STATE HUNGER MARCHES FOR JOBLESS INSURANCE BILL

NE single thought occupies the minds of capitalist "statesmen" throughout the world-how to fight Bolshevism at home and in the colonies, and prepare for war against the Soviet Union.

Another interesting plan in this direction was yesterday cabled from Shanghai to the N. Y. Times. Shanghai is on the other side of the globe, but the plan made public from there was hatched in Washington, and its objectives embrace the world. This is the proposal by Prof. Paul Monroe, which he is now discussing with the Nanking Government, to provide Chiang Kai-shek with the money necessary to strangle the Chinese revolution, by assigning for that purpose the Young Plan reparations being paid by Germany to France and England, who it is proposed shall assign these reparations payments to the U.S. which makes the loan to China. The proposal contains the provision that these reparations payments from Germany are to be made by "deliveries in kind," in goods, to China and expended under U.S. supervision.

"Unless something constructive is done soon," says Monroe, "China will dissolve into a mass of Communistic excesses.". The "necessary remees." he finds, "are impossible without large funds from abroad."

Thus the Professor expects not only to deliver a crushing blow to Bolshevism in China, but at the same moment to Bolshevism in Germany, the menace of which he sees arising from Germany's lack of markets, consequent unemployment, and the pressure of the Young Plan payments. At the same moment, Monroe urges, this would weaken the temptation of Germany to sell her goods to the Soviet Union, and thus help complete the economic blockade of the capitalist world, weaken Commum, and create more favorable conditions for the capitalist war.

This scheme of Professor Monroe, more complicated and far-reaching han the Pittman project for a "silver loan" soon to come before the Senate, is another evidence of the seething, world-wide conspiracy in which the whole capitalist class is engaged, sharpening the white terror home and in the colonies and preparing the war against the Soviet

It is of a piece with the Fish Committee report in Congress, the police lubbings and killings, the wage-cuts and speed-up enforced by state militia and police power, the deportations of foreign born workers, the drive to illegalize the Communist Party, the frantic attempts to smash the movement for unemployment insurance.

The capitalist class is not only in the midst of a financial and injustrial panic. They are also in a moral panic. They tremble before he menace of revolt of the million-headed working class, which they have condemned to misery and starvation. In this panic, deepening Isibly from hour to hour, the capitalist class is capable of committing any crime, any enormity, against the workers and farmers, and against whole human race. They are driving straight toward the supreme

But the new imperialist war comes in a different world from that of 1914. The working class is in power in one-sixth of the earth, and viccriously building a new socialist society. The magnificent successes of the Five Year Plan in the Soviet Union, which makes the capitalists frantic with fear, is at the same time the guarantee of destruction of capitalism when it launches the new war. For within every capitalist buntry, there is a growing, ever more rapidly growing, army of workers, emery and desperate, who are realizing deeper every hour that the capithat sucks their blood must be destroyed once and for all, e Soviet Union they see the only fatherland of the workers, thic must defended at all costs.

Monroe declares his plan kills two birds with one stone. Instead of Germany paying the former Allied powers directly, Germany should be permitted to ship its goods to China. This would be credited as a loan to China. At the same time, Professor Monroe, a Rockefeller representative in Shanghai, sends a document to the state department calling for creating markets in China for Germany so it will not have to lean on Russia for markets. In this way, argues Monroe, a double blow will be directed against Communism—in China by support to the Nationalist government; and in Germany by saving German capitalism and keeping it from trading with the Soviet Union.

All these events are directly connected with the growing crisis in the capitalist countries and their active war preparations against the Soviet Union. The Fish Committee in the United States, which gave the first big drive to war against the Soviet Union, is not resting content with merely printing its report. It is taking active steps toward war. GRAFT ON RED CROSS RELIEF

PARIS. Ark., Feb. 2.-The so-called relief" for drouth-stricken farmers is being distributed from here. This means that certain local merchants are relieving themselves, while the farmers are first insulted, then cheated and robbed.

The scheme is to send the unfortunates to those stores which charge double prices for all goods furnished on Red Cross requisitions, and allow the local Red Cross officials a "rakeoff" on all such business. Only a mass protest against this obvious robbery, by the farmers forming their own Relief Council to lead vise and take charge of the relief distribution, can stop this graft, upon the starving.

New Offer for District Pages

In order to make contacts that will develop into permanent circulation, each district in the Party should have a special page in the Daily Worker once week. This will allow each district to build up its circulation on the basis of added interest attached to local news.

