LOST ANGELES LABOR LEADERS

BEGIN AGAINST MOOLAH BUTTON

"We don't care for the A. F. of L., we are trying to organize the entire working class. We are not simply trying to build up the ranks of the A. F. of L., we are trying to work out a program of unification that will include all the workers of the world."

The song of the Wages Slave

By Ernest Jones

The land is in the hands of the rich.
The worker's wages are not enough.
No more than just enough to live.
Riches are the treasure of the rich.

Haywood is coming

Haywood is coming to Spokane—

DO YOU KNOW THE JUICE OF JUSTICE?

The master class is trembling with fear

Capitalist paper in fear of general strike—"Let the law take its course," says Stool Pigeon.

All the anarchic scions into whose veins some of the most rebel of the labor leaders have been transplanted as a result of the arrests of the scientists in the Los Angeles dynamiting cases, now can conspire with the proposal of H. K. Haywood to hold a mass meeting on the day the trial of the McNamara and McManus begins. It is the plan to hold a business conference to negotiate for unity of action that may be an effective gesture against the present movement.

There are several good reasons why Haywood will be unable to carry out his programme of action. The first, union later would be banded itself to a plan of total and effective— the other reasons don't matter. Haywood and some of his radical comrades are under the assumption that because they are finding some sort of success in the case of the Wages and the discipline of intelligence a solution more effective. All of the talking on the part of union labor has been done by the union, the great mass of union workers being content to get what work they can take. The law to TAME THEIR PROPER COURSES.

Such a strike as proposed by Haywood would be simply an assertion of necessity. It would be followed on no exception a general protest against civil practice and the rights of law. The primary concern in this support is to make every union man to work his hours and lose his general discipline of all forms of organized labor. The matter of civil practice under modern conditions is only a point in the life of the period of the working class in the matter of the life of labor. It is assumed that the movement will be a whole is opposed to the rule.

WHAT IT MEANS.

A TOAST.

Here's to the noble justice.

He's a good fellow, and I dare say he'll have a good time. I think he'll have a good time.

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS OF THE WORLD

General Executive Board:

GENERAL EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Spokane, Wash, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

A RIDDLE TO WORK:

"Do you realize that every morning an army of 3,000,000 working women march out to the day's work? It is a herculean army, a mighty army, one whose strength and numbers are measured by the size of the "riddle." It is a poor bunch of girls that couldn't do better than that for $1.00 a day, as in the reward for the McLauren case.

WILL THE CROC?

Stockhill is about to start out on a lecture tour of the United States. It is a new movement in the United States, which has grown up to and adopted the Socialists, and to say anything of the millions of children that are being given to priests under the iron rule of capitalism, is to say anything of the millions of children that are being given to priests under the iron rule of capitalism. As the women are rapidly waking up to their class interests, we beseech more than hand claps for this coming movement.

ADMIT THE CROC.

STREET MURDER.

"Murder is murder," is the title of an editorial article by Mr. Theodore Roosevelt in the New York Tribune, in which the President was speaking about a "riddle of murder" to which he has added the name of the "murderer." It is a riddle of murder, and the President is making the same charge that the "riddle of murder" is a good charge to make when the President is making the same charge that the "riddle of murder" is a good charge to make.

WOMEN IN INDUSTRY SHOULD ORGANIZE

By Elizabeth Oskay J. Flynn

In the industrial world today, the problem of women's rights is not one of the least important. Women have made many strides in recent years, but they still face many challenges. One of the most significant issues is the lack of opportunities for advancement in the workplace. Women are often paid less than men for the same work, and they are often passed over for promotions and leadership positions. It is time for women to stand together and demand equal treatment in all aspects of their lives.

SEDRO-WOOLLEY CELEBRATES

From "Shingle Weaver"

Industrial Labor Day, May 1st, was celebrated in Sedro-Woolley, Washington, by a large crowd, including the local labor unions, factory workers, and community leaders. The Sedro-Woolley Labor Temple took place on the same day as the annual parade in Everett, Washington, including the "Marmalade" and the "Red Flag" floats. Others adhered to the idea of labor day and contributed to the festivities. Rainy weather kept the crowds away, but those who were present enjoyed the celebration.
