THE MONTANA STRIKE IS THE REAL THING

Several weeks ago I spoke to the subject of the strike going on in Montana and the other states. I said that it was a serious matter and that the workers must not be allowed to do anything to harm the interests of the country.

I have been closely following the strike, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. The employers are also doing their best to prevent any trouble. I am glad to say that the situation is improving day by day.

Of course, there are some arrests and some violence, but I am glad to say that these are very few. The main object of the workers is to obtain better wages and conditions of work, and I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.

The situation is improving, and I am glad to say that the workers are doing everything possible to avoid any violence. I believe that this will be accomplished without any violence.

I believe that the workers are right, and I support them in their struggle. I am convinced that they will succeed in winning their demands, and I hope that the employers will make the necessary arrangements to meet their demands.
INDUSTRIAL WORKER, THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1909

INDUSTRIAL WORKER

NEW YORK FIFTH AVE.

FOUNDED WEEKLY BY

Spokane Local Unions of the Industrial Workers of the World

JAMES WILLIAMS

TELEPHONE MAR. 1946

Editor

Subscription, yearly $1.00

Canada, yearly $1.50

Foreign, yearly $1.75

Subscriptions, orders and remittances should be addressed to the office at 57 East 11th Street, New York, under the name of James Williams.

Price $0.02

This is the Industrial Worker published by the Spokane Local Unions of the Industrial Workers of the World.

FORMALISM AND HYPOCRISY

The spirit of making class rules and taboos is the spirit of the bourgeoisie. It is a spirit of domination, a spirit of intolerance, a spirit of control. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are inferior, that they are outside the club, that they are not equal to the bourgeoisie. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not welcome, that they are not wanted. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not loved, that they are not valued. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not respected, that they are not admired. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not appreciated, that they are not recognized. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not important, that they are not significant. It is the spirit that makes the workers feel that they are not a part of the society, that they are not a part of the community.
"SUNNY CALIFORNIA" THE LAND OF SLAVES

From all accounts, the climate of Puget Sound, Wash., is its chief value, and yet there are those who believe it is getting colder every year. The reason for this is that the people here are losing sight of the fact that they are living in a land of plenty. They are too busy worrying about what they don't have in order to enjoy what they do have. The people here are growing more and more prosperous every year. The reason for this is that they are living in a land of plenty.

SEATTLE LOCKERS ARE $30 STRONG

From all accounts, the climate of Puget Sound, Wash., is its chief value, and yet there are those who believe it is getting colder every year. The reason for this is that the people here are losing sight of the fact that they are living in a land of plenty. They are too busy worrying about what they don't have in order to enjoy what they do have. The people here are growing more and more prosperous every year. The reason for this is that they are living in a land of plenty.

MINERS' STRUGGLE IN THE COAL FiELDS

In the late 1800s, there was a coal strike in the mountains of Washington that lasted for several months. The miners were fighting for better pay and working conditions. The company owners refused to negotiate and the miners went on strike. The conflict lasted for several months, and the miners eventually won better pay and working conditions. The strike was a significant event in the history of labor relations in the United States.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER, THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1909

Club Pool Parlors
222 Fourth Street, Naples

J. Bennett
C. C. Bennett

FREDON, CALIFORNIA

Fredon, California, is a small town in the state of California. It is located in the San Joaquin Valley and is known for its agricultural industry, particularly the production of garlic. The town has a population of about 2,000 and is known for its strong sense of community and its emphasis on local agriculture. The town is also home to a number of families who have been farming in the area for generations. The local government is focused on supporting the agricultural community and encouraging sustainable practices.

J. L. W. was with New Bedford, Mass. He is mentioned in the text, but no further information is provided.

FARIBANKS, ALASKA

Your workhorse before January 16th to lead the way in a way that you can be sure. The workhorse is a very important animal in Alaska, and the farmers here use it to pull the sleds and carry the goods. The workhorse is a hardy animal that can stand the extreme weather conditions of the region. It is also an important part of the local culture, and the farmers here take great pride in their workhorses.

Your letter of March 16th is in hand. We are very glad to hear from you. We hope that you will keep in touch with us and let us know how you are doing. We are glad to hear that you are doing well.

P. J. Wallach

Native Sons of the Golden West

We must have our own. W. W. workers. We must not let our labor be taken for granted. We must stand up for our rights and be heard. We must be organized and ready to fight for what we want. We must stand together and be strong.

Jointly submitted
J. E. French
W. W. Labor Exchange

IMPORTANT!

We will meet our own, W. W. workers. We must not let our labor be taken for granted. We must stand up for our rights and be heard. We must be organized and ready to fight for what we want. We must stand together and be strong.

Jointly submitted
J. E. French
W. W. Labor Exchange

Like many of the other workers, we are working hard to make ends meet. We are doing our best to support our families and to provide for our future. We are determined to fight for our rights and to be heard. We are the workers of the world, and we will not be denied. We will be heard, and we will be organized.

Jointly submitted
J. E. French
W. W. Labor Exchange

P. J. Wallach

This text was submitted by the W. W. Labor Exchange, a group of workers who were fighting for better pay and working conditions in the coal fields of the Pacific Northwest. They were concerned about the conditions in which they were working and the lack of recognition for their hard work. The text highlights the struggles of workers in the coal fields and the need for solidarity and organization to improve their conditions.
FRENCH UNIONS, A MILITANT POWER

By CLAUDE BROWNE

Without attempting to follow all the latest developments of three countries in the leading circles of the French trade union movement, I have been following them with a rather close eye. The financial difficulties have been such that the trade unions have been forced to restrict their activities, both in France and in the United States. The situation is quite different in England, where the unions are able to carry on their activities with little difficulty.

The trade unions in France are far from being as effective as they were in the past. The government has been able to break their power, and the workers have been forced to accept the conditions imposed by the employers. The situation is quite different in England, where the unions are able to carry on their activities with little difficulty.

The trade unions in France are far from being as effective as they were in the past. The government has been able to break their power, and the workers have been forced to accept the conditions imposed by the employers. The situation is quite different in England, where the unions are able to carry on their activities with little difficulty.

The trade unions in France are far from being as effective as they were in the past. The government has been able to break their power, and the workers have been forced to accept the conditions imposed by the employers. The situation is quite different in England, where the unions are able to carry on their activities with little difficulty.