The Daily Worker offers any district the second page of the national edition, on which can be published four columns of district news. This offer is made on condition the district order 2,000 extra copies of the Daily each week at $8 a thousand, payable in advance. Any day of the week can be selected except Saturday.

All Signature Lists and Endorsements Must Reach New York by Feb. 5.

To allow time for tabulation of the hundreds of thousands of signatures for our Unemployment Insurance Bill and the collective endorsements, all filled lists and collective endorsements must be in the hands of the National Campaign Comnattee for Unemployment Insurance, 2 West 15th stret, New York City, no later than Feb. 5.

The National Campaign Committee calls upon all workers' organizations to forward their collective endorsements at once. TUUL local and district secretaries are to forward the collective endorsement taken at all street, breadlines and mass meetings as well as the collective endorsements of all hunger marches immediately.

Collective endorsements received from New York City are nearing the 100,000 total. The Workingman Sick Benevolent and Educational Federation has just forwarded the collective enments of 41 branches. The total of individual signatures received by the National Campaign Committee has shot over the 200,000 total. with many district reporting tens of thousands of signatures still on hand. The committee points out again that all filled lists must come for ard at once and not be kept on file in district and local headquarters. John Belitz, the New York worker who lost the record for individual signature collections to Mowe of St. Louis, has regained first place. Belitz has now collected 2,900 signatures. Two workers in Baltimore collected 850 and 950 sign-

"I am, of course, in favor of immigration limitation, especially under existing conditions. Whether I would be for or against some of the other proposals suggested, would depend largely upon the form in which they were presented to Congress and the case made for or against them, and it will be necessary to reserve conclusions until the exact proposals are put before Congress and the proper hearing had upon them." Senator Lynn J. Frazier of North Vote General Strike in Carpet Calls Meeting of For Wed., Feb. 4th and Hosiery Industry in Phila.

Spread Strike to All Parts

A general strike in 10 leading Philadelphia hosiery factories was voted largest crowd ever seen among the hosiery workers at Union Hall, 4th and Huntington streets, in the heart of the Kensington textile center. Both halls at the headquarters were packed and the workers were crowd-TRAINING CLASS ed outside. The general strike will be called in all Philadelphia hosiery factories between Feb. 12 and 22nd. The workers intend to spread the strike Week End School Will throughout the country in all hosi-

Then, to the astonishment of the A. F. of L. bureaucrats, the hosiery workers adopted a motion to extend the strike even to those so-called union shops where the "two-machine" system is in existence. The motion was to the effect that if these alleged union shops did not give up slave-driving, back-breaking "two-machine" system and go back to the "one-machine" system, the strike would embrace them also.

A committee of action of 100 hosiery workers is to be assigned for the preparatory work. The large mass bers called for the general strike over the heads of the A. F. of L. bureaucrats who were unable to stem the radicalization of the workers and their willingness to fight against the rotten conditions and against wage dealing with working and living conditions among the Danbury fur workers, and their struggle for union conditions.-Editor.

By MYRA PAGE

THE recent strike of the Danbury fur-workers is over, with their demand that the wagecut of twenty per cent be withdrawn entirely met in the Hoit-Messinger and Danbury-and-Bethel plants, the wage-cut reduced by half in the two other struck plants, and the proposed wage-cuts in the Gorman-Tomanio and other plants cancelled when the employers saw the militancy of the workers, and that a general strike would result if all firms attempted to carry out their original plan. The employers also promised that there should be no discrimination against active strikers, and so far there has been none: furthermore, the workers are on the job. and have committees in each shop to see to it that none does occur.

This partial victory which the Danbury workers won, under the leadership of the Needle Trades Industrial Union and the Trade Union Unity League, has also taught them important lessons which they and their union will put to good use in the immediate future.

In this small town of Danbury, with its one Main Street and population of 28,000, where everybody knows everybody else, where the millionaire Mr. Lee owns and runs the town, and controls either directly or indirectly all the fur and hat shops of the town's one industry, along with the local news sheets, banks, and politicians; where wages are so low that whole families have to work in the deadly fur shops and go blind, loose their teeth, have their hair bleached, their lungs and bodies poisoned by the acids and fur-dust-in this town, Mr. Lee and the other employers decided to start the New Year right by announcing a twenty per cent

