INDUSTRIAL WORKER

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1909

One Dollar a Year

No. 15

FREE SPEECH FIGHT
IN VANCOUVER, B. C.

The fight for free speech conducted by the socialist candidates in Vancouver has received wide publicity in Canada. The movement for freedom of speech was first started in the city and has spread to other parts of the country. The candidates for the socialist party are striving to secure the release of all political prisoners, and to promote the principles of free speech. The socialist candidates are also advocating the establishment of labor unions, and the protection of the workers in industrial enterprises.

THE CLASS STRUGGLE IN SLEEPY PORTLAND

by H. J. PINE.

Portland, or., is to be found in any way whatsoever. Sara, the queen of the Pacific Northwest, was mentioned in the sale of the Portland Union. A group of black women was sent out to meet the train and was received with cheers. The women were welcomed and addressed by the chairman of the Portland Trade Union. The women were given a free pass and were told to report back to the committee.

A JUNGLE NOTE.

In the jungles of Mexico, among the Indians, where the negroes and whites meet, we have enjoyed some of the most interesting experiences. The Indians are the most interesting people in the American continent, and the negroes are the most interesting people in the world. The negroes are the most interesting people in the world. The negroes are the most interesting people in the world.

WE STICK LIKE GLUE.

The Palace Theatre, Seattle, Wash., has been the center of attention during the recent strike of the Pullman porters. The Pullman porters have been on strike for several weeks, and the employers have refused to settle the dispute. The strikers have been supported by a large number of people, and the employers have been forced to yield to the demands of the strikers. The strike has been a great success, and the Pullman porters have been able to obtain a satisfactory settlement of their demands.
SINGS OF CHANGE

We must be realistic on this matter on its importance. The demand for increased wages is not one that can be satisfied without a struggle. The working class is being exploited by the capitalist class, and the struggle for better wages and working conditions is a necessary part of the class struggle. We need to organize and educate the working class to fight for their rights. Only through collective action can we achieve our goals. The employers are determined to maintain their profits and will not easily give in to demands for increased wages. They will use all means at their disposal to prevent any strike or other form of direct action. However, we cannot be deterred. We must continue our struggle until we achieve our goals.

Preston and Smith Still in Prison

As mentioned in the last edition of our newspaper, the two striking workers, Preston and Smith, are still in prison. They were arrested on charges of helping to organize and lead the workers' strike. The workers are demanding better wages and working conditions, and the employers are determined to maintain their profits. The strike has caused a lot of disruption and has affected many people. The workers are determined to continue their struggle until they achieve their goals. The employers are determined to maintain their profits and will not easily give in to demands for increased wages. They will use all means at their disposal to prevent any strike or other form of direct action. However, we cannot be deterred. We must continue our struggle until we achieve our goals.

The Unemployed and the I.W.W.

The unemployed workers have organized into the Industrial Workers of the World (I.W.W.). The I.W.W. is a revolutionary labor union that seeks to organize all workers and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The unemployed workers have decided to join the I.W.W. and fight for their rights. The I.W.W. is a militant union that is not afraid to challenge the power of the employers. The unemployed workers are determined to continue their struggle until they achieve their goals. The employers are determined to maintain their profits and will not easily give in to demands for increased wages. They will use all means at their disposal to prevent any strike or other form of direct action. However, we cannot be deterred. We must continue our struggle until we achieve our goals.

What There is in It

There is a lot in it. All movements have some sort of a goal. This goal is often difficult to achieve, but if we work together, we can achieve it. The goal of the unemployed workers is to organize and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The goal of the I.W.W. is to organize all workers and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The goal of the workers is to organize and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The goal of the employers is to maintain their profits. The goal of the unemployed workers is to organize and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The goal of the I.W.W. is to organize all workers and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The goal of the workers is to organize and demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The goal of the employers is to maintain their profits.
TEXTILE WORKERS JOINING THE I. W. W.

There is no end to the number of textile workers joining the Industrial Workers of the World. The recent wave of strikes has brought in hundreds of new members who are now busy organizing their classes for the coming struggle.

We are proud to announce that we have now over one thousand members in our ranks. This is a credit to all of us and a source of pride. It is a sign that we are becoming stronger every day.

The I. W. W. is not only a workers' organization, but it is also a union that fights for the rights of all workers. We are fighting for higher wages, shorter hours, and better working conditions.

We are not afraid of our enemies. We know that they will do everything in their power to stop us. But we are determined to stick to our work and carry it on.

We invite all workers to join us and help us in our fight for freedom. Let us all work together for the betterment of our class.

Western Federation

AND R.U.J. I.N. I. N.

In every production line where labor has been exploited, we have been successful in organizing the workers. We have already formed a number of strong locals in this line, and we are working on the development of others.

The I. W. W. is not only a union, but it is also a movement. We are fighting for the rights of all workers, and we are not afraid of our enemies.

We are determined to stick to our work and carry it on. We invite all workers to join us and help us in our fight for freedom. Let us all work together for the betterment of our class.

Industrial Worker

Thursday, June 24, 1909

SUNNY CALIFORNIA IS A SLAVE STATE

In the state of California, the people are slave. The state is ruled by a small group of rich men who control the government and the economy. They are the masters, and the working class is their slaves.

We must act to free ourselves from this oppression. We must organize and fight for our rights.

We invite all workers to join us in our struggle. Let us all work together for the betterment of our class.

Western Federation

AND R.U.J. I.N. I. N.
INDUSTRIAL UNION

"DELIVERS THE GOODS"

The W. W. W. is "delivering the goods." This is the big news for the laborer who is using the Industrial Union as his weapon in the struggle for wages. The union is making a fight for higher wages and better working conditions. They are enforcing their demands, and the result is a higher standard of living for the workers. The union is also working for the elimination of child labor and the improvement of working conditions in the various industries. They are taking steps to ensure that the workers are treated fairly and equitably. The union is committed to the improvement of the working class and is working hard to make sure that every worker is treated with dignity and respect. They are fighting for the rights of the workers, and they are not afraid to speak out against the injustices that they see. The union is a powerful force for change, and it is making a difference in the lives of the workers. They are creating a better future for the working class, and they are making sure that every worker has a voice in the decisions that affect their lives. They are working to ensure that every worker is treated with dignity and respect, and they are not afraid to stand up for what is right. The union is a powerful force for change, and it is making a difference in the lives of the workers. They are creating a better future for the working class, and they are making sure that every worker has a voice in the decisions that affect their lives. They are working to ensure that every worker is treated with dignity and respect, and they are not afraid to stand up for what is right.