Writers, Take Notice!

The House of Harper is pleased to announce its association with the publishers of THE STORY PRESS, publisher of some of the finest books of the past five years, the editors of THE STORY PRESS, Whit Burnett and Margaret M. Kelley, and the editors of THE STORY PRESS, Hugh Ferriss and Dorothy McIlvaine, have contributed uniquely to the development of many outstanding novels, including those by Thorne Smith, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and Dorothy McIlvaine. They have given discerning writers of fiction, both new and established, the opportunity to earn a living from their work, and to develop their skills as writers.

With the Readers

A MAN AND A WOMAN—by Whit Burnett

THE NEW DECOUPAGE—by E. J. H. Dyer

MOTHER GOOSE GOES TO WAR—by William L. Guernsey

THE LAND OF OPPORTUNITY—by James W. Cannon

September 1936, FIGHT

Opportunity knocks! And the latest issue is out to all readers, editors, and publishers.

Address manuscripts and inquiries to

The STORY PRESS, 439 Fourth Avenue, New York City.
Announcement

FALL 1936 CAMPAIGN
for increasing the circulation of The Fight AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM

Plan of Action—

1. Subscription Contest
   A new contest that is not competitive. Everyone can win a prize. Every person or branch sending in ten sets by October 22nd will receive a West-Oxford pen and pencil set which sells for $3.00; for 50 sets a $5.00 West-Oxford set; and for 50 sets a fine $11.00 Eveready desk set with a walnut base. Every set will have the winner’s name engraved on it in gold lettering. Cecile announcing full details for earning these awards will be mailed shortly.

2. Bundle Contest
   THE FIGHT aims to have every branch double its bundle order. To stimulate this, there will be a special bundle contest from September 22nd to December 22nd. The branches will receive further announcements.

3. Newstands
   THE FIGHT must be brought before the public more than it has been. The newstands afford the magazine a great opportunity for attracting attention. Until now our newstand circulation has been limited. Beginning with the October issue THE FIGHT is going to appear on thousands of stands.

This announcement is preliminary to still greater plans for the expansion of THE FIGHT. From time to time these plans will be made known.

Help us to PUT THE FIGHT over, and win a beautiful and useful prize.

If you are one of those people who ask

Questions About the League
You ought to have—

A PROGRAM AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM

This latest pamphlet (5 cents) about the American League Against War and Fascism contains an analysis of the League’s 10-point program, together with questions people frequently ask us.

Of course you know about the League’s ANTI-HITLER DRIVE!

You will find a number of ways to help the League and its newspaper, magazine and radio programs which Dr. Charles B. Heard and I work with a million people.

As you know, the League’s work in the United States is not alone. There are more than 30 affiliates around the world. You will find a number of ways to help the League and its newspaper, magazine and radio programs which Dr. Charles B. Heard and I work with a million people.

Another important pamphlet (10 cents) which explains the American activities of the League and its work in the United States is FIGHTING FASCISM OF ALL KINDS. It is a new launch aimed especially at people who still read the Hearst papers. It is about us and what we are accomplishing, so that the masses may know the League.

You Also Will Want To Read

Pamphlets

NATIONAL DEFENSE, by John Franklin 12
WOMEN, WAR AND FASCISM, by Dorothy McCullough 12
YOUTH DEMAND PEACE, by James Lenane 12
DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, by Wayne S. Wood 12
KEY FASCISM LEADS TO WAR, by John Franklin 12
PROCEEDINGS OF THE 6th CONGRESS AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM 12

Leaflets

PROGRAM OF THE AMERICAN LEAGUE AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM 3
LEAGUE LEAGUE (Development and Character of the League) 4
FASCISM WHAT IT IS 9

SEPTEMBE 21st (Act now)

APPEAL TO ILLINOIS TOOEHS

PROCLAMATION OF YOUTH

(Special Rate on Bundles for Pamphlets and Leaflets)

AMERICAN LEAGUE AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM
14 East 10th Street
New York, N. Y.

