"THE PLUM PROLIFERATION"

Immediately after the second I. W. W. convention the season's plum crops were attacked by "plum whooper"--the "plum whooper"--the "plum whooper"

The "plum proliferator" does not always "fix the fruit". He may not be a "plum whooper"

RESOLUTION ON PRESTON AND SMITH AFFAIR (Adopted by the Fourth Annual Convention of the I. W. W.)

The working class and the employing class have nothing in common. There can be no peace so long as hunger and poverty are found among millions and the employed are at the mercy of the employing class. Between these two classes a struggle must go on until the working class is strong enough to defeat the employing class. This struggle must be a class war. It must be made explicit. Those who defend the employing class and try to pacify the working class will not succeed. The working class must understand the necessity of a revolution. The Employing Class.
