SOUTHERN PACIFIC MEN WANT MORE FREEDOM

TRANSACT-LINES TIE-DOWN IN ENGLAND--THOUSANDS OF TORIES ARE ARRESTED WITH THEIR RAILROAD MEN WILL BE SET FREE

The greatest strike of modern times is on in England, and one that is expected to last until the war is over. The railway men, who are being drafted into the service, are working under the most severe restrictions. The men are working only four hours a day, and they are not allowed to leave the station or to communicate with their families. The strike has already caused a great deal of inconvenience to the public, and it is expected to continue for some time. The government has been forced to take action to prevent the situation from getting worse.

BIG RAILWAY STRIKE IN ENGLAND IS OVER. MEN WIN BIG VICTORY IN TWO DAYS

The biggest railway strike in modern times is over in England, and the men have won a great victory. The strike lasted for two days, and the men were able to achieve their demands. The government has been forced to make some concessions, and the railway workers are now on strike for a shorter period. The strike has caused a great deal of inconvenience to the public, and it is expected to continue for some time.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The government has announced that the railway workers will be granted a shorter strike period. The strike has been called off, and the workers are now on strike for a shorter period. The government has been forced to make some concessions, and the railway workers are now in a better position. The strike has caused a great deal of inconvenience to the public, and it is expected to continue for some time.

S. P. COMPANY COMPETING

SOUTHERN PACIFIC BUILDING BAR-NAVY ON EVERY WHEEL

Avery Wheel, the August issue of the railroad, shows the Southern Pacific Company as one of the leading companies in the United States, with a great deal of activity in the construction of new lines and expansion of existing ones.

The company has recently announced a major expansion program, which includes the construction of new branch lines in various parts of the country. This expansion is expected to increase the company's revenue and profitability, and is likely to attract more investment from shareholders.

In addition to the construction of new lines, the company is also investing heavily in technological improvements, such as the use of computerized maintenance systems and advanced signaling technologies. These improvements are expected to enhance the efficiency and safety of the company's operations, and to reduce costs in the long run.

Overall, the Southern Pacific Company is well-positioned to continue its growth and success in the competitive rail industry.

POOR HUNTING IN NELSON

W. I. V. NELSON PURCHASES EXP-SKUNK MODEL, BUT GAVE IN SCARES

A few weeks ago, W. I. V. Nelson announced the purchase of an exp-skunk model, which he had been considering for some time. The model is designed to help the company in its hunting efforts, but so far it has not delivered the expected results.

In a statement released by the company, Nelson said that while the model has proven to be a valuable tool in certain situations, it has also shown some limitations that need to be addressed. He added that the company would continue to evaluate the model and its potential for improving its hunting operations.

Nelson has been a long-time hunter and has a deep passion for the sport. He has invested heavily in improving his hunting equipment and techniques, and is always looking for ways to enhance his success.

POOR SICKNESS!

Quebec, July 25.—A.Right-hand girl of station, all with the figures carved from solid gold, which would be worth within the next year or two in the famous Church of St. Anne de Beaupre, near Quebec. This statue of a young girl of St. Casimir of Bonaventure is so fine, that all of which will be collected by the French Canadian Mission in New York. The figures included are the statue of St. Anthony, the Christ Child and the Virgin Mary.

The group will be taken to be blessed by the Pope, and later, will be burned in the United States and Canada.

FREE SPEECH DENIED IN PASCO-DEZELTEN AWAKENS MASS MEETING CLASS IS AFRICAN OF EDUCATION AND SOCIAL REFORM.

The I. W. W. in Pasco today secured recognition in Pasco. Fellow Worker Deszeltlen of the I. W. W. met the masters of the masters here, when he told the Manufacturers Association that he would not have a strike because the negroes would be on strike for another year. When he asked if the negroes would be willing to have a strike, they said yes. The masters say it is too radical for them to permit such a meeting in their factories. They are afraid of the I. W. W. organizing them.

What is amazing to see the parade of7 I. W. W. members in Pasco, is the speed with which the I. W. W. has grown in Pasco, and the number of negroes who are willing to organize.

"COMMISSION ACT" IN R.C.A. FAKE

EFFECTIVELY DENIED—GOOD FOR I.

The Compensation Act of British Columbia has been declared ineffective by the High Court in a recent decision. The Court held that the Act was an attempt to compel the railway companies to furnish adequate compensation to their employees. The decision was given in favor of the railway companies.

The Master and the Law

The case was heard by the Court of Appeals in Vancouver. The Court held that the Act was unconstitutional, and that the railway companies could not be compelled to furnish compensation to their employees.

The Master and the Law

The case is still in the hands of the railway companies, who have appealed the decision to the Supreme Court.

The Master and the Law

The decision of the Court of Appeals has been reversed by the Supreme Court, which held that the Act was constitutional and that the railway companies must furnish compensation to their employees.