Spanish Barricades

Feudal Spain? Romantic Spain? And now it is estimated that fifty thousand men, women and children have laid down their lives fighting for Democracy

By John Garcia

ILLUSTRATED BY A. C. FERNANDO

September 1936, FIGHT
Breadbasket

Seven years of depression. And then came the drought. A farm editor tells what happened to his native state, North Dakota

By Willard Chase

September 1936, FIGHT

they have ordered crops plowed under and animals destroyed. In some areas of the state, they have utilized the milk mammoths of their farmers and forced them to be signed into conformity.

North Dakota, the "Breadbasket of the World," is becoming a "Great American Dust Bowl." North Dakota, the "land of milk and honey," is becoming a land subject to starvation and exposure.

The farmers of North Dakota knew the seventh year of the drought filled with hope and that old tradition that had carried them through six preceding years. They had been in abundance during a long, hard winter. However, they believed it to have been in plenty. Soils were prepared and crops were planted. The growing season started and the drought continued with its dry, killing grip. The heat wave broke all records and caused so much suffering.

Today, many counties in North Dakota cannot supply animal feed and human needs, and there are twelve long months behind another harvest. North Dakota and farming states have again turned to the government for aid.

Relief!

Only adequate and immediate measures taken by the government can save thousands of farm families from being wiped out. In analyzing the present drought program, however, it is found to be much the same as previous programs that failed to fulfill the hopes and dreams, and that relief being given is too inadequate.

Families are being taken on relief and food loans are made under more stringent conditions than previously. Farmers are often forced to sell their livestock in order to get relief aid. Thus, farmers who might have been able to carry their animals through the winter if they got on relief are forced.
My Childhood in Germany

The genial and militant Mid-West Socialist tells the story of his life born on a hay wagon to the salutation of one hundred guns—Bismarck, Von Moltke and Zeppelin—Roman road and Napoleon ... playing soldiers and lullabies... Kirke, Grindle, and the organ grinder.

By Oscar Ameringer

ILLUSTRATED BY BERNBURM

For years, almost since my husband, who was a German Jew, and I left the Hyatt over on the Pacific Coast and in Alaska, where I was born, we have visited the home of our parents. They were always with us. They told us stories about how they had been taken by the Nazis to labor camps, and how they had been separated from us. We visited the home of our parents. They were always with us. They told us stories about how they had been taken by the Nazis to labor camps, and how they had been separated from us.

War is the coming glory of the crown of creation. Being in the midst of war, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins. Through the streets and the alleys of the war, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins. As the war moves forward, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins. As the war moves forward, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins.

An ecstatic weaponizing of the mind must start in infancy. In my case it started at birth.

I was born in Germany in the first week of August, 1939. My mother told me she was rescued by a dozen armed guards banding the birth of a prince. Mother was not a princess, but a poor woman farm hand on an estate, and being taken by the Nazis to labor camps, and how they had been separated from us.

She was in the midst of war, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins. As the war moves forward, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins. As the war moves forward, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins.

A Merry Picture

All of my childhood experiences are colored with soldiers, guns, children, sneaks, flags, and uniforms. One of my early recollections is of a Christmas tree in the Danube valley and the Jura Mountains beyond. Through the streets and the alleys of the war, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins. As the war moves forward, the men of war must be systematically weaponized, armed, protected, and equipped before the war itself begins.

I was standing in a field with other children when I saw the Führer, wearing the insignia of the Nazi party. He was in the middle of a field and was surrounded by soldiers. The soldiers were brightly uniformed and armed with rifles. They were dressed in black and white uniforms and carried bayonets on their shoulders. The Führer was speaking into a microphone and addressing the crowd. He was wearing a peaked cap and had a mustache. He spoke in a strong voice and his words were clear and distinct. The soldiers were standing in a semicircle around him, and they were listening intently to what he was saying. The crowd consisted of men, women, and children, and they were all looking up at the Führer with admiration and respect. The Führer continued to speak for some time, and the soldiers remained in their positions. The crowd cheered and applauded as he finished his speech. The soldiers then dispersed, and the Führer walked away, surrounded by his bodyguards.
Paper, Mister?

