MINERS WON'T STRIKE

The convention of the Western Federation of Miners which opened in Denver, Montana, July 25th, is now in full swing and many important matters have come before the body. Discussion of the convention has been intense and at times quite acrimonious. The first session of the convention, which leaned heavily against disorder, was marked by an outburst of anti-militarism from the delegates of the coal fields. This outburst was an attempt to drive a wedge between the miners of the coal fields and the miners of the copper fields, a move which has been resisted by the convention. The convention has adopted a policy of non-cooperation with the police, and the miners have been told to stay out of the mines.

POLITICAL CHOULS DESPISE THE WORKERS

Socialists have not sympathy for this movement in Mexico. There are anarchists who say they express their sympathies for the strikers, but these are not the voice of the people.

With every educated newspaper in America it is the duty of every educated person to express their sympathies for the strikers, but these are not the voice of the people.

THE Strike

The strike is a movement of the workers for the purpose of obtaining better wages and working conditions. It is not a movement of the capitalists to keep down the wages of the workers. The strike is a democratic movement, and the workers have the right to strike to get what they want.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER

The world steel trust has just been formed under the direction of the I.W.W. and will make the laws in the union hall and win for it the job. No law amounting to a law of tone will you have POWERs enough to make it, and when you have the POWER you will use some high-colored attractions to some parliament building in the interests of labor.” Labor can get nothing until it is organized to act in some union. Says Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard University: “This is what we have been trying to put into the blocks of the parlamentarians for the last five years and which has been the reality of every working-class political union in America.

Since it is the industrial government in the state that affects the political and labor unions of the laborer to men and women more immediately and intensely than political government.

If a new declaration of independence were written today it would deal chiefly with social and industrial rights. The attitude of the American public towards these individuals which men and women would have to demonstrate in the manner of politics, and the class of political organization which we are not infrequently found in this country were of interest which have the business of managing political affairs in America.

Sure that the industrial government in the state that affects the political and labor unions of the laborer to men and women more immediately and intensely than political government.

WORKER IS BRUTALLY TREATED BY SURVIVOR IN C. G. W. M. MAN PINS FIST IN EYE, EARS, ON TRAIL AND GASHES CHEEKS

I was engaged to work for W. N. Mes, a rancher on San Bernardino land, receiving $5 per day and board, and I very much enjoyed my work for him. I was engaged to have my meal in his house, and, as was the custom, if I worked over a certain number of sheep, I was paid an extra sum of money. However, I was never paid anything for my work, and I was always hungry and poorly clothed. When I asked for my pay, I was told that it was a six-week job, but it was never finished.

The worker was killed in the retarding of a sheep, and I was the one who found the body. I saw the sheep being chased with clubs and knives, and I tried to help the worker. I was also beaten and bruised, and I was not paid for my work.

I believe that the worker was a decent man, and I am glad that he was not killed. I hope that the new law will prevent such accidents in the future.

HARVEST HANDS AT POWDERY, WASH—MANY I. W. W. MED ADJACENT TO A CREDIT UNION

The regular harvest invasion of "labor" in this area has been here this time in larger numbers than ever before. Many of the workers are employed by the local credit union, and the harvest work has been greatly increased.

Between forty and fifty men are in the fields today, and they are working for lower wages than ever before. They are willing to work for a lower wage because they believe that they will receive better treatment and benefits.

The harvest work has been greatly increased in recent years, and the workers are now in desperate need of better wages and working conditions.

But Another Missouri Liberal Is Still in Jail—San Diego in Beige Reports

SAN DIEGO, July 8-Neill Moz, who was arrested in Montrose, Ill., on a complaint of forgery, was released by the order of the county court on the motion of his attorney, who said that he had good cause for release.

Efforts were made to have him released, but there were some grounds on which he had a right to be held. The case is now pending before the court, and it is hoped that he will be released shortly.

COOKS AND WAITERS ON STRIKE IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8—Cook and waiters' unions, A. F. of L., today called a strike at all the hotels in the city, including the Panama Pacific Hotel, where the strike is now on.

The strike is in protest of the low wages paid to cooks and waiters, and the unsatisfactory working conditions.

The strikers are determined to have better wages and working conditions, and they are willing to continue the strike until their demands are met.

WHAT WE BELIEVE.

The working class and the employing class have nothing in common. There can be no peace as long as hunger and want are found among the millions of working people and the few, who make up the employing class, live in luxury and midst of toil. Between these two classes a struggle must go on until the working classes shall not only control the means of production, and abolish the wage system, but shall by the organization of the industrial and educational industries and the state control of industry, abolish the distinction between labor and capital.

In the history of the working class the struggle has always been a struggle to the end that the employing class shall have no control of the workers, and that the workers shall instead control the employing class. This is the struggle within the worker and the struggle outside the worker. The struggle within the worker is the struggle to overcome the effects of the capitalists’ exploitation and to organize the working class into a class-conscious body.

In the struggle without, the workers’ struggle is to organize and control all industries and all police and military forces. The workers’ struggle is to organize and control all industrial and educational industries and the state control of industry.

The struggle within the worker is the struggle to overcome the effects of the capitalists’ exploitation and to organize the working class into a class-conscious body.
