U. S. Gunboat Bombards Red China City, Wusueh LEHMAN SPREADS BUNK Two Methods, But One Aim CHINA WORKERS

NORMAN THOMAS uses one method, William Green another, but their different methods are only two routes to the same goal. William Green yesterday openly endorsed the corrupt, graft-ridden, Tammany administration of New York City and New York State. Norman Thomas, however, delivered at the same time a vigorous radio "attack" against Tammany graft and corruption.

William Green, during the Minnesota primaries, ignored the socialascist, farmer-labor candidates and openly endorsed the reactionary, epublican senatorial candidate, Thomas Schall. Norman Thomas, however, expressed his regrets because time would not permit him to acrively enter into the campaign of the farmer-labor crowd.

On March 6th, during the demonstrations of the unemployed for Work or Wages," Green openly sided with the police and greeted the conviction of Foster, Minor, Amter, Raymond and Lesten with glee. Norman Thomas, on the other hand, criticized the police for their attacks, charging that "innocent bystanders had been injured." Many more examples of their methodical differences could be cited.

But back of these "differences" lies the same bitter hatred of all revolutionary workers' organizations, the same fear of militant strikes and demonstrations, and the same loyalty to capitalism and its insti-

The differences between Green and Thomas are the differences in method between the fascists and the social fascists.

William Green, the fascist, sees American capitalism in difficulties as a result of the crisis and its accompanying war danger and sharper class struggles. His solution, which incidentally is the solution advocated by the blacklist capitalist reactionaries, is increased armaments, a larger army and navy, war against the Soviet Union, wage cuts, mass lay-offs, more speed-up, new laws against revolutionists, and the bloody suppression of all workers' struggles. For this reason in the election campaign he openly supports time most hard-boiled capitalist politicians of the republican and democratic parties, such as Roosevelt

Norman Thomas, the social fascist, is a more cowardly, a more spineless defender of capitalism. He also sees the difficulties confronting capitalism, and he also wants to aid in overcoming them. He is not against the methods of Green if they are really necessary, but he is afraid the premature use of such methods will further arouse the workers and increase capitalism's difficulties. He is afraid that open and direct wage cuts, for example, will increase the number and the bitterness of strikes. He is afraid that continuous mass lay-offs will lead to "rioting" and "disorder" by the unemployed in their struggle for food. He is afraid that open preparations for war on the Soviet Union, especially at a time when wage cuts, unemployment, speed-up and police attacks are rampant, will arouse the masses for struggle against capitalism for the defense of the Soviet Union.

In short he is afraid that the methods proposed by Green would stimulate the development of revolutionary class struggles which the armed forces of capitalism could not suppress. Seeing the success of the workers and peasants in the Soviet Union he is afraid of revolution, and he questions the ability of capitalism to maintain itself against the workers' attacks.

The methods of Norman Thomas, therefore, are designed to solve the capitalist crisis at the expense of the workers, without stirring the workers to revolt if possible. If wage cuts are necessary to solve the crisis, he says, let us either persuade the workers of their necessity or else apply them indirectly. If it's necessary to murder Katovis. Levy and Gonzalez do it, but let us hold an investigation after the murder, fix the responsibility on some individual cop, and discharge him from the force for "unnecessary violence." If it's necessary to prepare for war let us do it under the guise of negotiating a new 'peace" pact. And then he assures the capitalists:

You adopt my methods instead of Green's or Tammany and if they don't work, if in spite of them the workers revolt then you can count on me to follow in the footsteps of MacDonald and Zoergiebel in crushing the revolts of the workers at home or in the colonies, or in carrying through your wars with the same bloody zeal as would your most brutal fascist dictator."

These are the respective roles of Green and Thomas. Both are equally bitter enemies of the workers; both are equally loyal to capitalism. Against them the workers must rally. In the election campaign, and in the "Jobless Day" demonstrations on September 1st. under the leadership of the Communist Party and the revolutionary trade unions, great masses of workers will rally in the struggle for unemployment insurance as a first stage in the development of their revolutionary struggle for a Soviet Government in the U.S. Neither the methods of Green, nor the methods of Thomas, will stop the workers from achieving victory.

Secure Signatures!

REPORTS reaching the office of the National Election Campaign Director indicate an alarming situation in the campaign to secure the signatures necessary to place our candidates on the ballot.

