"AN INJURY TO ONE IS AN INJURY

VOL 4 No. 41

One Dollar a Year

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, JAN. 2, 1913

Six Months 50c

Whole Number 197

TECTIVES MAY MURDER HALI

New Orleans, Dec. 29.—The boys are still holding Merryville down. They will win sure if the rebels keep up their backing. Only a handful of scabs are at work, though the com pany is scouring the cities and lying to the workers about the job and conditions. Kirby is filling American Lumber Company orders. Let the Santa Fe workers take notice. The whole plundering class is fighting the boys at Merry ville. The winning of the strike is vital to all labor, and all labor should get behind it with funds, provisions and action. It is rumored that cars loaded with Kirby lumber are getting lost. We have more affidavits showing peonage Burn's men followed Emerson and myself here hunting trouble and got it. We appeal to all western rebels to rush help to Merryville. Covington Hall.

Right For Salvationists Wrong For Workers

Just before Christmas Local 33, I. W. W., of Cleveland, Ohio, decided that they would set up a kettle, such as is used by religious bodies in getting funds for dinners for the poor, to get funds to help feed the women strikers in the textile mills of Little Falls, N. Y.

At a point near the Opera House on Euclid avenue a kettle was placed in charge of Geo. W. Swasey and Karl W. Bailey. Within a short time both of the fellow workers were arrested by the mounted police.

A charge of common begging was placed against them, and upon trial the men were discharged.

Bailey immediately resumed his position with the tripod and kettle and two hours later was re-arrested on a fake charge of blockading the traffic.

A big demonstraton is expected, the purpor of which will be to determine whether the rights accorded to others may be denied to the

The Salvation Army and similar institutions that serve to perpetuate slavery were not mo-lested and the class character of the city government thoroughly demonstrated.

Ten Camps on Strike

The following telegram was received on December 28:

300 striking."

On Dec. 23 there were four camps still at work and this means they were able to tie them up at the rate of one each day.

The strike began on Dec. 1 when a reduction of hours from 10 to 9 was followed by a 50-cent cut in wages. The strikers demand the shorter day at the original scale of pay, and also ask that Sunday and extra work be optional with the men that grafting foremen he eliminated and hospital fees paid directly to the union. Local 88, s. W. W., Eugene, Ore., is handling the strike.

The Portland, Eugene and Eastern Railroad northwest. Pickets are doing effective work in most places, however, and few get past the last line of pickets stationed near the camps. Most of the scabs are shipped to Junction City. 13 miles north of Eugene.

The organization is feeding about 60 strikers, ed, "Open shop will reign supreme at the 'Frisa day at their commissary. Funds are urgently co Fair." Since reading the article by Phelps, needed to continue the picket work and to take I have interviewed many delegates of the Labor care of those who are brought in under false

All funds sent to the Secretary, William Stewart, Box 47, Eugene, Ore., will be promptly receipted for and an account of same rendered at the close of the strike.

Death to Peonage

New Orleans, La., Dec. 21-We have secure more affidavits showing that peonage is the rule at Merryville.

Twenty-four men were run into the stockades last night. The American Lumber Company agents are scouring New Orleans for saw mill labor and are lying to the workers to beat the

The men who are fooled into entering the stockades are quitting as fast as they learn the truth and get a chance to get past the gunmen on guard.

The unionists are standing solid and will win sure if the rebels keep up their support a few weeks longer. Let all rebels in Texas and the Northwest redouble their work of gathering funds and provisions and rush same to Merry-

This is a vital fight to all workers every where, Get together, Get busy. Death to peonage,—Covington Hall.

"ON THE CIVILIZED PLANE"

World's Shop pen

By Thomas McConnell, Jr. P. H. McCarthy, Andrew J. Gallagher and or, after a long conference with the Exposition John McLaughlin, acting as representatives or officials." The meat of the agreement is conthe organized workers in San Francisco, but tained in this paragraph: without the knowledge or consent of the rank and file, recently entered into a miserable agreement with the officials of the Panama Pacific Exposition. It was not, as Gallagher explained it to the Labor Council, a written agreement, but "an understanding" between labor's representatives and the exposition of ficials.

"It was the best we could get", said Gallagher.

When asked who authorized them to sit down labor the dirty offerings of a greedy gang of labor that may be used in the construction of open union-hating capitalists, Gallagaher said that the big fair, whatever it may be, union or non they (himself, McCarthy and McLaughlin) "took it upon themselves".

with their trusty cohorts, who backed them up side the exposition grounds and within the lim-and crammed their "agreement" down labors its of the city of San Francisco, it is proposed throat. The machine was well oiled and in that the present closed shep policies remain in is shipping scabs from different parts of the fine working order, and the steam roller glided force." over the red opposition.

> The agreement in full is published in a current issue of the "Pacific Coast Mechanic", capitalists. In return they received a rich non-union or union mechanics will have the edited by F. W. Phelps, a leader in the open shop movement on the Pacific Coast. It is head-Council, finding the Phelps account of the is that upon which the Panama-Pacific Expo-Labor Council by McCarthy, Gallagher and world's fair will be erected under the open shop McLaughlin. Beneath the heading of the banner.
>
> (Continued on page 4)

Phelps article are these words: "By the edit-

"Organized labor will not interfere or raise journal, "that the present closed shop policies any objection to foreign nations, states or private corporations bringing their own material and labor to construct any structure to place their exhibits in; and further, neither foreign nations, states or private corporations will be interfered with by any unions when handling or putting in place their exhibits."

The advantage claimed by McCarthy, Gal. Shop" Phelps: "We had to take it or get something lagher and McLaughlin is shown in this paragraph:

"Organized labor will not interfere with or union, white or black, foreign or naturalized citizens, or Japs or Chinamen, so long as their this question was so firmly made that there And they packed the Labor Council that night labors are within the exposition grounds. Out-

> In fine, McCarthy, Gallagher and McLaughmolested by the gang of open shoppers who rule the Fair committee.

cates by McCarthy, Gallagher and McLaughlin material for building purposes or exhibits, resented to the sition proper will be built. Briefly, the great representatives. It is not agreed, mark you, that the closed shop shall prevail in the city. "It is proposed", says Phelps in his open shop

Organized labor will not refuse to ha scab made material.

Organized labor will not refuse to scabs on the Exposition grounds.

Does the Fair committee love organized labor? Listen to this from the pen of "Open

"The vital and most important question asked by proposed exhibitors and contractors of the basis for a strong organization in the canbuildings is, What will the exposition officials with the Fair officialc and accept in behalf of cause any interference with any or all of the do should a contractor who proposed to build shop, be interfered with by labor leaders?

"The answer is (the editor desires to state that the answer from the Fair's management to We will step in and protect the contractor or exhibitor in any of his or their undertakings, so far as labor interferences on the question of closed shop would cause them to be embarrasssed in completing their undetaking. In lin, yielded the fair grounds to the open-shop other words, any contractor wishing to use man's promise that the city itself would not be protection of the Fair management against labor leaders favoring closed shop."

"Organized labor," says "Open-Shop" Phelps, The ground resigned to the open shop advo. "will deliver to or from any wharf or depot any

The Infamous Rustling Card System In Butte, Montana Late developments in Butte, Mont., have "At the regular meeting of the Miners' Un-ers. Hundreds of miners in Butte today are given plausability to the general belief that ion Tuesday night, December 3rd, the rustling acquainted with the barbarous and inhuman old-time miners as one of the most damnable diction of the Western Federation of Miners, for its object the ultimate disruption of unionblacklists ever devised on behalf of the thier- were more or less acquainted with the 'card ing mine owners. Cripple Creek and the Coeur system," which has been practiced in the d'Alenes are proof enough to the outlawed reb- Coeur d'Alenes, Colorado and other places in els that its entrance into a camp means the the west. death of all real unionism. But President Mun. phy and his yellow dog followers favor the conda company's system is almost identical matling card.

Miners are simply the tools of the Copper pany was discussed thoroughly.

tendency of mail to go astray between this of-fice and Butte, and letters often arrive bear and to prevent unionism from gaining a footing evidence of having been opened, therefore hold in that district. The Cocur d'Alene black we are not at all surprised that our expected listing system is known throughout the west article from Butte has not materialized.

in the Montana Socialist, which will serve to flagrant warfare against unionism, and partio show how matters stand.

Old time western miners who have worke

It was explained to the union that the Ana with the notorious blacklisting system in vogue Auditorium the following Friday night. For some unaccountable reason there is a in the Coeur d'Alenes, and which is used oper "Employment Office among miners as the ularly against the Western Federation of Minmeny officials of the Western Federation of card system inaugurated by the Anaconda com- "Employment Office Plan" of the Federal company in the Coeur d'Alenes, and these men see in the rustling card system of the Anaconda The rustling card system is known to all the in the various mining camps under the juris company the beginning of a movement having ism in Butte. A Committee Appointed.

