Testifies in His Own Behalf

Haywood on the Witness Stand Undergoes Searching Examination—Cross-Questioning by State's Attorneys Fails to Shake His Testimony

(The special correspondent to The Bulletin)

Boise, Idaho, July 11—Today's hearing of Haywood and his associates with the management of the State of Idaho, over the same charges of conspiracy to incite disturbances and recover damages, was the most severe and drastic test of the defendant's evidence in his own defense that has ever been given. In the large audience, including a number of the members of the Idaho legislature, the defendant was met with extreme pressure, and he was subjected to a searching cross-examination that lasted for about two hours.

Haywood was questioned by the State's attorneys on various matters, including his alleged support of the Industrial Workers of the World and his association with revolutionary elements. He was also asked about his views on the constitution and the legal system, and his response was fiercely critical.

His denial of being a member of the IWW and of advocating the overthrow of the government was vigorously denied by the State's attorneys. The defendant was also asked if he had ever been a member of any secret society, but he denied ever being a member of any secret society.

Despite the intense cross-examination, Haywood remained firm in his declarations and his answers were fully supported by evidence presented by himself and his associates. The hearing is expected to continue tomorrow.

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS OF THE WORLD

Call for Third Annual Convention

In pursuance of constitutional provisions, and in accordance with the decision of the convention of 1907, the Third Annual Convention of the Industrial Workers of the World will be held in the City of Chicago, beginning Monday, December 10th.

The hall in which the convention will assemble will be announced hereafter.

The General Secretary-Treasurer, will, within the next two weeks, send to each local union affiliated with the Industrial Workers of the World a notice of the time and place of the convention. The notice will serve as a notice of the annual dues to be paid by each member to the union.

Immediately upon receipt of the notice from the local unions their delegates will be charged with the duty of attending the national convention. The notice will also serve as a notice of the annual dues to be paid by each member to the union.

Two or more local unions in the same locality may jointly send a delegation to the convention, and the same of said delegations shall be in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

The officers of the convention must be elected by the respective local organizations.

Proposed amendments to the constitution shall be in the hands of the General Secretary at the time of publication. The amendments shall be in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

For additional provisions of the constitution relating to delegates and representatives, see the constitution.

Signed, Chan Draper, General Secretary.

That Fake Convention

Thrilling Story of the First, Last and Only Convention of the Rump Faction, Beginning and Going Through to the End

(Special day to the Daily People, New York)

Chicago, July 5—The first annual convention of the Convention of the Rump Faction, held in Chicago, June 30th, was a complete and utter failure. The delegates, 15 in number, all members of the faction, met in the Masonic Temple, but only 14 were present, and of these, only 13 voted. The meeting was called to order by Mr. A. B. Scott, chairman of the convention and secretary of the Rump Faction. The meeting was adjourned without any business being transacted.

The delegates, who were all members of the faction, were-split into two groups, one group favoring the convention and the other opposed to it. The group favoring the convention was led by Mr. A. B. Scott, who was elected as secretary.

The group opposed to the convention was led by Mr. W. J. H. Hamilton, who was elected as chairman. The group opposed to the convention was split into two groups, one group favoring the convention and the other opposed to it. The group favoring the convention was led by Mr. J. H. H. Hamilton, who was elected as secretary.

Slavery in Rhode Island

Theodore Roosevelt, April 30, 1907

This strike is being carried on in a spirit and a manner that is not only unjustified, but is almost criminal. The labor movement in this country is being corrupted by the power of the rich and the government is being corrupted by the power of the poor.

Hamilton Joins Ananias Club

The Ananias Club is a social club for members of the I.W.W., and it has a large membership. The club is very popular among the workers, and it is growing in popularity every day.

Don't Fail to Hear Him

The IWW is not a revolutionary organization. It is a workers' union, and it aims to organize all workers into a single, powerful union that will fight for their rights and will fight for their lives.

Working Class Economics

Economics is the study of the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services. It is a branch of sociology that deals with the social organization of production.

Canadian Aliens Strike

Canadian aliens are striking against the government of Canada and the labor movement in Canada. They are demanding equal rights and equal treatment.

Prof. Munsterberg, Humbugologist

Base, June 4, 1907—Professor Hugo Munsterberg, the Harvard psychologist who wrote "The Problem of Pain," the controversial book published last fall, when he was at the University, was attested to by friends as a very personable man, but one who was not particularly sickly or nervous.
A very few weeks ago he was said to be very ill, but it was not known whether he was really sick or not. His health was generally believed to be very good.

Edward S. Keppel, a former student of Professor Munsterberg, and now a prominent psychologist, said that he had never seen him in the sick-room, but that he was always very pleasant and cheerful.

Munsterberg was born in Germany, but he had lived in the United States for a number of years.

He had written many books on psychology, but he was best known for his work on "The Problem of Pain," which was published last fall.

The book created a great deal of stir, and was the subject of much distinction and controversy. Prof. Munsterberg was a very able writer, and his books were always well received.

He was a very popular teacher, and his lectures were always crowded. He was a very good lecturer, and his lectures were always well received.