First, the reports show an almost criminal neglect of this important task, the carrying through of which will determine whether or not Communist candidates will be able to give expression to the workers' demands in the election campaign and rally the workers for

Second, the reports show that opportunism is extremely rife everywhere, in some cases even exceeding in practice the infamous opportunist instructions sent out by Codkind in the 1928 election campaign. and therefore completely destroying the effectiveness of the signature gathering campaign as a means of drawing workers into struggle and into our organizations.

We have had reports for example, of opportunist corruption developing so far in one district that no campaign to speak of was made among the masses for signatures, but on the contrary the necessary names were copied from the telephone book. In another case verbal instructions were given to comrades to the effect that no effort should made to convince the worker of the correctness of the Communist position, but to appeal only to his "democratic spirit of fair play." These are only two of many cases of the crassest opportunism. These practices must be immediately and ruthlessly exposed and stamped out

More drive and speed must be developed. Only a few more weeks (in some districts, days) remain before the signatures must be filled. In connection with the mobilization of the masses for September 1st, and on September 1st, in the activities to build the T. U. U. L., in all phases of Party work, the campaign for signatures must be developed and becomes a means of rallying workers for these campaigns. Get the necessary signatures in a Bolshevik manner! A special dispatch to the New York Times reports that "the Communists have captured Liuyang and have advanced to within six miles of Changsha." hough a deliberate campaign of wage-cuts is just beginning on a wide scale, the bosses think it necessary to "assure" the workers that nothing of the kind is happen-ing or could happen. THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN IN PENNSYLVANIA

By E. GARDOS. THE decision of the Pennsylvania State Supreme Court which declared for Gifford Pinchot, the republican nominee for governor, as against his opponent from the Vare machine, Wm. S. Brown, deserves some attention on our part. Using technical excuses, the Philadelphia machine appealed to the Supreme Court to throw out some 25,000 votes polled by Pinchot in order to assure the election of their candidates for the key office in the state, the rich source of plunder and graft for the machine. The tempest within the political circles of the state was quite instructive. It showed the millions of dollars spent by both competing boss groups during the primaries.

The Davis-Brown tickets spent, according to their own admission to the Nye Investigation Committee, one and a half million dollars. The fact is, the millionaire, forester Pinchot, "enemy of the corporations," with his ally, Grundy, the king of lobbyists and high tariff advocate, employs the same methods the Vare-Mellon machine has been using. The investigation, which of course was not brought out by the capitalist press, revealed the hundreds of ballot boxes stolen, votes bought, dead people and unborn children voting, etc.

The decision of the Supreme Court has been delayed for weeks by the judges, appointed by the Vare-Mellon machine in the Pennsylvania G. O. P. Only after they saw that the methods used are a little too raw, that an adverse decision would "destroy the people's faith in the court" besides giving a chance of Pinchot to pose as a martyr, was the nomination granted to the expert demagogue who can cover up the open fascist policies of Grundy, and the other open shop bosses with reformistic phrases borrowed from Roosevelt and the socialist party.

Thus, the nominees of Hoover's party in the Keystone state are Pinchot for governor and Secretary of Labor Davis for United States Senator, both expert fakers, both having the endorsement of the fascist leadership of the A. F. of L. as "friends of labor", not speaking of the support given them by the Musteite social-fascists. Because of this, there are a good number of workers who have confidence in them especially in Pinchot and who may be mislead by his phrases. The exposure of Pinchot and of the "puddler" Jim Davis, the secretary of labor during three administrations, must be a major task before the Communist Party election campaign.

What is Pinchot's record? What are his issues? He is fighting the Vare machine in Philadelphia, which as he properly states, is controlled by one of the "59", General Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad. and other railroad and utility magnates. He exposes them as the ones who are controlling the government, the Public Service Board, which is responsible for the increase of the rates in electricity, gas, water, etc. At the same time, he is the spokesman of another powerful group of finance capitalists headed by Joseph R. Grundy, who want to wrest the control away from the others.