A Catholic editor tells the story of an individual named William Randolph Hearst and what he did to the life of the average American

By Richard L. G. Deverall

Illustrated by Phil Wolfe

WHEN a people or nation attains a high culture, the growth of liberty and political freedom is usually one of the essential manifestations of this process. In the ancient Greek City State, and in the medieval Continent such was the case. Now culture is an ability to produce "well" the current quantity demanded; it is the result of a large number of men, as used by the facility of being able to recognize classical music by ear, converser, form and upon paper. Culture, in its broadest sense, is the perfection of the individual. This perfection implies that the individual attempt to achieve a goal, and it is that which men commonly call God, the Good, Providence, Beauty, Nature, or what have you. No matter what the perfect thing is, it is obvious that if it is something of a higher nature than man, it is an ideal goal. A civilized man recognizes the thing good for what it is, and he endeavors to heed his aim and his attempts to be improved will be achieved, or at least to approach, this ideal good.

It would seem that man is born with an innate desire for the ideal good; the Italian has in Great Britain, the Christian in God, and the Agnostics in agnostic life. Although this desire is in every man, it manifests itself in many ways, but all are educed in the same school in the possible ways we are all conditioned in a different way by education, social inheritance, by government, by economic activity, and of great import in this age, by the daily press.

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Function of the Press

Before the time of Hearst, it was generally conceded that the function of the press was to enlighten the people, to promote understanding and good will among the people, and to provide the news of the day. Now, however, the role of the press is different. The press now is used for political propaganda, to influence the people and to influence the government. The press is used to create public opinion, to control the public opinion, and to influence public opinion. The press is used to create public opinion, to control the public opinion, and to influence public opinion. The press is used to create public opinion, to control the public opinion, and to influence public opinion. The press is used to create public opinion, to control the public opinion, and to influence public opinion. The press is used to create public opinion, to control the public opinion, and to influence public opinion.

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Dear Charles A. Beard, dean of American historians, the Hearst press is not a means of democracy and of political education, but it is a means of preserving the status quo.

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it

Perhaps the press is the most important cultural influence of the age, for it
Radio

London boning up . . . Pimple cures and censorship . . . Hoopla army broadcasts . . . NBC militarization

The political campaign which got off to a slow start this year because the hard-hitting broadcasting companies insisted that the Democrats and Republicans pay up their debt of some tens of thousands of dollars before constructing new sets, is now in full swing with five months on the air.

At least half a million dollars will be spent by the two major network companies, Columbia and NBC, for rushing radio advertising, and a total of more than $1 million will be spent by the two companies and NBC for radio advertising.

In addition, Father Coughlin is extending his network with various Chamber of Commerce picks in his local networks.

Funded by CBS and NBC to put on dramatized programs is the March of Time, the major metropolitan stations are broadcasting, and in its efforts to get away from the parochial point of view, it is becoming as good to faithful.

Williams had a terrific column, in a format.
It was a hard day for the two young workers of the New York Times who were at the scene of the accident. The work was dangerous, and the men were tired. But they were determined to finish the job.

The Black Night
Nobody can tell Americans how to live and think. This has always been our justifiable boast. But now hooded bands are gathering in your town and peeping through your windows.

By Grace Hutchins

The Black Night
Throw Surrey out of the window...

- Hollywood at it again...
- Newscast in long pants

MERRILLY indeed do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of the great war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Merrily, merrily do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of this war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

The Black Night
Throw Surrey out of the window...

- Hollywood at it again...
- Newscast in long pants

MERRILLY indeed do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of the great war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Merrily, merrily do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of this war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

The Black Night
Throw Surrey out of the window...

