Proceedings of the Third Annual Convention.

The Convention Report

The news of the Bulletin contains the regular convention report for the year 1907. On Tuesday, September 17, it was announced that the delegates from the United States appeared on the floor, and the interesting discussion was printed in full.

On the following evening (Wednesday), the big debate on the preamble came up, and appears in the regular convention report. It was printed in full, while the convention lasts.

The Convention report is reduced to 10 copies, equal to the number of delegates. The General Committee has nearly completed the report. Order now, and get this valuable report that is in the hands of members and friends.

The report of the Convention is perfectly systematic and the history of the labor movement is the record of the proceedings, and the title of the convention, is greater than the others.

The week of the Convention is without question, the most important event of the year. The preamble reading and the proceedings of the Convention are greater than the others.
