"MEN HIGHER UP" TO BE INDICTED?

I. W. W. IS STILL SAN DIEGO'S ISSUE—CO-OPERATIONH OW TO FIGHT THE WAVE—CONSPIRACY MAKES BOOK TO BE TRIED

San Diego, Cal., July 11, 1912—It is now five days since the tragedy in the I. W. W. hall, and the Local is still fighting moral and material battles. The men connected with the fight by day, but we are assured that the battle has not been lost. The past five months have made it pretty clear to the front rank of the I. W. W. that they have a fight on their hands, and the work of the Los Angeles and San Diego I. W. W. locals, and the second I. W. W. locally, has been done in the interest of the laboring man. The I. W. W. is now preparing for a long and serious struggle. The leadership has been repeatedly warned not to give in, but to fight to the bitter end. We are assured that the situation is not as bad as it looks, but the work of the I. W. W. has been nothing short of a war. The men are doing their best to carry on.

The I. W. W. during this period have lost two members in the battle. The trial has been adjourned to the 19th of this month, and the I. W. W. Local No. 2 has been declared illegal. The leadership has been forced to take steps to prevent a recurrence of the I. W. W. meeting. The I. W. W. has been forced to close its doors and to move to a new location. The I. W. W. is now preparing to fight a long and serious struggle. The leadership has been repeatedly warned not to give in, but to fight to the bitter end. We are assured that the situation is not as bad as it looks, but the work of the I. W. W. has been nothing short of a war. The men are doing their best to carry on.

AGITATE. EDUCATE. ORGANIZE. FIGHT FOR THE EIGHT HOUR WORK DAY

WHAT HAS JOHN GOLDBERG DONE FOR THE WORKMEN?

Twente industrial workers of America had in 1896 one of the best and ablest of the general secretaries of the United Mine Workers of America, Mr. John Goldberg. He had been one of the most active of the officials of the United miners, and had worked indefatigably for the advancement of the interests of the working men in that industry.

GOLDBERG AND THE UNION LEADERS

Mr. Goldberg had been a leader in the United Mine Workers of America for many years, and had been active in the organization of the miners in the various states. He had been a member of the executive board of the International Union of Mine, Mill, and Smelter Workers, and had been one of the most prominent of the leaders of that organization.

His work among the miners had been characterized by his ability, his efficiency, and his devotion to the cause. He had been a real leader, and had won the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

His death was a great loss to the miners, and his memory will always be cherished by them as the memory of a great and devoted friend.
