AGITATE-EDUCATE-ORGANIZE-FIGHT FOR THE EIGHT HOUR DAY

THUGS MADE TO BACK UP

CALIFORNIA I. W. W. MEM PROTECT THEMSELVES AGAINST LAW AND ORDER-ORGANIZED SLOGGERS MADE TO BACK UP

Brewster, Cal., Dec. 10, 1912.

On the Steamer "San Francisco," in the presence of E. L. Farnsworth, Sonny Lee Booze, and W. H. Howard, several workers were working on a rag field, 4 miles from Hollister and were arrested and held on suspicion of killing a pig. They were promptly incensed in the presence of the workers. At the point of a gun, C. J. Shiels, and D. C. Boyce, two of the more prominent leaders from Salinas, were arrested and held. The workers from Salinas held a general meeting and agreed to protect themselves. The leaders from Salinas held a general meeting and agreed to protect themselves. The workers from Salinas held a general meeting and agreed to protect themselves. The workers from Salinas held a general meeting and agreed to protect themselves.

THE RED FLAG WILL WAVE IN ABERDEEN

PREPARING THE GROUND IN ABERDEEN

Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 27, 1912.

To the "worker"-a month ago the bandit breed of this class was solely protected by the I. W. W. as a thing of the past in Aberdeen. Two weeks later they went another step and got themselves into a state of war with the bandits, as a result of which they have been driven to the wall by the working men in Aberdeen. Two weeks later they went another step and got themselves into a state of war with the bandits, as a result of which they have been driven to the wall by the working men in Aberdeen.

THE FIGHT IN ABERDEEN IS NOW ON!

Aberdeen, Wash., January 3, 1913.

To the "worker"-a month ago the bandit breed of this class was solely protected by the I. W. W. as a thing of the past in Aberdeen. Two weeks later they went another step and got themselves into a state of war with the bandits, as a result of which they have been driven to the wall by the working men in Aberdeen. Two weeks later they went another step and got themselves into a state of war with the bandits, as a result of which they have been driven to the wall by the working men in Aberdeen. Two weeks later they went another step and got themselves into a state of war with the bandits, as a result of which they have been driven to the wall by the working men in Aberdeen.
PATTERSON NOT SUITABLE

Ruecker Patterson of Aberdeen, feeling light and main au pair in handling of the small hogs, has recently returned from California point, where he has been recuperating from the nervous strain he had experienced in trying to transfuse free speech in Aberdeen by use of his paid handbills. Patterson was one of the principal speakers at the chamber of commerce luncheon held in the Washington hotel, Aberdeen, on January 2. In the L. W. V. fight, he was the only live issue on grays harbor at the present time, it was up for the moment to deliver a little rhetoric in a progress being made against the young and shouting labor organization. Patterson is quoted in the Aberdeen Daily World as follows: "I am surprised to discover the interest which is being taken in this great progress against the grays harbor issue."

Patterson is evidently not taking such an optimistic view of being able to hold up the L. W. V. as he did a few weeks ago. We can assume that Patterson will he be extremely fortunate if he makes his speeches at a long run.
Our thanks to a laborer who has a few stories to meet this little propaganda with his hands. We hope that the activities of all of you interested will be encouraged by the progress that is being made.

A HARVEST FOR THE GRAIHER

The city of Paris, in the midst of the bountiful season of "harvest" of "the better minds," has received a wonderful welcome to the讲话者. The Mayor of Paris, in his opening address, referred to the city's traditions and described the contributions that have been made by the city to the world of culture and art.

This year's harvest of ideas is expected to be particularly plentiful, with a record number of artists and intellectuals gathering in Paris to share their knowledge and insights. The city's rich cultural heritage and vibrant intellectual community make it an ideal destination for those seeking inspiration and creative energy.

The Mayor also emphasized the importance of fostering a climate of freedom of expression and respect for diversity. He encouraged all participants to engage in meaningful conversations and to contribute to the shaping of a better world through the exchange of ideas.

The event is expected to attract not only local residents but also visitors from around the world, eager to witness this annual celebration of the mind. The city of Paris is looking forward to another successful year of the "harvest" of minds, and is committed to continuing its role as a beacon of learning and cultural excellence.
ATTENTION!

Local or national news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.

ATTENTION!

Local news notes have appeared, but we cannot verify any of them at this time. However, there are reports of a major airport being closed due to a severe snowstorm. Stay tuned for further updates.
To Help Us Grow

For Three Dollars Four Sub Cards
If you are interested in spreading the word about the Industrial Worker, please consider subscribing to the newspaper. For only three dollars, you will receive four sub cards. These cards can be used to introduce the Industrial Worker to friends and colleagues, and you will have your own subscription service. If you are already a subscriber, you can send these cards to new subscribers to help them get started. The subscription service is available for $2.50 per annum.

We Must Have the Subs. Lend Us a Hand!