At the union meeting Tuesday, the 3rd, motion prevailed to appoint a committee of five of L. brothers, the "White Rats," or "Yellow to investigate the matter and report back at Dogs," or whatever the "Stage Hands Union" a special meeting of the union to be held at the is called, stepped in and scabbed on those who

On Friday night, the Auditorium was crowdad with a meeting of not less than 1600 members of the Miners' Union. A majority of the committee (appointed by the reactionary of follow. The ten I. W. W. men, who were dificials, and consisting of men who take their orders from the company instead of the un-We reproduce, however, a portion of a letter Plan," and is regarded universally as open and ion) reported in favor of retaining the same (Continued on page 4)

Little Falls, N. Y., Dec. 28.—The beating of strikers by the police is a daily occurence. day one stained the snow with blood. He was not arrested. The state mediator board was or-dered here by Labor Commissioner and they will finish by Monday. The testimony so far has caused a sensation by showing that the highest wage was not over eleven dollars per week, down to four dollars per week for a man with a wife and two children. This was featured by newspapers all over the state. A striker is reported tonight as dying in iail. Funds are urgently needed to defend the prisoners and feed the many mouths of the united strikers.

Matilda Rabinowitz.

I. W. W. Strike in Frisco Canneries

Rebelling against a cut in wages from $1,25 to $1.00 per day, 150 women struck on Decem er 18 against the California Fruit Canneries Association of San Francisco

When the rush of handling perishable fruit was over, the well-fed Mr. Fontana, head of the Association, decided to obey the eight hour law. He cut the hours from 10 to 8 and the pay to $1.00. One hundred women were affected, but the clever capitalist trick did not work, for the other 50 deserted their benches to join their fellow workers. The strikers are Italian.

A few men, members of the I. W. W., also struck and got several unorganized men to join Latin Branch of Local 173, in aiding in the strike by doing picket duty and holding meetings.

Fellow Workers L. Parenti, N. Paiella and A. Cappiali were particularly active in spreading the message of One Big Union. The police were called and Parenti was arrested on a fake charge of inciting a riot. Paiella protested and was beaten up and arrested. Later they were released on bail of $50 each

One-third of the strikers have joined the I. W. W. and more are coming in as the strike progresses. At a meeting a strike committee was elected and demands made for a minimum wage of $1.25 for eight hours, one full hour for dinner, unconditional employment of A. Cappiali who was discharged for upholding the women workers, and expulsion of a foully abusive superintendent.

The demands met with a discourteous refusal. The bosses say they will shut down operations entirely, but this is absurd. The strikers are determined to win and thus form neries.

All Classes United in a Class Union

Plebians and Patricians, Senators and Soldiers, the Nobility and the Mob, standing together for a common purpose, is the latest feat of the One Big Union. Pause before you pass judgment, however

It happened in Salt Lake City, Utah, and Local 69, I. W. W., is the guilty party. Here's the tale from the City of Saints: The 'Ben Hur" show was billed for six performances. To fill their act they needed 50 "supers" as Roman soldiers, Nobles, Senators, and the mob. They offered the princely sum of forty cents a performance, which was also "supers" had to do for that 40c was to stick around for four hours, yell their heads off and parade up and down the stage in elaborate costumes. The honors connected with being a Senator" must be considered.

The curtain was about to raise when four 'Senators' announced, as committee for the whole, that unless a dollar for each performance were forthcoming, there would be none of the extra men at the evening session

The manager, after a short deliberation, declared he would not recognize the "Supers" Union," nor would be loosen his purseatrings to the extent of "one bean." The supers stuck to a man

All would have been well had not our A. F. dared demand more pay. The result was a hadly crippled and exceedingly bum performance. What a fine example these Organized ? workers set for the mass of unorganized to rectly responsible for the demand, made good use of the incident to illustrate this point

The "Ben Hur" outfit is headed for the Pacommittee for further negotiations with the cific Coast. They will be well received by the fellow workers along the line.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER

Published Weekly by the General Executive Board Industrial Workers of the World BOX 2129, SPOKANE WASHINGTON.

WALKER C. SMITH	Editor
Subscription Yearly  Canada, Yearly  Subscription, Six Months  Bundle Orders, Per Copy (In Canada)  Bundle Orders, Per Copy (In United States)	1.50 50 021/4

CASH MUST ACCOMPANY ALL ORDERS

Vincent St. John Jas. P. Thompson

GENERAL EXECUTIVE BOARD P. Eastman, Jos. J. Ettor, Ewald Koettgen, F. H. Little, J. M. Foe

Entered as second-class matter, May 21, 1910, at the Postoffice at Spokane, Wash., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

WATCH FOR IT.

Our next issue will deal with peonage in Merryville and threats of death against active I. W. W. agitators.

Burn's detectives have openly threatened to kill Covington Ifall and A. L. Emerson. Read the next issue for this and other accounts of the class struggle.

McConnell will have a story on the garment workers strike in San Francisco.

The Mr. Block cartoons, showing him hunting a job, have been delayed because of the holiday rush. The first one will appear next week

Order early to avoid disappointment.

THE INJUNCTION.

A great deal has been said of late years about "government have said it, however.

We know that all government so long as capitalism lasts will more nor less. We care not whether government be by injunction or by virtue of the idiotic precedents established by our ignorant forefathers. Industrial control settles all problems that may arise, and the workers rule to the extent that they realize and organize their economic power.

The injunction is feared only by those who are afraid of it. However foolish this statement may appear, it is worth being considered in view of the fact that in the great Lawrence strike there was no injunction issued against the strikers.

Why? Simply because the mill owners, who are the Massa chusetts government, knew that a judicial writ would be laughed at. Imagine the police trying to arrest 20,000 strikers given as much assistance as has the wage worker. The probfor violating an injunction! That is just what would have happened.

Past precedents would have been scattered to the four winds and the sham of legality bared to the workers' gaze. The risk was too great. The employers feared for immediate profits but they feared more for their parasitic position in society.

When the workers laugh at traditions, capitalist society trembles. And what is more laughable than a set of supposedly sensible men, dressed in black Mother Hubbard wrappers, trying to prevent the organized workers from wielding their might!

The injunction still strikes terror to the heart of the aristocrats of labor, but for those rebellious and propertiless workers, to whom the jail is no reproach, the "holy writ" of capitalism is a huge joke.

"Government by Injunction." Our fingers are to our nose.

THE WORLD CAME TO AN END.

The Chicago Daily World is no more. This alleged Socialist sheet recently expired leaving only a bad odor and a train of unpaid bills.

Formerly the World was known as the Chicago Daily Socialist. It was socialist in name only. Its news columns carried no hint of the workers' philosophy. The name was changed, in deference to craft union respectability, during the Pressmens' strike.

While the strike was at its height the World had a phenomenal circulation, due to the fact that it was practically the only paper in Chicago. But this circulation was not used to number of letters from farmers who accept our whole program drive home the message of a better social order. The was much less radical than the Scripps-McRae press.

The fact that other branches of the printing trades scabbed of its brevity and pointed inquiry: upon the pressmen was suppressed or glossed over. Thus was a powerful argument for solidarity lost for fear of offending ends meet as when I worked out. I have yet my first farmer to organized scale.

The Ettor-Giovannitti case was given less prominence than it received in the avowed capitalist press. When the trial was mentioned it was made to appear as a craft union affair.

News of the brave fight of the B. T. W. was entirely sup pressed until a strenuous protest came from certain quarters. No appeal for assistance for the workers on the firing line was allowed. All such space was used in asking the public to pat- not join. He is losing interest in political action." ronize the thieving department stores who carried advertise ments in the World.

Ordinary news items in no instance were given from the so cialist-workers-viewpoint. And in a daily paper the editorials to utilize the revolutionary force possessed by those who in the are seldom read. A few vague editorials, on affairs of small strict sense of the word are not proletarians! The constructmoment, formed the only attempt to keep up a socialistic appearance.

In the World were articles that catered to social snobbishness created racial hatred, caused craft superiority to bloom,

Salvation Army, and as a fitting climax to this treachery committed against those workers whose nickles and dimes it had begged, the World sold its mailing list and correspondence, including letters written under the seal of secrecy-what a beautiful blacklist-to a capitalist concern

The Chicago Daily World is dead. If there are any so poor as to do it reverence they are on a social level that would allow them to shake hands with detective Burns and Harry Orchard.

WHOSE BULL IS GORED?

The political socialists would drive from their party all who advocate sabotage or who are not in strict accord with their way of belief. Well and good.

But how can this decision be squared with their attitude within the craft unions? Do they believe in "a fair day's wage for a fair day's work," and do they accept the political program of the American Federation of Labor? Not so you ed to the Governor of Argentine. could notice it!

