NEWS FROM THE MAN ON THE JOB

PREAMBULE OF I. W. W. CONSTITUTION

THE WORKING CLASS AND THE EMPLOYING CLASS HAVE NOTHING IN COMMON. THERE CAN BE NO PLACE SO LONG AS HUNGER AND WANT ARE FOUND AMONG MILLIONS OF WORKING PEOPLE AND THE FEW, WHO MAKE UP THE EMPLOYING CLASS, PROFIT AT THEIR EXPENSE.

BETWEEN THESE TWO CLASSES A STRUGGLE MUST GO ON UNTIL THE WORKERS OF ALL INDUSTRIES ORGANIZE INTO A CLASS ARMY, INCORPORATE THE MACHINERY OF PRODUCTION, AND ABOLISH THE WAGE SYSTEM.

These CONDITIONS CAN BE CHANGED AND THE INTERESTS OF THE WORKING CLASS UPHOLD ONLY BY STRUGGLE. THE STRUGGLE MUST BE ORGANIZED IN A WAY THAT ALL THE MEMBERS IN ANY ONE INDUSTRY, OR IN ALL INDUSTRIES IF NECESSARY, CEASE TO STRUGGLE AS INDIVIDUALS, AND ORGANIZE INTO ONE ARMY OF THE WORKING CLASS, THUS MAKING AN INJURY TO ONE AN INJURY TO ALL.

INSTEAD OF THE CONSERVATIVE MOTTO, "A FAIR DAY'S WAGES FOR A FAIR DAY'S WORK," THE REVOLUTIONARY WATCH-WORD, "ABOLITION OF THE WAGE SYSTEM.

The following fifteen points make up WORKING CLASS TO DO AWAY WITH CAPITALISM. THE ARMY OF PRODUCTION MUST BE ORGANIZED, NOT ONLY FOR THE SUPPORT OF CAPITALISTS, BUT ALSO TO PRODUCE THOSE GOODS WHICH WHEN CAPITALISM SHALL HAVE BEEN OVERTHROWN, BY ORGANIZING INDUSTRIES, MAKING THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW SOCIETY UNDER THE SHELL OF THE OLD.

KNOWING, THEREFORE, THAT SUCH AN ORGANIZATION IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR THE PROGRESS OF THE WORKING CLASS, OUR ORGANIZING COMMITTEE, OF THE WORKERS' DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

The Workers' Declaration of Independence

TWO HISTORICAL DECLARATIONS OF INDEPENDENCE—1776-1908

Concerning the Civil War

Concerning the Imperial Valley Strike

Concerning the Harvest Organizers

All labor should have every chance to organize and to be paid what they are worth. The harvest is the time when the workers should be able to organize and to be paid what they are worth. The harvest is the time when the workers should be able to organize and to be paid what they are worth.

Entered as second-class matter, May 21, 1919, at the Post-office at Spokane, Wash., under the Act March 3, 1879.

Some returning to Spokane “The Workers” has received only the merest of greetings or courtesies. It has received dozens of letters of praise. Yet the notes are not coming in as they should. When one Fellow Worker, strictly through his own efforts, gets more mail for the paper than all other union and members of his own local involved in getting your paper, then you are not doing your job, nor are you a small part of it.

You cannot be a Fellow Worker in name only, it is absolutely dependent on your support. If you do not care to help support the paper by getting more copy, then you have no right to expect us to improve the paper.

The I.W.W. is not a selfish organization. It is interested in the best interests of all. If you want to see your organization increase, you must do your part.

You do not have to work with us for the I.W.W. to be working for you.

If you would like some of our fellow workers to change your life, then we would be glad to work with you. If you want to see your organization increase, you must do your part.

You can help us by giving us your time and energy. You can help us by giving us your money.

You can help us by giving us your ideas.

You can help us by giving us your strength.

PRIESTS AND PATRIOT SCABS

At 11 o'clock at night on May 30, a strike was started at the Detroit Press, the newspaper that was published by the Detroit Catholic Herald. Shortly after the strike began, a group of priests and police entered the building and beat up the strikers. The police went on to raid the homes of the strikers in search of weapons.

The strike was called by the Detroit Catholic Herald workers who were upset with their working conditions. The strikers were demanding better wages and working conditions. The police raid was unprovoked and the strikers were not accused of any wrongdoing.

According to reports, the strike has lasted for several days and some of the strikers have been injured. The police have been using excessive force and have been accused of using tear gas and rubber bullets.

The Detroit Catholic Herald has been printing anti-communist and anti-trade unionist propaganda for years. The strike is seen as a battle against corporate greed and the rights of workers.

The striking workers have been supported by many in the community who are calling for an end to the police brutality and the end of the strike. The Detroit Catholic Herald has yet to respond to the strike.

MORE NEWS OF THE WORKERS

m. ROBBINS IN ROYCE ISLAND.

The textile workers on strike in the Orono, Me., rage have been on strike for three weeks now, and it is reported that the number of strikers is increasing daily. The workers are determined to fight the lock-out, and many of the men have been arrested. The company has brought in new workers to replace those who have gone out on strike.

The strikers are demanding a new contract that includes a wage increase, better working conditions, and the right to union representation. The company is refusing to negotiate, and the strike continues.

W. F. WEBER IN TACOMA.

W. F. Weber, a well-known labor leader, has been arrested in Tacoma, Wash., on charges of sedition. Weber is a member of the Industrial Workers of the World and has been a vocal advocate for workers' rights. The arrest has caused some concern among labor activists in the area.

The charges stemmed from Weber's participation in a demonstration in support of the striking textile workers. The demonstration was peaceful, and there was no evidence of violence.

CAMPBELL RIVER.

In Campbell River, B.C., a small town on Vancouver Island, there was a strike by the workers at the local paper mill. The workers were demanding better working conditions and higher wages. The company refused to negotiate, and the strike continued for several days.

The workers finally agreed to return to work after the company agreed to make some concessions. The strike ended peacefully, and the workers were satisfied with the outcome.

HERE IS WHERE YOU SLAVE.

On June 18, 1915, the International Nickel Company announced that it was closing its plant in Sudbury, Ont., and laying off 500 workers.

The closure was a result of the company's financial difficulties, and it was hoped that the workers would be able to find other employment. However, the closure marked the beginning of a new era of economic instability for the region.

FROM AN EX-CORPORATE.

The corporate world is not what it seems. The figures you see on the news are a mere fraction of the truth. The companies are more interested in profits than in the well-being of their workers. The working conditions are often brutal, and the pay is low. The corporate world is a place of deceit and manipulation.

THE END OF THE ROAD.

The workers are the ones who are left behind when the corporate world moves on. The corporate world is a machine, and the workers are its cogs. The workers are the ones who are left behind when the corporate world moves on.
