State Now Blames Pinkertons

INdUSTRIAL WORKERS OF THE WORLD

Sneak Thief and Assassin Gets Religion

Call for Third Annual Convention

In pursuance of constitutional provisions, and in accordance with the decision of the convention of 1905, the Third Annual Convention of the Industrial Workers of the World will be held in the City of Chicago, beginning Monday, September 16th.

The hall in which the convention will assemble will be announced hereafter.

The General Secretary-Treasurer will, within the next two weeks, send each local union affiliated with the Industrial Workers of the World convention a copy of the delegates they are entitled to in the convention, based on the provisions of the constitution.

McPardell, who is not to be permitted to corrupt his convert, in the spirit of his confidence, even the "concession" that is put forth as proof that a "miracle" was wrought.

The following is the list of delegates to whom annual convention is called.

The express of delegates attending the convention will be borne by their respective local organizations.

Prepared arrangements to the convention shall be in the hands of General Secretary-Treasurer, to the official publication, at least six weeks before the meeting of the convention; no other arrangement to be made.

Full information concerning the delegate list, etc., will be published in a later issue of the Bulletin.

Signed:

E. F. O'CONNELL, Secretary-Treasurer.

The "Storks' Story Discredited"

Failing to induce Steve Adams to Conform to His Confession He Convinces the Saloonkeeper to Conform to the Condemnation of the State's Witnesses

Bruce, July 5.—The prosecution is now up against its last possible hope of evincing its case against Steve Adams, who, it is claimed, is the ringleader of a group of artisans who kidnapped and murdered the saloonkeeper, who turned state's evidence, who gave up the confession to the state's witnesses.

McPardell, who is the state's witness, gave the state's evidence to the authorities, who then proceeded to bring the case to trial, whereupon the jury convicted the defendant, who is now serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary.

Believe it or not, the state's evidence was not taken in the form of a sworn deposition, but was given by the defendant, who then testified to the facts as a matter of evidence, and the evidence was then submitted to the jury for consideration.

Believe it or not, the state's evidence was not taken in the form of a sworn deposition, but was given by the defendant, who then testified to the facts as a matter of evidence, and the evidence was then submitted to the jury for consideration.

The defense will be able to show, if it chooses to do so, that the state's evidence is not reliable, that it was given under duress, and that it was given as an inducement to the defendant to make a confession.

But the state's evidence was not taken in the form of a sworn deposition, but was given by the defendant, who then testified to the facts as a matter of evidence, and the evidence was then submitted to the jury for consideration.
WORLD TAKES NOTICE

One of the most arresting of recent developments in the French new generation. From the north to the south, the French have been bombarding the dumbfounded old world with a single message—"Give us a chance!" The spectre of the Dreyfus was seen as the nucleus around which the labor movement had been built. Wherever one looks, in Europe or America, the French are working for a chance to prove themselves. The labor movement in France is in no way a revolutionary force. It is not even a party. It is simply a movement for the recognition of the rights of labor.

The American Federation of Labor is preparing to make sure that the French labor movement gets a fair chance. The American Federation of Labor has been urging the French labor movement to take part in the movement for the recognition of the rights of labor.

View of an Objector

The American Federation of Labor is interested in the recognition of the rights of labor. The labor movement in France is in no way a revolutionary force. It is not even a party. It is simply a movement for the recognition of the rights of labor.

Llenni VIII. Concluded

The American Federation of Labor is interested in the recognition of the rights of labor. The labor movement in France is in no way a revolutionary force. It is not even a party. It is simply a movement for the recognition of the rights of labor.

WORKING CLASS ECONOMICS

Conducted by James P. Thayer

Llenni VIII. Concluded

The American Federation of Labor is interested in the recognition of the rights of labor. The labor movement in France is in no way a revolutionary force. It is not even a party. It is simply a movement for the recognition of the rights of labor.

The American Federation of Labor is interested in the recognition of the rights of labor. The labor movement in France is in no way a revolutionary force. It is not even a party. It is simply a movement for the recognition of the rights of labor.

THE INDUSTRIAL UNION BULLETIN

Published Weekly at 210 East Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Volume 5.

Number 26.

February 9, 1907.

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY.

SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 1907.

INDUSTRIAL UNION BULLETIN

Published Weekly at 210 East Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Volume 5.

Number 26.

February 9, 1907.

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY.

THE INDUSTRIAL UNION BULLETIN

Published Weekly at 210 East Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Volume 5.

Number 26.

February 9, 1907.

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY.
WILL THE MINER ALWAYS REMAIN A SLAVE?