It is wrong for Haywood, Merrick, Hall and others to try to change the Socialist party, but it is right for Hayes, Barnes, Collins and their bunch to turn the trick in the A. F. of L. Such logic is well nigh unanswerable.

The doctrine that "the end justifies the means" is repugnant to these self-appointed saviors, only when their bull is being gored. It is then that the wail is heard that a man has no 'moral right" to belong to an organization in which he does not fully believe.

WHAT SHALL BE OUR LAND PROGRAM?

Our attention has been taken up so largely with the task of organizing the workers in the industries that there has been neither time nor desire to prepare to meet a serious question that is soon to confront us-that of our relation with tenantfarmers and our program in regard to the land.

The syndicalists of other countries, with the possible exception of Italy, have not taken up the matter. The anarchists can contribute nothing of value to the subject. The single tax is simply a make-shift that would simplify the workings of capitalism but would leave the wage system intact. The socialist proposal is too vague and impracticable to merit discussion. And the I. W. W. has taken no stand in the matter.

Were we organized just to fight for better conditions within capitalism, the matter would be unimportant. As we sim to form the foundation of the next social order and to carry within the union the means of producing and distributing all things by injunction." It has not been the industrial unionists who of social value, it is evident that the land question is of tremendous importance.

Anything said on the subject at this time will be but an inbe simply the measure of strength of the masters-nothing dividual opinion. This is written to cause discussion of the matter, for it is evident that the development of the National Industrial Union of Forest and Lumber Workers will force this problem to the front at the next convention of the I. W. W. Until we take some stand for or against co-operation with tenant-farmers, there can be no clear discussion of the land

> The Brotherhood of Timber Workers entered the I. W. W. many thousand strong. Prior to joining with us they addressed their propaganda to tenant and small owning farmers as well as to wage workers. A revolutionary sentiment has been created among both. In Southern wage fights the farmer has lem is further complicated, as many farmers are wage workers in the lumber industry for a portion of the year. What is to be done with these rebels?

> In the Northwest, many who have cleared pieces of ground are forced to work for wages part of the year. Unlike the Sothern farmers, this class has been used by the employers to crush rebellious wage workers. They are known as "scissor bills," and in the main will be found playing the part of company suckers. By reason of the slight support these men gain from the soil, they can and do work for less wages than those who follow the lumber industry during the entire year. But even among these there is a growing percentage of rebels.

> Besides this class of small ranchers there are many tenant farmers and holders of mortgaged property who stick to the land the year around. They are quite largely of a revolutionary frame of mind.

The I. W. W., unlike the B. T. W., has deliberately antagonized these tenant farmers. The reason is quite evident. The railroads have pressed most heavily on the small farmers, who, following the line of least resistance, sought to recoup by cutting wages. Operating upon a smaller margin of profit than the bonanza farms, because of lack of the larger farm appliances, the small farmer has been the harder task master of the cratic newspaper "Ny Tid" in Trondhjem. two. The industrial idea of striking in the height of the harvest season has had shrinking effect upon the farmers' income, and for some time the railroads and the wage slaves shared equally in the farmers' denunciation.

But in spite of these antagonisms we receive an increasing without modification, and who bemoan their inability to join with us. Here is the one of the many letters, selected because "I am a small farmer. . I find it just as hard to make both meet that I could not give straight industrial unionism, without any reform trimmings and win him over. I explain how little the ownership of a piece of land amounts to-and that mortgaged—and how it is possible to so control industry that there could be brought about an exchange of commodities for their social labor value. That I take it is the final aim of the I. W. W. The only thing he can't understand, is why he can

If the question that confronts us were one of modifying our program, it need not be considered for an instant. But modification is neither asked nor desired. The question is how best ive side of industrialism demands that this be considered. From the decision that is made will spring a definite land policy.

Can we not come to some clear understanding of the problem between now and the next annual convention? A few glorified war, praised charity grafters such as Booth of the brief articles would be welcome on this subject.

INTERNATIONAL BULLLTIN OF THE SYNDICALIET MOVELIENT

Argentine.

January 5 is the date set for Argentine Day Revolutionary bodies are asked to hold specia meetings to denounce the brutal actions against the workers by authorities and employers Resolutions of condemnation should be forward

Italy.

"In 90 days the labor organizations of the town and province of Bologna will be engaged in a terrible struggle against the employers unions. Twelve thousand workers will be locked out and three hundred thousand will be on strike. Fifteen thousand families will thus be thrown into misery. The capitalists are seeking to ruin the unions." In these words the Camera del Lavoro of Bologna and the Committee of Agitation state the case to the men. Financial help from the rebels in other countries is urgently needed.

France.

The Confederation Committee of the C. G. T has reminded the organizations that provincial meetings will be held in a number of leading cities. To intensify the propaganda and the preparation of the protest movement the C. G. T. is bringing out a special number of the 'Voix du Peuple' with illustrations against the war, as well as resolutions of the extraordinary congress, special articles and quotations from great thinkers. Of this number at least 200,000 copies will be circulated.

Germany.

"Einigkeit," organ of the German revolution ary syndicalists, in its last number deals with Be short and to the point. the decision of the syndicalist conference of London to hold an international avadicalist start one, but don't let it die. Stay with it for congress to take common action against the about three months, if possible. war. "We, syndicalists of Germany, would be delighted with such a congress. We have on ganizers. There is room for all in the One Big several occasions, and recently at our congress, insisted on the necessity of such a congress Now it is more than ever necessary that the syndicalists of France, Germany, Sweden, Holland, America and Spain occupy themselves with the convocation of this congress."

A difficulty for the C. G. T. arises from the place it occupies in the international trade union organization, which makes it nearly im possible for it to form the center of the calling of such a congress. This difficulty, however does not exist for the national federation of trades and the Bourses du Travail which are autonomous, and often revolutionary enough to lead in such projects.

New Zealand is often called a country without strikes. This is far from being true. Two strikes, one at Reefton and another at Waihi are now in progress; and the industrial atmos phere is so charged with electricity that further marked manifestations of the class war may be expected at any moment. Compulsory arbitration has proven an absolute failure in this country from the worker's point of view-but the bosses seem to like it, as may be gathered from the following facts:

A majority of unions connected with the Federation of Labor have broken away from the jurisdiction of the Arbitration Board, Many agreements (they have "agreements" there you see) have recently expired and in ever case the bosses are stipulating that future agrements shall be ratified by the arbitration court. It is just this question that is back of the trouble in Waihi. Yes, the bosses like it, sure enough. Why shouldn't they? The court always sees to it that they are first at the home stretch.

Norway.

A leading syndicalist of Norway, Martin Franmael, is the new editor of the social-demo Despite the party attitude his election was by a large majority. For some time Franmael has been agitating for revolutionary syndicalism in Sweden. He intends to visit Denmark and Germany, also.

During the latter part of December the "Young Socialists" of Norway will hold their makes the trade unions unable to cope with annual conference. The question of syndical ism will be discussed. The editor of the official organ "Klassekampen" writes that the well allows one set of workers to be pitted against kynown Trondhjem resolution might form the another set of workers in the same industry, basis of discussion. He even recommends this thereby helping defeat one another in wage resolution as a program for the expression of their fundamental position concerning syndi-ploying class to mislead the workers into the callem and expresses himself in favor of revo lutionary syndicalism within the trade union against the conservative leaders.

Christiania, Norway, has a new weekly paper with the promising name of "Direkt Aktion." It stands for revolutionary unionism and direct action. It has been promised support from several of the old trade unions

An editorial manifesto in the first number states that the "Direkt Aktion" will work to create "a proletariat with no belief in capitalistic institutions or authorities, united on the economic field with industrial unionism as its pest weapon to a swift and sure emancipation of the working class." The same issue also contains the first installment of a translation from the "Industrial Worker" of Louis Levine's This new paper will create Direct Action." a strong movement in Norway as the present trade unions are unable to fight the masters successfully.

HELP! HELP! HELP!

By John Panener. Young man, the I. W. W. wants you.

We want you for an organizer. We need organizers in the logging and construction camps of the South and the West. We need organizers in the factories and the steel plants of the East.

We need them in Alaska, Honolulu, New Zeaand, Australia and South Africa.

But you must make good before we can hire you: the headquarters of the L. W. W. or the ocal unions are not running a bank.

We need men who have knowledge, courage and good judgment. An organizer must be energetic, he must be a promoter.

If you want to see the One Big Union growbecome a power-you must help. around the hall all day, knocking everybody, don't make the union grow.

Staying away from the industries and glorifying in the fact that you are on the bum, doesn't make the union strong.

How shall you prepare yourself to become an W. W. organizer?

First read and study some of the smaller works of Marx and Engels-get on solid ground. understand economics. Next read all of the I. W. W. pamphiets. You can easily do it in a Get the Industrial Worker and Solidarity regularly and keep posted on current events. Then study the minds and actions of the men around you, especially those who work with you. Don't become a parrot. Extend your knowledge each day. Apply your knowledge according to circumstances.