"We gotta organize and strike" the word went around, and some of the fur workers went to their friends among the hatters for help. Knowing from bitter experience that there would be no help from the American Federation of Labor, but that this organization would play the bosses' game, as they had done when the hatters struck in 1908 and again thirteen years ago, the fur workers sent word to the Trade Union Unity League, "We want an organizer." On the issuing of the first hundred leaflets, spontaneous walk-outs took place in departments and sections of various shops-in fact, before adequate preparations could be made in the strike. As one fur-cutter told it, "Fellows came running in from another part of the shop and beckoned. 'Come on', what's up, a fire? I wondered. Then the foremen said, 'All who want to work for ten per cent cut, instead of twenty, stay at work'. Well, by the next morning, we were all out." At an enthusiastic mass meeting of five hundred, a committee of seventy-five was chosen, and the next morning, Danbury was treated to its first militant labor demonstration, of four hundred fur workers, among them a large number of women and young workers, marching through the streets, demanding the withdrawal of the cut, one hour for lunch, instead of one-half hour as at present and recognition of this newlyformed union. The Hoit-Messinger withdrew the cut at once, and the "D and B" settled within five days' time. In the National and Eastern, the workers, after four weeks' strike, decided they would have to accept the compromise of ten per cent cut, until they were better organized. They returned to work in an organized fashion, and on arrangements made with the employers through their strike com-

The most important gain of the strike, as the fur-workers of Danbury realize, is that now they have their union-a real union that sticks up for its members-with already more than 225 members; and they have also won invaluable experience for the future strike struggles against further attempts at wage-cuts and for better and more healthy working conditions, shorter hours, and the feeling is general that these struggles are near at hand.

The spirit of the workers is good! "You can nct expect to learn and win everything in four weeks," one striker explained, "but we have learned a lot. We have learned what it means to stick together. Now we got our union. Next

This is the first in a short series of articles time, we'll be organized and can prepare better, and win more."

> "Next time, it's got to be all fur-workers and hatters together, too," a carroter spoke up. A group of us were talking together sitting around the union hall. "We find the bosses all stick by each other, and we gotta do the same. Before this strike, now, we were divided up-Syrian workers, Italian, Portugese, Irish, French, American,-each in our ow nclub, and the foremen and small bosses were members too. We thought they were our clubs, but we found out different, when they threw us out of the halls. Now we're going to organize our own-an International Workers' Club."

"Yes." this time it was a woman striker speaking, "We've learned who're our friends and who are our enemies, to." Incidentally, the women and young girls were among the most militant elements throughout the strike. "Besides Lee and Hickey and the other bosses, we found the foremen weren't our friends as they'd pretended, but spied on us, and the Danbury Times was against us, and wouldn't give any of the real facts about why we struck, conditions in the plants, or nothing. Mr. Lee owns the paper and tells the editor what he can say, and what he can't. Only the Daily Worker tells the truth about us. It's a real working people's paper." The feeling among this newly organized group for the Daily, the great confidence they have in their paper is shown by the way they pass copies from hand to hand, quote it, write for it, and the intent interest with which they read it. They placed the paper on six newsstands, and sent out their young boy strikers to sell it on the streets. In the restaurants and shops in working-class neighborhoods one frequently sees the friendly face of the Daily looking up from tables or tops of counters.

"We found the cops, lawyers and city government were against us. Mr. Lee owns this town. We always knew it. But we never realized all it meant, before this strike. And the Federal Government down at Washington, why did they send that Weinstock woman in to try and break our strike? Looks like the Federal Government is for Mr. Lee and his kind and against our kind. But that certainly ain't right.

"Now when we tried to get the City Hall for a meeting they wouldn't give it to us, but when this Miss Weinstock come to town, they let her have it, to try and get the workers to go back and take the cut. And all the things she said Only twenty-nine were weak-kneed enough to give in. And she said they were the only real Americans, and the rest of us were awful Bolsheviks, to hold out for a little more decent living!

"We learned who our friends were too, the Needle Trades Workers' Industrial Union, the Daily, and the working people." Throughout the strike, strike relief amounting to about one dollar per worker each week was contributed by fur workers and hatters, in the Lemme Hat Shop, where there is an A. F. of L. hatters' local, the Gorman shop, and the D. & B. and Hoit-Messinger shops (which settled within the first five days). Also many small merchants were sympathetic with the strike and gave aid, but when asked to sign a petition in favor of the strikers. openly admitted "Mr. Lee owns the bank where I must get my loans. If I signed, all credit would be cut off."

The value of organization, of solidarity and militant struggle-that is a great deal to have learned in four weeks, and the Danbury workers are right in placing these as their main gains. Now with their union, a sober confidence in their collective power, and a pretty clear idea of what and how they must fight, the Danbury fur workers and hatters will move forward with the entire American and international working class in battling for better conditions and a new world.