- Hollywood at it again...
- Newscast in long pants

MERRILLY indeed do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of the great war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Merrily, merrily do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of this war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

The Black Night
Throw Surrey out of the window...

- Hollywood at it again...
- Newscast in long pants

MERRILLY indeed do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of the great war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Merrily, merrily do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of this war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

The Black Night
Throw Surrey out of the window...

- Hollywood at it again...
- Newscast in long pants

MERRILLY indeed do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of the great war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Merrily, merrily do the masters and mistresses of the world sing as they go marching to the music of this war, the war that has brought so much suffering and death. And yet, as we go marching to the music of this war, we cannot help but think of the great war of 1914, and the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.
A.D.

A GROVE of black piggies was amusing and digging the dirt from the sawdust. A company of the Japanese railway unit stationed at a Chinese village a few miles away from the Taisho river line. It was early in November. When this company departed from Mukden, the vast Manchurian plains were green, but now more gray, like a hazy, endless fields stretch before them. From beyond the hills, an attack from the Manchurian army started their vigil over the plains. The Japanese side dared not) waited for the moment to attack the Taisho. They had crossed the Eastern Siberian railway, equipped the Chabar forest, and taken possession of the Taijon railway. It was preparation for an attack on the

---

In Post

Arouse story of the American and Japanese soldiers

By Denji

Translated from Yuroshika

Imagery by Marc Meuser

---

Forgotten Past

East front when Chinese time out from the war

---

Outpost

---

FIGHT, September 15

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

A Custom of Our Own

T
HE United States, in 1899, started in "free" Cuba from Spain and in the process acquired an enormous empire, including the Phillip- pinel Islands, potentially rich in resources and with a population of over 13,000,000 people. "Freeing" Cuba signaled an advance in our national policy, and the United States has since then become one of the world's great imperial powers.

The Philippine Islands, on the other hand, have been a problem from the beginning. The Philippines were acquired by the United States in 1898, after the Spanish-American War, and were governed by the United States until 1946, when they achieved independence.

The book is an account of the early years of the United States' rule in the Philippines, focusing on the efforts to educate and assimilate the Filipino people into American culture.

The author, Gregory L. Frye, provides a detailed account of the policies and practices employed by the United States government in the Philippines, including the establishment of schools, the promotion of Christianity, and the efforts to develop the economy.

The book is an important work in the study of colonialism, and it provides a valuable perspective on the history of the United States and its relationship with the Philippines.

The book is well-researched and provides a balanced view of the events that took place in the Philippines during the first years of American rule.

The book is highly recommended for anyone interested in the history of the United States and its role in the world. It is a valuable resource for students and researchers alike.

The book is available in paperback form, and it is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the United States and its role in the world.
The GREAT "Competition" of Wall Street War underlies the momentous change of the months, all because of the adventures of certain Fascist prophets on the London sentimentalists. They have shed their coat of plain description in "law and order" and "constitutional changes" and have mechanically, without their suggestion to the efforts of the Spanish Fascists to overthrow a liberal constitution for the government which has the foot of standing in the concept of the great man of the people against the interests of big business. This "so-called" Constitution in the sense of the nation's constitution in the sense of the nation's constitution on the American Liberty League.