Go into a logging camp and get a job. Don't talk until twelve o'clock at night, keeping the men awake, and thus making them your enemies. Make friends with them. Separate the cream from the skimmed milk and work on the cream. Have supplies with you. Make out a card whenever a man signs up and pays his initiation fee and dues—not before. If you are where there is a local, district or national organizer around, offer him your services. Teli him what you think you can do.

If you want to become a speaker, open up the meeting for some of the street speakers: take an active part in discussions at business meetings. Don't make long winded speeches.

If you see a chance to start a new local,

Don't get jealous of other speakers and or-Union, for it is spreading all over the earth.

Don't try to force yourself on any local as a salaried organizer, they will have no confidence in you. This will hamper you in your work. Make good and they will ask you to work for them.

wages and your job is a steady one, it may not be the best policy to do this. You can help in other ways. If you are getting small wages, you have nothing to lose. To be an active member of the I. W. W. is not a picnic. Sometimes you may go to prison and encounter hardships. But the fight is a necessary one. Think this over, fellow worker, and act.

Join the militant minority of the One Big

QUIEN SABE?

The call for funds to start a Spanish paper has not met with proper response. So far the I. W. W. locals have done less than other organizations. The press committee asks that each local give $10.00 for the Spanish I. W. W. paper. This can be paid in one sum or at $1.00 per week for ten weeks. The paper should start publication in the spring. Active robels should find the state of their ocal's treasury and put one of the two propositions to a vote at their next meeting. If the local cannot act in the matter, it is up to the individual members.

Which local will be he first to send their $10? The secretary of the Spanish Press Fund is F. Velarde, Box 832, Los Angeles, Calif.

PREAMBLE OF THE I. W. W.

The working class and the employing class have nothing in common. There can be no peace so long as hunger and want are found among millions of working people, and the few, who make up the employing class, have all the good things of life.

Retween these two classes a struckle must go on until the workers of the world organize as a class, take possession of the earth and the machinery of production and abeliah the wage

We find that the centering of the management of industries into fewer and fewer hands The trade unions foster a state of affairs which wars. Moreover the trade unions aid the em ballef that the working class has interests in common with their employers.

Their conditions can be changed and the interest of the working class upheld only by an organization formed in such a way that all its members in any one industry, or in all industries, if necessary, cease work whenever a atrika or lookout is on in any departmen thereof, thus making an injury to one an injury to all.

instead of the conservative motto, "A fair day's wages for a fair day's work," we must inscribe on our banner the revolutionary watchword. "Abolition of the wage system."

It is the historic mission of the working class to do away with capitalism. The army of proeveryday struggle with capitalists, but also to carry on production when capitalism shall have been everthrown. By erganizing industrially we are forming the structure of the new seciety within the shell of the old.

SCUM

A CHRISTMAS TALE By Thomas McConnell Jr. Continued from last issue

While the Dunstan child was in the parlor his shouts suddenly ceased. There was silence in the house, excepting Joe's tread in the kitchen. The child walked into the bedroom went close to the mussed-up clothes and gazed ing there. He was searching for something, muttered to himself at the other end of the He went to the kitchen. Joe was cutting table. The heir of the mills, fagged out, was bread with a long bread knife. The heir of perched on the chair with the cracked bottom, the mills stopped before Tommy, who was sit- his little feet dangling far from the ground. ting stolidly on a chair, immovable, Whereth your mama?" he lisped.

so tightly that the knuckles of the withered him through the door to the bedroom. muscles of his jaws stood out, working con-and in vulsively. He glared like a fiend at the child, sleep.

Tommy's face grew more somber. He made

"Aint you not a mama like mine?"

Tommy shook his head slowly from left to right.

"Ith she dead?"

Tommy nodded yes.

The strange boy was solemn now, and ful of sympathy. "Didth she work in the milisth?"

"Yus", snarled Joe in a voice that put terror into the child. "She worked in thim when she had Tommy in her stomuck."

Dunstan's child shrunk away from Joe Callahan, falling back like a frightened elf to the blade. side of Tommy's chair. But the man's blazing eyes followed him. Then, in a twinkling, Joe's lower as the hands of the clock crept from nine demeanor changed. His hands relaxed. His frown vanished. He laid the knife on the table. His face took on a smile that was positively sweet.

"Ah, sonny, I wuz on'y foolin' wid yer", said he in wheedling style. "Bluss ver little heart. wouldn't scare ye fer anything. Aint he a fine little feller, Tommy? I've tuck a likin' to him, I have.

"Wasth she 'ike my mama?" asked the heir of the mills, a brave little boy once more

"Naw, she wuzn't like yoor's, boy", answered Joe in a low voice. "His (meaning Tommy) wuz poor: yoor's is rich: his mudther made her sowl out fer yoor's; and they gave her-

Joe's voice broke; he sat down, laid his arms

Consternation and amazement were written on the chubby face of Dunstan's child.

Johnny, without moving from his chair, be gan to sniffle and whimper, as he watched his father's bent form shaking with sobs.

Tommy's gulpings reached Joe's ears, and he rose up, his care-worn face wet with tears walked over to his son, laid a trembling hand on his back and in a hoarse whisper said: There, there, laddie. Niver mind bhoy.

She's better off where she is, instid of shlaving in the dirty mills. I'll give ye yer supper, lad. I'll gie ye yer supper now. He had boiled the coffee on the stove, and laid two plates, two cups and knives and forks on the table, and fried a miserable chunk o beef that was boiled the previous evening. "Come, laddie, sit over to't now."

Johnny sat over to the near end of the table Joe put all but a little bit of the meat on the boy's plate and poured out coffee for him. There was no milk, no butter, no sugar. Tommy began to eat. The boy finished the meal in fifteen minutes. During that period not a word was said. Joe sat with bowed head at the other end of the table, and ate nothing. While the child of Dunstan cowered like a mouse by Tommy's side.
"Tommy, me lad", said Joe at last in that whining voice. "I got a bit of a cold; I feel it creepin' on me. Wull ye go an' buy me some whuskey, laddie?"

"Naw, I won't", snapped Tommy, alarmed "Ye'll git in trouble if yer start drinkin' again, pop. It aint no good startin' that again. Yes aint had none fer eight months now. It'll only gie ye in trouble, same as it allers does. Naw. Don't ax me to go fer it."

"Do as I tell ye, or ye'll feel the weight o me fishts", snarled Joe, leaping up. "Here's "Here's the money—a quart o' whusky at Rielly's. If he axes ye if its fer me, tell him no; it's fer the people nex' door. Garn."

With fist upraised e drove the door.

"D'ye see annything ye'd like to eat here", he said to Dunstan's boy.

"No. fank you". "Ye have better'n this at your house, ch

What d'ye have now fer supper?"

"Caketh and toasth and chopth", lisped the child, his teeth chattering with cold.

"By Christ, it's good ye want none of ours It's just enough to sund us back to the mills If we did'nt go back, ye might not have yer chops an' yer toast." "I wanta go home now," said the heir of the mills, his blue eyes with with fright. "Hauld ver tongue. Ye'll go home in

"My mama and papa and my nurseth Ant ette will be wanting me.

"Yus, I knaw't. I knaw't", said Joe with a hellish grin. "My bhoy an' me have been wantin' his mudther fer mony a long day, too. Let thim wait, the hoonds. Let thim wait."

Tommy returned, carrying a black bottle, which he deposited on the table. "Yer a gud bhoy, Tommy", said Joe sweetly.

taking up the bottle. He poured the liquor into ture of the train, and not when on its journey. his cup until the dark stuff was but an inch from the brim; then he guiped down the raw jobs, and many who refused to proceed further from the brim; then he guiped down the raw jobs, and many who refused to proceed further is to have blank forms printed on which are on hand in the General Office, room 307 Morwhiskey. Three times within a space of ten had to forfeit that dollar, besides having to question as to conditions of the job, location minutes, he loaded the cup and emptied it. walk back about ten miles."

Color came into his face, and he grinned more frequently.

up the bottle. ". It'll warm ye, lad."

this concoction, a punch made of whiskey and

Twice he noured a man's drink into Tommy's cup; twice he walked with unsteady feet to the stove and poured in coffee.

When the hands of the battered alarm clock by the stove pointed to nine o'clock, Tommy, carefully to make sure that no one was sleep, heavy with liquor, slumbered in his chair, Joe

"Tommy! D'ye hear me. Wake up!" cried "Whereth your mama?" he lisped.

