CHANGE TACTICS IN SAN DIEGO

A GREAT DEMONSTRATION IN SAN DIEGO WILL BE HELD SATURDAY. CLEARLY SHOWS DEMAND FOR RADICAL CHANGES.

JAIL ABUSES!

An incident continues to bring the brutality of the past to the fore in San Diego. On Wednesday, February 20, a woman was arrested in San Diego and the fate of the people arrested continues to be left in the hands of the jail authorities.

This followed the arrest of the Trade Unionists' Flat in violation of a court order by the lawyer of the jail authorities. It is a matter of fact that the jail authorities are being used to suppress the activities of the trade unionists in San Diego. The jail authorities are not merely a matter of the jail but also of the prevailing social conditions. The jail authorities are being used to suppress the activities of the trade unionists in San Diego. The jail authorities are not merely a matter of the jail but also of the prevailing social conditions.

And it was not the only incident. Other similar cases were reported in extreme parts of the country.

The striking textile workers of Lawrence, Massachusetts, are confronted with the above described situations. The workers and their families are being forced to turn to the Republican machines to secure relief. In Lawrence, the strike is on again. The workers are being forced to leave their homes and work for lower wages.

The problem is how to defend the right of the workers to maintain their homes and work for better wages. A strike is the only solution. How like the slave after slavery is to the life before slavery! Shake your chains to earth like dew from a attic roof—Ye are many, they are few.

Josh, Mr. Sketch, how much earth have you inherited so far?

The spirit of "let George do it" will never bring results.

Between the revolutions and the revolutions there is nothing but a revolution.

In a generation's span, all the products of the revolution are forgotten.

Fill out the sentence yourself; it isn't worth writing.

Workers should observe the London season by wearing off their worst habit—STAYATION.

The space between lives in each house is reserved especially for use as a bedroom.

Excessive toilet-dolts the thinking capacity, but does prove that the industries can be captured by "anti-work revolutionaries."

When individual failures become so great that its solutions can be found only in class actions, then, and only then, will we be freed from wage slavery.

Making Revolutions

The social and economic objectives, and the forms of advanced writers and speakers, as forces for the making of revolutions, are brought to light by the Lawrence strike. Facts were ever better than theories.

The class struggle in the textile industry is stipulated of all philosophy and specific achievement. A few years ago, it failed to understand it.

The greatest lesson in the present time is thrown to the fore-front; even and those who believe in hell and acquisitive passions for all economic insecurity are forced to admit that the loss of the strike of workers are of such a capitalist revolutionist nature as to make their propagandists eager of aristocracy.

The close connection between Captain of Industry and Labor is well known.

Lieutenants of the American Federation of Labor is easily seen and the fully of craft organization is apparent to even the casual observer.

Sections of the Church have shown the eleven-hour and proved the truth of the statement that all institutions, whether political, religious, or judicial are but the tools of the dominant minority.

Contrast for the cause of the master class has sprung up in the minds of the workers, as those who were aware of the class of meekly accepted. History is the law of the great change for the Lawrence law is a mystery;

The political police has shown their willingness to perform the dirty work of the employing class and one of capitalism's chief assets in the shape of false responsibility which封建 has been removed through the illegal actions.

The appearance of the militia has made all the harder for the Plutocracy to gain recruits to the ranks of the protectors of their stolen loot.

Revolution of Capital adds many members to the revolutionary army and the expenses need is to me so much these financial revolutionaries immediate objectives and to make ends the accomplishment of our ultimate aim.

AGENCIES PROVOCATORS.

To those who think that the social revolution is to be gained by the influence of capital and argument, of diplomacy, or, who imagine that it will resolve itself into a battle of industrial force, they object to the labor of agitators who seeks to know the meanings of the words "agents provocateurs" cause great apprehension among the workers.

Debs, in a recent number of the International Socialistic Ring, throws himself headlong into the camp of intolerant sympathy the moment in which they have become the backbone term. "agents provocateurs" has become the byword of the laboring classes and we must always be on our guard accompanying the advocacy of sabotage.

This movement for the propagation of the idea that the master class in order to prevent their proteges will employ agents provocateurs to make the workers may be divided into two classes.

The first consists of those who in the holding of the law and who are a lesser class in terms of the strike led by Debs some years ago.

The second consists of the Ogilvie strike articles, despite the fact that the W. F. M. of Chicago for industrial and political action continuously.

They mark themselves in and pure and simple wage organizers, in political organizations, and in revolutionary organizations it is more important.

ARE WE DEFICIENT?

Our hailstorm of headlines on the population problem today is completely out of proportion to the real nature of the situation. There is no need to fear that we are going to be overwhelmed by a flood of food. The world's food resources are more than adequate to feed the present world population. At this particular time, while food prices are high because of the war, there is no immediate danger of a shortage of food. It gives the writer a better opportunity to explain that the headlines are a sign of the times. We must be careful not to be misled by the headlines.

There is a debate today as to whether we are producing enough food. The answer to this question is no. We are not producing enough food to feed the world's population. The problem is not that there is not enough food to feed everyone, but that there is not enough food to feed everyone on a healthy and nutritious diet. The solution to this problem is not to produce more food, but to distribute the food that we already produce more equitably.

WORLD WAR II

As the war continues, the production of food will increase. However, the distribution of food will be a major problem. Food will be rationed, and there will be shortages in some areas. The government will have to take steps to ensure that food is distributed fairly to all.

LOCAL UNION

The local union has a role to play in this situation. They can work to ensure that food is distributed fairly and that workers are given a fair share of the food produced. They can also work to ensure that the war effort is supported by the workers.

The popular press has given much attention to the relationship between race and crime. There is no evidence to support the idea that African Americans are more likely to commit crimes than other races. The issue of race and crime is a complex one, and it is important to consider all the factors involved before making any conclusions.

Wage Workers--