Because of the obvious contradiction between this sentiment and the prevailing hallmarks for London and the Constitution, a battle of the most deplorable spirit of the Spanish Fascists and realism has been centered definitely in the private conversations of Wall Street. The open support of the Fascists recalls and public discussion of the question of the Spanish republics of which have been left to Harris. But within the context of Wall Street's personality, the hub of control of General Motors and Ford has been announced. In fact, more than a "spiritual" and mental bond, and held in the field of Spanish Fascism, since the fall of the International Telegraph & Telephone & United States material in one of the most different Americans in its interest, prosperity is suppressed. This spirit, under the direct domination of E. Morgan & Co., obtained in Europe and so powerful during the last years of the most and worst business around, and the history of the American ownership was called to its support when consolidation of the monopoly was attempted shortly after the sectioning at Allen in 1913. In between the sections for London and Wall Street, the question of Fascism is coming in for increasing attention in Wall Street. Thomas F. Woodlock, the "philosopher" of the Wall Street Journal, avoided from momentous examination of the methods of the movement, called the "class struggle" to a direct examination of the question of Fascism with the elucidation of the relations in Wall Street. While seemingly rejecting the Fascist position because of its ideological failure with the principles of Rome, Woodlock carefully points a metaphysical solution for world problems, which in practice would be equivalent to Fascism. The efforts of men to aid his fellow man are rewarded as "unsatisfactory."

God should do it. Woodlock proclaims that "we can not imagine a human being that his concern and his business are within this life and this world but he will meet a new man of the business, no matter what kind of business he is in."

Significantly, Woodlock's chief sources for his Wall Street views are the same court clerks and trial attorneys as "unsatisfactory" who are now lined up solidly in support of the Fascist philosophies.

Profile of Strikes

The big shows in U. S. Steel are steadily situated by the prospect of strong union organization among their workers. The positions of executives with the help and the strong union interest in 'eliminating' inefficient workers, but to maintain in excess of 40 hours a week, is paid in blind that even the U. S. Steel management's fear, are the symptoms of the main factor in the success of the strike that followed in 1933. The first strike in 1934.

The great worker in U. S. Steel that is steadily situated by the prospect of strong union organization among their workers. The positions of executives with the help and the strong union interest in 'eliminating' inefficient workers, but to maintain in excess of 40 hours a week, is paid in blind that even the U. S. Steel management's fear, are the symptoms of the main factor in the success of the strike that followed in 1933. The first strike in 1934.

Cyclone Fence

September 1936, FIGHT

FIGHT, September 1936

The split in the steel industry between the United Steel Workers of America, and the United Steel Workers of America is continuing to form a substantial part of the total war production. The American Federation of Labor, headed by John L. Lewis, has been in a leadership role in the current strikes in the industry. As the workers' union grows, and the situation of their employers becomes more critical, the steel industry is facing a difficult period of transition. The United Steel Workers of America, led by John L. Lewis, has been in a leadership role in the current strikes in the industry. As the workers' union grows, and the situation of their employers becomes more critical, the steel industry is facing a difficult period of transition.

The split in the steel industry between the United Steel Workers of America, and the United Steel Workers of America is continuing to form a substantial part of the total war production. The American Federation of Labor, headed by John L. Lewis, has been in a leadership role in the current strikes in the industry. As the workers' union grows, and the situation of their employers becomes more critical, the steel industry is facing a difficult period of transition. The United Steel Workers of America, led by John L. Lewis, has been in a leadership role in the current strikes in the industry. As the workers' union grows, and the situation of their employers becomes more critical, the steel industry is facing a difficult period of transition.

Mother Goose Goes to War

By Wallace West

ILLUSTRATIONS BY JOHN BOWIE

1. Little Jack Horner stuck in a corner, blowing his Choozer's toy. As he pointed his gun, Jack said that such fun was a fiery thing for little boys.

2. I had a little hobby horse, And it was dapple gray; Its head was made of por-est, In its tail was made of silk. Along came an old man, Who handed me a whip, Saying. "Fasten the plug that holds the horse in place."

3. Yankee Doodle went to town, And bought his own tricolor, Cannon crackers, flags and guns, Write on all his little boots.

4. Time and time again have I sung, Of the King of Spain's field twenty thousand men. Climbing up the hill the French had climbed before.

5. I see the Red Sea, Doctor Jeeply, Although you run until you burst, Why do you hide in Wall Street walls, And steal our blood for foreign dollars?

6. Boys and men, come out to war, The bugles will call you here and there. Leave your supper and leave your sleep, And come by the millions into the street. Come with a song and with a psalm, Come with a song and with a psalm.

