Western Pennsylvania and in Eastern Ohio, a large number are young miners. These are among the most active on the picket line and in leading the strike. The Daily Worker is helping these miners to win their fight against starvation. It is an organizer-it is helping to spread the strike to new fields. It is an agitator-it is mobilizing workers throughout the country for the support of the heroic struggle

Have you been reading the articles of Max Bedacht on the Soviet Union? These articles and other material in the Daily Worker are very effective in countering the poisonous propaganda of the yellow boss press against the Soviet Union. The Daily Worker is one of the most effective weapons of our Party in mobilizing the working class of this country against I top,

An Apeal of the Paterson Five to the Friends and Sympathizers of the Daily Comrades and Fellow Workers:in the columns of the Daily Worker we saw that government is carrying on a vicious policy of terrorization against the workers, taking the form of frame-ups, lynchings, deportations, etc. This is an attempt to crush the fighting spirit of the working class. This spirit is being more and more aroused. The efforts of the bosses, in the form of less pay, longer hours, speed-up etc., to make the workers bear the burden of the crisis result in the increasing dissatisfaction and radicalization of the working masses and in their greater readiness to fight against the bosses. At such a time it is of the greatest importance to the workers to have fearloss leadership in their struggle against the bosses. More than ever the workers need a fighting organ to point the way of militant class struggle. This fighting paper of the working class in this country is the Daily Worker.

At the present time the boss class and its

It is especially now, when the whole capitalist press is united in a campaign of lies and slander to prevent the working class from learning the truth about the Soviet Union, to prevent them from hearing of the successes of the Five-Year Plan, and prevent the unemployed from organizing and fighting for unemployment insurance and immediate relief, that the Daily Worker stands out as the most important means of reaching the workers with the truth about the system under which we live.

We, the five Paterson workers, framed up on a murder charge as a result of our militant struggle against wage cuts, have our own experience as members of the National Textile Workers' Union, of the role the Daily Worker plays in helping, stimulating and organizing the fight against frame-ups. Despite the bad financial condition of the Daily, we received copies of our paper every day that we were in jail, and it serves the working class.

Fellow Workers! At a time like this to allow the Daily Worker to discontinue would be the greatest crime against the interests of the working class. We appeal, therefore, to every comrade and sympathizer to do his utmost to collect funds and to increase the Daily Worker's circulation so that our paper, backed by the power of the organized working masses, shall be able to lead these masses in their day-today struggles for immediate demands and so to the final emancipation of the working class.
