GRANT'S MILL, DEE, OCT. 15.

Vancouver B. C., Sept. 1.—A meeting held in the Vancouver Free Press office to which Sam Gompers was the principal speaker, resulted in a grandstand platform at the Vancouver Mechanics Institute. There were three cheers for the speaker. The meeting was called to order by the president of the union, and the resolution was adopted:

The resolution was adopted by a large majority, and the platform was turned over to the union, which was then opened with a speech by the president, who said that the union was now ready to meet the public. The meeting was then adjourned.

PAPER PLICE: The paper plates have been supplied to the police force in Lynn, Mass. This does not mean that the victim will be let off with a lighter blow from a police club, but instead, the change has been made on account of so many clubs being broken lately on head injuries and in order to prevent the accident from being a mystery, until he be that would be too heavy for the lazy to carry around. The following takes the daily press shows the weekly report for the week of Lynn (Mass.), August 16-John Lynn police are now equipped with paper "billy clubs." This does not mean that the officers will be any milder in curtailing future dangers with lawbreakers. The paper clubs are harder and lighter than the old wooden sticks, and were adopted after the patrolmen had shown a decided dislike toward the use of their sticks of brass- and wood-headed clubs, which put up a fight for the paper clubs, and the charge was that these of proving to the workers everywhere that their power on the job.