In their drive forward, one of the fur workers' and hatters' biggest tasks is the elimination of the murderous conditions which surround them as they work and which leads to chronic illnesses and high death rates from mercury and acid

(Tomorrow's article will tell how the strikers showed up the Danbury Times and other papers. Following articles will describe the terrific conditions in the shops, and how the Connecticut and Danbury local governments wink at the employers' illegal and murderous practices in the plants.)

Unemployed

By A. WAGENKNECHT.

WE have reviewed numerous leaflets issued for the mobilization of our city hunger marches, demonstrations, etc. We have reviewed numerous programs for work issued by district T. U. U. L. secretaries. We note an outstanding weakness which must be corrected at once.

Our propaganda, agitation, demonstrations, day to day activities in the unemployed work is isolating itself from the T. U. U. L. and its program, from the demands of the employed workers, from organizing unions of the T. U. U. L. and striking against wage cuts and speed-up, from our demand for the shorter work-day, etc.

1. The city campaign committees for unemployment insurance (local united front conferences) are not the organizers of the unemployed councils, demonstrations or relief struggles. The city campaign committees were organized to secure a broad basis for our drive for signatures for our Unemployment Insurance Bill, to secure finances for our unemployment work, to place us in touch with additional masses of workers and their organization into unemployed councils and into the T. U. U. L., for the spreading of Labor Unity. The city campaign committees are cooperating bodies and we go into the organizations affiliated with these local united front conferences to win workers for the T. U. U. L. and our Unemployed Councils.

2. The T. U. U. L. organizes the Unemployed Councils and organizes the employed workers into the T. U. U. L. The Unemployed Councils of the T. U. U. L. lead all struggles for unemployment relief. From the Unemployed Councils we recruit members for the T. U. U. L. The program and tasks of the T. U. U. L. must seep deeply into the Unemployed Councils, into the ranks of all unemployed workers. The demands and struggles of the unemployed workers must reach all employed workers in the mines, mills and shops in a form that will indicate that the unemployed workers call for the organization of the employed workers into the T. U. U. L., call for strikes against wage cuts and speed-up, for the shorter work-day.

3. The fight for unemployment insurance and immediate relief for the unemployed, all hunger marches, demonstrations, struggles against evictions, etc., must be in the name of and led by the Unemployed Councils of the T. U. U. L., not by the united front conference we have organized in the various cities. The objective must be to bring about common struggles of employed and unemployed workers for the partial demands of the employed and immediate relief for the unemployed, under the leadership of the T. U. U. L. In all our tasks, struggles, demonstrations, etc., Labor Unity must be brought forward as the weekly organ of all employed and unemployed workers.

4. A tendency exists on the part of some of our district T. U. U. L. organizations to not only give organization of workers into the T. U. U. L. and strikes against wage cuts second place, but to forget about the T. U. U. L. and its program altogether and engage only in demonstrations for unemployment relief for the unemployed, and secondly, to eliminate the T. U. U. L. and its Unemployed Councils and allow the united front conferences to take over all activities in the unemployed work. This attitude should be corrected at once in line with the policy noted

LOVESTONE RENEGADES LOSE INFLUENCE

Frances (Fannie) Gordon, a teacher of Passaic, N. J., has repudiated her connections with the Lovestone renegades and has been readmitted into the Young Communist League. in her letter of application for re-admission she writes as follows:

"The past year has shown that with the elimination of unprincipled factionalism, our Party became unified and increased in political mass influence. The ever growing economic crisis of American and world capitalism, as well as the rapid radicalization of the American working class, show the correctness of the political analysis of our Party and the League as given by the Comintern, and expose the social-democratic program of Lovestone, which I had followed. By following the Lovestone group I was fighting the decisions of the Sixth World Congress, instead of defending them. The struggle against these decisions became a struggle against Leninism.

The false conceptions of the Lovestone group on the present economic and political situation of capitalism in America, as well as the rest of the world, their actions on May First, their position (and that of Roy) on the Indian Revolution, their struggles against the Comintern and the American Party, and their attacks upon the successful socialist construction in the Soviet Union, illustrate the social-democratic character of Lovestone's political line, which leads all those who follow this line into the camp of capitalism, of all the forces fighting against the working

I have been guilty of following the above course, though I dissociated myself from the Lovestone group months ago.

