The Working Class And Industrial Employing Have Nothing in Common.

PROSPERITY—WILL IT COME YOUR WAY?

Authoritative statement appears in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, following the address of the national manufacturer, who claims that the vast majority of the working class is being exploited and marginalized. The report highlights the disparities in income and employment opportunities across various sectors, emphasizing the need for collective action to address these issues. Readers are encouraged to engage with the content and consider the implications for their own lives.
INDUSTRIAL WORKER, SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1918.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT THE Headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the OF THE WORLD.

Our Fellow Workers, Preston and Smith Are Still In Jail.

WE WOULD LIKE TO BALANCE.

By Warren C. Bendl.

In the two following paragraphs we are going to attempt to be as straight forward in our writing as we can and we hope to find some fellow who can read between the lines and see how it is coming out.

The question is, "When is the time a man should take up the struggle?" The answer is, "Never".

The question is, "How many are there in the world who believe in the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the nature of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "Who will win the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the object of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the purpose of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the result of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the end of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the object of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the purpose of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the result of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the end of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the object of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the purpose of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the result of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the end of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the object of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the purpose of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the result of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the end of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the object of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the purpose of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the result of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."

The question is, "What is the end of the struggle?" The answer is, "None."
INDUSTRIAL WORKER, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1915

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

Industrial Worker

Exchanged for $___ for which send me The Industrial Worker for __ year, __ month(s), at the following address:

Name

Street

City

W. W. HEADQUARTERS

120 WEST FRONT STREET

We feel more workingmen than any place in town.

Our "COFFEE AND" IS KNOWN

117 FRONT AVENUE

TO HELP US GROW

FOUR SUB CARDS FOR THREE DOLLARS

If you are interested in spreading the propoganda of Industrial Unionism, and wish to see The Industrial Worker grow, purchase four yearly subscriptions for three dollars. If you are not a subscriber, send three of the cards at a dollar apiece, and you will have your own subscription free.

WE MUST HAVE THE SUBS

LEND US A HAND

Wash the yellow label on your paper. It will mark your subscription. When the number on the label is used up, put a new one on the label and send it in. This will enable us to know how many are paid up. The number on the label is the number of the issue you have paid for. The subscription is good for 12 months from this date. Remember, this publication is the organ of the workingmen, and depends upon the workingmen's subscription for its support. Without subscriptions, it cannot exist. The money goes to pay the writer and printer. The more subscriptions we have, the more paper we can buy and the more we can do. It is your duty to make the others see that this publication is the best thing on earth for workingmen. Watch this paper and you will see the change that is coming.