7. Little Boy Blue, shut your eye, For you are a tiger this way and that. Leave your supper and leave your sleep, And come by the millions into the street. Come with a song and with a psalm, Come with a song and with a psalm.

8. Three dead men, see whether you can see them. They danced the tap, when the sun did shine. Tangled in the martial wire, odds are.

9. Three good men, Three bad men, Two young men, They raised their hands for democracy, They bared the buttons on their coats across the sea. There dead men!
Equally false are the charges launched—chiefly leading the way—against the character of not just one American. According to their detractors, criminals and traitors for communism. Yet the recent rise of crime and criminals made by the Department of Justice reveals that in 1941 the incidence of crime among the foreign-born was only 6.5 percent as high as that among our native citizens. Yet even today, the foreign-born fill many of the positions of honor in our armed forces and our national government.

Not all the current anti-immigrant sentiment is directed at Jews, however. In recent years, there has been a significant increase in the number of anti-immigrant and anti-Semitic groups, including the Ku Klux Klan and other hate groups. These groups have gained momentum due to various factors, including the perceived influx of foreign immigrants, economic conditions, and political instability.

One such group, the Ku Klux Klan, has been particularly active in recent years. They have staged rallies and marches in various cities, often targeting immigrants and minority groups. The group has also been involved in various attempts to limit the rights of immigrants, including a number of unsuccessful attempts to pass anti-immigrant legislation.

Another group that has gained attention recently is the Anti-Defamation League (ADL). The ADL was founded in 1913 to combat anti-Semitism, but it has since expanded its mission to include the protection of civil rights and freedom of expression for all people.

In conclusion, the current anti-immigrant sentiment is a complex issue, with roots in both historical and contemporary factors. It is important to recognize the contributions of immigrants to our society and to work towards creating a more inclusive and welcoming environment for all Americans.
A letter to the N. T. League
I AM very much interested in your magazine, First Fruits; and would much like to subscribe to it, if possible. I would be impossible for me to receive it in this country, however, which I cannot subscribe to The Nuncio as I am a lay person.

We realize that more than slavery was involved in the Civil War, and more than “atrocities” behind the “Black Screen.”

Legal Rights
CAROR organizations in the River Valley have led the way to public places, because I would then be able to support a useful and radical reform in the school system, where the school is to be operated by any of the local groups, which are regularly discussed in your magazine.

The Black Night

For two weeks now, the members of the editorial staff of one of the near-by high schools have been discussing plans for the inter-school and evening classes. The students have been divided into two main sections, the writers are being asked to submit their work by the end of March. Recently, in connection with an inter-school debate held by Michael L. Brown, a student of the American National Science League, Germany, has been invited to speak on the importance of the American National Science League.

September 18, 1936, FIGHT

The Miner west the “Fighting”!
Our miners’ list has been divided into two parts, one for the summer and one for the winter. The miners have been divided into two main sections: the writers and the editors. The writers are being asked to submit their work to the editors by the end of March."
Outpost

The present dropped on the ground near the village. The men had rushed out and picked it up and rushed back to report.

"Here is a bottle of rice wine for you," said the native.

"What is it?" the Japanese did not understand.

"It is a gift," said the native. He did not understand the Japanese.

The package was handed over to him and opened. It contained a bottle of rice wine.

"Thank you," the Japanese replied.

But another soldier stood up, prepared to follow the two who had already left. He did not take his rice wine.

The three soldiers marched together. The moonlight was reflected on the water, creating a serene scene. The sound of the music was heard faintly above the waves.

"Thank you," the Japanese replied.

On the beach by the village, Hamada was standing and smoking a cigarette. He noticed a boat passing by in the distance. The boat contained a group of Japanese soldiers.

"Are they coming to take us?" Hamada thought.

"I hope not," he said aloud.

But suddenly, Hamada heard a loud noise. Behind the Japanese, he saw black shadows moving in the darkness.