It is now clear to me that one cannot be a Communist outside the ranks of the Communist

The Party is willing to take back all those, who, having been mislead by the high-sounding phrases and all the subterfuges and deceptions practised by the renegades, now realize their real counter-revolutionary line and character, recognize their error, fully endorse and accept the line of the Party and of the Comintern, and pledge to fight for it against all enemies.

(Adopted at WESL mass meeting held in New York City, on Friday, January 30, 1931.)

DIGHT after the world war, the veterans began to ask themselves: "What did we get out of this bloody mess?"

We were released from the military service, and we were promised our jobs back. Instead we were left on the streets starving and homeless. When we did get our jobs back, we found wages cut. We were brutally speeded up by the bosses. Today large numbers of ex-servicemen are on the bread lines all over the country, while hundreds of thousands are working parttime for starvation wages.

The bosses' government formed veterans' organizations, as American Legion, Disabled War Veterans, World War Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars to suppress and fool the veterans. These organizations were set up by the bosses to mislead the veterans from our real needs and to make us the tools of bosses against the labor

After six years (from 1919 till 1925) of constant demands of veterans for compensation for the sufferings in the war, the government issued the Veterans Adjusted Service Compensation Certificates, or the so-called "tombstone bonus," which were to be paid in 1945. Until 1927 the veterans did not receive any loans on those certificates. After 1927 we were to get only a small amount on which the interests were deducted from the value of the "tombstone bonus." The above mentioned bosses' veteran organizations supported this action. At present when the cry for the immediate cash payment at face value of the "tombstone bonus" is at its height, these organizations together with senators in Congress and with the bosses' newspapers are trying to mislead the veterans. Right now there is more than 50 different bills in Congress to confuse the veterans on the question of the bonus.

While the bosses and their representatives in Congress claim that there is no money to pay the bonus, they are spending this year $1,250,-000,000 in preparation for another imperialist war. Hundreds of millions of dollars are given back to railroad, steel, coal and other trusts as tax-refunds by the same government who refuses to pay the cash bonus to the veterans.

We must organize all veterans to put up a united fight for the immediate cash payment of the bonus. But the bonus alone is not sufficient to save us from misery and starvation. We must unite with the employed and unemployed workers in the demand for Unemployment Insurance. Together with other workers we are going to send our delegation to Washington on February 10th to present our demands to Congress for passing the Workers Unemployment Insurance Bill, which demands $25 per week for unemployed workers and in addition to this $5 per week for each dependent of the same; no eviction of unemployed, etc.

Especially as ex-servicemen we stress the importance of that section of the Workers Unemployment Insurance Bill, which provides for the turning over all war funds to the Workers Social Insurance Commission.

We call to all ex-servicemen, to unite on the following demands:

1. The immediate cash payment at face value of the Veterans Adjusted Service Compensation Certificates to all war veterans, except those earning over $3,000 per year. 2. Increase of all compensations to partly and wholly disabled war veterans. 3. Better treatment of all disabled war veterans in government hospitals. 4. Right to choose our own physicians and medical assistance at the government expense.

5. No Jim Crowism or any kind of discrimination against the Negro war veterans. 6. Against the use of worker ex-servicemen against the labor movement

Cutters Must Join Tailors to Fight for Better Conditions

By SOL HERTZ.

The cutters had many gains to record during the growth of the Amalgamated. They were the aristocrats of the trade, securing for their members, week work, a $55 minimum wage scale, and other union conditions. However, the policy of peace with the bosses at any cost, which seemed at first not to touch the cutters, resulted in the complete ruination of their jobs and con-

The situation among the cutters is extremely alarming, particualrly in connection with the unemployed. Almost one-third of the membership is unemployed, with starvation staring them

The near future has much suffering in store for the cutters. Even according to the conservative estimates of Phil Orlovsky, manager of Local 4, more than one half of the 2,000 cutters will not see the inside of a cutting room the coming season.

What brought about this intolerable condition? The A.C.W. administration with its "one sided cooperation." (as the cutters call it) policy of peace, with the bosses, no matter how much the clothing workers have to pay for it, is largely responsible for this situation. The policy of "one sided cooperation" led to the introduction of a brutal speed-up, tremendously increasing the individual production of the cutter. Growthe other hand, reorganizations take place continuously on the pretense of decline in business.

In line with the policy of "one sided cooperation," there is not an equal division of work, but there is the hideous temporary card system. This anti-union system leaves the temporary men completely at the mercy of the boss and foreman. It is a powerful whip in the hands of the bosses to continuously increase the brutal speed-up of both permanent and temporary men, since the temporary men are forced to be at the disposal of the boss.

