WEEK'S EVENTS AT THE SEAT OF WAR

The Masters Do Not Want the Workers to Organize Industrially.

ANOTHER CALL FOR LOGGERS TO ORGANIZE

The Industrial Workers have already issued this message to the loggers, that the federated leaders will be convening at the next week in order to organize the workers. We are notified that the employers are making every effort to prevent the workers from organizing, but we are not discouraged.

SHINGLEMAVERS MUST ORGANIZE INDUSTRIALLY

The masters of the workers are trying to stop them. The workers are well aware of the fact that the masters are not willing to recognize the workers as members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. However, the workers are determined to organize.

The call for the loggers to organize has been issued. The workers must not be discouraged, but must continue to organize.

Our Fellow Workers, Preston and Smith, Are Still In Jail

The Industrial Worker is a weekly newspaper published in New York City. The following is an article from the February 12, 1910, issue, which discusses the case of two labor leaders, Preston and Smith, who were arrested for speaking in favor of free speech.

The Industrial Worker is the official organ of the United States Industrial Workers of the World (IWW). The IWW was a radical labor union that existed from 1901 to 1927, and was known for its advocacy of direct action and syndicalism. The IWW had a strong presence in the United States and was involved in many labor conflicts, including the Homestead Strike of 1892 and the Pullman Strike of 1894.

The article from the Industrial Worker discusses the case of Preston and Smith, who were arrested for speaking in favor of free speech. The IWW was known for its support of free speech and its opposition to government censorship.

LETTER ADDRESSED TO GOVERNOR HAY

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 1, 1912.

Governor W. H. Hay,

I have been writing to get some indication of your views on the situation in Ohio. The police and a few of the other labor leaders at the state capital have been expressing a very grave opinion that you were determined to use the force of the law to suppress the movement that is going on there. They say that you have taken sides with the capitalist class in that state and that your attitude is that of a stern opponent to the people. For these reasons I feel we have the right to come to you for assurance that you will not permit the use of force to suppress the movement.

I have been told that the spirit of the people of the United States is with them. That is to say, the people of the United States are in sympathy with the movement in Ohio. I would like to have you to express your opinion on this question.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1912

NOTES OF THE COAL MINERS CONVENTION

1. The industrial movement now exists with definite social purpose in the United States, is growing both in numbers and influence. It is moving in the right direction.

2. The aim of the movement is to bring about a more just and equitable distribution of wealth. It is working towards the abolition of the class system and the establishment of a democratic society.

3. The movement is gaining support from a wide range of social and political organizations, including labor unions and political parties.

4. The movement is facing opposition from the ruling class, who fear that it will undermine their position of power.

5. The movement is moving towards a more radical agenda, including the nationalization of the means of production.

FIGHTERS ON THE ROAD TO SPEKANE

Chiefed from Leac Wood.

Leab Wood left on January 14 at 5:30 a.m. Addressed to all our friends, workers and workers, we ask you to lend a hand to this movement.

The Catholic Conference of Spokane, Wash., has issued a circular to all Catholic organizations, asking them to lend a hand to the movement and to send their representatives to the meeting.

On Thursday, January 19, addressing the gathering at the meeting in Spokane, Mr. John G. Clark, a prominent labor leader, said: "The movement is a vital one, and it is of the utmost importance that we should all lend a hand to it." He went on to say that the movement was not only important for the working class, but for the whole community, and that it was necessary to maintain the struggle.

Mr. Clark concluded by saying: "I urge all of you to lend a hand to this movement, and to do all in your power to support it."