In order to succeed, Pinchot has to throw out liberal phrases. He is out to "relieve" unemployment by road building and public construction work, although he did not take up yet the question of unemployment insurance demanded of some of the politicians. He speaks for the abolition of the coal and iron police and the strengthening of the state troopers. He is to replace the Public Service Commission by a fair rate board "elected" by the people. These are the main planks of Pinchot, which it is as proven by his past record as governor when taxes were just as high as they are today, when instead of abolishing the coal and iron police, he strengthened them considerably, so that they could be used against the soft coal strikers, and the Public Service Commission has been controlled by the monopolies just as it is now by those of the "59".

Besides these two candidates whom the capitalists consider as the most acceptable, the democratic party is also putting up a strong fight with a good number of fake issues. The internal struggle within the republican party became so sharp that many leaders of the Philadelphia organization are supporting the democratic candidates using the fact that democrats are against prohibition while Pinchot is dry. These politicians expect 200,000 to 300,-000 of their followers to vote for their democratic candidates who are also endorsed by the anti-prohibitionist liberal party. The democrats of course are raising the national issues of their party, a sharp attack against the Hoover prosperity and unemployment relief or even

The A. F. of L. leadership is of course between two fires, at a real cross road. Whom shall they support? Who are their friends to be rewarded-Prosperity Davis, Square-deal Pinchot or the wet democrats? There are serious differences within the ranks of these fascist leaders; who, for instance, are calling mass meetings on various issues like the Philadelphia anti-injunction rally on September 7 at which Senator Copeland, Wm. Green and others of the democratic party will speak; likewise the signing of the anthracite sell-out agreement in Scranton was made into a political demonstration at which Secretary Davis and his would-be successor, John L. Lewis, tried to make political capital for the republican party. At the same time, the "socialist" party is showing definite signs of vitality in order to check the radicalization of the workers and their coming over to Communism. In Reading since the splendid response of the workers has been shown to the Communist Party, Jim Maurer & Co., is calling one meeting after the other before the factory gates and on the street corners to keep the support of the workers for further betrayals. In Philadelphia too, the S. P. is appearing at several street corners, where our Party has been holding meetings, to secure an audience for their sham attacks against the capitalist parties, speeches on social insurance, pacifism-and attacks against the Soviet Union and the Communist Party. The Philadelphia Record, and other papers are devoting a lot of editorial and news space to the third party of capitalism while they always keep silent about us except when it comes to some slander-

We were informed, for instance that the S. P. got a new secretary in Philadelphia, a young graduate of the Union Theological Seminary, who just as Norman Thomas and A. J. Muste choose the platform of the S. P. instead of the pulpit to peddle dope to the workers. Mr. F. Daniels, we are informed, is going to organize, especially the students, in which he will get ample help from Professors Holmes, Kreuger and other leaders of the socialist party.

Against all these class enemies, the Communist Party must wage a determined struggle in the state of Pennsylvania, bringing forth all our issues and demands, introducing them into the shops, unions, unemployed councils, and other worker's organizations, making the election campaign a means to build our mass

"We Want Unemployment Insurance Now!"

The "Telegram" and Bread Riots

By WM. Z. FOSTER. Prisoner No. 52350. (Communist Candidate for Governor of New York State.) THE New York Telegram of August 20th, dealing with the masses of unemployed who gathered around the new municipal employment office in a fruitless search for work, sneers at the lack of militancy of these workers. It declares, "These are a silent army. No spunk. They are too spiritless even to talk back to the cops." But "The Telegram," seeking for clubbing matches by the police, may be reassured in its lust for fight. It and its beloved capitalism will soon get more than plenty of fight from just these workers. If the Telegram believes the masses of workers will peacefully starve, it is due for a rude awakening. The workers won't starve, they'll fight.

Various factors have tended to retard the growth of militancy and radicalism among American workers: the relatively high standards of the skilled workers, widespread "prosperity" illusions, gross betrayal by the A. F. of L. and the "socialist" party, etc. It has been difficult for the workers to realize the seriousness of the present crisis, and that it would not "soon blow over," as Hoover and a myriad other capitalist spokesmen have vociferously averred.

But month after month of unemployment is having its inevitable effects upon them. The slender resources of millions of unemployed workers are exhausted, the government stubbornly refuses to grant them any relief, the Communist Party builds its prestige and organization among them. All these things lead to a great intensification of the struggle.