This anti-union system is responsible for the demoralization and mistrust among the cutters. It is largely responsible for the individual standard of production with the sliding scale, now spreading in the cutting trade which is really the cursed piece work system.

The natural reaction of the cutters, and all other Amalgamated workers, is to fight these unbearable and shameful conditions. The men's clothing workers have many times in the past proven their readiness to fight the bosses; however the A.C.W. leaders think differently, for instead of fighting, they persistently continue the policy of "one sided cooperation" of peace with the boss at any cost. What can really relieve the present situation? Local 4 has time and again gone on record presenting resolutions demanding the introduction of the 40 hour week. The Amalgamated at its conventions also went on record for the 40 hour week. Hillman, in order to glorify himself, makes speeches to outside-organizations like churches, charitable institutions and Chambers of Commerce, demanding shorter hours and more unemployment insurance to be paid by the bosses, but in reality the A.C.W. administration as well as Local 4 administration, do not recede one inch on the policy of peace at any cost. Instead of shorter hours to create more jobs for the unemployed, instead of mapping out plans for struggle to win better conditions, the official policy remains, "no demands on the bosses," the entire burden of the crisis on the shoulders of the workers. In line with this, the Administration keeps on taxing the employed which only brings more thousands of dollars into the bottomless treasury of the union. There are also some proposals to reduce hourse, but at the full expense of the workers, by direct wage cutting, or by bringing in the slave driving system of piece work. The first step towards the relieving of the present condition of the unemployed, as well as doing away with the fear of the majority of the cutters of being thrown out of the shop, is discard the policy of peace with the bosses, followed by the Hillman, Orlofsky administration, and to immediately abolish the anti-union temporary card system. Every cutter working more than one week should remain permanent. To fight for the enforcement of a 7-hour day, 5-day week, union conditions must be strictly observed. The cutters must participate in the struggle of all unemployed for jobless insurance to be paid by the state. In order that cutters may humanly exist, they must organize and fight to bring these demands into effect.

The cutters must never forget that they are part of the men's clothing industry, and their problems can only be solved in closest unity with the tailors and other workers in the trade. The cutters were too long indifferent to the general situation in the trade, and they are now paying the price. Tailors suffer worse than the cutters. Both must unite.

The conditions in the men's clothing industry are continuously growing worse. The bosses are carrying through one wage slashing campaign after another. Although the agreement between the Amalgamated and the Clothing Manufacturers' Exchange calls for no wage cuts, the policy of peace with the bosses made it possible for them to continuously cut wages.

Since the agreement has been signed, there hasn't been a shop left that has not suffered a reduction, increased speed-up or both.

The piece work system has been hailed by the Amalgamated as the salvation for the tailors, but actually it is a curse. Piece work is slave driving. It is the bosses' system. It brought chaos into the ranks of the workers. The bosses utilize the piece work system to divide us, to instigate one section of workers against the other, one nationality against the other. Piece work means the rule of the bosses. It is an inhuman speed-up, an efficiency scheme that makes it possible for the bosses to throw thou-More Jobs for the Unemployed, Higher Wages,

Shorter Hours, Abolition of Piece Work and the Speed-Up.

This must become the battle cry of the clothing workers. The clothing workers never got anything through the good-will of the bosses. Whatever conditions we had, were won through strikes and struggles. In 1923, we drove Rickert and Larger out of our ranks and then forced the bosses to grant us better conditions. In 1920 we had successfully combatted the attacks of the manufacturers. We kept up our standards and conditions so long as our policy was based on the class struggle. We Must Turn Back to the Policy of Fighting the Bosses.

The present collective agreement in the injustry which called for no wage cuts was a deliberate swindle, planned by the bosses, and their agents, the Hillman Company union. Under the cover of the existing agreement, no strikes for better conditions were allowed, but the wages and conditions were smashed, during the same

The coming June, the New York Market agreement expires. The Hillman Clique is again conspiring to sell out the clothing workers for another three years, and then they will again cover themselves with the existing agreement.

The Men's Clothing Workers have the power to stop the planned treachery. The clothing workers must intensify the movement for a strike for conditions when the agreement expires. Such a strike is most essential, but it can not be led by the Hillman machine; if they would, it would be done in order to betray the workers right from

Such a strike must be organized and led by the workers themselves. The tailors must spread the movement for a strike for conditions, broad rank and file committees should be organized in every shop and local to work for this end.