Joe straightened up rigidly, as if a cold there no longer." Joe was drunk. His speech blast had found his vitals. His hands dropped was thick. He rose unsteadily, lifted Tommy to his sides, the right clutching the long knife, from the chair, set him on his feet and pushed The fist threatened to burst through the skin. The boy flung himself, fully dressed, on the bed. and in a few minutes was breathing heavily in

> Restless, the drunken man cleared the table of all but the bottle, the cup, the long bread knife, and the candlo that stood in a tin candleholder and lit the kitchen dimly, Then he paced up and down the floor. Back and forth. Back and forth. Back and forth. Six, seven, eight. Back and forth, feeling, swaying, muttering to himself, and glaring at the child whose, golden head was now beginning to nod in slumber. Joe passed into the bedroom. Looking at his son, he whispered:

"Are ye asleep, lad?"

Tommy was fast asleep. The drunken man returned to the kitchen, closed the door, and sat down again by the bottle and the shining

The black tide in the bottle sank lower and

"Here, wake up, sonny", said Joe in whining "I want to talk t'ye. I tuck a likin' t'ye, I did. Thot's Gawd's truth. Whut are ye goin' to be whin ye grow up, now. Tell's thot?"

"My mama saysth I'll go to college and learn to be a gentleman."

"Yus, a gentlemon", sneered Callahan. Thot's a fine occupashun, sure enough. An' they teach it in the colluges. They'll teach ye that it's onpolite to step on a mon's toe; but its gud conduct t' live on his back fer a lifetime. They'll tell ye that it's onpolite t' hauld yer seat in a shtreet car whin a woman's standthe feast; your's et it; his mother shlaved in up; but it's right an' proper t' turrn wimmin an' children out into the snaw whin they can't on the table, and, with his face in his arms, They'll tell ye that it's empolite t' eat yer soup onpolite, they'll tell ye, to go t' the oprey widan' hunger. It's onpolite ta' have black finger nails, if yer a gentlemon; but it's the proper durty mill an' hold thim there fer ten hours, doin' work that maims the hands, an' the body Indianapolis. an' the brain. It's right an' proper t' kill a child of a workingman wid a thunderin' mill; but it's a hangin' offense t' kill a child of a gentlemon wid a kni—"

(Concluded in our next issue)

TO NORTH DAKOTA READERS. You North Dakota Readers who have been ondering why the "industrial Worker" is being sent you are hereby informed that we have taken over the mailing list of the defunct North Dakota Call of Devils Lake and will fill out all unexpired subscriptions.

This means a big expense without immediate returns, as we have no advertisers to tell a tale of greater sales to be had from 1500 new readers. Our payment is in the thought of reach ing many who have not before heard the message of industrialism. The actual cash returns must come from your renewals.

The paper is sent at the expense of rebellious wage slaves who must weigh each penny be fore spending, so we ask you not to cast the paper aside unread.

We know that many on the list are not wage workers. Many of you are employing farmers Your immediate interests and those of the men you hire are opposed and this paper will at al times stand for the wage workers. To be perfectly frank, we do not ask you to renew less you are broad enough socialists to see further than your harvest fields-into a state of society where there are no classes.

if you are afraid of an idea, do not renew. is printed for propagands, not to profit and your name on our list is valueless unless you read of the principles for which we stand.

What we ask from you at present is a careful reading of several issues so as to gain an idea of how we wage slaves propose to overthrow capitalism and manage society in our own interesta.

A CROOKED DEAL

The following incident is said to have happened recently in Ontario, according to a writer in Cotton's Weekly:

"The Pigeon River Lumber Co. hired through agents in Port Arthur and Fort William in the crippled many a strike. Without knowing neighborhood of 100 men for the woods at $30 to $40 per month.

After the train left Fort William an official of the lumber company went through the train and altered the men's contracts to $26 to $30 pects of winning are slim indeed. per month.

Now, this seems to me to be a rotten deal, full of deceit and cowardliness. In fairness, of having information in advance. Much more such action is spreading among the packers. the least they could have done, would have been to alter those contracts before the depar-

These men all paid $1 fee to obtain their

AT THEIR OLD TRICKS

"There's a sucker born every minute A dhrop wid hot coffee in't. Harbor district to act as loggers. With all the retaries should impress upon the members the fakes sprung in the camps in the past few could again be fooled by the bosses, but an old trick in a new dress is being sprung and some this plan used we soon would have invaluable are falling for the game.

Take a squint at the following: "Constitution of the Grays Harbor Loggers Çlub. 1. The name shall be Grays Harbor Loggers Club.

2. Its members shall be composed exclu sively of loggers. 3. The object of the club shall be fo unite all loggers for the social and personal improvement at all times of all its members. 4. Any member of the club who shall refuse to abide by the rules and regulations of the club may be excluded from the club by majority vote of its members. 5. The entrance fee shall be $2.50. monthly dues will be 75c payable three months in advance."

- This organization was recently launched. The bosses kindly consented to address its meeting in Aberdeen. The Commercial Club is giving it a boost. The pickbandle brigade are strong for it. It is reported that when a large mem bership is gained the whole outfit will be turned over to the A. F. of L.

The rebel loggers in Grays Harbor look upon the Club as an attempt of the employers to head off the I. W. W. and are determined to redouble their efforts to unite the loggers into a real organization that stand for their class

HOW'S THIS FOR HOW'S HOBOES! By Jim Seymour.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 22.-The Brotherhood Welfare Association, locally known as "How's Hoboes," held a meeting today to discuss the merits of the ideas advocated by the I. W. W. for the overthrow of capitalism. James Eads How, "millionaire hobo," founder of the organ ization, stated that neither religion nor politics could accomplish anything toward the amelioration of the condition of the down-and-outs. He recommended the program of the I. W. W., including sabotage, stating that altho the latter might be considered unethical by the capitalist class, it should be used by the workers on the grounds that the end justifies the means.

person. He was the object of ridicule among socialist circles in Milwaukee when the hobo convention was held in that city, Victor Berger going so far as to condemn editorially the whole outfit because they did not vote the Sogle ye rent fer a house that ye never built, cial-Democratic ticket. The fact that they had no votes never entered the indomitable Vick's wid the wrang shpoon; but it's all right t' eat head. Neither How nor his followers were soup that's the fruit o' children's labor. It's revolutionary enough for the Milwaukee leader. Yet, now comes How the gentle, How the out a shpike-tail coat; but its all right t' break Christlike, How the soft-spoken who always the hearts o' wimin' an' children wid hard work turns the other cheek, actually championing borrid sabotage and any other form of direct action that will get the goods. Verily, evolucaper t' drive helpless wimin an' children into tion plays some mysterious tricks, turning yellow to red in St. Louis and red to yellow in

At the meting a referendum was proposed by the Kansas City division of the association, calling for a vote to change the name of the organization to International Migratory Workers.

PLANNING FOR POWER. By Fred Isler.

The leading industries of the Northwest are mining, transportation, and lumbering. The miners and men working around the mines are largely organized. The skilled mechanics trainmen, and sailors, employed at transportation are partially organized in the various Brotherhoods and trades unions. In the lumber industry the men are still unorganized with the exception of the Shingle Weavers and several locals of the I. W. W. To get them properly organized is the problem that faces us with a demand for immediate attention.

The I. W. W. has already done much organization and agitation. Largely through our efforts the timber workers in many places have gained higher wages and better conditions. In Western Montana, Puget Sound, Grays Harbor and other places, marshalled under the L.W. W. anner they forced increased wages from the Lumber Barons. But what has been done is small to what is yet to be accomplished.

The lumber workers must be organized and the question arises: How shall we proceed in Seatle than any other organization, its foremost order to form a powerful union? A few classicachievement being the establishment of the fied suggestions, which may prove of advan-Information.

It is of utmost importance that we have knowledge of conditions in the camps and mills. systematic way to get the information should be used in the office of the National Industrial Union and at the various local union headquarters. Lacking information it is impossible to even attempt organization without wasting SALMON PACKERS MUST BE ORGANIZED. time, money and opportunity. Often our efforts are spent in a futile endea or to organize in a locality where there is no chance to get results, while elsewhere a spiendid opportunity for propaganda is neglected through lack of information. This lack has camp locations, job conditions, rates of wages, existing discontent, and the best and quickest way to travel from place to place it is impossible to swiftly extend a strike and the pros

The strike of the loggers of Puget Sound and could have been done had we been in possession of reliable data. The lesson of that strike Stockton street every Wednesday night. should never be forgotten.

The best way to get the desired information of camp or mill, number of men employed, date Ill. The price is $5.00 per 100.

of pay day, railroad connections, etc. These blanks, with addressed envelopes, should be "Ye'll take a sup o' this, Tommy?" He held goodly number of them migrate to the Grays given to members going to work. Local secimportance of filling out the blanks fully and Tommy nodded. Many times he had had years there should not be many loggers who accurately. When the blanks are returned they should be tabulated and recorded. Were information for use at all times. It would prove to be one of our strongest assets:

Finances.

A successful organization campaign require funds. A special appeal for a large sum to be used for nothing but organization work should be made at once.