The winter months will bring matters to a keen struggle. The masses of unemployed with no income whatsoever and confronted with evictions and empty cupboards, will fight and fight militantly. In all probability, during the coming winter, many cities will be the scene, not only of general mass movements of the unemployed, but of fierce bread riots of hungry workers. The unemployment movement will be made the sharper by the struggle against wage cuts in the industries.

The Communist Party and the Trade Union Unity League must redouble their efforts to give organization and leadership to the harrassed workers. In the elections many thousands must be awakenel and drawn into the struggle for the Workers' Unemployment Insurance Bill. Every preparation must be made to give revolutionary direction to the coming and the longshoremen must understand that all of these efforts are but a desperate attempt of the stevedores to keep the workers from organizing. The stevedores are determined to force the longshoremen to accept the present poor working conditions and the wage cut that will be forthcoming and which was prepared for a year ago at the wage conference. At this conference the employers notified the delegates that some of the employers wanted to cut wages they but they only refrained because they wished to continue to cooperate with the officials of the I. L. A.

Definite warnings were given the officials that they must prepare to accept the wage cut in the future. Since then the world crisis of capitalism has had its effect upon the marine industry and the bosses will try to force the workers to shoulder the burden of the crisis

During the past few months the stevedores have begun to cut wages by using non-union 50 cent men in the place of 85 cent men. It

Organize and Strike Against Wage Cuts!

By JOHN SCHMIES.

THE immediate perspective of the TUUL and its affiliated unions, is the central slogan organize and strike against wage-cuts. This slogan itself signifies that the revolutionary trade union movement in this country has reached a higher stage of political struggle than ever before. The programs of our affiliated red unions and national industrial leagues call for the immediate mobilization of their respective membership to put this slogan into action.

Is this the correct slogan at the present stage of the class struggle in this country? Now let us see what the facts are. Generally speaking we can see that as a result of the economic crisis the bosses in the industries are more than ever trying to overcome the crisis by increasing the system of rationalization, which means more wage cuts for the workers, increased speed-up and general worsening of their working conditions, as a result of this program of the bosses further radicalization of large masses of workers as well as, an increased fighting mood is taking place.

The Role of the A. F. of L. Leaders. Organizing Against Betrayers.

The workers in the mining industry are more and more awake to the policy of the Lewis' and Fishwicks, of open sellout and betrayal, which is being counteracted by organization and strikes among the rank and file workers in the mining industry. Unemployment in the mining industry is greater than ever before, but in spite of all this, the class solidarity between the employed and unemployed masses of miners is growing at an ever greater pace. All this is developing into an open challenge against the coal barons, and their agents, the fascist and social-fascist leaders of the A. F.

The same conditions—as outlined above holds true for the metal industry. Warton, president of the International Association of Machinists, as well as the reactionary leadership of the other metal trades in the A. F. of L., is openly advocating and working for the rationalization program of the bosses and their government. Not only have they nothing to offer to the ever increasing army of unemployed, or against the increased system of rationalization, but here, too, in the metal industry, these leaders, together with the bosses, are openly fighting the militant spirit and the militant demands on the part of the hundreds of thousands of metal workers, but again we find that in spite of all this the Metal Workers Industrial League, and the Auto Workers Union of the TUUL are taking the lead and the initiative in developing strikes and leading the workers against the unbearable conditions in the metal industry. The same thing can be stated for the marine industry where, for instance, we find in the city of Philadelphia the leadership of the A. F. of L. as well as the remnants of the I. W. W. (who are the leading elements) are organizing together with the city police department and all other stool pigeon institutions against our Marine Workers Industrial Union, which is fighting for the improvement of working conditions and higher wages on the Philadelphia waterfront.

man! unemployment insurance! Build a real union! These are the slogans put forth by the Marine Workers' Industrial Union and around these slogans the workers have rallied by organizing into the M. W. I. U. Eight hundred men have already joined the union. Only under the leadership of the Marine Workers' Industrial Union can the longshoremen successfully wage a battle against the stevedores.

The Marine Workers' Industrial Union calls upon all longshoremen, upon the rank and file members of the I. L. A. and I. W. W. and the unorganized men in the ports of New York. Baltimore and Philadelphia, to elect delegrates to the Atlantic Coast district conference, to be held in Philadelphia, Sept. 7th.