The whole of public life is now being permeated with the spirit of militarism. Imperialism represents a desperate struggle of the great powers for the partition and re-partition of the world, hence it inevitably leads to the further militarization of all countries, including the neutral and the small. What will the proletarian women do against that? Will they merely curse wars and everything that is military, will they nerely demand disarmament? Never will the women of an oppressed class which is truly a revolutionary class be reconciled to such a shameful role. They will say to their sons: "You will soon grow up and be big. They will give you arms. Take them and learn to use them well. The art of war is essential to the proletariat, not in order to shoot against their own brothers, the workers of other lands, as is the case in the present war, and as the socialist traitors advise you to do, but in order to fight the bourgeoisie of your own country, in order to put a stop to exploitation, poverty and war, not in the way of a pious wish, but of a victory over and the dis-

Easter has arrived early for the enemies of the Soviet Union. Riaboushinsky has risen from

When the Moscow trial of the counter-revolutionary "industrial party" took place, the confessions of the prisoners involved, as one of the plotters in Paris, a Russian monarchist refugee named Riaboushinsky.

The infamous but anonymous "correspondent" at Riga, always quick to produce a new lie about the Soviet Union, in fact rivaling Helsingfors in that respect, but perhaps better organized by the American consul in Riga than those in Helsingfors, trotted out the claim that the Moscow accusation was false because Riaboushinsky was dead! In fact the poor fellow was dead already in 1924 and had been buried in such-and-such cemetery in Paris. How, therefore, could be have participated in a plot of 1928? The thing was unanswerable!

It made little difference, of course, that the Soviet Prosecutor, Krylenko, produced at the trial a copy of the Russian counter-revolutionary paper published in Paris, dated July, 1930, in which the supposedly dead Riaboushinsky had written a long article calling for war against the Soviet Union. No. that could make no difference! The famous "Riga correspondent" had established the death of the gentleman and no enemy of the Soviet Union would so much as grunt at the proof to the contrary produced by

Not being able to deny the fact obvious all of a plot to make war against the Soviet Union, they had to base all their argument on something, even a small thing. And so, by no manner of means would they allow Riaboushinsky to live. He must stay dead!

Some professor in Boston had to "discover" the "death" of Riaboushinsky all over again, in a letter to the N. Y. Times, before that sheet took editorial notice of it, although its own "Riga correspondent" had first informed it of the sad demise of Professor Riaboushinsky.

The "Times" used the Boston professor's discovery as the opinion of an "unprejudiced expert," and in its editorial summing up the Moscow trial, stated that this "fatal discrepancy" was enough to "discredit" the Moscow revelations of a plot against the Soviet Union.

But matters did not stop there. Norman Thomas, the "socialist" leader, always ready to be a sounding board for any capitalist lie against the Soviet Union, seconded the motion of the N. Y. Times, accepting (in the "New Leader") tne death of his esteemed compatriot Risboushinsky as a fact, "occurring in 1924," which 'cast a shadow" over the Moscow trial, because, forsooth, how could Riaboushinsky be dead in 1924, yet plot against the Soviet Union after

Not even a regularly ordained minister of the gospel such as Norman Thomas, could go so far along the lines of a life after death, as to contend such a thing. Moreover, it was the best, lie possible against the Soviet.

Like all the other capitalist liars, the Rev. Norman Thomas, also, was silent on the proof offered by Krylenko in the Moscow trial of the fact that Riaboushinsky was alive and very busy indeed agitating for war against the Soviet. Thomas could take no heed of such matters, even though the paper in which Riaboushinsky's article of July, 1930 appeared, was as fully accessible to him as to Krylenko in Moscow.

But it is hard to keep a good man down Riaboushinsky, killed in November by the Rigg correspondent of the N. Y. Times, and buried with full benefit of clergy by Norman Thomas and the N. Y. Times in December, 1930, had but a few weeks of rest in the grave, when he was summoned by the counter-revolutionary "angels at the doorway."

Riaboushinsky is risen! On Page 18 of the N. Y. Times of Jan. 20, under the headline-Exiles Ask America to Outlaw Soviet." Professor D. P. Riaboushinsky is resurrected to denounce "Soviet dumping" and various other wickedness of the "Communist Tyrants"! His name appears with 209 other "cultural leaders" of old Russia. Czarist Russia, "appealing to the American people" to oppose the Soviet!

The days of miracles are not past! No, indeed! The N. Y. Times, with the prayerful assistance of the Rev. Norman Thomas, has raised the dead! But they are modest magicians, and fail to acknowledge that, if Riaboushinsky, resting in the tomb last November, discredited the Moscow trial, his existence in January, signer of a manifesto, is not only a miracle, one which certifies and supports the trial

Anyhow, he is risen!