Some will say that funds cannot be raised and a thousand reasons advanced as to the impossibility of such a move. But there have een fellow workers in the past who ignored the excuses advanced and by going after the money they got it. Start the work systematically and many will gladly contribute their mite for organization. Funds can be raised by contribution lists, hall and street meetings, smokers, balls and in many other ways, according to localities and conditions.

Organizers. With the funds thus collected several good Northwest should be divided into districts, not price. like the United Mine Workers of America with different district organizations, but so that organization work in certain limits shall be under the direction of the organizer and the locals in that territory. The organizers should be the best the unio can afford. They must thoroughly understand industrial unionism and should also have a working knowledge of bookkeeping so as to train members to act as secretaries. One of their duties would be to instruct as many men bers as possible to act as camp delegates.

visit the camps and milis. A complete report of organization activity should be sent to the office of the National Industrial Union every two weeks. The re ports should be filed so the Executive Roard would always know how the work was progress sing.

Whenever circumstances permit they should

Organizers should be removed from their district only when proven incompetent or finances are lacking. It is absurd to withdraw an organizer from a locality just as results begin to materialize. When a locality or district is left to shift for itself, the gains are soon lost. How has the reputation of being a very timid Organizers must be kept in the field at all cost and when one leaves a place another should be sent in at once. Past experience should teach that.

Camp Delegates.

Camp delegates are the vanguard of organization. Many who in the past have acted as such have done invaluable work. More should now be in the field. Local secretaries should arm all active and efficient members with credentials, books, stamps and literature. Several hundred new delegates should be at work this winter. For their guidance and to keep a record of dues and initiations collected, a spe cial camp delegate blank should be printed.

Literature.

Literature is essential to organization work Along with the books and pamphlets dealing with the general subject of industrial unionism there should be timely leaflets dealing with conditions in the lumber industry. These should be widely distributed in a systematic manner. They should be short, interesting and to the point. Leaflets in foreign language are also necessary.

Much more could be said on this subject The object of this article is to get the mem bership of the Lumber Workers union to study organization and to find the best means for uniting the lumber workers in the I. W.

These suggestions are not infallible. If they be rejected, some other plan should be present ed that will enable us to build up a real power ful union in the lumber industry. We must make a start. Now is the right time. We mus use system in organizing and the sooner we get down to concrete business the sooner will the One Big Union be established in the mills and camps.

SEATTLE TAILORS HOLD ANNUAL BALL

The annual ball of Local 194, I. W. W., of Scattle, Wash., held on Sunday, Dec. 15, at Minuet Hall, was a great success socially and financially. Similar entertainments to bring the members closer together will be held from time to time

Local 194 has done more for the tailors of eight hour day.

The members are mainly Jewish All ar good, sincere fighters. In the face of opposition from the Employers Asociation and scabbery on the part of the Journeymen Tailors the I. W. W., War and the Workers, Appeal to of America—A. F. of L.—they are forging ahead. Still greater benefits are expected within a Eight Hour Day and several other leaflets.

After considering the sacrifices necessary to organize the Alaskan Salmon Packers, Local 380, of San Francisco, Cal., has decided to enter the fight harder than ever.

Between now and the sailing date in March they will line up the 5.000 Latin speaking work ers in the industry with a little financial aid from the Pacific Coast locals of the L. W. W.

The most important demand that will be made is that the packers be hired direct by the company instead of through a series of agents. Failing to gain that demand they will endeavor to tie up all Alaskan sailing ships on the millmen of Gray's Harber showed the need the San Francisco wharves. The agitation for Local 380, I. W. W., holds a meeting at 1660

The I. W. W. constitution in Italian is no

WHO KNOWS P. VANNECOLAT P. Vannecola, an Italian, recently died in a hospital at Tacoma, Wash. He wore an I. W. W. button but carried no card on his person. Anyone knowing of his relatives will kindly communicate with them regarding the death.

AN OPERATION NECESSARY.

Fellow worker Fred Quirion of Local 327, who was injured while on picket duty at Savona, B. C., on the C. N. R. R., must be operated upon at once. The cost will be $250.

Local $22, Vancouver, B. C., collected $23.60 at their meeting on last Sunday night. Other Northwest locals and individual members should give assistance as well.

Slides showing Quirion as he lay in the hospital can be had on request. Apply for slides and send all contributions to S. G. Johanson, Sec. 322, I. W. W., 34 Cordova Street, West Vancouver. B, C.

A BIG NICKLE'S WORTH

Without question the pamphlet "On the Firing Line" is the greatest value ever offered by the labor movement.

Forty-eight pages, large, clear type, fine grade of paper, a neat and durable cover, and a organizers should be put in the field. The list of contents seldom offered at twice the The McNamara case, the Lawrence Strike, the Ettor-Giovannitti arrest and other class conflicts of the past year are set forth. The enemies of the workers are severely flayed and the I. W. W. position clearly given. All this in the plainest of words so none can misunder stand.

The price is only 5 cents for a single copy or $3.00 per 100. Three-fourths of the edition is already sold. Order at once.

MR. BLOCK POST CARDS.

In response to a demand we have started the publication of the Mr. Block cartoons in postcard form. They are just the thing to use when dropping a note to a friend.

To commence the series we have issued two cards—one where Mr. Block invests his savings in hopes of becoming wealthy, and the other where he joins the A. F. of L. so he can have a license to scab.

The price of the cards is 50c per 100 or 10c per dozen. Send your order to Box 2129, Spokane, Wash.

SOLIDARITY.

Organ of the l. W. W., published in New Castle, Pa. A revolutionary weekly with up-to-date news of all Eastern labor matters as well as general news of the class struggle.

Subscription price is $1.00 per year, 13 weeks for 25c, bundle orders 1 1/2c per copy. You need it as well as the "Worker."

Address P. O. Box 622, New Castle, Pa.

Local 419, I. W. W., Redlands, Cal., has moved headquarters from 13 W. Central ave., to 211 Fifth street.

The "Industrial Worker" and Solidarity are each $1.00 per year. We have practically eliminated all duplication of articles and now offer you the chance to have both Eastern and Western news in full at only $1.50 per year. If combination subscription is Canadian or foreign, the price is $2.00 per year.

Lost-Between Eugene and Portland, Ore., card of Patrick McQuirk, No. 103589. Finder please return to Box 47, Eugene, Ore.

ETTOR AND GIOVANNITTI Before the Jury at Salem, Mass. Speech stenographically reported and published verbatim in a 120 page pamphiet. Revolutionary to the core. A scathing arraignment of the wage system.

Nicely bound. Large type 26c per copy. $10.00 per 100. Send all orders to Vincent St. John, 307-164 W. Washington St., Chicago, III.

WHAT TO READ ON INDUSTRIAL UNION-

18M. Industrial Unionism the Road to Freedom,

los. J. Ettor. Eleven Blind Leaders, B. H. Williams.

The I. W. W. Its History, Aims and Methods, Vincent St. John. The Ettor and Giovannitti Case, William D.

Haywood. Proletarian and Petite Bourgeois. Austin Lewis. Patriotism and the Worker, Gustave Herve.

Why Strikes are Lost and How to Win, Wm. E. Trautman. Industrial Union Methods, Wm. E. Trautman.

Industrial Unionism, Eugene V. Debs.

Union Scabs. Two Kinds of Unionism, Is the I. W. W. anti Political? Political Parties and Wage Workers. Getting Recognition, The

All of the above leaflets and any one of the above namphiets will be sent to any address post paid for ten cents. All the above pamphlets and leaflets are fifty cents Address Industrial Workers of the World. 807-164 W. Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Ten letters for Frank C. Manton are at 211 Occidental avenue, rear, Seattle, Wash, LOST-Card of Berger C. Peterson, No. 13367. Finder please return to 211 Occidental avenue, rear, Seattle, Wash.

DIRECTORY OF LOCALS DIRECTORY OF LOCALS

Australian Administration, industrial Workers of the World—Ed Moyle, Ceneral Secretary-Treasurer, Wakefield Street, Adelaide.

Adelaide Local—R. Powell, Secretary-Treasurer, Wakefield Street, Adelaide.

Sydney Local—George G. Reeve, Secretary-Treasurer, 3122 Cumberland Street, Sydney, Auckland Local—F. H. Torrey, Secretary-Treasurer, Queen's Building, Wellesley St, Auckland (New Zealand), Christ Church Local—Syd. Kingsford, Secretary-Treasurer, 3 Jude's Building, Christ Church Local—Syd. Kingsford, Secretary-Treasurer, 3 Jude's Building, Christ Church (New Zealand).

