Reactive Peace Proposal
And the Attitude of the Industrial Workers of the World

The Western Federation of Miners was organized into one of the leading sections of the I. W. W. and the most prominent union of industrial strikers in the world. The federation's militant attitude and the success of its campaigns were due largely to the influence of its members, who were drawn from the most industrialized sections of the United States. The federation's influence was felt throughout the country, and its members were among the most active and efficient organizers in the mining industry.

For Consideration of the Third Annual Convention

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS OF THE WORLD

The I. W. W. of the World

In pursuance of constitutional provisions, and in accordance with the decision of the convention of 1905, the Third Annual Convention of the Industrial Workers of the World will be held in the City of Chicago, beginning Monday, September 26th.

The call to the convention will be announced in the next two weeks, and the call will be affiliated with the Industrial Workers of the World as members of the national convention. The call will be made on the third week of September, and the call will be sent to all local unions and to all of the affiliated conventions.

Olive ORCHARD'S STORY EXPLAINED

The story of Olive Orchard, a worker in the textile industry, is representative of the conditions faced by workers in this important industry. The story demonstrates the need for union organization to fight for better wages, working conditions, and working hours.

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS OF THE WORLD

Amendments and Suggestions

LOCAL 28, WICHITA, KANS.

In the President and Vice-President's report, the I. W. W. of the World is commended for its work in organizing the workers of the city of Wichita. The report notes that the organization has made considerable progress in the city, and that it is now in a position to further its work by organizing the workers in the other cities of the state.

From Vancouver, B. C.

For some reason it has been impossible to obtain information about the I. W. W. of the World in the province of British Columbia. The organization is known to be active in the province, and it is hoped that information will be forthcoming soon.

Industrials Organized

The I. W. W. of the World is organized in the following industrial organizations:

1. Coal mining
2. Construction
3. Transportation
4. Manufacturing
5. Textile

The organization is also affiliated with the following national unions:

1. American Federation of Labor
2. Congress of Industrial Organizations

The I. W. W. of the World is working towards the goal of organizing all workers in all industries, and it is hoped that the organization will achieve this goal in the near future.
NOW LET US GET AFTER THE RAILWAY WORKERS

In short, probably in two weeks, we shall be in a position to carry out our plans. We cannot wait any longer. We have every reason to believe that W. D. Howard, the new president of the railway workers, will be sympathetic to our work and will try to cooperate with us. We believe that the railway workers will soon be able to work for us. We shall be able to make a strong show in this important field.

Help the Propaganda

Every member of the Local should be prepared to help us in our work. We need a large number of members to help us. We need a large number of workers to help us. To Whom It May Concern

March 13, 1907

Dear Sir,

I am writing to you in order to inquire as to whether you are willing to work with us in the present situation. We need your support and your help in order to carry out our plans.

Yours sincerely,

The Past, Present and Future of the Brewery Workers—Whither Are You Drifting?

Iowa City, Iowa—(Wire) — The General Strike, which began in Iowa City on June 2, has now reached a point where it is evident that the strike will be prolonged. The strike is a result of the action of the brewery workers, who are demanding higher wages and better working conditions. The workers have been on strike for ten days, and it is estimated that the strike will continue for another two weeks.

Political Action Must Not Be Disorderly

I have read a recent communication in the Industrial Union Bulletin which states that the political action of the brewery workers is disorderly. I believe this is not true. The workers are demanding better working conditions, and it is only natural that they should express their dissatisfaction in a political action. The workers are not disorderly, but are simply demanding better wages and working conditions.

DIPLOMACY OR A TRAP?

Read this and come to your own conclusion. The I.W.W. has already been in existence for over a year, and during that time has achieved a great deal. It has done a great deal for the workers, and it has done it without any disorderly action. The workers have been in a constant struggle, and they have been fighting for better wages and working conditions. The workers have been fighting for their rights, and they have been fighting with all their might.

RUOMANIAN WORKERS’ RESPONSE

On the occasion of General Secretary of the National Union of Workers of the Iron and Steel Industry, Mr. V. I. L., the Romanian Workers’ Union has extended its congratulations to the workers of the United States. The Romanian Workers’ Union has always been in close contact with the workers of the United States, and it has always been interested in the welfare of the workers.

LEARN WHAT IT IS

To know what Industrial Union Bulletin is, read the following article which is a summary of the present status of the I.W.W. in the United States.

The Industrial Workers of the World has been in existence for over a year, and during that time it has achieved a great deal. It has done a great deal for the workers, and it has done it without any disorderly action. The workers have been in a constant struggle, and they have been fighting for better wages and working conditions. The workers have been fighting for their rights, and they have been fighting with all their might.

NEW BUTTON FOR I.W.W.

The new button for the I.W.W. is now available. It is a red button with the letters “I.W.W.” on it. It is a symbol of the I.W.W., and it is a symbol of the workers. The workers are fighting for their rights, and they are fighting for better wages and working conditions. The workers are fighting for their rights, and they are fighting with all their might.

The working class and the employing class have nothing in common.

There can be no peace so long as hunger and want are found among millions of the people. No industrial system whatever can make a nation great which depend for its prosperity on constant revolution and agitation among its working classes. The working class and the employing class have nothing in common.

The employing class have no guarantee against the power of the working class. This can be done only by abolishing private property altogether.

Our Constitution is Spanish

This remarkable reverse of the usual work of Pinkertons in labor organizations by Amado vita and his associates recently changed the real "inner circle" and the "outside" into a genuine gentlemen's club. It was based on a letter to a prominent industrial union leader in this city, which states that the organization is "well known in the labor world" and that it will be
