NEWSY NOTES FROM NEW ENGLAND

A few words from this back of the woods and water of New England to our New England friends. We know that the I.W.W. is still here and that it is growing stronger. A few miles from the quaint city of Portland, Maine, which is a haven for seamen and fishermen, there is a small town called Rockland. In this town, a little over a year ago, the I.W.W. was organized, and it has been steadily growing ever since. The town is now the home of several hundred I.W.W. members, who are working hard to spread the word and organize others.

SPARKS

Walker G. Smith, General Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, has made a statement that the I.W.W. is not a labor organization. He said that the I.W.W. is a political party, and that it is not interested in the organization of labor.

CHINN'S FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Harry W. Chin, a member of the Industrial Workers of the World, was shot and killed in the Rockland Strike. His funeral was held yesterday, and a large crowd attended. The I.W.W. members of the town were present in force, and the funeral was a fitting tribute to the memory of this brave man.

The I.W.W. Will Make It Hot for the Employment Sharks.

In the Rockland Strike, the I.W.W. has shown that it is not afraid to fight. They have already made it clear that they are not going to be shoved aside by the employers. They have shown that they are willing to fight for their rights, and they will continue to do so. The I.W.W. is not afraid of the employers, and they will continue to struggle for a better world.

PRESS COMMITTEE THROWN INTO JAIL

The press committee of the I.W.W. has been thrown into jail. They were arrested for publishing an anti-war article. The I.W.W. is not afraid of the bosses, and they will continue to publish articles that they believe are in the best interest of the working class.

W. I. W. Meeting at 2 P.M.

The I. W. W. members at the Seattle meeting have already done good work, but there is still a great deal to be done. We must continue to work hard and steadfastly until the strike is won.

The strike is now in its third week, and we must do everything possible to support our comrades in the field. The workers must be kept well-informed of the latest developments, and the union must be well-organized and prepared for any emergency.

We therefore appeal to all members to join the strike, and to give every possible support to our comrades.
