AN APPEAL FROM THE I.W.W. BESIEGED IN MEXICO.

To James, Mexico, May 11, 1911.

To all members of the I.W.W. and to all other comrades:

Fellow Workers—It now almost three months since I was in Mexico. Three months is a long time to be away from home. But it has been worth it. I have learned a great deal and have been able to do some good work. I have tried to help Mexico to organize and to resist the attacks of the government. I have been successful in a few cases, but in others I have been unsuccessful. But I am not discouraged. I will continue to work until I am defeated.

I am now in Mexico City. I am here to organize the I.W.W. in Mexico. I am also working to get some of the workers released from prison. I am also trying to get some of the workers to come to the United States. I am also trying to get some of the workers to come to the United States.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER

THE GULF LUMBER COMPANY FURNISHING ME EQUIPMENT TO IDENTIFY IN ANY WAY WHATSOEVER WITH ANY LABOR ORGANIZATION; AND FURTHER, THAT I WILL NOT USE ANY SUCH EQUIPMENT IDENTIFIED BY ME AS SUGGESTED BY THE COMPANY IN ANSWER TO NO. 259. IDENTIFIED WITH ANY LABOR ORGANIZATION.

I AM IDENTIFIED BY THE ABOVE MENTIONED MARKS TO THE FOLLOWING COMPANY:

Witness:

Every man that goes to work in the woods in the Southern States finds himself at the mercy of some absentee who signs the badge of slavery and is content for ever more with the wages paid him by his employer. The badge is signed by the Southern Lumberman’s Association. It is a trick, and a real one, an organization of parasites, organized to sell the lumber in the largest market and buy the slaves in the cheapest. It is the very curse of the class struggle, and the slave that runs can and will go through a looking-glass to even roll logs around for the master class, so we will not

There is no need to talk about constitutions and all the old

This was written, the Southern states was a living race of

There were some rather rare the “notion butter”

There are a score of petty grievances

In the South, we are always on the look out for the “penny

There are scores of small injustices

COFFIN TRUTHS.

There are many organizations known as labor organizations that are flying under false colors and are being held together with “skin and death benefits.” Were these insurance companies taken away many organizations known as “unions,” would die of their own weight. When a craft union is unable to accomplish anything in the way of better conditions for its members, and is running against widespread through the ranks their apparent impotency of the union to make a successful fight, it is then that the leaders have got to act and act quick to save the craft and keep the pick-ear in sight for another period. No such craft union is anything but a sham, and is a thing that is something yet good in a craft union. There is only one thing to do and that is to start an insurance society and keep the old men out, who are the worst of the lot, and keep the craft from posterity.

HOW POLITICALISMS WORK IN GERMANY

The struggle for control of the key of the "Iron helmet" or some other "revolutionary" American Labor Union was a struggle for power between Solidarity and Social Democracy as leaders of the German labor movement. The Solidarity leaders were to be expelled and the Social Democracy leaders were to emerge victorious.

The Solidarity leaders then turned their attention to the task of organizing the new labor movement in Germany. They began by setting up local branches of the union and by recruiting new members. They also began to publish a newspaper, "The German Worker," which became the official organ of the Solidarity.

The Social Democracy leaders, on the other hand, continued to try to undermine the Solidarity by spreading false rumors and by using their influence with the government to suppress the Solidarity's activities. They also attempted to divide the workers by appealing to their class consciousness and by promising them better working conditions if they would only vote for the Social Democrat candidates.

The Solidarity leaders were not prepared to accept this, and they continued to fight for control of the union. The struggle was long and bitter, but in the end the Solidarity emerged victorious.

The Solidarity then began to organize the workers on a mass scale. They opened new factories and workshops and they began to build up a strong base of support among the workers.

In 1907, the Solidarity held its first national convention, and it was at this convention that the party was formally organized. The Solidarity was then able to focus its energies on the task of organizing the workers on a national scale.

The Solidarity was successful in organizing the workers, and it soon became the largest and most influential union in Germany. The Solidarity leaders were able to use the power of the union to achieve their goals, and they were able to make significant improvements in the lives of the workers.

The Solidarity was able to achieve these results because it was able to unite the workers behind a common cause. The Solidarity leaders were able to show the workers that they could achieve their goals by working together, and they were able to build a strong and determined labor movement.