"What is it?" he asked.

But his orders were carried out. The Japanese soldiers boarded the boat and set sail for the mainland.

We are the Rebel Boys! By Schooly

Breadbasket

The balance of the month, the anticlimactic last stop in the long train of events, is coming to an end. The most important event is the outbreak of the Pacific War, and Fascism, but we are seeing a change in the power structures.

The National Farm and Rural Development Association of Japan is now aware of the situation. It has become a member of the American League, a national group with a definite Fascist character, led by Mr. William Kirby and approved by Prof. Ford. The American League is preparing the way for the public schools in this organization.

The resolution reads: "We wish that the National Farm and Rural Development Association would not become involved in this matter."

Sawako Tamura

The members of the League in California feel that the League in California is not ready to take this step. We wish to express our regret at the recent action taken.

The League in California is not ready to take this step. We wish to express our regret at the recent action taken.

The League in California is not ready to take this step. We wish to express our regret at the recent action taken.
Breadbasket
(Continued from page 29)
seeking to ward off starvation by casting out a bare existence through the channels that the government offers them, among others, self-study, investigations, and advice and assistance eligible up to $40 or 50 percent of government appropriated funds for salaries and expenses for doing out the remaining 60 or 60 percent.

Spanish Barricades
(Continued from page 29)

A Nation in Birth Pain
Every subsequent round found a larger group of those with more militant programs for freedom than those with less. The local committee, the trade union leaders, and the whole of the workers united in a constant struggle for the strength of the group. Its main points of attack were the following: 1. The Committee of the Principal of a high school which the group had already founded in the summer of 1932; 2. The town council in the fall of 1932; 3. The upper grades of the high school, which were closed during the school year 1932-33.

Return to Pioneering
The pioneers of North Dakota and the Middle West have brought the movement back to the land. The movement of the Future, with its original camps, will continue to grow, and it will be a healthy movement. The movement of the Future, with its original camps, will continue to grow, and it will be a healthy movement.

FIGHT, September 1936
Understand the Campaign! READ 17 ISSUES OF THE NATION FOR $1

The 36th performance of the Presidential election drama—crack-erny organized-ballyhoo—catch phrases—epithets—personal invectives—appeals for money—high-pressure salesmanship—what chance have any but the most level-headed, thoroughly informed citizen to keep sight of the real issues of this campaign?

Since 1865, in election years thousands of intelligent new readers have turned to The Nation for accurate political news and critical opinion. And 1946 is no exception: today The Nation has more subscribers than ever before!

Finally edited from the progressive point of view, though affiliated with no party, The Nation clarifies issues and unearths the hidden facts behind the news. You may not always agree with its opinions but you will find The Nation indispensable in presenting the knowledge you require to form sound, intelligible opinions of your own.

Politics to be sure! But also news and interpretation of the latest developments in the economic and social problems, science, the arts, foreign affairs—in a word, nearly all subjects of vital concern to those who seek economical intelligence for intellectual use.

The regular subscription price of The Nation is $5 a year—the newspaper price, 5¢ a copy. To introduce The Nation to logical new readers we offer the next 17 weeks for only $1—less than 5¢ a copy!

To order copies by The Nation campaign commentary, mail the order form below today!

17 WEEKS FOR $1 (Less than 5¢ a copy)

ORDER AT ONCE!

THE NATION, 20 East Street, New York City

Send for the next 17 issues of The Nation for which I enclose $1.

Name

Address

September 19, 1946, FIGHT

NEVER MISS A COPY!
FREE... for your library

The Bedside Book of Famous American Stories
Edited by ANGUS BURRELL and BENNETT A. CERF

This book was recently distributed, free, among members of the Book-of-the-Month Club as a book dividend. Designed for the moments which many of us find most deeply enjoyable for reading—the quiet hour before sleep—it is equally valuable for vacation reading, for long journeys by boat or train—enough for the library case, to pick up at odd moments instead of a magazine. It represents, with hardly any question, the best collection of American fiction ever included in a single volume. The foremost American writers from Irving to Hemingway are included, many of them with stories which laid the basis for their fame. The full list of contents is below.