The last of the agreement, as published by "Open Shop" Phelps, reads: "Organized labor sets forth their position very clearly as to what attitude they propose to take with labor used within the fair grounds and city limits of San Francisco. Admission fee to join any union during the period of the exposition construction will be practically free, and very nominal dues for maintenance is all that will be asked of the men who care to join the union. But no man will be compelled to join a union to secure work or the exposition grounds. However, should any workman leave the exposition grounds and seek employment in the city, he will be expected to be governed by the conditions provided therein, that is to say, affiliate with some union. Organized labor will not interfere with any construction on the exposition grounds. Any contractor wishing to use all union workmen, they will be furnished. If he prefers non-union workmen, he will not be interfered with. If he prefers union and non-union workmen, or open shop, we will urnish our part of the labor—so say the San Francisco.

Labor Council's officials."

Sixty votes were cast against the Gallagher-McCarthy-McLaughlin agreement in the Labor Council. The gang was there in force, how-

McCarthy-McLaughlin agreement in the Labor The gang was there in force, however, and railroaded it through.

In my first story of the San Francisco labor movement. I made a slight mistake. I said that the principal business of a recent starchamber session in the Labor Council was a discussion of the housesmith's demand for an eight hour day. I was right in saying that the Tompkins, here took the floor. He called the housesmiths' trouble was brought to the floor attention of the miners present to the disthat night. In fact, it was being discussed ruptive effects of the card system wherever while non-members were filing out. Nothing employed, and reported strongly in favor of a was done in the housesmith's affair, however, the gang by their silence concurring in the action of the Building Trades which forced the housesmiths back to nine hours. The business of that closed session was the "putting over" of the Fair "agreement." All delegates were bound to strict socrecy. Even men who lay claim to revolutionary ideas were afraid to tell what had taken place.

I weep for such revolutionists. We shall never be rid of the unclean gang that rules San Francisco as long as we make ourselves parties to their crimes by hiding the story from the light of day.

Let us drag them from under their sheep's clothing. The A. F. of L. is a rotten, rat-ridden President Murphy declared the motion carried ship on the swelling sea of progress. The big wind of revolution is beating upon it. Some day, perhaps it is not distant, the bounding seas of working-class progress, the waves of revolt, will pour into the Compers ship, and drown all the vermin that is eating deeper and deeper, day by day, into its timbers.

"Open Shop" Phelps is jubilant. part of the fair ground is on the government "inside the fence" has become general here. side of it, we'll have the Presideo with it soldiers. The Presideo is a government military the hall. post, you know. And then there are the forts on the Points-Fort This and Fort That-and the Federal prison on Alcatraz Island. It was The sentiment evpressed by the immense meet reported in the city yesterday, that military ing wyss unanimously that the present union prisoners from Alcatraz were engaged in work on the Fair grounds. Organized labor will not object to that. Read the agroement, and you from the Western Federation of Miners." will see that they cannot consistently do m Organized labor will not interfere with any or all of the labor that may be used in the construction of the big fair", says the agreement. "Open Shop" Phelps has some good words

Now, how did this come about? Somewhat in this wise. As soon as the City of San Francisco war decided upon, the Pacific Coast Mechanic, as the mouthpiece of many, and in conjunction with a number of other influences, began a steady campaign with the intent of making clear to those in charge that in order to avoid a repetition of the failures at St. Louis and Jamestown, it would be absolutely necessary to eliminate all possible chance of failure by adopting the broad American policy of "open shop" in the building of the Fair. Now P. H. McCarthy besides being the leader of the unions in San Francisco is a director on the board of the Fair Company. Hence ho was between two fires. On the one hand he saw the strong desire for open shop backed up by threats of "No exhibits at a closed shop fair," and on the other hand the strong effort to keep the fair within the high walls of the closed shop method. Now any one who looks upon P. H. McCarthy as a for P. H. McCarthy. He writes narrow-minded man is mistaken. Mr. McCar-thy possesses both wisdom and foresight, backed by courage. Seeing the real state of ossesses boom do by courage. Beeing the real state of and having the courage to yield to these and having the promote the general affairs and having the courage to yield to these conditions in order to promote the general good, Mr. McCarthy entered into this agreement as representing the unions. On the part of the Fair Company it was met not only with pleasure, but in the spirit of fair play, and so the "mutual" protection was guaranteed. On the part of the unions, the first feeling was that McCarthy had "put one over" on his followers. We believe, however, that this feeling is wearing away. Particularly as part of the plan was the doing away with the initiation fee usual in joining the unions, and a reduction in the monthly dues. On the surface it looks as if Mr. McCarthy had simply traded an open shop Mr. McCarthy had simply traded an open shot Ar. a temporary thing, for a closed shop city—
a perpetual thing. The Pacific Coast Mechanic is willing, however, to give Mr. McMarthy credit for a little higher motive than such a supposition would indicate. It may be that is willing, however, we have coming any properties willing to a little higher motive than such a supportion would indicate. It may be that this idea was to add strength to his unions. Even so, we believe that he has in mind a much more broad and useful plan for the conduct of the unions in the future. We believe that he saw that closed shop methods of unionism were killing San Francisco. Mr. McCarthy does not wish to kill San Francisco, because when that city dies commercially Mr. McCarthy will either have te die or more. No Mr. McCarthy sees that if he wishes to retain his nower—which after all is on the wane-his nower—which was counting the collection in a room off the stage, the police captain the more people to the hall as the all is want-his nower—which after all is on the wane-his nower—which was counting the collection in a room off the stage, the police captain the collection in a room off the stage, the police captain the collection in a room off the stage, the police captain the would like to speak to the manufacture.

San Francisco is weary of union domination, and Mr. McCarthy has become keenly conscious but that along new and truer and broader lines his power may be regained."

THE RUSTLING CARD SYSTEM IN BUTTE. (Continued from page 1)

company regarding the rustling card system A minority member of the committee, named repudiation by the Miners' Union of the new system. Brother Tompkins was repeatedly in terrupted by the president, Murphy, and other officials on the platform, while the miners in the body of the hall showed their unanimous approval of his report by applauding and urging him to continue.

A motion to adopt the majority report was so unitedly shouted down that the president did not even attempt to put the motion. While a score or more were on their feet moving the adoption of the minority report, the president entertained a motion of one of his henchmen to adjourn, but the motion, and although less han fifty voted aye, and fully 1400 voted NO He and his henchmen, including the majority of the committee appointed by him at Tues day night's meeting, left the platform, and turning out the lights they left the stage, sneak ed out of the hall, leaving the meeting in dark ness. Possibly one hundred and fifty miners left the hall when the lights were put out, but practically all of them came upstairs again when they saw the Auditorium lighted up and reservation, around the Presideo, and will, of learned that the meeting was being continued course, be under the jurisdiction of the United in spite of the disruptive efforts of the officers States government. Already the expression When the meeting proceeded to the election of a chairman, the hall was crowded, and if any The working class has been up against such miners followed Murphy and his henchmen fences for many, many decades. We had them from the hall, they were not missed. If any in Homestead, in Cripple Creek, in France and thing, the latter part of the meeting, presided in Russia. We've been up against fences a over by Joseph Shannon, was more largely atlong while. But the fence around the Fair tended than the opening session. This in spite will be a Government fence. On the bosses' of the lying statements of the daily papers that less than 500 remained after the officers left

Brother Tompkins' report was then read in full, and adopted with but one dissenting voice. officials should not only be recalled as officers of the union, but that they merited expulsion

ETTOR AT PROVIDENCE. By Francis Miller.

The committee in charge of the meeting advertised it as a "Welcome to Ettor and Giovan nitti and a right royal welcome it high walls of the closed shop method. Now the train, he was surrounded by a cheering, one who looks upon P. H. McCartby as a struggling mass, all trying to shake hands with him at once. It took some strenuous work on his part and two members of the committee to get started for the hall.

Thomas J. Powers acted as chairman. Dr James Reid, Socialist Representative and rebel, in a speech of twenty minutes started the meeting at the proper pitch. Nicola Vecchi, an italian orator from New York, delivered the goods, judging from the enthusiasm he arouses

As Ettor came on the stage the orchestra struck up the Italian "Hymn of Labor." Ther the storm broke loose—the cheering lasting several minutes.

Before introducing Ettor, the chairman made an appeal for a collection. The sum of $142.20

Joe made a great speech to a sympathetic power—which after all is on the wane—crowded (against the law) and more power must meet changed conditions and ideas, were coming all the time. This would OPEN SHOP WILL BUILD WORLD'S FAIR: San Francisco is certainly very, very slow in friction and arguments at the doors. When the committee agreed to this, the worthy capear may hear the stir among all classes of her citizens in the desire for industrial freedom. captain and lieutenant were silk gloved servants of the peopul!

Some contrast to the last big protest meet ing in the same hall, when four patrol wagons was the organization of 52 plantation laborers side down. It is true, we do want to turn the police captain Merrill in trying to take a red of others for membership on the following pay on its head. Ours will be a fighting union. We flag from a parade preceding the meeting. In- day. cidentally Merrill and his cops got much the worst of it.