For the 2,216th Annoyance

In the blessed city of Washington there whhat is called a government. Part of it is called the "Child Research Bureau." In view of the fact that literally millions of children are now being stunted for Mfe by hunger and privation, anyone not acc with the fact that the government is a capitalist government, and that a capitalist government is not interested in children of the workers might cherish the illusion that the Child Research Bureau at least ought to be col statistics on just how badly the children of th jobless are faring.

But they would be vastly mistaken. The principal task of the Child Research Bureau, ing to a speech of its director before an audien at the Georgia State College of Agriculture, he been to ascertain, with scientific exactified, just w many ways children annoy their parents." And the exact figure is—in 2,214 ways!

Marvelous! Invaluable! Only a little need be added. And that is, that the publication of the "Young Worker" and the "Young Ploneer also seems to have annoyed someone, if not parents, then the capitalists! We might say that this is the 2,215th way of annoying.

But it is not the last. The young workers and Pioneers, resenting the suppression of their working class press, have decided to "anney" the government by demonstrating their protest before the central post offices in various parts of the country. They began it last Saturday in New York, and let the Child Research Bureau take note that there is a 2,216th way of "annoying." We expect to hear of still others from time to time, throughout the country.

terrorist. The matter was taken up in the Section Buro, and the entire buro of the unit called to meet with the Section Committee. The unit buro had passed a motion to the effect that the unit should not hold any future affairs at the section headquarters but will hold its affairs at the Italian Workers Center instead. The reason given was that the motion picture showing had

Chauvinistic Tendencies in the Harlem Section

By HAROLD WILLIAMS. THE ejection of Negro unemployed workers from a motion picture showing held by Unit 5. Section 4. District Two; the manner in which this ejection was carried out, and the refusal of the unit to realize and condemn its wrong line in the matter, together with its opportunist decision to hold future affairs outside of Negro Harlem, sharply serve to demonstrate the necessity for an aggressive struggle against the influence of white chauvinism among the workingclass and in the ranks of our Party itself, and for a clarification of the entire national question. On Dec. 14, Unit 5 ran a moving picture show at the Section headquarters, 308 Lenox Avenue. Due to the fact that the Unemployed Council had made great headway among the unemployed Negro workers of Harlem, with the result that these workers have been using the Section headquarters as a social and organizational center. a number of unemployed Negro workers were in the headquarters at the hour set for the showing.

The Unit organizer, Comrade Garbor, instead of appealing to these unemployed workers to pay what they could, decided to push them out of the hall. As a result a situation developed which almost brought about a fist fight between the Negro and white workers present. And in the end, the Negro workers went away disgusted, including some new Negro party members.

As a result of this disgusting occurrence I went, as Section Organizer, to the next meeting of the unit and raised the question. I received an absolutely hostile reception from the unit, the unit organizer leading in the hostility and re-brought in only $14.30. The evident intent is to eliminate contact and bother with the unemployed Negro workers at these affairs.

Here then we see that the unit buro instead of critizing itself for its chauvinistic tendencies openly capitulated before difficulties in passing such motion which the American reactionary forces will easily agree with. The attitude of the unit demonstrated first that the buro is totally ignorant on the Comintern line towards the national and colonial question in which the Second Congress of the Third International. definitely went on record that the Communist Parties must be cautious in dealings with the oppressed nation: "The age-long enslavement of the colonial and weak nationalities by the imperialist powers, has given rise to a feeling of rancor among the masses of the enslaved countries as well as to feeling of distrust towards the oppressing nation and towards the proletariat of those countries......It will take a long time for this national prejudice to disappear. This divolves upon the class conscious proletariat of all countries, the duty of exercising a special caution and care with regard to the national sentiment and also of making necessary concessions in order to more speedily remove this distrust on

At the section committee meeting, December 26 with the unit buro, after a thorough discussion with the comrades in pointing out the shortcomings the following motions were passed.

1. It was wrong for the unit buro to decide to admit unemployed comrades free of charge. 2. That the committee in charge of the affair acted incorrectly in trying to push out unemployed Negro workers. 3. That the unit cannot whitewash their white chauvinistic tendencies by blaming Comrade Williams as section organizer who was correct in immediately attending the unit meeting and bringing the question before them. Carried with one abstention. Comrade Vera Saunders.

That the section committee reprimands the