At this convention the longshoremen must draw up their own demands and map out a complete program of action to put these demands into effect. Coast-wise and deep-water men, Negro and white workers, all the ships and docks must send delegates. By making a united front wage conference here they will be able to put up a united front to the bosses and will prevent another sell out by prepering to back up their demands by organizing and

In the needle industry there is an ever increasing readiness among the needle trades workers to organize and strike against the needle trades bosses and the leadership of the A. F. of L. unions, who are working hand in hand to company unionize the entire needle trades industry.

In other words, we can see along the whole front that hand in hand with the increased system of rationalization goes an open attack on the part of our class enemies against the revolutionary upsurge of the broad masses of workers. Most characteristic of all this is the growing of strikes and strike struggles on an ever larger scale. Yes, there is not a single day in the week which is not accompanied by a series of more or less important struggles. This is not only the case among those workers who are employed, but the same holds true with unemployed workers, who are storming the employment agencies as was the case in Detroit at the Ford Motor Car Company, and in the city of Washington among the women workers demanding work from the government.

Existing Favorable Conditions. All the above reasons and many others, which are not mentioned, create the favorable conditions for the central slogan of the TUUL, and its affiliated organizations-organize and strike against wage cuts. This slogan is nothing, abused for agitational and propaganda purposes, but is something which must be and can be put into life and action under the present conditions. Nevertheless, we must emphasize that in order to carry out this gigantic task it requires the maximum amount of activity in our trade union work, and it is due to these conditions that the national TUUL bureau together with the leading committees of our affiliated unions, decided that we have reached a stage of development in our movement. where we not only must raise this central slogan but actually make a serious attempt to put it into practical operation. Therefore, the campaign for the organization and strike fund of $100,000 is the immediate task of the hour. This campaign must make it possible to co-ordinate this forward movement and to broaden out through real every day shop organization these strikes which are developing on an ever larger scale. Must Be Made Mass Demand.

Organize and strike can and must be made a mass demand of the workers. The responsibility, therefore, placed upon our TUUL and affiliated unions becomes much greater and much more important politically. The present favorable conditions, which are developing, offers our T. U. U. L. the opportunity to become the leadership of a genuine militant mass movement within the coming period, that is, provided we are in a position and are capable of giving leadership and presenting to the workers a fighting program, based upon actual realism and the immediate things which are necessary for the building up of such a movement. The organization of committees of action, the building up of shop committees, the mobilization of mass rank and file strike committees, developing of mass picketing against the bosses' program in the industry, as well as a concrete mobilization against the ever increasing fascist attacks upon the workers, are the central and immediate tasks of our organizations.

Hand in hand of course must go our work to defend the program of the unemployed workers. In fact we must never permit ourselves to be put into a position whereby the workers get the feeling that either one or the other is excluded from our general campaign of activity. The building up of the September 1st demonstration is not only the task of the unemployed, but it is the task of our unions for the entire working class in the respective dustries. The campaign for unemployed insurance is the task of the revolutionary movement as a whole, because if we give leadership and organization to the unemployed workers it will then be possible to unite both employed and unemployed under the leadership of the TUUL and its affiliated unions, for a joint struggle against the program of our class enemies. All this requires mass initiative and mass preparation, not in the far distant future but now-immediately-in order to take advantage of the ever greater opportunities. The organization and strike fund of $100. 000 becomes an immodiate necessity, not as an abstract slogan but as the immediate task in Red Sparks

We Always Knowed It

In Stalin's recent speech at the Communist Party Congress of the Soviet Union, he said something about the League of Nations rotting away right in its tracks. Behold a report from Geneva in the N. Y. Times of Monday gives the opinion of a "medical adviser" which admits that in and around the League of Nations headquarters there is "An unbearable stench." While the Dock says the whole shebang is "Unhygienic" and that "odors from the sewer, the kitchen, the dining room and furnace" are mingled all over the place, we suspect that aside from the rottenness of the whole works, the most putrid part is that occupied by the International Labor Office, whose officials are mostly "socialists." This industrious bunch of crooks, always busy in genteel imperialist lying, makes a specialty of broadcasting falsehoods about the Soviet Union; in the name of high "impartiality" saying that the workers in the Soviet Union are deprived of life, liberty, light, air, wages, Jesus Christ, and so on. Now comes the Swiss doctor who explains that while the League of Nations-"Higher officials and their staffs are housed under decent conditions"-"many lower officials"-that is the actual employees-are working under conditions "utterly below criticism," in "basement rooms without ventilation or daylight"-"no mechanical device for the gases of the furnaces"-"firetrap staircases"-"one of the 13 attic workers has developed anemia due to insufficient air"-and a telephone exchange pictured as "a low, cramped, gloomy,ill-ventilated inferno where four girls perform phycho-physical acrobatics." We were on the point of organizing a protest against the importation of damn lies produced by such convict, slave and forced labor, but since the entire production is used in this country by Mattie Woll, and he has more pull with Hoover than we have, we'll have to give it up. But we mean to advertise that "unbearable stench" anyhow.