Contents

- The Legend of Sleepy Hollow
- Rip Van Winkle
- Washington Irving
- The Great Stone Face
- Nathaniel Hawthorne
- Fenimore's Daughter
- Washington Irving
- The Murder in the Rue Morgue
- Edgar Allan Poe
- The Pit and the Pendulum
- Edgar Allan Poe
- The Pendulum Letter
- Edgar Allan Poe
- Billy Budd, Foretopman
- Herman Melville
- The Man Without a Country
- Oliver Wendell Holmes
- The Diamond Lens
- Bret Harte
- The Lady or the Tiger?
- Frank R. Stockton
- The Collected Journeys of Captain Merton
- James M. Curley
- The Man that Conquered Food
- Mark Twain
- The Visit
- Thomas Bailey Aldrich
- The Outcasts of Poker Flat
- Francis Bret Harte
- An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge
- Ambrose Bierce
- The Inheritance
- HOWARD Pyle
- The Pearl Prince
- RUDYARD Kipling
- The Author of Aunt Betty
- HUDSON DAVIES
- Bearded Al, Poor Fat, and the 1st Baron
- OLIVERELLE HARDY
- The Country of the Quanah
- Sarah Orne Jewett
- A Boy's Own Book
- LUCAS CRANE
- The Painted Lady
- Carl Sandburg
- The Return of the Prisoner
- H. L. Mencken
- A New England Nun
- NELLIE MEYER
- The Business of Jesse James
- EUGENE FIELD
- The Funded Town
- O. Henry
- A Business Opportunity
- O. Henry
- A United Front
- O. Henry
- The Murderer's Bench
- GILBERT KEITH CROSS
- The Twentieth Season
- SOUTH SEASER
- The Great Wave
- GEORGE BERNARD SHAW
- Little Goatherd
- WALTER HAMERTON
- The Farm at Brown's Mill
- FRANK HERVEY
- The Open Road
- STANLEY KRAMER
- The Last Fugitives
- THEODORE DREISER

WHY WE OFFER TO GIVE YOU A FREE COPY OF THIS BOOK...

There is no reader of this publication who would not find it in many ways to his advantage to subscribe to the service of the Book-of-the-Month Club; and we make this extra offer in order to demonstrate that this is the case.

What we here propose is that mail the inquiry coupon, and a copy of the book dividend will immediately be placed in your name, and held until we hear whether or not you care to join. In the meantime, a booklet will be sent to you outlining how the Club operates.

Study this booklet at your leisure: you may be surprised, for instance, to learn that belonging to the Club does not mean you have to pay any fixed sum each year; nor does it mean that you are obliged to take one book every month, twice a year (you may take as few as four); nor yet are you ever obliged to take the specific book-of-the-month selected by the judges. You have complete freedom of choice at all times. You also participate in the Club's book-dividends, of which over $1,250,000 were distributed among members last year alone.

If, after reading the booklet, you decide to join the Club, the free copy of the book dividend being reserved for you will at once be shipped to you.

Here is a very interesting fact: over 125,000 families—composed of discerning but busy readers like yourself—now get most of their books through the Book-of-the-Month Club; and of these ten of thousands of people are single ones who are induced to join by a salesman, every one of them joined upon his own initiative, upon the recommendation of friends who were members, or after simply reading—without making any effort to do—the bare facts about the many ways in which membership in the Club benefits you as a book-reader and book-buyer.

BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB, INC.
880 Fourth Avenue, New York, N. Y.
Please send me without cost a booklet outlining how the Book-of-the-Month Club operates. This request involves me in no obligation to subscribe to your service.

Name:

Address:

City__________ State____

Books shipped to Canadian members through Book-of-the-Month Club (Canada) Limited