Fellow Workers: A man styling himself a leader of labor, Mr. John L. Lewis, the head of the United Mine Workers of America, and many of the officials of this organization, in their statements to the press and in their broadcasts, have been making false and misleading statements to the people of this country that the United Mine Workers of America, by their new constitution, which was adopted in 1927, have renounced all claims to union security and have given up their right to picket. This statement is false and misleading, and the miners of the world should know the truth about it.

The truth is that the United Mine Workers of America have never renounced any claims to union security, and have never given up their right to picket. The new constitution of 1927 simply provided that the union would not use any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and that the union would not use any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.

The United Mine Workers of America have always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and have always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security. The union has always been opposed to any form of picketing or any form of boycott of any kind, and has always been opposed to any form of strike, unless the strike was called for the purpose of enforcing union security.
LOCAL EXECUTIVE BOARD

MINUTES OF THE LOCAL AD

VIOIR BOARD

JUNE 1, 1907

E. S. PAYMENT, D. STOIIE, F. F. LAVIN

President, Vice-President, and Secretary

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

J. J. White, a member of the Executive Board, reported that there were 1000 members in the organization.

The Secretary was instructed to secure the services of three new members: A. R. Hensley, S. M. Jones, and W. H. White.

The President and Secretary were authorized to make a trip to Washington, D.C., to confer with the Central Labor Union.

The Executive Board expressed their appreciation of the work of the Secretary.

THE UNION HANDBOOK

Published bi-monthly by The Industrial Union Bulletin

This manual contains information on union organization, union management, and union strategy. It is a valuable resource for anyone involved in union work.

THE PINKERTON LABOR SPY

This remarkable exposé unveils the operations of Pinkerton National Detective Agency, including their methods of surveillance and their role in labor disputes.

INDUSTRIAL UNION HANDBOOK

Published bi-monthly by The Industrial Union Bulletin

This manual contains information on union organization, union management, and union strategy. It is a valuable resource for anyone involved in union work.

INDUSTRIAL UNION HANDBOOK

Published bi-monthly by The Industrial Union Bulletin

This manual contains information on union organization, union management, and union strategy. It is a valuable resource for anyone involved in union work.

Price List of Supplies

- Charcoal, 50 cents
- Graphite, 25 cents
- Lead, 50 cents
- Pencils, 10 cents
- Paper, 25 cents
- Ink, 1 dollar
- Rubber cement, 50 cents
- Glue, 25 cents
- Binder clips, 5 cents
- Binder, 1 dollar

Local Union Assessment

10% of all local labor union fees and dues are to be assessed to the International Union as a contribution towards the cost of administration.

The financial condition of the Local Union is stable, with a current balance of $10,000 in reserve.

The president and vice-president are authorized to negotiate contracts with the management of the local factories.

The next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday of each month at 9 a.m. at the Union Hall.

The meeting adjourned.

J. J. White, Secretary

President, Vice-President, and Secretary

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

J. J. White, a member of the Executive Board, reported that there were 1000 members in the organization.

The Secretary was instructed to secure the services of three new members: A. R. Hensley, S. M. Jones, and W. H. White.

The President and Secretary were authorized to make a trip to Washington, D.C., to confer with the Central Labor Union.

The Executive Board expressed their appreciation of the work of the Secretary.

THE UNION HANDBOOK

Published bi-monthly by The Industrial Union Bulletin

This manual contains information on union organization, union management, and union strategy. It is a valuable resource for anyone involved in union work.

THE PINKERTON LABOR SPY

This remarkable exposé unveils the operations of Pinkerton National Detective Agency, including their methods of surveillance and their role in labor disputes.

INDUSTRIAL UNION HANDBOOK

Published bi-monthly by The Industrial Union Bulletin

This manual contains information on union organization, union management, and union strategy. It is a valuable resource for anyone involved in union work.

INDUSTRIAL UNION HANDBOOK

Published bi-monthly by The Industrial Union Bulletin

This manual contains information on union organization, union management, and union strategy. It is a valuable resource for anyone involved in union work.

Price List of Supplies

- Charcoal, 50 cents
- Graphite, 25 cents
- Lead, 50 cents
- Pencils, 10 cents
- Paper, 25 cents
- Ink, 1 dollar
- Rubber cement, 50 cents
- Glue, 25 cents
- Binder clips, 5 cents
- Binder, 1 dollar

Local Union Assessment

10% of all local labor union fees and dues are to be assessed to the International Union as a contribution towards the cost of administration.

The financial condition of the Local Union is stable, with a current balance of $10,000 in reserve.

The president and vice-president are authorized to negotiate contracts with the management of the local factories.

The next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday of each month at 9 a.m. at the Union Hall.

The meeting adjourned.

J. J. White, Secretary