The Reason Why

The amiable liars of the capitalist press, on Monday morning reported that everything was peaceful as a day in June in the capital of Peru, and to 'prove' it said that Leguia, Wall Street's native bootlicker who competes with Machado of Cuba in going down on his knees to Hoover, had "attended the races" on Sunday afternoon. But before the ink got dry on the newspapers, Leguia had boarded a ship for parts unknown (Oh, for the pleasure of seeing Hoover do just that!) with some determined gentlemen with bayonetted rifles pointed in the general direction of his big honorable panta-Why he went to the races is now clear. He was picking out a fast horse to get away

Prayer Doesn't Pay Rent

We didn't go to church Sunday, but we read Monday's papers And we noted that the Rev. Dr. James Gordon Gilkey told his congregation that "None of us in this age expect that prayer will effect natural phenomena or people at a distance. Neither do we believe it will change God. We can't tell omniscience anything. But by prayer we increase our own capacity of thanking what God is trying to give us." Which means that if we pray hard enough, God will increase our capacity for going without eating. The dickens of this is that all our prayers don't seem to increase the capacity of the landlord to go without rent being paid. We twice it and is doesn't work. As for us, w the slogan: "No Wages, No Rent!"

This Is Getting Pretty Thick

Just as we were despairing of paying our rent and hopefully looking forward to being given a nice cell free of charge, the N.Y. Times darhes our Lopes by publishing an article about prisons, specifically the State Prison of New Jersey. Darn my eyes if in the Commissioner of the Department of Institutions and Agencies (gosh darn what a long name for one single grafter), a Mr. Ellis, "admitted that cells have been rented to prisoners fortunate enough to have money of their own." When they go to charging us rent for locking us up, we quit. The deputy "keeper" adds some amusing notes, though. He says that "of the 160 guards at the prison there are two or three dishonest ones." Huh! More likely to be one or two honest ones! He "flouted" reports of a trade in narcotics, because, says he, "guards are constantly on the watch for it." Huh! That's just the reason the trade flourishes! They watch" to see that no dope gets in to break their own monopoly. After all this, we've changed our mind about wanting to go to jail.

order to cope with the situations that arise. and to carry out successfully the demands placed upon our revolutionary unions. In this campaign for the building of the organization and strike fund of $100,000, we must guard against the mistakes which were made in the TUUL recruiting drive, that is, that the campaign was too abstract, did not penetrate into the rank and file membership of our unions. It was not looked upon as something real, something near to them-yes, something with them. The building up of the organization and strike fund must have its every day expression and activity in the respective unions and leagues. It must become the campaign of every rank and file member of the respective unions. It must become the campaign of every member to bring into our unions and national leagues more members, more activity, more participation in the every-day tasks and life of the union. It must become a mass campaign! A campaign based upon the actual work within the shop, for the purpose of leading and initiating more strikes, more organized struggles against the bosses.

This campaign must be a real organized campaign, and every member and close sympathizer of our national unions and leagues must not only participate in it, bust must become an actual organizer and an every-day worker for this gigantic task.

The slogan organize and strike against wage cuts, is a policy of mass initiative, and mass action. The campaign for the organization and strike fund of $100,000 can and must be carried out in order to develop the revolutionary trade union center as an independent mass economic organization, leading, initiating and fighting for the economic interests of the work-

Organization of the Longshoremen

By R. B. HUDSON.