Over 500 pamphlets were sold. Ettor's "In dustrial Unionism," and the "Ettor-Caroti Debate" in Italian. Truly a wonderful meeting. In the evening Joe spoke to an Italian So cialist Federation delegation from Pawtucket R. I., and Fall River, Taunton and Franklin, mean a big strike. Reports are current to the greatest prize in the world, to gain the world Mass. Although Ettor wanted to return to effect that a demand for $1 per day straight Lawrence for a meeting, he was simply kidnapped and forced to stay for a banquet at night.

About one hundred sat down to the banque -all revolutionists Italian business men politicians and others offered fancy prices to get in, but nothing doing.

This fittingly closed a great day for the revo lutionists, a day of celebration and tremer propaganda.

> THE I. L. A. IN HONOLULU. By A. V. Roe.

The International Longshoremans Associa tion in Honolulu is a "bona-fide wage workers organization." Sure! Listen to Who's Who in Honolulu.

The president is George Hanner. He is turn ey of the city and county jail.

The financial secretary is G. K. Heawsham He is guard at the city and county jail. The vice-president is W. R. Aluli. He is an attorney-at-law. Then there is Johnnie Wilson, a large con-

He is a leading member. When the slaves in Ettor's satire on the courts, on justice, preach the union wanted to strike for a raise from ers, lawyers, etc., was received with tremen $1.60 to $2.00, Johnnie Wilson advised them as and as their employer that the time was not speech as follows: There was no strike. There is also another leader, the great prole-for congress, who said from the soap box in and factories of the country. The means used the last campaign, that he had accumulated by the capitalists to enslave us are the He is an ex-sugar-planter. The l. L. A. is on its last legs in the islands.

used only to play cards in. Those members sea of revolt." who are real working men are talking of having the union join the I. W. W. in a body, leaving the fakers outside. Some have already joined as individuals.

The future is grey for the fake I. L. A. and bright for the I. W. W.

tain almost salaamed. For this day at least the ganizers in the Hawaiian Islands, was taken tem is not offering any hopfrom his bed on Nov. 20 by the plantation own- over the cost, we will pay. We must never ers and after being kicked by the thugs he was quit."

geverely beaten with heavy whips. His offence "They say we want to turn the world upseverely beaten with heavy whips. His offence were standing outside, due to a riot started by into the I. W. W. and the lining up of a number world upside down, because it is now standing > bosses were so thoroughly frightened by the will save our human lives. We are going to spirit with which the laborers accepted the l. win in this struggle. We can not lose, for we W. W. philosophy that they voluntarily raised have nothing to lose. We can not be poorer wages from $20 to $24 per month. Those who than we are. When we win, the prize will have had joined were not fired because the spies of been worth fighting for. To be sure, it is a the employers reported that to do so would gamble, but we are willing to gamble for the will soon be made.

After turning in the 52 applications, B. Duck Sue immediately left for the plantations to se cure the applications of those who had promised to join.

In the parks of Honolulu the agitation is still carried on. Speeches from the band stand have men declared illegal but the local has continued them just the same. The city attorney says that the streets are open to all except the I. W. W. and later on the organization may decide to gain for itself the privilege that is ac corded the religious and other organizations.

The spirit of revolt is permeating the plants tion laborers and before long the labor condi- these gentry parade the sidewalks. kicking tions will be better in the "Paradise of the Pacific."

PHILADELPHIA GREETS JOE ETTOR.

Two thousand persons crowded into Lyric Hall in Philadelphia, Pa., on the afternoon of December 22, to hear Joe Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti. . Again at night the same hall was packed. Giovannitti spoke in Italian and took the house by storm, the applause lasting many tractor, employing slaves all over the islands. minutes after he had concluded his remarks. dous enthusiasm and interest. The Philadelbrother unionists," as manager of the l. L. A., phia Public Ledger reports a portion of his "If there were an open revolution in this country there would not be as many people tarian, L. I. McCandless, defeated candidate killed as annually give their lives in the mines $250,000 worth of real estate in the past ten with which we can free ourselves. Fellow years and had earned it all by the sweat of his workingmen, our interests are common. Ours is an historic mission-it is to make us free men and women. The darkest prison dungeon Their treasury consists of $17. Their hall is in the world will be unable to check the rising

"As long as children must work, as long as women must work, and as long as we must continue our present methods of 'work, so long will there be the possibility of atrikes, riots and violent eruptions. Conditions are bad, fellow workers. The capitalists are establishing

When COREAN ORGANIZER BEATEN BY THUGS. a condition of affairs that is becoming unbear-B. Duck Sue, one of the Corean L. W. W. or able. Let them say what they please, this syswant to put human life above everything. We Sue was ordered out of the county but the will consign everything to the devil, but we all the struggle and all the enthusiasm."

Collections were taken at each meeting for the benefit of the strikers at Little Falls, N. Y.

Persecuting Strikers

Little Falls, N. Y., Dec. 22.-The announcement by Fred H. Moore and Richard Hurley, attorneys for the textile strikers, that the strikers are justified, according to law, in protecting themselves to the limit of their ability when attacked and beaten on the streets by special policemen, has had a distinctly quieting effect on the situation here. No longer do strikers into the gutters wherever found.

Following the exposures in the New York World written by a staff correspondent here and the open letters of John A. Fitch and Paul Kennada, of the Survey Press, to Labor Commissioner Williams, Chief of Police Long hastily began to get rid of his specials. Last night a dozen of them were unostentatiously shipped out of town on the midnight train. The result is that the South Side, the working class district, is as quiet and peaceful as a churchyard.

Brute force having failed to break the strike, there are signs that more subtle methods are going to be employed. The attempt to evict the strikers from their soup kitchen was one of these. The sudden demand of the Slavic Sokol Club for an exorbitant rental for the use of their hall as strike headquarters is believed to be another. Now comes a third. Lawyer Moore has sub-leased a small room from an architect on Main street for us eas an office. Plainclothes men constantly watch the place. No doubt reports of activities seen there have been duly reported, for yesterday the rich woman who owns the building made a demand that all people associated with the I. W. W. must get out immediately. The lady will be conferred with personally tomorrow and if she insists on her demand, there will be nothing to do but get out. Another office will be difficult to procure, as every effort has been made to arouse the prejudice of the people against anything that smacks of the I. W. W.

The petty persecutions directed against the strikers are innnumerable, not only in Little Falls but in the vicinity. For example two young girl strikers went to Amsterdam yesterday on the invitation of the Socialists there for the purpose of collecting. money from sympathizers. They had hardly begun work when the police served notice on them that if they continued they would be arrested for being common beggars.

Two strikers who were released a day ago after being kept in jail for 31 days without trial reported to the strike committee that the police tried to induce them to plead guilty before they were released. This failing, the chief of the fire department called them aside and informed them in a confidential fashion that it was Lawyer Fred Moore had had them sent to jail and "warned" them not to have anything more to do with the said lawyer. He was a grafter, they were told, and was living in splendor on the strike funds!

A comic incident was associated with the re lease of these two men. A policeman searched them before they were turned out and found in their pockets a copy of the "Epworth Herald", a religious journal given them by a jail missionary. The cop examined it suspicionsly and said: "What's this? A Socialist paper? If I ketch you with any more such truck on you, you'll git 30 days more!"

THE UNION LEADER CORRECTED! Under the above head the Arm and Torch of Toledo, Ohio, issue of Dec. 21, answers the reactionary Toledo Union Leader as follows: ."Last week's Toledo Union Leader says that the Little Falls strike has been amicably settled by the A. F. of L. "The Leader means that the strike would have been settled weeks ago on the mill owners' terms, if the five lack spinners, members of the United Textile Workers, acting as special police, commissioned by the city and paid by the mill owners, had had their way. If Mr. Golden, president of the United Textile Workers, affiliated with the A. F. of L. could have his way, the strike would be settled. If the little bunch of skilled weavers who belong to Mr. Golden's organization could have their way the strike would be called off. It was the members of this organization who tried to work when the Lawrence strike was in progress, but they found that they could not weave cloth without the assistance of the loom fixers who were on strike. The Little Falls strike is the revolt of the poorly paid, the under dogs, and they are not showing the white feather. Dozens of these strikers and agitators are in jail, where they have been subjected to the most brutal treatment. More than 800 have joined the I. W. W. The Little Palls strike is still on as we go to press. Do not believe the Union Leader's misrepresentations, but help these strikers, 70 per cent of whom are women to remain out until they can win. Send all contributions to Matilda Rabinowitz, Box 458, Little Falls, N. Y.

Mr. Block

He Shows The "Damned Foreigners"

Continued Next Week

NOW TO ORGANIZE.

YARD

7.

NIGGER

TO HELL WITH

IT'SA CINCH TO SKIN THEM. I NOPE