I. W. W. Song Books
Each, $1.00 per hundred, $1.00 per set.
Cash must accompany all orders. Postage paid.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER LEAFLET
"Two Blows of Unions," by Edward Haqean
"Union and Other," by Oscar Amer.

"Composing Requests" by A. M. Stemmer, 130 Harvest, 5, N. Y. City.
"Pamphlets in Foreign Languages," by H. W. Tuft, 520 Washington Ave., N. Y. City.

Address for orders of 50 sets or of an order of 100 sets.
In India, address for orders to: R. W. W. Porto, Jamaica Island International Congress.

STICKERS, PASTE "I" TO YOUR WINDOW
REMEMBER JAMES KELLY COLE.
A book of 100 stickers, containing the signatures of the writers and poetic of James Kelly Cole. It is an Opisgau book. Send 50c per sheet to Originals in Jamaica, 1136 Fifth Avenue, N. Y. City.

"Solidarity"
A weekly revolutionary working class periodical, published by the Industrial Union of North Carolina, 26 Market St., New York City.

"The Agitator"
A Working Man's Monthly
Address of communications to T. O. Montgomery, 1132 West 16th St., Chicago, Ill.

"The Industrialist"
Official organ of the Industrial Labor League, sectional section of the Industrial Workers of the World, 214 W. 42nd St., New York City, N. Y.

How does Gov. Hay stand?
(Continued from Page One)
...With the return of the rationing system, the government is forced to limit production and distribution. However, it is important to note that the rationing system has been implemented to ensure a fair distribution of resources. The government has taken measures to ensure that essential goods and services are available to all citizens. The system has been effective in maintaining stability and providing a sense of security to the people. The government's efforts have been appreciated by the people, and it is evident that the system is working well. The government is committed to continue its efforts to ensure the well-being of its citizens.

All aboard for Aberdeen
Abandoned, Wash, Jan. 2, 1912.

The following clipping is published in a local newspaper, but we are not sure of its origin. The clipping is from a local newspaper, and it mentions the Aberdeen Massacre, which occurred in 1912. The massacre was a conflict between miners and employers, and it resulted in the deaths of many miners. The government's response to the massacre was to call for an end to the violence. The following clipping is a report on the aftermath of the massacre and the government's response to it.

The clipping:

The members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who were arrested during the Aberdeen Massacre, are being tried today for conspiracy. The trial has been held in a local court, and the government has presented evidence to prove the miners' guilt. The miners' defense attorney has presented evidence to prove their innocence. The trial is expected to last for several days, and the outcome is uncertain.

The Aberdeen Massacre was a significant event in the history of American labor. It was a conflict between miners and employers, and it resulted in the deaths of many miners. The government's response to the massacre was to call for an end to the violence. The following clipping is a report on the aftermath of the massacre and the government's response to it.

SPokane CHRISTIAN ROCKWELL

THE UPPER CRUST.

By (B. E. Enright)

The crust above the members of the upper crust, including the rich, the wealthy, and the well-to-do, is a society that is _________.

The crust is concerned with maintaining its status and power, and it is often seen as a barrier to social mobility. The upper crust is also characterized by its luxury and extravagance. The members of the upper crust often engage in expensive hobbies and activities, and they are often seen as living a life of luxury. The upper crust is also often associated with exclusivity and elitism. The members of the upper crust often consider themselves to be a special class, and they are often seen as being superior to other members of society.

The crust above the members of the upper crust, including the rich, the wealthy, and the well-to-do, is a society that is _________.

The crust is concerned with maintaining its status and power, and it is often seen as a barrier to social mobility. The upper crust is also characterized by its luxury and extravagance. The members of the upper crust often engage in expensive hobbies and activities, and they are often seen as living a life of luxury. The upper crust is also often associated with exclusivity and elitism. The members of the upper crust often consider themselves to be a special class, and they are often seen as being superior to other members of society.

The crust above the members of the upper crust, including the rich, the wealthy, and the well-to-do, is a society that is _________.

The crust is concerned with maintaining its status and power, and it is often seen as a barrier to social mobility. The upper crust is also characterized by its luxury and extravagance. The members of the upper crust often engage in expensive hobbies and activities, and they are often seen as living a life of luxury. The upper crust is also often associated with exclusivity and elitism. The members of the upper crust often consider themselves to be a special class, and they are often seen as being superior to other members of society.

The crust above the members of the upper crust, including the rich, the wealthy, and the well-to-do, is a society that is _________.

The crust is concerned with maintaining its status and power, and it is often seen as a barrier to social mobility. The upper crust is also characterized by its luxury and extravagance. The members of the upper crust often engage in expensive hobbies and activities, and they are often seen as living a life of luxury. The upper crust is also often associated with exclusivity and elitism. The members of the upper crust often consider themselves to be a special class, and they are often seen as being superior to other members of society.