ON September 7th the Marine Workers' Industrial Union will hold an Atlantic Coast District Conference of Longshoremen, in Philadelphia. At this conference the longshoremen will formulate their own demands to be presented to the bosses on the expiration, Sept. 30th, of the present fake agreement. In Philadelphia the longshoremen, under the leadership of the M. W. I. U., have launched an intensive campaign in preparation for the conference. This conference is a direct outgrowth of the existing poor working conlitions and pay under which the longshoremen now work, and presents the only method whereby the longshoremen can mobilize their forces to prevent a wage cut and fake agreement being forced upon them.

In Philadelphia there are several thousand longshoremen who are unorganized. These workers are forced to work for wages as low as 40 cents an hour. Their working conditions are intolerable and speed-up is the rule of the day. Accidents are common occurrences and no precautions are taken to safeguard the workers' lives. Graft, in the form of direct payments to watchmen for jobs, as on pier 7, or exorbitant interest on loans from foremen and timekeepers, is extorted from the workers before they can get the right to work under these conditions.

These coast-wise and unorganized men receive such low pay and have such rotten conditions primarily because they are unorganized. These workers are unorganized because the I. L. A. acting on orders from the stevedores have always refused to organize them. By having half of the workers organized the bosses are able to create a division in the ranks of the workers. They grant small concessions to a portion of the workers in order to keep all of the wages down. This was proven last year at the I. L. A. Wage Conference when the stevedores told the officials that they would not grant the workers an increase in pay because there were plenty of unorganized men that were working for 50 cents an hour. These men were unorganized because the I. L. A. had refused to organize them.

Last year these men had temporary hopes of bettering their conditions when the International Longshoremen's Association began a campaign to "organize" them. Polly Baker, the notorious labor faker of the I. L. A., organized them and told them that he would obtain for them an increase in pay. He filled them full of false promises and then completely betrayed them, absolutely refusing to give them an accounting of the money that he

The bosses have used many schemes to keep the workers divided on the coastwise docks. Although there has been chronic unemployment on the waterfront, many of the companies

They always want a plentiful supply of labor on hand to intimidate the workers that did obtain jobs.

When the M. W. I. U. went amongst these men to organize them, it was very difficult to approach them of their betrayal at the hands of Polly Baker. But after they understood the fighting policy of the M.W.I.U. and its classprogram of organizing the Negro and white workers into a real Industrial Union, their confidence was won and they began to join the union. The bosses immediately took steps to prevent this organization by having the organizers of the union arrested for distribut-

When the workers saw how the police broke our meetings at the direct orders of the shipowners they soon realized that the M. W. I. U. was not like the I. L. A. Then the shipowners attempted to intimidate the longshoremen with the police and threats of blacklisting. This failed and now the bosses have attempted to establish a company union. Moore and Mac-Cormack have set up a so-called Committee of Safety, which promises to safeguard the lives of the workers and promises them a bonus. The workers soon realized that this committee was only set up for the interests of the bosses and to keep the workers from fighting for better conditions under the leadership of the Marine Workers' Industrial Union.

From top to hottom the I. L. A. is proven a bosses' union. This is proven by the editorial, written by Ryan, the I. L. A. president, ommenting upon the wage agreement that hal just been negotiated with the stevedores. This agreement was a rank sell-out, but the editorial was headed, "The Employers and Employees Mutually Benefited by Wage Agreement." Years ago when the longshoreen were out on strike in Philadelphia the I. L. A. earned the reputation of being a scab agency by furnishing the stevedores men to break the strike with. Montcastle, one of the present delegates of the I. L. A., was herding

The stevedores have used every effort to keep the workers from organizing into the Marine Workers' Industrial Union. Gangsters and blacklisting were the first weapons. Then the police were called in an 1 300 police and two truckloads of marines were used to break up one meeting of the union. Then, failing to stop the growth of the M. W. I. U., the I. W. W. was called in and began a campaign to "organize" the longshoremen. Although the I W. W have received every aid from the etevederes and no interference from the police they have failed to convince the workers, as yet, that the I. W. W. are not part and parcel of the stevedores' policy to keep the workers unorganized and to create confusion They are now allowed to speak on the corner of Polaware and Chelefton where the M. W. I.

is already rumored that McCanna Sugar Company, which has no agreement with the I. L. A., will cut wages 15 cents in Sep. 1301.
