CAPITALISTS IN CONTROL

GERMAN SYNDICALISM

The German Syndicalists have been gaining ground in recent years, particularly in the industrial centers of the country. They have been spreading their influence not only among the workers, but also among the middle classes. The German Syndicalists believe in the complete overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a new social order based on the principles of equal opportunity and social justice.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

IMPORTANT TO READERS OF THE BULLETIN.

FELLOW WORKERS:

You all realize the utmost importance of the Bulletin to the organization.

It is the means of communication between the members of the organization.

It is the one and only avenue of publicity that the organization possesses. All of you must have realized the effort it has cost to maintain the Bulletin, and any reader of the Bulletin must have realized the value of the Bulletin to the organization.

We know that many of you are unable to purchase the Bulletin, and we do not expect you to do so, as we believe that it is the duty of all members of the organization to subscribe to the Bulletin.

We are seeking to increase the circulation of the Bulletin, so that it may reach as many members as possible. We believe that the Bulletin is the best means we have of informing our members of the activities of the organization and of keeping them informed of the latest news.

We hope that you will continue to subscribe to the Bulletin, and that you will encourage your friends to do likewise.

Yours truly,

SPECIAL AGITATION FOR A SHORTER WORK DAY.

The last issue of the Bulletin contained articles from several fellow workers touching upon the "problem of the unemployed," and this month, we reprinted an article by Elwood D. Brown, a union leader, showing that the problem of the unemployed is not just a problem of the unemployed themselves, but is a problem of the entire society.

The Bulletin also contained an article by W. E. B. Du Bois, a prominent African American leader, who wrote about the need for equal rights for all people, regardless of race.

We are grateful to our fellow workers for their contributions, and we look forward to more articles in the future.

INTERNATIONALISM AT THE MENTAL HEALTH CENTER (From the "Internationalist," London, England.)

After the recent dream of Wallace Stevens, the American poet, that the world was going to be ruled by the imagination, the British poet, W. H. Auden, wrote a poem about the "world that was to be," which included the line:

"The world that was to be, the world that never was, the world that exists, the world that we imagine, the world that is, the world that will be." Auden's poem is a reflection on the future of humanity, and it reminds us that we must work together to build a better world.

The Bulletin is proud to publish Auden's poem in its entirety.

THE EVER INCREASING COMPETITION IN THE LABOR MARKET.

In this and industrial organization is requisite, and as pointed out by Fellow Worker Ninemose, special attention by the I. W. W. for a short time ago. "Even a few employers," he said, "will now understand the necessity of an economic organization not only powerful enough to "fight the every battle," but also to "carry on production when capital shall have been exhausted." The Bulletin assumes that the employers' association of employers must be dissolved in order to make possible a concrete proposal that cannot fail to appeal to the working class.

APPEAL TO WORKERS.

MEN AND WOMEN:

E. S. Holmes, Chicago.

The subject of this appeal is an important one. As you are aware, the American Federation of Labor is now seeking to reach the laboring masses through a new organization, the American Federation of Labor. We are writing to ask for your support in this endeavor.

The American Federation of Labor represents a large number of unions, and we believe that it is in the best interest of the working class to support this organization.

We encourage you to join the American Federation of Labor and to support its efforts to reach the laboring masses.

Yours truly,
