Metal Workers Stay Away

John Law Aids Rubes to Keep the Wages Low

Garfield, Wash., August 9, 1938

The strike called by metal workers has been in progress for ten days, or more than a week, and it has become a matter of concern to the workers in the area.

Preston and Smith

The W. F. M. of S. at the last convention of its kind is expected to move to the present session with a report on the progress made and the results of the strike. The strike has been in progress for about two weeks, and the workers are beginning to show signs of discontent.

French Unionism a Militant Power

The new form of aggression has been launched upon the world. An association known as the American Boy Scout has appeared upon the scene with a programme of military training which will be of use to the nation a few years hence. The leaders of this organisation have worked hard and well organised that a band of trainedRead more...
